PREFACE.

IT hath been the wisdom of the Church of England, ever since the first compiling of her Public Liturgy, to keep the mean between the two extremes, of too much stiffness in refusing, and of too much easiness in admitting, any variation from it. For, as on the one side common experience sheweth, that where a change hath been made of things advisedly established (no evident necessity to requiring) sundry inconveniences have thereupon ensued; and those many times more and greater than the evils that were intended to be remedied by such change. So on the other side, the particular form of Divine Worship, and the Rites and Ceremonies appointed to be used therein, being things in their own nature indifferent, and alterable, and so acknowledged; it is but reasonable, that upon weighty and important considerations, according to the various exigency of times and occasions, such changes and alterations should be made therein, as to those that are in place of Authority should from time to time seem either necessary or expedient. Accordingly we find, that in the Reigns of several Princes of blessed memory since the Reformation, the Church, upon just and weighty considerations her thereunto moving, hath yielded to make such alterations in some particulars, as in their respective times were thought convenient. Yet so, as that the main Body and Essentials of it, (as well in the chiefest materials, as in the Frame and Order thereof) have still continued the same unto this day, and do yet stand firm and unshaken, notwithstanding all the vain attempts and impetuous assaults made against it, by such men as are given to change, and have always discovered a greater regard to their own private fancies and interests, than to that duty they owe to the public.

By what undue means, and for what mischievous purposes, the use of the Liturgy, (though enjoined by the Laws of the Land, and those Laws never yet repealed) came, during the late unhappy confusions, to be discontinued, is too well known to the world, and we are not willing here to remember. But when, upon his Majesty's happy Restoration, it seemed probable that amongst other things, the use of the Liturgy would also return of course (the same having never been legally abolished,) unless some timely means were used to prevent it; those men who under the late usurped powers had made it a great part of their business to render the people disaffected thereunto, saw themselves, in point of Reputation and Interest, concerned (unless they would freely acknowledge themselves to have erred, which such men are very hardly brought to do) with their utmost endeavours to hinder the restitution thereof. In order whereunto divers Pamphlets were published against the book of Common Prayer, the old objections mustered up, with the addition of some new ones, more than formerly had been made, to make the number swell. In fine, great importunities were used to his Sacred Majesty, that the said Book might be revised, and such Alterations therein, and Additions thereunto made, as should be thought requisite for the ease of tender Consciences. Whereunto his Majesty, out of his pious inclination to give satisfaction (so far as could be reasonably expected) to all his subjects, of what persuasion soever, did graciously condescend.

In which review we have endeavoured to observe the like moderation, as we find to have been used in the like case in former times. And therefore of the sundry alterations proposed unto us, we have rejected all such as were either of dangerous consequence (as secretly striking at some established Doctrine, or laudable Practice of the Church of England, or indeed of the whole Catholick Church of Christ,) or else of no consequence at all, but utterly frivolous and vain. But such Alterations as were tendered to us (by what Persons, under what pretences, or to what purpose soever tendered) as seemed to us in any degree requisite or expedient, we have willingly, and of our own accord affented unto: not enforced so to do by any strength of Argument, convincing us of the necessity of making the said Alterations. For we are fully persuaed in our judgements (and we here profess it to the world,) that the book as it stood before established by Law, doth not contain in it any thing contrary to the word of God, or to sound Doctrine, or which a godly man may not with a good Conscience use and submit unto, or which is not fairly defensible against any that shall oppose the same; if it shall be allowed such just and favourable construction, as in common equity ought to be allowed to all Human Writings, especially such as are set forth by Authority, and even to the very best Translations of the holy Scripture itself.

Our general aim therefore in this undertaking was, not to gratify this or that party, in any their unreasonable demands; but to do that, which to our best understandings, we conceived might most tend to the Preservation of peace and unity in the Church; the procuring of Reverence, and exciting of Piety and Devotion in the publick Worship of God; and the cutting off occasion from them that seek occasion of cavil, or quarrel against the Liturgy of the Church. And as to the several variations from the former Book, whether by Alteration, Addition, or otherwise, it shall suffice to give this general account: That most of the Alterations were made, either first for the better direction of them that are to officiate in any part of Divine Service; which is chiefly done in the Calendars and Rubricks; or secondly, for the more proper expressing of some words, or phrares of ancient usage, in terms more suitable to the language of the present times, and the clearer explanation of some other words and phrares, that were either of doubtful signification, or otherwise liable to misconstrution; or thirdly, for a more perfect rendering of such portions of holy Scripture, as are inserted into the Liturgy; which, in the Epistles and Gospels especially, and in sundry other places, are now ordered to be read according to the last Translation; and that it was thought convenient, that some Prayers and Thanksgivings, fitted to special occasions, should be added in their due places, particularly for those at Sea, together with an office for the Baptism of such as are of Riper Years; which, although not so necessary when the former Book was compiled, yet by the growth of Anabaptism, through the licentiousness of the late times crept in amongst us, is now become necessary, and may be always useful for the baptizing of Natives in our Plantations, and others converted to the faith. If any man, who shall desire a more particular account of the several Alterations in any part of the Liturgy, shall take the pains to compare the present Book with the former; we doubt not but the reason of the change may easily appear.

And having thus endeavoured to discharge our duties in this weighty affair, as in the sight of God, and to approve our sincerity therein (so far as lay in us) to the conciences of all men; although we know it impossible (in such variety of apprehensions, humours, and interests, as are in the world) to please all; nor can expect that men of factious, peevish, and perverse spirits, should be satisfied with anything that can be done in this kind by any other than themselves; yet we have good hope, that what is here presented, and have been by the Convocations of both Provinces with great diligence examined and approved, will be also well accepted and approved by all sober, peaceable, and truly conscientious Sons of the Church of England.
CONCERNING THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH.

THERE was never any thing by the wit of man so well devised, or so sure established, which in continuance of time, hath not been corrupted; as, among other things, it may plainly appear by the Common Prayers in the Church, commonly called Divine Service. The first original and ground whereof, if any man would search out by the ancient Fathers, he shall find, that the same was not ordained but of a good purpose, and for a great advancement of godliness. For they so ordered the matter, that all the whole Bible (or the greatest part thereof) should be read over once every Year; intending thereby, that the Clergy, and especially such as were Ministers in the Congregation, should (by often reading and meditation in God's word) be stirred up to godliness themselves, and be more able to exhort others by wholesome Doctrine, and to confute them that were adversaries to the truth; and further, that the people (by daily hearing of the holy Scripture read in the Church) might continually profit more and more in the knowledge of God, and be the more inflamed with the love of his true Religion.

But these many years past, this godly and decent Order of the ancient Fathers hath been so altered, broken, and neglected, by planting in uncertain Stories and Legends, with multitude of Responses, Verses, vain Repetitions, Commemorations, and Synodals; that commonly, when any Book of the Bible was begun, after three or four Chapters were read out, all the rest were unread. And in this fort the Book of Isaiah was begun at Advent, and the Book of Genesis in Septuagesima, but they were only begun, and never read through. After like fort were other Books of holy Scripture used. And moreover, whereas St. Paul would have such language spoken to the people in the Church, as they might understand, and have profit by hearing the same; the Service in this Church of England, these many years hath been read in Latin to the people, which they understand not; so that they have heard with their ears only, and their heart, spirit and mind, have not been edified thereby. And furthermore, notwithstanding that the ancient Fathers have divided the Psalms into seven portions, whereof every one was called a Nocturn; now of late time a few of them have been daily said, and the rest utterly omitted. Moreover, the number and hardness of the rules, called the Pie and the manifold changings of the Service, was the cause, that to turn the Book only was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times there was more business to find out what should be read, than to read it when it was found out.

These inconveniences therefore considered, here is set forth such an Order, whereby the same shall be redressed. And, for a readiness in this matter, here is drawn out a Calendar for that purpose, which is plain and easy to be understood; wherein (so much as may be) the reading of the holy Scripture is so set forth, that all things shall be done in order, without breaking one piece from another. For this cause be cut off Anthems, Responses, Invitatories, and such like things as did break the continual course of the reading of the Scripture.

Yet, because there is no remedy, but that of necessity, there must be some rules; therefore certain rules are here set forth; which, as they are few in number, so they are plain and easy to be understood. So that here you have an Order for Prayer, and for the reading of the holy Scripture, much agreeable to the mind and purpose.
OF CEREMONIES.

of the old Fathers, and a great deal more profitable, and commodious than that which of late was used. It is more profitable, because here are left out many things, whereof some are untrue, some uncertain, some vain and superstitious; and nothing is ordained to be read, but the very pure Word of God, the holy Scripture, or that which is agreeable to the same; and that in such a Language, and Order, as is most easy and plain for the understanding both of the Readers and Hearers. It is also more commodious, both for the shortness thereof, and for the plainness of the Order, and for that the rules be few and easy.

And whereas heretofore there hath been great diversity in saying and singing in Churches within this Realm; some following Salisbury Ufe, some Hereford Ufe, and some the Ufe of Bangor, some of York, some of Lincoln; now from henceforth all the whole Realm shall have but one Ufe.

And forasmuch as nothing can be so plainly set forth, but doubts may arise in the use and practice of the same; to appease all such diversity (if any arise) and for the resolution of all doubts concerning the manner how to understand, do, and execute the things contained in this Book, the parties that so doubt, or diversely take any thing, shall alway resort to the Bishop of the Diocese, who, by his discretion, shall take order for the quieting and appeasing of the same; so that the same order be not contrary to any thing contained in this Book. And if the Bishop of the Diocese be in doubt, then he may send for the resolution thereof to the Archbishop.

THOUGH it be appointed, That all things shall be read and sung in the Church, in the English Tongue, to the end that the congregation may be thereby edified; yet it is not meant but that when men say Morning and Evening Prayer privately, they may say the same in any language that they themselves do understand.

And all Priests and Deacons are to say daily the Morning and Evening Prayer, either privately or openly, not being let by sickness, or some other urgent cause.

And the Curate that ministreth in every Parish Church or Chapel, being at home, and not being otherwise reasonably hindered, shall say the same in the Parish Church or Chapel where he ministreth; and shall cause a Bell to be tolled thereunto a convenient time before he begin, that the people may come to hear God's Word, and to pray with him.

OF CEREMONIES, WHY SOME BE ABOLISHED, AND SOME RETAINED.

Of such Ceremonies as be used in the Church, and have had their beginning by the Institution of man, some at the first were of godly intent and purpose devised, and yet at length turned to vanity and superstition: Some entered into the Church by indiscreet Devotion, and such zeal as was without knowledge; and for because they were winked at in the beginning, they grew daily to more and more Abuses, which not only for their unprofitableness, but also because they have much blinded the people, and obscured the glory of God, are worthy to be cut away, and clean rejected. Others there be, which although they have been devised by man, yet it is thought good to retain them still, as well for a decent Order in the Church (for the which they were first devised) as because they pertain to edification, whereunto all things done in the Church (as the Apostle teacheth) ought to be referred.

And although the keeping or omitting of a Ceremony, in itself considered, is but a small thing; yet the willful and contumacious transgression and breaking of a common Order and Discipline, is no small offence before God, "Let all things be done among you," faith Saint Paul, "in a seemly and due Order." The appointment of which Order pertaineth not to private men; therefore no man ought to take in hand, nor presume to appoint or alter any public or common Order in Christ's Church, except he be lawfully called and authorized thereunto.

And whereas, in this our time, the minds of men are so diverse, that some think it a great matter of confciencce to depart from a piece of the least of their Ceremonies, they be so addicted to their old Customs; and again, on the other side, some be so new-fangled, that they would innovate all things, and so despife the old, that nothing can like them but that is new. It was thought expedient, not so much to have respect how to please and satisfy either of these parties, as how to please God and profit them both. And yet, left any man should be offended, whom good reason might satisfy, here be certain causes rendered, why some of the accustomed Ceremonies be put away, and some retained and kept still.

Some are put away, because the great excess and multitude of them hath so increased in these latter days, that the burden of them was intolerable; whereof Saint Augustine in his time complained, that they were grown to such a number, that the estate of Christian people was in worse case concerning that matter, than were the Jews. And he counselleth, that such yoke and burden should be taken away, as time would serve quietly to do it. But what would Saint Augustine have said, if he had seen the Ceremonies of late days used among us; whereunto the multitude used in his time was not to be compared? This our excessive multitude of Ceremonies was so great, and many of them so dark, that they did more confound and darken, than declare and set forth Christ's benefits unto us. And besides this, Christ's Gospel is not a Ceremonial Law (as much of Moses' Law was) but it is a Religion to serve God, not in bondage of the figure or shadow, but in the freedom of the spirit; being content only with these Ceremonies, which do serve to a decent Order, and godly Discipline, and such as be apt to stir up the dull mind of man to the remembrance of his duty to God, by some notable and special signification, whereby he might be edified. Furthermore, the most weighty cause of the abolishment of certain Ceremonies was, That they were so far abused, partly by the superstitious blindness of the rude and unlearned, and partly by the infaftiable avarice of such as fought more their own lucre, than the Glory of God, that the abuses could not well be taken away, the thing remaining still.

But now as concerning those persons, which peradventure will be offended, for that some of the Old Ceremonies are retained still: If they consider, that without some Ceremonies it is not possible to keep any Order or quiet Discipline in the Church, they shall easily perceive just cause to reform their judgements. And if they think much, that any of the old do remain, and would rather have all devisèd anew: then such men granting some Ceremonies convenient to be had, surely where the old may be well used, there they cannot reasonably reprove the old only for their age, without bewraying of their own folly. For in such a case they ought rather to have reverence unto them for their Antiquity, if they will declare themselves to be more studious of Unity and Concord, than of Innovations and New-fanglednes, which (as much as may be with true setting forth of Christ's Religion) is alway to be esteemed. Furthermore, such shall have no just cause with the Ceremonies reserved to be offended. For as those be taken away which were most abused, and did burden men's consciences without any cause; so the other that remain, are retained for a Discipline and Order, which (upon just cause) may be altered and changed, and therefore are not to be esteemed equal with God's Law. And moreover, they be neither dark nor dumb Ceremonies, but are so set forth, that every man may understand what they do mean, and to what use they do serve. So that it is not like that they, in time to come, should be abused as others have been. And in these our doings we condemn no other Nations, nor prescribe any thing but to our own people only: for we think it convenient that every Country should use such Ceremonies as they shall think best to the setting forth of God's Honour and Glory, and to the reducing of the people to a most perfect and godly living, without Error or Superstition; and that they should put away other things, which, from time to time, they perceive to be most abused; as in men's Ordinances it often chanceth diversely in divers Countries.

THE ORDER HOW THE PSALTER IS APPOINTED TO BE READ.

The Psalter shall be read through once every Month, as it is there appointed, both for Morning and Evening Prayer. But in February it shall be read only to the twenty-eighth, or twenty-ninth Day of the Month.

And whereas, January, March, May, July, August, October, and December, have one and thirty days apiece: It is Ordered, That the same Psalms shall be read the last day of the said Months, which were read the day before: so that the Psalter may begin again the first day of the Month next ensuing.

And whereas the CXIX Psalm is divided into twenty-two Portions, and is over long to be read at one time: it is so ordered, that at one time shall not be read above four or five of the said Portions.

And at the end of every Psalm, and of every such part of the CXIX Psalm, shall be repeated this Hymn:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Note, That the Psalter followeth the Division of the Hebrews, and the Translation of the great English Bible, set forth and used in the Time of King Henry the Eighth, and Edward the Sixth.

THE ORDER HOW THE REST OF HOLY SCRIPTURE IS APPOINTED TO BE READ.

The Old Testament is appointed for the first Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer; so as the most part thereof will be read over every year once, as in the Calendar is appointed.

The New Testament is appointed for the second Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer, and shall be read orderly every year thrice, besides the Epistles and Gospels; except the Apocalypse, out of which there are only certain proper Lessons appointed upon divers Feasts.

And to know what Lessons shall be read every day, look for the day of the Month in the Calendar following, and there ye shall find the Chapters that shall be read for the Lessons both at Morning and Evening Prayer; except only the Moveable Feasts, which are not in the Calendar, and the Immovable, where there is a blank left in the Column of Lessons; the proper Lessons for all which days are to be found in the Table of proper Lessons.

And note, That whensoever proper Psalms or Lessons are appointed, then the Psalms and Lessons of ordinary course appointed in the Psalter and Calendar (if they be different) shall be omitted for that time.

Note also, That the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, appointed for the Sunday, shall serve all the Week after, where it is not in this Book otherwise ordered.

Note: In a Bissextile, or Leap Year, the Number of Sundays after Epiphany will be the same as if Easter-day had fallen one Day later than it really does: and for the same reason one Day must, in every Leap Year, be added to the Day of the Month given by the Table for Septuagesima Sunday: and the like must be done for the First Day of Lent (commonly called Anl Wednesday), unless the Table gives some Day in the Month of March for it; for in that Case the Day given by the Table is the right Day.

TO find the Dominical or Sunday Letter for any given Year of our Lord, add to the Year its fourth Part, omitting Fractions, and also the Number which in Table I standeth at the Top of the Column, wherein the Number of Hundreds contained in that given Year is found: divide the Sum by 7, and if there is no Remainder, then A is the Sunday Letter; but if any Number remaineth, then the Letter which standeth under that Number, at the Top of the Table, is the Sunday Letter.

TO find the Month, and Days of the Month, to which the Golden Numbers ought to be prefixed in the Calendar in any given Year of our Lord, consisting of entire hundred years, and in all the intermediate Years between that and the next Hundredth Year following, look in the Second Column of Table II. for the given Year, consisting of entire Hundreds, and note which stands against it in the Third Column; then in Table III. look for the same Number in the Column under any given Golden Number, which when you have found, guide your eye side-ways to the left hand, and in the First Column you will find the Month and Day to which that Golden Number ought to be prefixed in the Calendar during that Period of One Hundred Years.

The Letter B prefixed to certain Hundredth Years in Table II. denotes those Years which are still to be accounted Bissextile or Leap Years in the New Calendar; whereas all the other Hundredth Years are to be accounted only common Years.

AGREED UPON

BY THE ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS OF BOTH PROVINCES, AND THE WHOLE CLERGY,

IN THE CONVOCATION HOLDEN AT LONDON, IN THE YEAR 1562, FOR THE AVOIDING OF DIVERSITIES OF OPINIONS, AND FOR THE STABLISHING OF CONSENT TOUCHING TRUE RELIGION.

[ Reprinted by His Majesty's Commandment, with His Royal Declaration prefixed thereunto. ]

HIS MAJESTY'S DECLARATION.

BEING by God's Ordinance, according to our just Title, Defender of the Faith, and Supreme Governor of the Church, within these our Dominions, We hold it most agreeable to this our Kingly Office, and our own Religious Zeal, to conserve and maintain the Church committed to Our Charge, in the unity of true Religion, and in the bond of Peace: and not to suffer unnecessary Disputations, Altercations, or Questions, to be raised, which may nourish Faction both in the Church and Commonwealth. We have therefore upon mature Deliberation, and with the Advice of so many of our Bishops as might conveniently be called together, thought fit to make this Declaration following.

That the Articles of the Church of England (which have been allowed and authorized heretofore, and which our Clergy generally have subscribed unto) do contain the true Doctrine of the Church of England, agreeable to God's Word: which We do therefore Ratify and Confirm, requiring all our loving Subjects to continue in the uniform profession thereof, and prohibiting the least difference from the said Articles, which to that end We command to be new printed, and this our Declaration to be Published therewith.

That we are Supreme Governor of the Church of England; And that if any Difference arise about the external Policy, concerning Injunctions, Canons, and other Constitutions whatsoever thereto belonging, the Clergy in their Convocation is to order and settle them, having first obtained leave under Our Broad Seal so to do, and We approving their said Ordinances and Constitutions; providing that none be made contrary to the Laws and Customs of the Land.

That out of Our Princely Care, that the Churchmen may do the Work which is proper unto them, the Bishops and Clergy, from time to time in Convocation, upon their humble desire, shall have Licence under Our Broad Seal, to deliberate of, and to do all such things, as being made plain by them, and assented unto by Us, shall concern the settled continuance of the Doctrine and Discipline of the Church of England now Established; from which We will not endure any varying or departing in the least Degree.
That for the present, though some Differences have been ill raised, yet We take comfort in this, that all Clergy-men within Our Realm, have always most willingly subscribed to the Articles Established, which is an Argument to Us, that they all agree in the true usual, literal meaning of the said Articles, and that even in those curious Points in which the present Differences lie, Men of all sorts take the Articles of the Church of England to be for them; which is an Argument again, that none of them intend any Defertion of the Articles Established.
That therefore in these both curious and unhappy Differences, which have for so many hundred Years, in different Times and Places exercised the Church of Christ, We will that all further curious search be laid aside, and these Disputes put up in God's promises, as they be generally set forth to Us in the holy Scriptures, and the general meaning of the Articles of the Church of England according to them. And that no man henceforth shall either Print or Preach to draw the Article aside any way, but shall submit to it in the plain and full meaning thereof; and shall not put his own Sense or Comment to be the meaning of the Article, but shall take it in the Literal and Gramatical Sense.
That if any publick Reader in either Our Universities, or any Head or Master of a College, or any other person respectively in either of them, shall affix any new Sense to any Article, or shall publicly Read, Determine or Hold any publick Disputation, or suffer any such to be Held either way, in either the Universities or Colleges respectively; or if any Divine in the Universities shall Preach or Print any thing either way, other than is already Established in Convocation with Our Royal Assent; he or they the Offenders shall be liable to Our Displeasure, and the Churches Censure in our Commission Ecclesiastical, as well as any other: And we will see there shall be due Execution upon them.

ARTICLES OF RELIGION.

I. Of Faith in the Holy Trinity.
THERE is but one living and true God, everlasting, without body, parts, or passions; of infinite power, wisdom, and goodness, the Maker and Preserver of all things both visible and invisible. And in unity of this Godhead there be three Persons of one substance, power and eternity; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

II. Of the Word or Son of God, which was made very Man.
The Son, which is the Word of the Father, begotten from everlasting of the Father, the very and eternal God, of one substance with the Father, took man's nature in the womb of the blest Virgin, of her substance: so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say, the Godhead and Manhood, were joined together in one Person, never to be divided, whereof is one Christ, very God and very man, who truly suffered, was crucified, dead and buried, to reconcile his Father to us, and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for actual sins of Men.

III. Of the going down of Christ into Hell.

AS Christ died for us, and was buried: so also is it to be believed, that he went down into hell.

IV. Of the Resurrection of Christ.

CHRIST did truly rise again from death, and took again his body, with flesh, bones, and all things appertaining to the Perfection of Man's nature, wherewith he ascended into Heaven, and there sitteth until he return to judge all Men at the last day.

V. Of the Holy Ghost.

THE Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one Substance, Majesty and Glory, with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.

VI. Of the Sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures for Salvation.

HOLY Scripture containeth all things necessary to Salvation: so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an Article of the Faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to Salvation. In the Name of the holy Scripture we do understand those Canonical Books of the Old and New Testament, of whose Authority was never any doubt in the Church.

OF THE NAMES AND NUMBER OF THE CANONICAL BOOKS.

Genesis, | The I. Book of Chronicles,
Exodus, | The II. Book of Chronicles,
Leviticus, | The I. Book of Esdras,
Numeri, | The II. Book of Esdras,
Deuteronomium, | The Book of Esther,
The I. Book of Samuel, | The Book of Job,
The II. Book of Samuel, | The Psalms,
The I. Book of Kings, | The Proverbs,
The II. Book of Kings, | Eclesiastes or Preacher,
Ruth, | Cantica, or Songs of Solomon,
The I. Book of Esdras, | Four Prophets the greater,
The IV. Book of Esdras, | Twelve Prophets the lesser.
The Book of Tobit, | The Book of Maccabees,
The Book of Judith, | Baruch the Prophet,
The rest of the Book of Esther, | The Song of the Three Children,
The Book of Wisdom, | The Story of Susanna,
Jefus the Son of Sirach, | Of Bels and the Dragon,

And the other Books (as Hierome faith) the Church doth read for example of life, and instruction of manners; but yet doth it not apply them to establish any Doctrine; such are these following.

The I. Book of Maccabees, | All the Books of the New Testament, as they are commonly received, we do receive and account them Canonical.

VII. Of the Old Testament.

THE Old Testament is not contrary to the New: for both in the Old and New Testament, everlasting life is offered to mankind by Christ, who is the only Mediator between God and man, being both God and man. Wherefore they are not to be heard, which feign that the old Fathers did look only for transitory promises. Although the Law given from God by Moses, as touching Ceremonies and Rites, do not bind Christian men, nor the Civil Precepts thereof ought of necessity to be received in any Commonwealth: yet notwithstanding, no Christian man whatsoever is free from the obedience of the Commandments which are called Moral.

VIII. Of the Three Creeds.

THE Three Creeds, Nice Creed, Athanasius's Creed, and that which is commonly called the Apologies Creed, ought thoroughly to be received and believed: for they may be proved by most certain warrants of holy Scripture.

IX. Of Original or Birth Sin.

ORIGINAL Sin standeth not in the following of Adam (as the Pelagians do vainly talk) but it is the fault and corruption of the nature of every man, that naturally is engendered of the offspring of Adam, whereby man is very far gone from original righteousness, and is of his own nature inclined to evil, so that the flesh lusteth always contrary to the Spirit; and therefore in every person born into this world, it deferveth God's wrath and damnation. And this infection of nature doth remain, yea, in them that are regenerated, whereby the lust of the flesh, called in Greek, φρονημα υποκρισεως, which some do expound the wisdom, some sensuality, some the affection, some the desire of the flesh, is not subject to the Law of God. And although there is no condemnation for them that believe and are baptized, yet the Apostle doth confess that concupiscence and lust hath of itself the nature of sin.

X. Of Free-Will.

THE condition of man after the Fall of Adam, is such, that he cannot turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and good works to Faith and calling upon God: Wherefore we have no power to do good works pleasant and acceptable to God, without the grace of God by Christ preventing us, that we may have a good-will, and working with us when we have that good-will.

XI. Of the Justification of Man.

WE are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by Faith, and not for our own works or desertings. Wherefore, that we are justified by Faith only, is a most wholesome Doctrine, and very full of comfort, as more largely is expressed in the Homily of Justification.

XII. Of Good Works.

ALBEIT that good Works, which are the fruits of Faith, and follow after Justification, cannot put away our sins, and endure the severity of God's judgment; yet are they pleasing and acceptable to God in Christ, and do spring out necessarily of a true and lively Faith, insomuch that by them a lively Faith may be as evidently known, as a tree discerned by the fruit.

XIII. Of Works before Justification.

WORKS done before the grace of Christ, and the inspiration of his Spirit, are not pleasant to God, forasmuch as they spring not of Faith in Jesus Christ, neither do they make men meet to receive grace, or (as the School-Authorst say) deserve grace of congruity: yea, rather for that they are not done as God hath willed and commanded them to be done, we doubt not but they have the nature of sin.

XIV. Of Works of Supererogation.

VOLUNTARY Works besides, over and above God's Commandments, which they call Works of Supererogation, cannot be taught without arrogancy and impiety. For by them men do declare, That they do not only render unto ARTICLES OF RELIGION.

God as much as they are bound to do, but that they do more for his sake than of bounden duty is required: Whereas Christ faith plainly, When ye have done all that are commanded to you, say, We are unprofitable servants.

XV. Of Christ alone without Sin.

CHRIST in the truth of our nature, was made like unto us in all things (sin only except) from which he was clearly void, both in his flesh, and in his spirit. He came to be a Lamb without spot, who by sacrifice of himself once made, should take away the sins of the world: and sin (as St. John faith) was not in him. But all we the rest (although baptized and born again in Christ) yet offend in many things, and if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

XVI. Of Sin after Baptism.

NOT every deadly sin willingly committed after baptism, is sin against the Holy Ghost, and unpardonable. Wherefore the grant of Repentance is not to be denied to such as fall into sin after Baptism. After we have received the Holy Ghost, we may depart from grace given, and fall into sin, and by the grace of God (we may) arise again, and amend our lives. And therefore they are to be condemned, which say they can no more sin as long as they live here, or deny the place of forgivenes on such as truly repent.

XVII. Of Predestination and Election.

PREDESTINATION to life, is the everlasting purpose of God, whereby (before the foundations of the world were laid) he hath constantly decreed by his Counsel, secret to us, to deliver from curfe and damnation, those whom he hath chosen in Christ out of mankind, and to bring them by Christ to everlasting salvation, as vessels made to honour. Wherefore they which are endued with so excellent a benefit of God, be called according to God’s purpose by his Spirit working in due season: they through grace obey the calling: they be justified freely: they be made sons of God by adoption: they be made like the image of his only begotten Son Jesus Christ: they walk religiously in good works, and at length by God’s mercy they attain to everlasting felicity.

As the godly consideration of Predestination and our Election in Christ, is full of sweet, pleasant, and unspeakable comfort to godly persons, and such as feel in themselves the working of the Spirit of Christ, mortifying the works of the flesh, and their earthly members, and drawing up their minds to high and heavenly things, as well because it doth greatly establish and confirm their Faith of eternal salvation, to be enjoyed through Christ, as because it doth fervently kindle their love towards God. So, for curious and carnal persons, lacking the Spirit of Christ, to have continually before their eyes the sentence of God’s Predestination, is a most dangerous downfall, whereby the Devil doth thrust them either into desperation, or into wretchedness of most unclean living, no less perilous than desperation.

Furthermore, we must receive God’s promises in such wise as they are generally set forth to us in holy Scripture. And in our doings, that Will of God is to be followed, which we have expressly declared unto us in the word of God.

XVIII. Of Obtaining eternal Salvation only by the Name of Christ.

THEY also are to be had accursed, that presume to say, That every man shall be saved by the Law or Sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that Law, and the Light of Nature. For holy Scripture doth set out unto us only the Name of Jesus Christ, whereby men must be saved.
ARTICLES OF RELIGION.

XIX. Of the Church.

THE visible Church of Christ is a Congregation of faithful men, in the which the pure Word of God is preached, and the Sacraments be duly ministr'd, according to Christ's Ordinance, in all those things that of necessity are requisite to the same.

As the Church of Hierusalem, Alexandria, and Antioch, have erred, so also the Church of Rome hath erred, not only in their living and manner of Ceremonies, but also in matters of Faith.

XX. Of the Authority of the Church.

THE Church hath power to decree Rites or Ceremonies, and Authority in Controversies of Faith: And yet it is not lawful for the Church to ordain any thing that is contrary to God's Word written, neither may it so expound one place of Scripture, that it be repugnant to another. Wherefore although the Church be a Witness and a Keeper of holy Writ, yet as it ought not to decree any thing against the same, so besides the same ought it not to enforce anything to be believed for necessity of Salvation.

XXI. Of the Authority of General Councils.

GENERAL Councils may not be gathered together without the Commandment and Will of Princes. And when they be gathered together (forasmuch as they be an Assembly of men, whereof all be not governed with the Spirit and Word of God) they may err, and sometime have erred, even in things pertaining unto God. Wherefore things ordained by them as necessary to Salvation, have neither strength nor authority, unless it may be declared that they be taken out of holy Scripture.

XXII. Of Purgatory.

THE Romish Doctrine concerning Purgatory, Pardons, Worshipping, and Adoration, as well of Images as of Reliques, and also Invocation of Saints, is a fond thing, vainly invented, and grounded upon no warranty of Scripture, but rather repugnant to the Word of God.

XXIII. Of Miniftring in the Congregation.

IT is not lawful for any man to take upon him the Office of Publick Preaching, or Miniftring the Sacraments in the Congregation, before he be lawfully called, and sent to execute the same. And those we ought to judge lawfully called and sent, which be chosen and called to this Work by men who have publick Authority given unto them in the Congregation, to call and send Minifters unto the Lord's Vineyard.

XXV. Of Speaking in the Congregation in such a Tongue as the People understand.

IT is a thing plainly repugnant to the Word of God, and the Custom of the Primitive Church, to have Publick Prayer in the Church, or to Minift're the Sacraments in a Tongue not understood of the People.

XXV. Of the Sacraments.

SACRAMENTS ordained of Christ, be not only Badges or Tokens of Christian men's Profession: but rather they be certain sure Witneffes, and effectual signs of Grace, and God's good will towards us, by the which he doth work invisibly in us, and doth not only quicken, but also strengthen and confirm our Faith in him.

There are two Sacraments ordained of Christ, our Lord in the Gospel, that is to fay, Baptifm, and the Supper of the Lord.

Those five commonly called Sacraments, That is to fay, Confirmation, Penance Orders, Matrimony, and Extreme Unction, are not to be counted for Sacraments of the Gospel, being such as have grown, partly of the corrupt following of the Apostles, partly are fates of life allowed by the Scriptures: but yet have not like nature of Sacraments with Baptism and the Lord’s Supper, for that they have not any visible Sign or Ceremony ordained of God.

The Sacraments were not ordained of Christ to be gazed upon, or to be carried about, but that we should duly use them. And in such only as worthily received the fame, they have a wholesome effect or operation: but they that receive them unworthily, purchase to themselves damnation, as St. Paul faith.

XXVI. Of the Unworthiness of the Ministers, which hinders not the effect of the Sacraments.

ALTHOUGH in the Visible Church the evil be ever mingled with the good, and some time the evil have chief Authority, in the Ministration of the Word and Sacraments: yet forasmuch as they do not the fame in their own name, but in Christ’s, and do Minister by his Commission and Authority, we may use their Ministry, both in hearing the Word of God, and in receiving of the Sacraments. Neither is the effect of Christ’s Ordinance taken away by their wickedness, nor the grace of God’s gifts diminished from such, as by faith and rightly do receive the Sacraments ministered unto them, which be effectual, because of Christ’s Institution and Promise, although they be ministered by evil men.

Nevertheless, it appertaineth to the Discipline of the Church, that enquiry be made of evil Ministers, and that they be accused by those that have knowledge of their offences; and finally being found guilty, by just judgment be deposed.

XXVII. Of Baptism.

BAPTISM is not only a Sign of Profession, and Mark of Difference, where by Christian men are discerned from others that be not Christened: but it is also a Sign of Regeneration or New Birth, whereby, as by an Instrument, they that receive Baptism rightly, are grafted into the Church: the promises of the forgive-ness of sin, and of our adoption to be the Sons of God by the Holy Ghost, are visibly Signed and Sealed: Faith is confirmed, and Grace increased by virtue of Prayer unto God. The Baptism of young Children is in any wise to be retained in the Church, as most agreeable with the Institution of Christ.

XXVIII. Of the Lord’s Supper.

THE Supper of the Lord is not only a Sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves one to another: but rather it is a Sacrament of our Redemption by Christ’s death: Infomuch that to such as rightly, worthily, and with Faith receive the same, the Bread which we break, is a partaking of the Body of Christ: and likewise the Cup of Blessing, is a partaking of the Blood of Christ.

Transubstantiation (or the change of the substance of Bread and Wine) in the Supper of the Lord, cannot be proved by holy Writ: but it is repugnant to the plain words of Scripture, overthroweth the nature of a Sacrament, and hath given occasion to many Superfitions.

The Body of Christ is given, taken, and eaten in the Supper only after an heavenly and spiritual manner. And the mean whereby the Body of Christ is received and eaten in the Supper, is Faith.

The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper was not by Christ’s Ordinance reserved, carried about, lifted up, or worshipped.

XXIX. Of the Wicked, which eat not the Body of Christ in the use of the Lord’s Supper.

THE Wicked and such as be void of a lively Faith, although they do carnally and visibly press with their teeth, (as St. Augustinian faith) the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ: yet in no wise are they partakers of Christ, but rather to their condemnation do eat and drink the Sign or Sacrament of so great a thing.
XXX. Of both Kinds.

The Cup of the Lord is not to be denied to the Lay People: For both the parts of the Lord's Sacrament by Christ's Ordinance and Commandment, ought to be ministered to all Christian men alike.

XXXI. Of the one Oblation of Christ finished upon the Cross.

The Offering of Christ once made, is that perfect Redemption, Propitiation, and Satisfaction for all the sins of the whole world, both Original and Actual, and there is none other Satisfaction for sin, but that alone. Wherefore the Sacrifices of Masses, in the which it was commonly said, that the Priest did offer Christ for the quick and the dead, to have remission of pain or guilt, were blasphemous Fables, and dangerous Deceits.

XXXII. Of the Marriage of Priests.

Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, are not commanded by God's Law, either to vow the estate of single life, or to abstain from Marriage: Therefore it is lawful for them, as for all other Christian men, to Marry at their own discretion, as they shall judge the fame to serve better to godliness.

XXXIII. Of Excommunicate Persons, how they are to be avoided.

That person which by open Denunciation of the Church is rightly cut off from the Unity of the Church, and Excommunicated, ought to be taken, of the whole multitude of the faithful, as an Heathen and Publican, until he be openly reconciled by Penance, and received into the Church by a Judge that hath Authority thereunto.

XXXIV. Of the Traditions of the Church.

It is not necessary that Traditions and Ceremonies be in all places one, or utterly like; for at all times they have been divers, and may be changed according to the diversity of Countries, Times, and Men's Manners, so that nothing be ordained against God's Word. Whosoever, through his private Judgment, willingly and purposely doth openly break the Traditions and Ceremonies of the Church, which be not repugnant to the Word of God, and be ordained and approved by common Authority, ought to be rebuked openly, (that other may fear to do the like) as he that offendeth against the common Order of the Church, and hurtest the Authority of the Magistrate, and woundeth the Consciences of the weak Brethren.

Every particular or National Church hath Authority to ordain, change, and abolish Ceremonies or Rites of the Church, ordained only by man's Authority, so that all things be done to edifying.

XXXV. Of Homilies.

The second Book of Homilies, the severall Titles whereof we have joined under this Article, doth contain a godly and wholesome Doctrine, and necessary for these Times, as doth the former Book of Homilies, which were set forth in the Time of Edward the Sixth; and therefore we judge them to be read in Churches by the Ministers, diligently and diligently, that they may be understood of the People.

I OF THE NAMES OF THE HOMILIES.

1 Of the right Use of the Church.
2 Against Peril of Idolatry.
3 Of Repairing and keeping clean of Churches.
4 Of good Works, first of Fasting.
5 Against Gluttony and Drunkennes.

12 Of the Nativity of Christ.
13 Of the Passion of Christ.
14 Of the Resurrection of Christ.
15 Of the worthy receiving of the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.
16 Of the Gifts of the Holy Ghost.
17 For the Rogation-days.
18 Of the State of Matrimony.
19 Of Repentance.
20 Against Idleness.
21 Against Rebellion.
ARTICLES OF RELIGION.

XXXVI. Of Consecration of Bishops and Ministers.

THE Book of Consecration of Arch-Bishops and Bishops, and Ordering of Priests and Deacons, lately set forth in the time of Edward the Sixth, and confirmed at the same time by Authority of Parliament, doth contain all things necessary to such Consecration and Ordering: neither hath it any thing that of itself is superstitious and ungodly. And therefore whosoever are Consecrated or Ordered according to the Rites of that Book, since the Second Year of the forenamed King Edward, unto this time, or hereafter shall be Consecrated or Ordered according to the same Rites, we decree all such to be rightly, orderly, and lawfully Consecrated and Ordered.

XXXVII. Of the Civil Magistrates.

THE Queen's Majesty hath the chief Power in this Realm of England, and other her Dominions, unto whom the chief Government of all Estates of this Realm, whether they be Ecclesiastical or Civil, in all Causes doth appertain, and is not, nor ought to be subject to any Foreign Jurisdiction.

Where we attribute to the Queen's Majesty the chief Government, by which Titles we understand the Minds of some flanderous Folks to be offended: we give not to our Princes the ministring either of God's Word, or of the Sacraments, the which thing the Injunctions also lately set forth by Elizabeth our Queen do most plainly testify: but that only Prerogative which we fee to have been given always to all godly Princes in holy Scriptures by God himself, that is; that they should rule all Estates and Degrees committed to their Charge by God, whether they be Ecclesiastical or Temporal, and restrain with the Civil Sword the stubborn and evil doers.

The Bishop of Rome hath no Jurisdiction in this Realm of England.

The Laws of the Realm may punish Christian men with Death for heinous and grievous Offences.

It is lawful for Christian men, at the Commandment of the Magistrate, to wear weapons, and serve in the Wars.

XXXVIII. Of Christian Men's Goods which are not common.

THE Riches and Goods of Christians are not common, as touching the Right, Title, and Possession of the same, as certain Anabaptists do falsely boast. Notwithstanding, every Man ought of such things as he poufleffeth, liberally to give Alms to the Poor, according to his ability.

XXXIX. Of a Christian Man's Oath.

AS we confess that vain and rash Swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord Jefus Chrift, and James his Apostle: So we judge that Christian Religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the Magistrate requireth, in a Cause of Faith and Charity, so it be done according to the Prophets teaching, in Justice, Judgment, and Truth.

THE RATIFICATION.

THIS Book of Articles before Rehearsed, is again Approved, and Allowed to be Holden and Executed within the Realm, by the Affent and Consent of our Sovereign Lady ELIZABETH, by the Grace of God, of England, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. which Articles were deliberately Read, and Confirmed again by the Subscription of the Hand of the Arch-Bishop and Bishops of the Upper Houfe, and by the Subscription of the whole Clergy of the Nether Houfe in their Convocation, in the Year of our Lord, 1571.
At the beginning of Morning Prayer, the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one or more of these sentences of the scriptures that follow: and then he shall say that which is written after the said sentences.

WHEN the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Ezek. xviii. 27.

I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Pfal. li. 3.
MORNING PRAYER.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Psal. li. 9.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Ver. 17.

Rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Joel ii. 13.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10.

O Lord, correct me, but with judgement; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing. Jer. x. 24. Psal. vi. 1.

Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. St. Matth. iii. 2.

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. St. Luke xv. 18, 19.

Enter not into judgement with thy servant, O Lord; for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psal. cxliii. 2.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us: but if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 St. John i. 8, 9.

DEARLY beloved brethren, the scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

A general Confession to be said of the whole congregation, after the Minister, all kneeling.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father, We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep: We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts: We have offended against thy holy laws: We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults: Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises, declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Absolution or Remission of sins, to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the people still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Then the people shall answer here, and at the end of all other prayers, "Amen."

Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer with an audible voice; the people also kneeling, and repeating it with him, both here, and wheresoever else it is used in divine service.

OUR Father, which art in heaven; hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. O God, make speed to save us.

Answ. O Lord, make haste to help us.

Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Priest. Praise ye the Lord.
Answ. The Lord's Name be praised.

Then shall be said or sung this Psalm following; except on Easter-day, upon which another Anthem is appointed; and on the nineteenth day of every month it is not to be read here, but in the ordinary course of the Psalms.

Venite, exultemus Domino.

Psalm xcv.

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew ourselves glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;
MORNING PRAYER.

When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said: It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways.

Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then shall follow the Psalms in order as they are appointed. And at the end of every Psalm throughout the year, and likewise at the end of Benedicite, Benedicamus, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shall be repeated,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then shall be read distinctly, with an audible voice, the first lesson, taken out of the Old Testament, as is appointed in the Kalendar, (except there be proper lessons assigned for that day) he that readeth, so standing, and turning himself, as he may best be heard of all such as are present. And after that, shall be said or sung, in English, the Hymn called Te Deum laudamus, daily throughout the year.
I. Note, that before every lesson the Minister shall say,
"Here beginneth such a chapter, or verse of such a chapter of such a book:" and after every lesson,
"Here endeth the first, or the second lesson."

Te Deum laudamus.

WE praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.
To thee all angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.
To thee Cherubin and Seraphin: continually do cry,
Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty: of thy glory.
The glorious company of the apostles: praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the prophets: praise thee.
The noble army of martyrs: praise thee.
The holy church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee;
The Father: of an infinite majesty;
Thine honourable, true: and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost: the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst not abhor the virgin's womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy saints: in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people: and bless thine heritage.

Govern them: and lift them up for ever.

Day by day: we magnify thee;

And we worship thy Name: ever world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.
Or this canticle, Benedicite, omnia opera Domini.

O ALL ye works of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye heavens, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye waters, that be above the firmament, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O all ye powers of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye sun and moon, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye stars of heaven, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye showers and dew, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye winds of God, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye fire and heat, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye winter and summer, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye dews and frosts, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye frosts and cold, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye ice and snow, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye nights and days, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye light and darkness, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye lightnings and clouds, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O let the earth bless the Lord: yea, let it praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye mountains and hills, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O all ye green things upon the earth, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye wells, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye seas and floods, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye whales, and all that move in the waters, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O all ye fowls of the air, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O all ye beasts and cattle, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye children of men, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O let Israel bless the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
O ye priests of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.
MORNING PRAYER.

O ye servants of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye spirits and souls of the righteous, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye holy and humble men of heart, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then shall be read, in like manner, the second lesson, taken out of the New Testament. And after that, the hymn following; except when that shall happen to be read in the chapter for the day, or for the gospel on St. John the Baptist's day.

Benedictus. St. Luke i. 68.

BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people;

And hath raised up a mighty salvation for us: in the house of his servant David;

As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets: which have been since the world began;

That we should be saved from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate us;

To perform the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy covenant;
To perform the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would give us;
That we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies: might serve him without fear;
In holiness and righteousness before him: all the days of our life.
And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sins,
Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us;
To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Or this Psalm.

Jubilate Deo. Psalm c.

O BE joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

I Then shall be sung or said the Apostles Creed by the Minister, and the people, standing; except only such days as the Creed of Saint Athanasius is appointed to be read.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, The third day he rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church; The communion of saints; The forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.
And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling; the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,
The Lord be with you.
Answ. And with thy Spirit.
Minister.
Let us pray.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Then the Minister, Clerks, and People, shall say the Lord's Prayer with a loud voice.
OUR Father, which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.
Then the Priest standing up, shall say,
O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
Answ. And grant us thy salvation.
Priest. O Lord, save the king.
Answ. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.
Priest. Endue thy ministers with righteousness.
Answ. And make thy chosen people joyful.
Priest. O Lord, save thy people.
Answ. And bless thine inheritance.

Daily bread.] The bread necessary for our subsistence. See Dr. Willan's History of Christ. p. 117.
MORNING PRAYER.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Answ. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. O God, make clean our hearts within us.
Answ. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

I Then shall follow three Collects; the first of the day, which shall be the same that is appointed at the Communion; the second for peace; the third for grace to live well. And the two last Collects shall never alter, but daily be said at Morning Prayer throughout all the year, as followeth, all kneeling.

I The second Collect, for Peace.

O GOD, who art the author of peace, and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defense, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I The third Collect, for Grace.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy fight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
In choirs and places where they sing, here followeth the Anthem.

Then these five Prayers following are to be read here; except when the Litany is read; and then only the two last are to be read, as they are there placed.

A Prayer for the King's Majesty.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only ruler of princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; Most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, and so replenish him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts; grant him in health and wealth long to live; strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies; and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Royal Family.

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our gracious Queen CHARLOTTE, his Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
I A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who alone workeft great marvels; Send down upon our bishops and curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

I A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

ALMIGHTY God, who haft given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and doft promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen,

2 Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Order of Morning Prayer throughout the Year.

Holy Spirit.] No one can receive the word of God but by the Holy Spirit. LUTHER.
At the beginning of Evening Prayer, the Minister shall read with a loud voice some one or more of these sentences of the scriptures that follow: and then he shall say that which is written after the said sentences.

When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Ezek. xviii. 27.

I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Psal. li. 3.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. Ver. 9.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. Ver. 17.

Rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Joel ii. 13.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him:
neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10.

O Lord, correct me, but with judgement; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing. Jer. x. 24. Psal. vi. 1.

Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. St. Matth. iii. 2.

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. St. Luke xv. 18, 19.

Enter not into judgement with thy servant, O Lord; for in thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psal. cxliii. 2.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us: but if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 St. John i. 8, 9.

DEARLY beloved brethren, the scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

A general Confession to be said of the whole congregation, after the Minister, all kneeling.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father, We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep: We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts: We have offended against thy holy laws: We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults: Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises, declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.
EVENING PRAYER.

The Abjolution or Remission of sins, to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the people still kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer; the people also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

OUR Father, which art in heaven; hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Then likewise he shall say,
O Lord, open thou our lips.
Anfw. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. O God, make speed to save us.
Anfw. O Lord, make haste to help us.

1 Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
Anfw. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest. Praise ye the Lord.
Anfw. The Lord's Name be praised.

1 Then shall be said or sung the Psalms in order as they are appointed. Then a lesson of the Old Testament, as is appointed: and after that, Magnificat (or the Song of the blessed Virgin Mary) in English, as followeth.

MAGNIFICAT. St. Luke i. 46.
MY soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy, hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Or else this Psalm; except it be on the nineteenth day of the month, when it is read in the ordinary course of the Psalms.

Cantate Domino. Psalm xcviii.

O SING unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.
EVENING PRAYER.

He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

Shew yourselves joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, rejoice, and give thanks.

Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and shawms: O shew yourselves joyful before the Lord the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord: for he cometh to judge the earth.

With righteousness shall he judge the world: and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then a lesson of the New Testament, as it is appointed: and after that, Nunc dimittis, (or the song of Simeon) in English, as followeth.

LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace: according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation,

Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Or else this Psalm: except it be on the twelfth day of the month.

Deus misereatur. Psalm lxvii.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father; and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Then shall be said or sung the Apostles’ Creed by the Minister, and the people, standing.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, The third day he rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church; The communion of saints; The forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling; the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,
The Lord be with you.
Answ. And with thy Spirit.

Minister.

Let us pray.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
1. Then the Minister, Clerks, and People, shall say the Lord's Prayer with a loud voice.

OUR Father, which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

2. Then the Priest standing up, shall say, O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.

Anfw. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord, save the king.

Anfw. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy ministers with righteousness.

Anfw. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord, save thy people.

Anfw. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Anfw. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

Anfw. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

3. Then shall follow three Collects; the first of the day; the second for peace; the third for aid against all perils, as hereafter followeth: which two last Collects shall be daily said at Evening Prayer, without alteration.

From evil.] From the evil one. See a note in Dr. Willan's History of Christ. p. 37.
EVENING PRAYER.

The second Collect at Evening Prayer.

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The third Collect, for Aid against all Perils.

LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In choirs and places where they sing, here followeth the Anthem.

A Prayer for the King's Majesty.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only ruler of princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; Most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, and so replenish him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that he may alway incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: Endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live; strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies; and finally after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I A PRAYER FOR THE ROYAL FAMILY.

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless our gracious Queen Charlotte, his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family: En-due them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I A PRAYER FOR THE CLERGY AND PEOPLE.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; Send down upon our bishops and curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

I A PRAYER OF ST. CHRYSOSTOM.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Order of Evening Prayer throughout the Year.

THE CREED OF ST. ATHANASIUS.

Upon these feasts, Christmas-day, the Epiphany, St. Matthias, Easter-day, Ascension-day, Whitsunday, St. John Baptist, St. James, St. Bartholomew, St. Matthew, St. Simon and St. Jude, St. Andrew, and upon Trinity-Sunday, shall be sung, or said, at Morning Prayer, instead of the Apostles Creed, this Confession of our Christian faith, commonly called the Creed of St. Athanasius, by the Minister and people, standing.

Quicunque vult.

WHOSOEVER will be saved: before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholic faith.

Which faith, except every one do keep whole and undefiled: without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholic faith is this: That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity;
Neither confounding the persons: nor dividing the substance.

For there is one person of the Father, another of the Son: and another of the Holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost is all one: the Glory equal, the Majesty co-eternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son: and such is the Holy Ghost.

The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate: and the Holy Ghost uncreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible: and the Holy Ghost incomprehensible.

The Father eternal, the Son eternal: and the Holy Ghost eternal.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternal.

As also there are not three incomprehensible, nor three uncreated: but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty: and the Holy Ghost Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almighty: but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God: and the Holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.
So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord: and the Holy Ghost Lord;
And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.
For like as we are compelled by the Christian verity: to acknowledge every Person by himself to be God and Lord;
So are we forbidden by the Catholic religion: to say, There be three Gods, or three Lords.
The Father is made of none: neither created, nor begotten.
The Son is of the Father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.
The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Son: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.
So there is one Father, not three Fathers: one Son, not three Sons: one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.
And in this Trinity none is afore, or after other: none is greater, or less than another;
But the whole three Persons are co-eternal together: and co-equal.
So that in all things, as is aforesaid: the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.
He therefore that will be saved: must thus think of the Trinity.
Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation: that he also believe rightly the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we believe and confess: that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and man;

God of the substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds: and man of the substance of his mother, born in the world;

Perfect God, and perfect man: of a reasonable soul, and human flesh subsisting;

Equal to the Father, as touching his Godhead: and inferior to the Father, as touching his manhood.

Who although he be God, and man: yet he is not two, but one Christ;

One; not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh: but by taking of the manhood into God;

One altogether; not by confusion of substance: but by unity of person.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man: so God and man is one Christ.

Who suffered for our salvation: descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty: from whence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies: and shall give account for their own works.

And they that have done good, shall go into life everlasting: and they that have done evil, into everlasting fire.

This is the Catholic faith: which except a man believe faithfully, he cannot be saved.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Here followeth the Litany, or General Supplication, to be sung or said after Morning Prayer, upon Sundays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and at other times, when it shall be commanded by the Ordinary.

O GOD the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father, and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.
THE LITANY.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father, and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three Persons, and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three Persons, and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our fore-fathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sins: spare us, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.
From all evil and mischief, from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil, from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vanity, and hypocrisy; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitableness,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly sin; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.
From lightning and tempest; from plague, pestilence, and famine; from battle and murder, and from sudden death,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all sedition, privy conspiracy, and rebellion; from all false doctrine, heresy, and schism; from hardness of heart, and contempt of thy word and commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of thy holy incarnation; by thy holy nativity and circumcision; by thy baptism, fasting, and temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine agony and bloody sweat; by thy cross and passion; by thy precious death and burial; by thy glorious resurrection and ascension; and by the coming of the Holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our wealth; in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God, and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy church universal in the right way;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
That it may please thee to keep and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousness and holiness of life, thy servant GEORGE, our most gracious King and Governor;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to rule his heart in thy faith, fear, and love, and that he may evermore have affiance in thee, and ever seek thy honour and glory;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to be his defender and keeper, giving him the victory over all his enemies;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and preserve our gracious Queen CHARLOTTE, his Royal Highness GEORGE, Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all bishops, priests, and deacons, with true knowledge and understanding of thy word, and that both by their preaching and living they may set it forth, and shew it accordingly;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue the lords of the council, and all the nobility, with grace, wisdom, and understanding;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
THE LITANY.

That it may please thee to bless and keep the magistrates, giving them grace to execute justice, and to maintain truth;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all thy people;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all nations unity, peace, and concord;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us an heart to love and dread thee, and diligently to live after thy commandments;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all thy people increase of grace, to hear meekly thy word, and to receive it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bring into the way of truth all such as have erred, and are deceived;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to strengthen such as do stand, and to comfort and help the weak-hearted, and to raise up them that fall, and finally to beat down Satan under our feet;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.
That it may please thee to succour, help, and comfort all that are in danger, necessity, and tribulation;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve all that travel by land or by water, all women labouring of child, all sick persons and young children, and to shew thy pity upon all prisoners and captives;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend and provide for the fatherless children and widows, and all that are desolate and oppressed;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all men;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, persecutors, and flanderers, and to turn their hearts;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so as in due time we may enjoy them;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance, to forgive us all our sins, negligences and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, to amend our lives according to thy holy word;
THE LITANY.

We befeech thee to hear us, good Lord.
Son of God: we befeech thee to hear us.
Son of God: we befeech thee to hear us.
O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world;
Grant us thy peace.
O Lamb of God: that takest away the sins of the world;
Have mercy upon us.
O Christ, hear us.
O Christ, hear us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Then shall the Priest, and the people with him, say the Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Priest. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins.
Answ. Neither reward us after our iniquities.
Let us pray.

O GOD merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; Mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee in all our troubles and adversities whenever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us, be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy servants being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Name's sake.

O GOD, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.

Graciously look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.
Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.
O Son of David, have mercy upon us.
Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.
Graciously hear us, O Christ, graciously hear us, O Lord, Christ.
Priest. O Lord, let thy mercy be shewed upon us;
Answ. As we do put our trust in thee.

Let us pray.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved; and grant, that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

ALMIGHTY God, who haft given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.
THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Here endeth the Litany.

PRAYERS AND THANKSGIVINGS UPON SEVERAL OCCASIONS, TO BE USED BEFORE THE TWO FINAL PRAYERS OF THE LITANY, OR OF MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER.

FOR RAIN.

O GOD heavenly Father, who by thy Son Jesus Christ hast promised to all them that seek thy kingdom, and the righteousness thereof, all things necessary to their bodily sustenance; Send us, we beseech thee, in this our necessity, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth to our comfort, and to thy honour, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR FAIR WEATHER.

O ALMIGHTY Lord God, who for the sin of man didst once drown all the world, except eight persons, and afterward of thy great mercy didst promise never to destroy it so again; We humbly beseech thee, that although we for our iniquities have worthily deserved a plague of rain and waters; yet upon our true repentance thou wilt fend us such weather, as that we may receive the fruits of the earth in due season, and learn both by thy punishment to amend our lives, and for thy clemency to give thee praise and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the time of dearth and famine.

O GOD heavenly Father, whose gift it is, that the rain doth fall, the earth is fruitful, beasts increase, and fishes do multiply; Behold, we beseech thee, the afflictions of thy people, and grant that the scarcity and dearth (which we do now most justly suffer for our iniquity) may through thy goodness be mercifully turned into cheapness and plenty, for the love of Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee, and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Or this.

O GOD merciful Father, who in the time of Elisha the prophet didst suddenly, in Samaria, turn great scarcity and dearth into plenty and cheapness; Have mercy upon us, that we who are now for our sins punished with like adversity, may likewise find a seasonable relief: Increase the fruits of the earth by thy heavenly benediction; and grant that we, receiving thy bountiful liberality, may use the same to thy glory, the relief of those that are needy, and our own comfort, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
PRAYERS.

1 In the time of war and tumults.

O ALMIGHTY God, King of all kings, and Governor of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners, and to be merciful to them that truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech thee, from the hands of our enemies; abate their pride, assuage their malice, and confound their devices, that we, being armed with thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to glorify thee, who art the only giver of all victory, through the merits of thy only Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2 In the time of any common plague or sickness.

O ALMIGHTY God, who in thy wrath didst send a plague upon thine own people in the wilderness, for their obstinate rebellion against Moses and Aaron, and also in the time of king David didst slay with the plague of pestilence threescore and ten thousand, and yet remembering thy mercy didst save the rest; Have pity upon us miserable sinners, who now are visited with great sickness and mortality; that like as thou didst then accept of an atonement, and didst command the destroying angel to cease from punishing; so it may now please thee to withdraw from us this plague and grievous sickness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Obstinate rebellion against Moses and Aaron. See Numbers, chap. xvi.
In the Ember Weeks, to be said every day, for those that are to be admitted into holy orders.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thyself an universal church by the precious blood of thy dear Son; Mercifully look upon the same, and at this time so guide and govern the minds of thy servants the bishops and pastors of thy flock, that they may lay hands suddenly on no man, but faithfully and wisely make choice of fit persons to serve in the sacred ministry of thy church. And to those which shall be ordained to any holy function, give thy grace and heavenly benediction, that both by their life and doctrine they may set forth thy glory, and set forward the salvation of all men, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this.

ALMIGHTY God, the giver of all good gifts, who of thy divine providence hast appointed divers orders in thy church; Give thy grace, we humbly beseech thee, to all those who are to be called to any office and administration in the same; and so replenish them with the truth of thy doctrine, and endue them with innocency of life, that they may faithfully serve before thee, to the glory of thy great Name, and the benefit of thy holy church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
PRAYERS.

I A PRAYER FOR THE HIGH COURT OF PARLIAMENT, TO BE READ DURING THEIR SESSION.

MOST gracious God, we humbly beseech thee, as for this kingdom in general, so especially for the High Court of Parliament, under our most religious and gracious King at this time assembled: That thou wouldst be pleased to direct and prosper all their consultations, to the advancement of thy glory, the good of thy church, the safety, honour, and welfare of our Sovereign and his kingdoms; that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavours, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations. These and all other necessities for them, for us, and thy whole church, we humbly beg in the name and mediation of Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

II A COLLECT OR PRAYER FOR ALL CONDITIONS OF MEN, TO BE USED AT SUCH TIMES WHEN THE LITANY IS NOT APPOINTED TO BE SAID.

O GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that thou wouldst be pleased to make thy ways known unto them; thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholic church; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves
Christians, may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness, all those who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate, [*especially those for whom our prayers are desired] that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

A Prayer that may be said after any of the former.

O GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive; Receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of Jesus Christ our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

THANKSGIVINGS.

A General Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men; [*particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

† For Rain.

O GOD our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence dost cause the former and the latter rain to descend upon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the use of man; We give thee humble thanks that it hath pleased thee in our great necessity to send us at the last a joyful rain upon thine inheritance, and to refresh it when it was dry, to the great comfort of us thy unworthy servants, and to the glory of thy holy *This to be said when any that have been prayed for desire to return praise.
THANKSGIVINGS

Name, through thy mercies in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I For Fair Weather.

O LORD God, who hast justly humbled us by thy late plague of immoderate rain and waters, and in thy mercy hast relieved and comforted our souls by this seasonable and blessed change of weather; We praise and glorify thy holy Name for this thy mercy, and will always declare thy loving kindness from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II For Plenty.

O MOST merciful Father, who of thy gracious goodness hast heard the devout prayers of thy Church, and turned our dearth and scarcity into cheapness and plenty; We give thee humble thanks for this thy special bounty, beseeching thee to continue thy loving kindness unto us, that our land may yield us her fruits of increase, to thy glory, and our comfort, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

III For Peace and Deliverance from our Enemies.

O ALMIGHTY God, who art a strong tower of defence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield thee praise and thanks-giving for our deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compassed. We acknowledge it thy goodness that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; befeeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

\section*{II For restoring Public Peace at Home.}

O ETERNAL God our heavenly Father, who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people; We bless thy holy Name, that it hath pleased thee to appease the seditious tumults which have been lately raised up amongst us; most humbly befeeching thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in thy holy commandments, and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto thee our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for these thy mercies towards us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

\section*{III For Deliverance from the Plague, or other common Sickness.}

O LORD God, who hast wounded us for our sins, and consumed us for our transgressions by thy late heavy and dreadful visitation, and now in the midst of judgment remembering mercy, hast redeemed our souls from the jaws of death; We offer unto thy fatherly goodness ourselves, our souls and bodies, which thou hast delivered, to be a living sacrifice unto thee, always praising and magnifying thy mercies in the midst of thy church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I Or this.

WE humbly acknowledge before thee, O most merciful Father, that all the punishments which are threatened in thy law, might justly have fallen upon us by reason of our manifold transgressions and hardness of heart. Yet seeing it hath pleased thee of thy tender mercy, upon our weak and unworthy humiliation, to assuage the contagious sickness wherewith we lately have been sore afflicted, and to restore the voice of joy and health into our dwellings; We offer unto thy Divine Majesty the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for such thy preservation and providence over us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECTS, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS, TO BE USED THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

I Note, that the Collect appointed for every Sunday, or for any holy-day that hath a vigil or eve, shall be said at the Evening Service next before.

The first Sunday in Advent.

THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life (in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility) that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

This Collect is to be repeated every day with the other Collects in Advent, until Christmas-Eve.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. xiii. 8.

Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another, hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour, therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand; let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.
Let us walk honestly as in the day, not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxi. 1.

WHEN they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples, saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. All this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way;* others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? And the multitude said, This is Jesus the Prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, and said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves.

The second Sunday in Advent.

The Collect.

BLESSED Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xv. 4.

WHATSOEVER things were written aforetime, were written for our learning; that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one towards another, according to Christ Jesus: That ye may with one mind, and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us, to the glory of God. Now I fay, that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy Name. And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laud him, all ye people. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

AND there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads: for your redemption draweth nigh. And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees; When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled: heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away.

The third Sunday in Advent.

The Collect.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy messenger to prepare thy way before thee; Grant that the ministers and stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that at thy second coming to judge the world, we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. iv. 1.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing, that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment:* yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing by myself, yet am I not hereby justified; but he that judgeth me, is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall every man have praise of God.

NOW when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the Gospel preached to them. And blessed is he whosoever shall not be offended in me. And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings houses. But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
THE COLLECT.

O LORD, raise up (we pray thee) thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas through our sins and wickedness we are fore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us, through the satisfaction of thy Son our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. iv. 4.

REJOICE in the Lord alway; and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

THE GOSPEL. St. John i. 19.

THIS is the record of John, when the Jews sent Priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he faith, I am not. Art thou that Prophet? And he answered, No. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias: And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that Prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not. He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

The nativity of our Lord, or the birth-day of CHRIST, commonly called Christmas-day.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. Heb. i. 1.

GOD, who at sundry times, and in divers manners, spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these laft days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds. Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high: Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he faith, And let all the angels of God worship him. And of the angels he faith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. But unto the Son he faith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands. They shall perish, but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; and as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made, that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light. That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his Name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth.
ST. STEPHEN'S DAY.

THE COLLECT.

GRANT, O Lord, that in all our sufferings here upon earth, for the testimony of thy truth, we may stedfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed; and being filled with the Holy Ghost, may learn to love and bless our persecutors by the example of thy first Martyr Saint Stephen, who prayed for his murderers to thee, O blessed Jesus, who standest at the right hand of God to succour all those that suffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Then shall follow the Collect of the Nativity, which shall be said continually unto New-year's Eve.

For the EPISODE. Acts vii. 55.

STEPHEN being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, and cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

The Gospel. St. Matth. xxiii. 34.

BEHOLD, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city; that upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, all these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

St. John the Evangelist’s day.

The Collect.

MERCIFUL Lord, we beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy church, that it being enlightened by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist Saint John, may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to the light of everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life (for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us); that which we have seen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lye, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his Word is not in us.

Jesus said unto Peter, Follow me. Then Peter turning about, seekest the disciple whom Jesus loved, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? Peter seeing him, faith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? Jesus faith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me. Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true. And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written.

The Innocents day.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast ordained strength, and madest infants to glorify thee by their deaths; Mortify and kill all vices in us, and so strengthen us by thy grace, that by the innocency of our lives, and constancy of our faith even unto death, we may glorify thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the EPISTLE. Rev. xiv. 1.

I LOOKED, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: and they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders; and no man could learn that song, but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth: these were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits unto God, and to the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no guile; for they are without fault before the throne of God.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. ii. 13.

THE angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child, and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word; for Herod will seek the young child, to destroy him. When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my Son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise-men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise-men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

The Sunday after Christmas-day.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin; Grant that we being regenerate, and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit, through the fame our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee, and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

NOW I say, that the heir as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; but is under tutors and governors, until the time appointed of the father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: but when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

The Gospel. St. Matth. i. 18.

The birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph (before they came together) she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a Son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins. (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is, God with us. Then Joseph being raised from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: and knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born Son; and he called his name JESUS.

The Circumcision of Christ.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who madest thy blessed Son to be circumcised, and obedient to the law for man; Grant us the true circumcision of the Spirit, that our hearts and all our members being mortified from all worldly and carnal lusts, we may in all things obey thy blessed will, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. iv. 8.

BLESSED is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: and the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

AND it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcision of the child, his name was called

THE CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST.

JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

The same Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, shall serve for every day after, unto the Epiphany. The Epiphany, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

The Collect.

O GOD, who by the leading of a star didst manifest thy only begotten Son to the Gentiles; Mercifully grant, that we which know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephes. iii. 1.

FOR this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles; if ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward: How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery (as I wrote afore in few words, whereby when ye read ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit; That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the Gospel: whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.
Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unspeakable riches of Christ; and to make all men see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the Church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord. In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

WHEN Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise-men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star* in the east, and are come to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judea: For thus it is written by the prophet, And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor that shall rule my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise-men, enquired of them diligently what time the Star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the Star which they saw in the east went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the Star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down and worshipped him: And when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

The first Sunday after the Epiphany.

THE COLLECT.

O LORD, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people which call upon thee, and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
THE EPISTLE. Rom. xii. 1.
I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke ii. 41.
NOW his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother knew not of it. But they supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.
And it came to pass that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.* And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrows. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

The second Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; Mercifully hear the suppliations of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xii. 6.

HAVING then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honour preferring one another: not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Blefs them which persecute you; blefs, and curse not. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. And both Jesus was called and his disciples to the marriage. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus faith unto him, They have no wine. Jesus faith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother faith unto the servants, Whatsoever he faith unto you, do it. And there were set there fix water-pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus faith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he faith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, and faith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory, and his disciples believed on him.

The third Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xii. 16.

BE not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the fight of all men. If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath; for it is written,
Vengeance is mine; I will repay, faith the Lord. Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. viii. 1.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus faith unto him, See thou tell no man, but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion beseeching him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus faith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say unto this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel. And I say unto you, that many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way, and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour.

The fourth Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

O GOD, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xiii. 1.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be, are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which G is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For, for this cause pay you tribute also; for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

AND when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us, we perish. And he faith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine, feeding. So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils. And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

The fifth Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech thee to keep thy Church and household continually in thy true religion; that they who do lean only upon the hope of thy heavenly grace, may evermore be defended by thy mighty power, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Col. iii. 12.

PUT on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindness, hum-blessed of mind, meekness, long-suffering, forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things, put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, and the Father by him.

THE kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man, which sowed good seed in his field. But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came, and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; left while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.
Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

The sixth Sunday after the Epiphany.

The Collect.

O GOD, whose blessed Son was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the sons of God, and heirs of eternal life; Grant us, we beseech thee, that having this hope, we may purify ourselves, even as he is pure; that when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom, where with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. John iii. 1.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know, that when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Whosoever committeth sin, transgresseth G 3 also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

The Gospel. St. Matth. xxiv. 23.

THEN if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there: believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; info much that (if it were possible) they shall deceive the very elect. Behold, I have told you before. Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers, believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west: so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be. For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Immediately after the tribulation of those days, shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be
And then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Sunday called Septuagesima, or the third Sunday before Lent.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people, that we, who are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodness, for the glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. ix. 24.

KNOW ye not, that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things: Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection, lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.

The Gospel. St. Matth. xx. 1.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an houholder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place, and said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. So when even was come,
the Lord of the vineyard said unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.* But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house, saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

The Sunday called Sexagesima, or the second Sunday before Lent.

The Collect.

O LORD God, who seest that we put not our trust in any thing that we do; Mercifully grant that by thy power we may be defended against all adversity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 2 Cor. xi. 19.

YE suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. For ye suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak: howbeit, wherefore any is bold (I speak foolishly) I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I: are they Israelites? so am I: are they the seed of Abraham? so am I: are they ministers of Christ? (I (speak as a fool) I am more: in labours more abundant; in stripes above measure; in prisons more frequent; in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one; thrice was I beaten with rods; once was I stoned; thrice I suffered shipwreck. A night and a day I have been in the deep: in journeyings often; in perils of waters; in perils of robbers; in perils by mine own countrymen; in perils by the heathen; in perils in the city; in perils in the wilderness; in perils in the sea; in perils among false brethren; in wearines and painfulness; in watchings often; in hunger and thirst; in fastings often; in cold and nakedness; besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lye not.

WHEN much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: A fower went out to fow his seed; and as he fowed, some fell by the way-side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it; and some fell upon a rock, and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture; and some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be? And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God;* those by the way-side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, left they should believe, and be saved. They on the rock are they, which when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground, are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

The Sunday called Quinquagesima, or the next Sunday before Lent.

The Collect.

O LORD, who hast taught us, that all our doings without charity are nothing worth; Send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace, and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee. Grant this for thine only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. xiii. 1.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal: And though I have the gift of prophesy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing: And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now, abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

THEN Jesus took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man shall be accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spit on: And they shall scourge him, and put him to death; and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken. And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way-side begging: and hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant. And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, saying, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

The first day of Lent, commonly called Ash-wednesday.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Collect is to be read every day in Lent, after the Collect appointed for the day.

For the Epistle. Joel ii. 12.

TURN ye even to me, faith the Lord, with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. And rent your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return, and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering and a drink-offering unto the Lord your God? Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet; let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: Wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. vi. 16.

WHEN ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face, that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. For
THE FIRST DAY OF LENT.
where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

The first Sunday in Lent.

The Collect.

O LORD, who for our sake didst fast forty days and forty nights; Give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteousness and true holiness, to thy honour and glory, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. 2 Cor. vi. 1.

WE then as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain: (For he faith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation) Giving no offence in any thing, that the minisiry be not blamed; but in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; by pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
by honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

THEN was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and sitteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, and saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down; for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee; and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and faith unto him, All these things will I give unto thee.
thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then faith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan; for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him, and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

The Second Sunday in Lent.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Thess. iv. 1.

WE beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication; that every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles, which know not God: that no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter; because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you, and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanliness, but unto holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

JESUS went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, Lord, thou son of David: my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I am not sent, but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord; yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith! be it unto thee, even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

The Third Sunday in Lent.

The Collect.

WE beseech thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of thy Majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephes. v. 1.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God, for a sweet-smelling favour. But fornication and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient; but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye therefore partakers with them; for ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light; (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodnes, and righteousness, and truth,) proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them: For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reproved, are made manifest by the light:
foever doth make manifest, is light. Wherefore he faith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

Jesus was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub, the chief of the devils.
And others tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. But he knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house, falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say, that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace; but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he faith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in, and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. And it came to pass as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it.

The Collect.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle. Gal. iv. 21.

TELL me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman, was born after the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem, which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem, which is above, is free; which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then, he that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit; even so it is now. Nevertheless, what faith the Scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son; for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman. So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

The Gospel. St. John vi. 1.

Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he faith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? (And this he said to prove him; for he himself knew what he would do.) Philip anfwered him, Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, faith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

The Fifth Sunday in Lent.
The Collect.

WE befeech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people; that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
CHRIST being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands; that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats, and calves; but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh; how much more shall the blood of Christ, who, through the eternal Spirit, offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the Mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

THE GOSPEL. St. John viii. 46.

JESUS said, Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God, heareth God's words; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritan,* and hast a devil? Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. And I seek not mine own glory; there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil: Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing; it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God: yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you; but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

The Sunday next before Easter.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility; Mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Phil. ii. 5.

LET this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name; that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, to put him to death. And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. Then Judas who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value, and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.) And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I releafe unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. When he was set down on the judgement-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I releafe unto you? They said, Barabbas. Pilate faith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? but they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; him they compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, A place of a skull, they gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down, they watched him there; and set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved others, himself he cannot save: if he be the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is to say, My God, My God, why hast thou for-faken me? Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him. Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And behold, the vail of the temple* was rent in twain from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent, and the graves were opened, and many bodies of saints which slept, arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watch-ing Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

For the Epistle. Isaiah ixiii. 1.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the wine-fat? I have trodden the wine-press alone, and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury, and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me, and my fury it upheld me. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. I will mention the loving-kindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness towards the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them, according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving-kindnesses. For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love, and in his pity he redeemed them, and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed his Holy Spirit; therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? Where is he that put his Holy Spirit within him? that led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting Name? That led them through the deep as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the Lord caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious Name. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness, and of thy glory: Where is thy zeal, and thy strength, the founding of thy bowels, and of thy mercies towards me? are they restrained? Doubtless thou art our Father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O Lord, art our Father, our Redeemer, thy Name is from everlasting. O Lord, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways? and hardened our hearts from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance. The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy Name.

AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes fought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death. But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there be an uproar of the people. And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster-box of ointment of spikenard, very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head. And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor: and they murmured against her. And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me: for ye have the poor with you always, and whenssoever ye will, ye may do them good; but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could; she is come aforehand to anoint my body.
to the burying. Verily I say unto you, Wherefore this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that he hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests to betray him unto them. And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money: And he sought how he might conveniently betray him. And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover? And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and faith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him: and wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master faith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will shew you a large upper room furnished, and prepared: there make ready for us. And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat, and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, one of you which eateth with me, shall betray me. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? And he an-answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of Man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed: good were it for that man if he had never been born. And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. And Jesus spake unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. And Jesus spake unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he faith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray. And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy, and faith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death; tarry ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me; nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt. And he cometh and findeth them sleeping, and faith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation: the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. And when he returned, he found them asleep again; for their eyes were heavy: neither wist they what to answer him. And he cometh the third time, and faith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and flaves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders. And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.
And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and faith, Master, master; and kissed him. And they laid their hands on him, and took him. And one of them that stood by, drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and with staves, to take me? I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the Scriptures must be fulfilled.
And they all forsook him, and fled. And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him: and he left the linen-cloth, and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes. And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest; and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire. And the chief priests, and all the counsel sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. But neither so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am; and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his clothes, and said, What need we any further witnesses? ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands. And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew. And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

Tuesday before Easter.

For the Epistle. Isaiah 1. 5.

THE Lord God hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. For the Lord God will help me, therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me: behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? Lo, they all shall wax old as a garment: the moth shall eat them up. Who is among you that fear-eth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the Name of the Lord, and stay upon his God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

And straightway in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering, said unto him, Thou sayest it. And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing. And Pilate asked him again, saying, Anwast thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee. But Jesus yet answered nothing: so that Pilate marvelled. Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them. But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.) But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucify him. Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band. And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head: and began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh; but he received it not. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. And with him they crucify two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. And the Scripture was fulfilled, which faith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves, with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save. Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him, reviled him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? and some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias. And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar,* and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down. And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

The Epistle. Heb. ix. 16.

WHERE a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator: for a testament is of force after men are dead; otherwise it is of no strength at all whilst the testator liveth. Whereupon, neither the first testament was dedicated without blood: for when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enjoined unto you. Moreover, he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place...
every year with blood of others: for then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world; but now once in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgement: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him, shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover. And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people. Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray him unto them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house* where he entereth in: And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master faith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished; there make ready. And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve Apostles with him. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer. For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table. And truly the Son of Man goeth, as it was determined; but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed. And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing. And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you, as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. For I say unto you, That this that is written, must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough. And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation. And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine be done. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven strengthening him. And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of Man with a kiss? When they who were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? And one of them smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders who were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and slaves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house: and Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. But a certain maid beheld him, as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him. And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not. And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him; for he is a Galilean. And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

And Peter went out, and wept bitterly. And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee? And many other things blasphemously spake they against him. And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying, Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of Man sit on the right hand of the power of God. Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am. And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

IN this that I declare unto you, I praise you not; that ye come together, not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I hear that there be divisions among you, and I partly believe it. For there must be also heresies among you, that they who are approved, may be made manifest among you. When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper: For in eating, every one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

The whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a king. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it. Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this man. And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean. And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time. And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad; for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing. And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together; for before they were at enmity between themselves. And Pilate when he had called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people, said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him. I will therefore chastise him, and release him. For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast. And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: (who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast in prison.) Pilate therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again to them. But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief priests prevailed. And Pilate gave sentence, that it should be as they required. And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? And there were also two other malefactors led with him to be put to death. And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him; and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. And the people stood beholding; and the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God. And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, and saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself. And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself, and us. But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds, but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise. And it was about the sixth hour: and there was darkness over all the earth, until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst. And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that fight, beholding the things that were done, fmote their breasts, and returned. And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

Good Friday.

The Collects.

ALMIGHTY God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross, who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the church is governed and sanctified; Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O MERCIFUL God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor wouldst the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted, and live; Have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Hereticks, and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy flock, that they may be faved among the remnant of the true Israel-
GOOD FRIDAY. 137

Ites, and be made one fold under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Heb. x. 1.

THE law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offered year by year continually; make the comers thereunto perfect: for then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he faith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure: Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God. Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered by the law; then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of
GOOD FRIDAY.

Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified: whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: For after that he had said before, This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, faith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh; and having an high Priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) and let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and said unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate said unto them, Behold the man! When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate said unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; and went again into the judgment-hall, and said unto Jesus, Whence art thou? but Jesus gave him no answer. Then said Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: Whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Caesar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he faith unto the Jews, Behold your king! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate faith unto them, Shall I crucify your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified: and they took Jesus, and led him away. And he bearing his cross, went forth into a place called The place of a scull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha: where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross; and the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not,
The king of the Jews; but that he said, I am the king of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, (and made four parts, to every soldier a part) and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.* They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which faith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by whom he loved, he said unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son. Then faith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, faith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for that sabbath-day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken,* and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs. But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he faith true, that ye might believe. For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again, another Scripture faith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

Easter-Even.

The Collect.

GRANT, O Lord, that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections, we may be buried with him; and that through the grave and gate of death, we may pass to our joyful resurrection, for his merits, who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The taking down from the Cross
THE EPISTLE. 1 St. Pet. iii. 17.

IT is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins: the just for the unjust; (that he might bring us to God,) being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: by which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; which sometime were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing; wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water. The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us, (not the putting away the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ: Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxvii. 57.

WHEN the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple. He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch; go your way, make it as sure as you can. So they went and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

Easter-Day.

At Morning Prayer, instead of the Psalm ["O come let us;" &c.] these Anthems shall be sung or said.

CHRIST our passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast;

Not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. 1 Cor. v. 7.

CHRIST being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over him.

For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
THE RESURRECTION.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi. 9.

CHRIST is risen from the dead: and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death: by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die: even so in Christ shall all be made alive. 1 Cor. xv. 20.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ, hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee, that as by thy special grace preventing us, thou dost put into our minds good desires; so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who livesth and reigneth with thee, and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Col. iii. 1.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand, of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth: For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanliness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience. In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

The Gospel. St. John xx. 1.

The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and faith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together; and the other disciple did out-run Peter, and came first to the sepulchre; and he stooping down and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie; and the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. Then went in also that other disciple which came firt to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

PETER opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ; (he is Lord of all;) that word (I say) ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the Baptism which John preached: How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost, and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.
And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew, and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he who was ordained of God to be the judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his Name, whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

BEHOLD, two of his disciples went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were holden, that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these, that ye have one to another, as ye walk and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said unto him; Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pafs there in these days? And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word, before God and all the people: And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him. But we trusted that it had been he who should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done. Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, who were early at the sepulchre; and when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them who were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said; but him they saw not. Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village whither they went; and he made as though he would have gone farther: But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us; for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as he fat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he vanished out of their sight. And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures? And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

_Tuesday in Easter-Week._

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who through thy only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee, that as by thy special grace preventing us, thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

_For the Epistle. Acts xiii. 26._

MEN and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.
For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. But God raised him from the dead: And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore he faith also in another Psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.*

JESUS himself stood in the midst of them, and faith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-comb. And he took it, and did eat before them. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms concerning me. Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the Scriptures; and said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day; and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these things.

* Habakkuk i. 5.

The First Sunday after Easter.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification; Grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may alway serve thee in pureness of living and truth, through the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. John v. 4.

WHATSOEVER is born of God, overcometh the world; and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life; and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son, hath life; and he that hath not the Son, hath not life.

THE same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and said unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whosesoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosesoever sins ye retain, they are retained.
THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life; Give us grace, that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavour ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. 1 St. Pet. ii. 19.

THIS is thank worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? But if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: Who his ownself bare our sins in his own body on the tree; that we being dead to sin, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.
156 THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

THE GOSPEL. St. John x. 11.

JESUS said, I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring,* and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

The Third Sunday after Easter.

THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, who shewest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; Grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may eschew those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

* John xi. 52.

The Epistle. 1 St. Pet. ii. 11.

DEARLY beloved, I befeech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles; that whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness; but as the servants of God. Honour all men: Love the brotherhood: Fear God: Honour the king.

JESUS said to his disciples, A little while and ye shall not see me; and again, a little while and ye shall see me; because I go to the Father. Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he faith unto us, A little while and ye shall not see me; and again, a little while and ye shall see me; and, Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is this that he faith, A little while? we cannot tell what he faith. Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while and ye shall not see me; and again, a little while and ye shall see me? Verily, verily I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in travail, hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

The Fourth Sunday after Easter.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. St. James i. 17.

EVERY good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither sha-
Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted Word, which is able to save your souls.

The Gospel. St. John xvi. 5.

Jesus said unto his disciples, Now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement: Of sin, because they believe not on me: Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more: Of judgement, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

The Fifth Sunday after Easter.

The Collect.

O LORD, from whom all good things do come; Grant to us thy humble servants, that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Epistle. St. James i. 22.

BE ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the Word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glafs. For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whofo looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein: he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xvi. 23.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my Name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my Name: Ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. At that day ye shall ask in my Name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now are we sure, that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.

Ascension-Day.

The Collect.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind therewith ascend, and with him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts i. 1.

THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the Apostles whom he had chosen: To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs; being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: and being assembled together with them, commanded them, that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, faith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. But ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner, as ye have seen him go into heaven.

JESUS appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my Name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.

Sunday after Ascension-Day.

The Collect.

O GOD the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven; We beseech thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. Pet. iv. 7.

THE end of all things is at hand; be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins. Use hospitality one to another without grudging. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God: If any man mi-

The Gospel. St. John xv. 26. and part of Chap. xvi.
WHEN the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you, will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me: but these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them.

Whit-Sunday.
The Collect.
GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the fame Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort, through the merits of Christ Jesus our Sa-

For the Epistle. Acts ii. 1.

WHEN the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place: And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues, like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them: and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. And they were all amazed, and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not these which speak Galileans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and Proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.
JESUS said unto his disciples, If ye love me, keep my commandments: and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know, that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father; and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. Judas faith unto him, (not Iscariot) Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear, is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will fend in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass, ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do.

Monday in Whitsun-Week.

The Collect.

GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort, through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.
JOHN BAPTIZING CHRIST.
FOR THE EPISTLE. Acts x. 34.

THEN Peter opened his mouth and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all); that word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached: How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost, and with power; who went about doing good,* and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew, and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God; even to us who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his Name, whosoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them who heard the Word. And they of the circumcision, who believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost: for they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

* What pen can describe a greater character than these few words exhibit?

THE GOSPEL. St. John iii. 16.

GOD so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned already; because he hath not believed in the Name of the only-begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil, hateth the light; neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.
The Collect.

GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort, through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

WHEN the Apostles, who were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John; who when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them; only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus.) Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep: to him the porter openeth, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and lead-eth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice: and a stranger will they not follow; but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again; Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep: All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

Trinity Sunday.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity; We beseech thee, that thou wouldest keep us stedfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, who livest and reignest, one God, world without end. Amen.
For the Epistle. Rev. iv. 1.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne: and he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone; and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. And round about the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold: And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God. And before the throne, there was a sea of glass, like unto crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind: and the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rested not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come. And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

The Gospel. St. John iii. 1. THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles, that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus faith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it lifteth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth; so is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not; how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of Man, who is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness,* even so must the Son of Man be lifted up: that whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have eternal life.

The First Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O GOD, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

* See Numb. xxi. 8, 9.
BELOVED, let us love one another: for love is of God, and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us; because he hath given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment: he that feareth, is not made perfect in love. We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

THERE was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day. And there was a certain beggar, named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs, which fell from the rich man’s table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried: and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and feeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they who would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham faith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham; but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

The Second Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O Lord, who never failest to help and govern them whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love; Keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. John iii. 13.

Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But who so hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him; how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed, and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

A CERTAIN man made a great supper, and bade many; and sent his servant at supper-time to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it; I pray thee have me excused: And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused: And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the high-ways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled: For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

The Third Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may by thy mighty aid be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 St. Pet. v. 5.

All of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith; knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

THEN drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spake this parable unto them, saying, What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, That likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Either what woman, having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

The Fourth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O GOD, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; Increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. viii. 18.

I RECKON that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope: because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth, and travaileth in pain together until now: And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

BE ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven: give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again. And he spake a parable unto them; Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? The disciple is not above his master; but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.
THE COLLECT.

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. 1 St. Pet iii. 8.

Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous, not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwise, blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts.

It came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the Word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, and saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering, said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing, nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake. And they beckoned unto their partners which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; and so was also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.
THE COLLECT.

O GOD, who hast prepared for them that love thee, such good things as pass man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward thee, that we loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Rom. vi. 3.

KNOW ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death; that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead, is freed from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him; knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once; but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin; but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

JESUS said unto his disciples, Except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill: and whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgement. But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be in danger of the judgement: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hellfire.* Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou haft paid the uttermost farthing.

hearts the love of thy Name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. vi. 19.

I SPEAK after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: For as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness, and to iniquity, unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, unto holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and faith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way; for divers of them came from far. And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: And he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes; and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand. And he sent them away.

The Eighth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O GOD, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; We humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which be profitable for us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. viii. 12.

BRETHREN, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die; but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

The Gospel. St. Matth. vii. 15.

BEWARE of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit; neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that faith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven.

The Ninth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the Spirit to think and do alway such things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
THE NINTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. x. 1.

BRETHREN, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea; and did all eat the same spiritual meat, and did all drink the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them; and that Rock was Christ.) But with many of them God was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them: as it is written, The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

The Gospel. St. Luke xvi. 1.

JESUS said unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him, that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat.* And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighte-

The Collect.

Let thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. xii. 1.

Concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus accursed; and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God, who worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues. But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

AND when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves. And he taught daily in the temple.

The Eleventh Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O GOD, who declarest thy Almighty power most chiefly in shewing mercy and pity; Mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. 1 Cor. xv. 1.

BRETHREN, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he rose again the third day, according to the Scriptures; and that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present; but some are fallen asleep: After that he was seen of James; then of all the Apostles: And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time: For I am the least of the Apostles, that am not meet to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace, which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
THE TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY.

JESUS spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and despised others: Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself; God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this Publican: I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the Publican standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

The Twelfth Sunday after Trinity.

THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everlastling God, who art always more ready to hear, than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire, or deserve; Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.
THE EPISTLE. 2 Cor. iii. 4.

SUCH trust have we through Christ to Godward: Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God. Who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament; not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stones was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away; how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

THE GOSPEL. St. Mark vii. 31.

JESUS departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and faith unto him, "Ephphatha," that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it, and were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh, that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service; Grant, we beseech thee, that we may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Gal. iii. 16.

TO Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He faith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, That the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise. Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given, which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

BLESSED are the eyes which see the things that ye see. For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? How readest thou? And he answering, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right; this do, and thou shalt live. But he willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him; and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Gal. v. 16.

I SAY then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

* The Jews abhorred the Samaritans. See Dr. Willan, p. 26, 83, III.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke xvii. 11.

AND it came to pass, as Jesus went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off. And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go, shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering, said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger. And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

The Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

KEEP, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy: And because the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Gal. vi. 11.

YE see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand. As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only left they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. And as many as walk
according to this rule, peace be on them and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. From henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on: Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them: Are ye not much better than they? Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; and yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drink? or wherewithal shall we be clothed? (for after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow; for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself: sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

The Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church; and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephes. iii. 13.

I DESIRE that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

AND it came to pass the day after, that Jesus went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came and touched the bier, (and they that bare him stood still;) and he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead, sat up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us, and that God hath visited his people. And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

The Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

Lord, we pray thee, that thy grace may always prevent and follow us; and make us continually to be given to all good works, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephes. iv. 1.

I THEREFORE the prisoner of the Lord beseech you, that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

IT came to pass, as Jesus went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that they watched him. And behold, there was a certain man before him, who had the dropsy. And Jesus answering, spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-day? And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go; and answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass, or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath-day?* And they could not answer him again to these things. And he put forth a parable to those who were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms, saying unto them,

* Several of the Rabbins objected even to this labor on the sabbath. Misna.
When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, fit not down in the highest room; left a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him; and he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. But when thou art bidden, go, and fit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

The Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

LORD, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil; and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee the only God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. i. 4.

I THANK my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; that in every thing ye are enriched by him in all utterance, and in all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift: waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall also confirm you unto the end; that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
WHEN the Pharisees had heard that Jesus had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together. Then one of them, who was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. He faith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? If David then call him Lord, how is he his son? And no man was able to answer him a word; neither durst any man (from that day forth) ask him any more questions.

The Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O God, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee; Mercifully grant, that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
The Epistle. Ephef. iv. 17.

THIS I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind; having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: who being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ; if so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; and that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole, steal no more; but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good, to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed.
unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.

Jesus entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed. And Jesus seeing their faith, said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee. And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of Man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (Then faith he to the sick of the palsy) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house. And he arose, and departed to his house. But when the multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, who had given such power unto men.

The Twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O Almighty and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness, keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things that thou wouldst have done, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Ephes. v. 15.

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs; singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ; submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

Jesus said, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, who made a marriage for his son; and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them who are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready; come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandife: and the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and flew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth; and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city. Then faith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they who were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the high-ways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the high-ways, and gathered together all, as many as they found, both bad and good; and the wedding was furnished with guefts. And when the king came in to see the guefts, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding-garment. And he faith unto him, Friend, how cameft thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness: There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are choisen.

The Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

GRANT, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people, pardon and peace; that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
MY brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth; and having on the breast-plate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked; and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God: praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; and for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel; for which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

THERE was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him, that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. The nobleman faith unto him, Sir, come down, ere my child die. Jesus faith unto him, Go thy way, thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend: And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house. This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

The Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

LORD, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness; that through thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. i. 3.

I THANK my God upon every remembrance of you, (always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy) for your fellowship in the Gospel from the first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that he who hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ; even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the Gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgement: that ye may approve things that are excellent, that ye may be sincere, and without offence till the day of Christ: being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xviii. 21.

PETER said unto Jesus, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus faith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, who owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold,* and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the Lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him an hundred pence; and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

* In the eastern nations creditors might sell debtors incapable of payment.
THE COLLECT.

O GOD, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness; Be ready, we beseech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully, we may obtain effectually, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Phil. iii. 17.

BRETHREN, be followers together of me, and mark them who walk so, as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ; whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xxii. 15.

THEN went the Pharisees and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regard-elf not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he faith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Cesar's. Then faith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cesar's; and unto God, the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

The Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

O Lord, we beseech thee, absolve thy people from their offences; that through thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins, which by our frailty we have committed. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Epistle. Col. i. 3.

We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints; for the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the Gospel; which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth. As ye also learned of Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding: That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience, and long-suffering, with joyfulness; giving thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. ix. 18.

WHILE Jesus spake these things unto John's disciples, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead; but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. (And behold, a woman, who was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment; for she said within herself,
If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole. But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.) And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, he said unto them, Give place; for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose. And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

The Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity.

The Collect.

STIR up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may of thee be plenteously rewarded, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Jer. xxiii. 5.

BEHOLD, the days come, faith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth. In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his Name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. Therefore behold, the days come, faith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The Lord liveth, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; but, The Lord liveth, who brought up, and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north-country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

WHEN Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he said unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? (And this he said to prove him; for he himself knew what he would do.) Philip answered him, Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said unto him, There is a lad here, who hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes; but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world.

If there be any more Sundays before Advent-Sunday, the Service of some of those Sundays that were omitted after the Epiphany, shall be taken in to supply so many as are here wanting. And if there be fewer, the overplus may be omitted: Provided that this last Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, shall always be used upon the Sunday next before Advent.

St. Andrew's Day.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who didst give such grace unto thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ; and followed him without delay; Grant unto us all, that we being called by thy holy Word, may forthwith give up ourselves obediently to fulfill thy holy commandments, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. x. 9.

If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture faith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him, in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him, of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias faith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily; their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses faith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Esaias is very bold, and faith, I was found of them that fought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. But to Israel he faith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.
THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. iv. 18.

Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen;) And he faith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishermen of men. And they straightway left their nets, and followed him. And going on from thence he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them: and they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

St. Thomas the Apostle.

THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who for the more confirmation of the Faith didst suffer thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in thy Son's resurrection; Grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt to believe in thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in thy sight may never be reproved. Hear us, O Lord, through the same Jesus Christ, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Ephes. ii. 19.

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone; in whom all the building, fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God, through the Spirit.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xx. 24.

THOMAS, one of the twelve, called Didy-mus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.
And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then faith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithlefs, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him,
My Lord, and my God. Jesus faith unto him,
Thomas, because thou haft seen me, thou haft believed; blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his Name.

The Conversion of St. Paul.

The Collect.

O GOD, who through the preaching of the blessed Apostle Saint Paul, hast caused the light of the Gospel to shine throughout the world; Grant, we beseech thee, that we having his wonderful conversion in remembrance, may shew forth our thankfulness unto thee for the same, by following the holy doctrine which he taught, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts ix. 1.

AND Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus, and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven. And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And he trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man; but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street, which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tar-\n\n\nS 2 appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales; and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. xix. 27.

PETER answered and said unto Jesus, Behold, we have forsoaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of Man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsoaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Name's sake, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life. But many that are first shall be last, and the last shall be first.

The Presentation of CHRIST in the Temple, commonly called, The Purification of St. Mary the Virgin.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty, that as thy only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in substance of our flesh; so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Mal. iii. 1.

BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple; even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in; behold, he shall come, faith the Lord of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap. And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the Lord, as in the days of old, and as in former years. And I will come near to you to judgement, and I will be a swift witness against the forcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, faith the Lord of hosts.

AND when the days of her purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord, (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb, shall be called holy to the Lord) and to offer a sacrifice, according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons. And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came by the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said; Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: for mine eyes have seen thy salvation; which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel. And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against, (yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna a prophetess,* the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser; she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity: And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years; which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers, night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

St. Matthias' Day.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who into the place of the traitor Judas, didst choose thy faithful servant Matthias to be of the number of the twelve Apostles; Grant that thy Church being *Προφητισσα. The proper definition of a prophet may be seen in Numb. xii. 6.

alway preserved from false apostles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true pastors, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts i. 15.

IN those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty;) Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus: for he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein; and, His bishoprick let another take. Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph called Barfabas, who was surnamed Justus,
THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE VIRGIN MARY
and Matthias. And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen; that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.

At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

The Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Collect.

We beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts; that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel, so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection, through the fame Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Isaiah vii. 10.

MOREOVER, the Lord spake again unto Ahaz, saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign, Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call his Name Immanuel: Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

AND in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a Virgin espoused to a man, whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a Son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God. And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren: For with God nothing shall be impossible.* And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

St. Mark's Day.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast instructed thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy Evangelist Saint Mark; Give us grace, that being not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine, we may be established in the truth of thy holy Gospel, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

* Παν εννυ απ αδιωτησι strictly signifies, No word or promise shall want effect.
UNTO every one of us is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.) And he gave some apostles, and some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ; that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: from whom the whole body fitly joined together, and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of itself in love.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
O ALMIGHTY God, whom truly to know is everlasting life; Grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; that following the steps of thy holy Apostles, Saint Philip and Saint James, we may steadfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. St. James i. 1.

JAMES a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting. My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God,
that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering; for he that waver-eth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind, and tossed. For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted; but the rich in that he is made low; because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

THE GOSPEL. St. John xiv. 1.

AND Jesus said unto his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you: And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go, ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas faith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest, and how can we know the way? Jesus faith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. Philip faith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus faith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?
Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself; but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works sake. Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask anything in my Name, I will do it.

St. Barnabas the Apostle.

The Collect.

O LORD God Almighty, who didst endue thy holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost; Leave us not, we beseech thee, destitute of thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to thy honour and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts xi. 22.

TIDINGS of these things came unto the ears of the Church which was at Jerusalem; and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch: Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. Then departed Barnabas to Tarfus, for to seek Saul: And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the Church, and taught much people: and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch: And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

The Gospel. St. John xv. 12.

THIS is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my Name, he may give it you.

St. John Baptist's Day.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, by whose providence thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of thy Son our Saviour, by preaching of repentance; Make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Isaiah xl. 1.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye, my people, faith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished; that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a high-way for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it. The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the Word of our God shall stand for ever. O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain: O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid: say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God. Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

THE GOSPEL. St. Luke i. 57.

ELISABETH's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them; and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea. And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be? And the hand of the Lord was with him. And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people, and hath raised up an horn* of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us: to perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he sware to our father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life. And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; to give knowledge of salvation unto his people, by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit; and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

St. Peter's Day.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst give to thy Apostle Saint Peter many excellent gifts, and commandedst him earnestly to feed thy flock; Make, we beseech thee, all Bishops and Pastors diligently to preach thy holy Word, and the people obediently to follow the same, that they may receive the crown of everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts xii. 1.

ABOUT that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the Church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in prison; but prayer was made without ceasing of the Church unto God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison; and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he said unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city, which opened to them of his own accord; and they went out, and passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.
the ANGEL delivering PETER out of PRISON
WHEN Jesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I, the Son of Man, am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist, some Elias, and others Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He faith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

St. James the Apostle.

The Collect.

GRANT, O merciful God, that as thine holy Apostle Saint James, leaving his father and all that he had, without delay was obedient unto the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him; so we, forsaking all worldly and carnal affections, may be evermore ready to follow thy holy commandments, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Acts xi. 27.

In those days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world; which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea. Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. Now about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the Church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also.

Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him. We are able. And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

St. Bartholomew the Apostle.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who didst give to thine Apostle Bartholomew grace truly to believe and to preach thy Word; Grant, we beseech thee, unto thy Church, to love that Word which he believed, and both to preach and receive the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BY the hands of the Apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people, (and they were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch: And of the rest durst no man join himself to them; but the people magnified them. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women,) insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed every one.

AND there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them, are called Benefactors.* But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

* Saviour and Benefactor were titles commonly applied to kings in those days.
O ALMIGHTY God, who by thy blessed Son didst call Matthew from the receipt of custom, to be an Apostle and Evangelist; Grant us grace to forfake all covetous desires and inordinate love of riches, and to follow the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; but have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the Word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. But if our Gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, left the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.

AND as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he faith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came, and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice; for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

St. Michael and All Angels.

The Collect.

O EVERLASTING God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; Mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels alway do thee service in heaven; so by thy appointment they may succour and defend us on earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Epistle. Rev. xii. 7.

THERE was war in heaven: Michael and his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels; and prevailed not, neither was there place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world; he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one such little child in my Name, receiveth me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth. of the sea. Wo unto the world because of offences: for it must needs be that offences come: but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh. Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

St. Luke the Evangelist.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY God, who calledst Luke the physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist and Physician of the soul; May it please thee, that by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him, all the diseases of our souls may be healed, through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. 2 Tim. iv. 5.

WATCH thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an Evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me: for Demas hath forsoaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry. And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee; and the books, but especially the parchments. Alexander the copper-smith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works. Of whom be thou ware also, for he hath greatly withstood our words.

The Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways; behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire.

St. Simon and St. Jude, Apostles.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head corner-stone; Grant us so to be joined together in unity of Spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JUDE the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: Mercy unto you, and peace, and love be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you, that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation; ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness, unto the judgement of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

These things I command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than the lord: if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my Name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto Y them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin. He that hateth me, hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin; but now have they both seen, and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me. And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

_All Saints Day._

_The Collect._

_O ALMIGHTY God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord; Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen._

_For the Epistle._ Rev. vii. 2.

_AND I saw another angel ascended from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth, and the sea, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them which were sealed; and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Nepthalim were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Manassés were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Zabulun were sealed twelve thousand.

Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand.
260 ALL SAINTS DAY.

Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God, which setteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders, and the four beasts; and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen; Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL. St. Matth. v. 1.

Jesus seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain; and when he was set, his disciples came unto him. And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake: Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

THE ORDER FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LORD’S SUPPER, OR

THE HOLY COMMUNION.

SO many as intend to be partakers of the Holy Communion, shall signify their Names to the Curate, at least some time the day before.

And if any of those be an open and notorious evil liver, or have done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed, so that the Congregation be thereby offended; the Curate having knowledge thereof, shall call him and advertise him, that in any wise he presume not to come to the Lord’s Table, until he hath openly declared himself to have truly repented and amended his former naughty life, that the Congregation may thereby be satisfied, which before were offended; and that he hath recompensed the Parties, to whom he hath done wrong; or at least declare himself to be in full purpose so to do, as soon as he conveniently may.

The same Order shall the Curate use with those, betwixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reign; not suffering them to be partakers of the Lord’s Table, until he know them to be reconciled. And if one of the Parties so at variance, be content to forgive from the bottom of his heart all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that he himself hath offended; and the other Party will not be persuaded to a godly unity, but remain still in his srowardness and malice: the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the Holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate. Provided that every Minister so repelling any, as is specified in this or the next precedent paragraph of this Rubrick, shall be obliged to give an account of the same to the Ordinary within fourteen days after at the farthest. And the Ordinary shall proceed against the offending person according to the Canon.

The Table at the Communion-time having a fair white Linen Cloth upon it, shall stand in the Body of the Church, or in the Chancel, where Morning and Evening Prayer are appointed to be said. And the Priest standing at the North-Side of the Table, shall say the Lord’s Prayer with the Collect following; the People kneeling.
OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit; that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

I Then shall the Priest, turning to the People, rehearse distinctly all the Ten Commandments; and the People still kneeling, shall after every Commandment, ask God mercy for their transgression thereof for the time past, and grace to keep the same for the time to come, as followeth.

Minister.

GOD spake these words, and said, I am the Lord thy God: Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless, that taketh his Name in vain.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Minister. Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt do no murder.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not steal.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

People. Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these thy laws in our hearts we beseech thee.

Then shall follow one of these two Collects for the King, the Priest standing as before, and saying,

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY God, whose kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite; Have mercy upon the whole Church; and so rule the heart of thy chosen servant GEORGE, our King and Governor, that he (knowing whose minister he is) may above all things seek thy honour and glory; and that we, and all his subjects (duly considering whose authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed Word and Ordinance, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who with thee, and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

Or,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, we are taught by thy holy Word, that the hearts of Kings are in thy rule and governance, and that thou dost dispose and turn them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom; We humbly beseech thee so to dispose and govern the heart of GEORGE thy Servant, our King and Governor, that in all his thoughts, words, and works, he may ever seek thy honour and glory, and study to preserve thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness: Grant this, O merciful Father, for thy dear Son's sake Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be said the Collect of the Day. And immediately after the Collect, the Priest shall read the Epistle, saying, “The Epistle [or, “The portion of Scripture appointed for the Epistle] is written in the ——— Chapter of ——— beginning at the ———
And the Epistle ended, he shall say, "Here endeth the Epistle." Then shall he read the Gospel (the People all standing up) saying, "The holy Gospel is written in the —— Chapter of —— beginning at the —— Verse." And the Gospel ended, shall be sung or said the Creed following, the People still standing as before.

I BELIEVE in one God, the Father Almighty; Maker of heaven and earth; And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ; the only-begotten Son of God; Begotten of his Father before all worlds; God of God; Light of Light; Very God of very God; Begotten, not made; Being of one substance with the Father; By whom all things were made; Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven; And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary; And was made man; And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures; And ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father; And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost; The Lord and Giver of life; Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Catholic and Apostolick Church; I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins; And I look for the Resurrection of the dead; and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Then the Curate shall declare unto the People what Holy-days, or Fasting-days are in the Week following to be observed. And then also (if occasion be) shall notice be given of the Communion; and the Banns of Matrimony published; and Briefs, Citations, and Excommunications read. And nothing shall be proclaimed or published in the Church, during the Time of Divine Service, but by the Minister: nor by him any Thing, but what is prescribed in the Rules of this Book, or enjoined by the King, or by the Ordinary of the Place.

Then shall follow the Sermon, or one of the Homilies already set forth, or hereafter to be set forth by Authority.

Then shall the Priest return to the Lord's Table, and begin the Offertory, saying one or more of these Sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient in his Discretion.

LET your light so shine* before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. St. Matth. v. 16.

Lay not up for yourselves treasure upon the earth; where the moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven; where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. St. Matth. vi. 19, 20.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do unto them, for this is the law and the prophets. St. Matth. vii. 12.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. St. Matth. vii. 21.

Zaccheus stood forth, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have done any wrong to any man, I restore four-fold. St. Luke xix. 8.

Who goeth a warfare at any time of his own cost? Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? 1 Cor. ix. 7.

If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your worldly things? 1 Cor. ix. 11.

Do ye not know, that they who minister about holy things, live of the sacrifice; and they who wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar? even so hath the Lord also ordained, that they who preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel. 1 Cor. ix. 13, 14.

He that soweth little, shall reap little; and he that soweth plenteously, shall reap plenteously. Let every man do according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 2 Cor. ix. 6, 7.

Let him that is taught in the Word, minister unto him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he reap. Gal. vi. 6, 7.

While we have time, let us do good unto all men; and specially unto them that are of the household of faith. Gal. vi. 10.

Godliness is great riches, if a man be content with that he hath: for we brought nothing into the world, neither may we carry any thing out. 1 Tim. vi. 6, 7.

Charge them who are rich in this world, that they be ready to give, and glad to distribute; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may attain eternal life. 1 Tim. vi. 17, 18, 19.

God is not unrighteous, that he will forget your works, and labour that proceedeth of love; which love ye have shewed for his Name's sake, who have ministered unto the saints, and yet do minister. Heb. vi. 10.
To do good, and to distribute, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is pleased. Heb. xiii. 16.

Who so hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him; how dwelleth the love of God in him? 1 St. John iii. 17.

Give alms of thy goods, and never turn thy face from any poor man; and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee. Tob. iv. 7.

Be merciful after thy power. If thou hast much, give plenteously: If thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little: for so gatherest thou thyself a good reward in the day of necessity. Tob. iv. 8, 9.

He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord: and look, what he layeth out, it shall be paid him again. Prov. xix. 17.

Blessed be the man that provideth for the sick and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble. Psal. xli. 1.

I Whilft these Sentences are in reading, the Deacons, Churchwardens, or other fit Person appointed for that Purpose, shall receive the Alms for the Poor, and other Devotions of the People, in a decent Basin to be provided by the Parish for that purpose; and reverently bring it to the Priest, who shall humbly present and place it upon the holy Table.
And when there is a Communion, the Priest shall then place upon the Table so much Bread and Wine, as he shall think sufficient. After which done, the Priest shall say,

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church militant here in earth.

 Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully [*to accept our alms and oblations and] to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity, and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian Kings, Princes, and Governors; and especially thy servant George our King; that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of

* If there be no alms or oblations, then shall the words, "of accepting our alms and oblations," be left unsaid.
thy true Religion, and Virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments. And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that with meek heart, and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them, who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also bless thy holy Name, for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom: Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

When the Minister giveth Warning for the Celebration of the holy Communion, (which he shall always do upon the Sunday, or some Holy-Day, immediately preceding;) after the Sermon, or Homily ended, he shall read this Exhortation following.

DEARLY beloved, on —— day next, I purpose, through God's assistance, to administer to all such as shall be religiously and devoutly disposed, the most comfortable Sacrament of the body and blood of Christ; to be by them received, in remembrance of his meritorious Cross and Passion; whereby alone we obtain remission of our sins, and are made partakers of the kingdom of heaven. Wherefore it is our duty to render most humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God our heavenly Father, for that he hath given his Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, not only to die for us, but also to be our spiritual food and sustenance in that holy Sacrament. Which being so divine and comfortable a thing to them who receive it worthily, and so dangerous to them that will presume to receive it unworthily;* my duty is to exhort you in the mean season to consider the dignity of that holy Mystery, and the great peril of the unworthy receiving thereof; and so to search and examine your own consciences (and that not lightly, and after the manner of dissemblers with God; but so) that ye may come holy and clean to such a heavenly feast, in the marriage-garment required by God in holy Scripture, and be received as worthy partakers of that holy Table.

The way and means thereto is; First, to examine your lives and conversations by the rule of God's commandments: and whereinsoever ye shall perceive yourselves to have offended, either by will, word, or deed; there to bewail your own sinfulness, and to confess yourselves to Almighty

*See the Apostle Paul's exhortation on this subject in Cor. xi. 27. 29.
God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if ye shall perceive your offences to be such, as are not only against God, but also against your neighbours; then ye shall reconcile yourselves unto them, being ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the uttermost of your powers, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other; and being likewise ready to forgive others that have offended you, as ye would have forgiveness of your offences at God's hand: for otherwise the receiving of the holy Communion doth nothing else but increase your damnation. Therefore if any of you be a blasphemer of God, an hinderer or slanderer of his Word, an adulterer, or be in malice or envy, or in any other grievous crime; repent ye of your sins, or else come not to that holy Table; left after the taking of that holy Sacrament, the devil enter into you, as he entered into Judas, and fill you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body and soul.

And because it is requisite, that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in God's mercy, and with a quiet conscience; therefore if there be any of you, who by this means cannot quiet his own conscience herein, but requireth further comfort or counsel; let him come to me, or to some other discreet and learned Minister of God's Word, and open his grief; that by the ministry of God's holy Word he may receive the benefit of absolution, together with ghostly counsel and advice, to the quieting of his conscience, and avoiding of all scruple and doubtfulness.

Or, in case he shall see the People negligent to come to the holy Communion, instead of the former, he shall use this Exhortation.

DEARLY beloved brethren, on —— I intend, by God's grace, to celebrate the Lord's Supper: unto which, in God's behalf, I bid you all that are here present; and beseech you for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so lovingly called and bid- den by God himself. Ye know how grievous and unkind a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kind of provision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit down; and yet they who are called (without any cause) most unthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moved? Who would not think a great injury and wrong done unto him? Wherefore, most dearly beloved in Christ, take ye good heed; left ye withdrawing yourselves from this holy Supper, provoke God's indignation against you. It is an easy matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise hindered with worldly busineses. But such excuses are not so easily accepted, and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grievous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: wherefore then do ye not repent and amend? When God calleth you, are ye not ashamed to say, Ye will not come? When ye should return to God, will ye excuse yourselves, and say, ye are not ready? Consider earnestly with yourselves, how little such feigned excuses will avail before God. They that refused the feast in the Gospel, because they had bought a farm, or would try their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted unworthy of the heavenly feast. I, for my part, shall be ready; and according to mine office, I bid you in the Name of God, I call you in Christ's behalf, I exhort you, as ye love your own salvation, that ye will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the Son of God did vouchsafe to yield up his soul by death upon the Cross for your salvation; so it is your duty to receive the Communion in remembrance of the sacrifice of his death, as he himself hath commanded: Which if ye shall neglect to do, consider with yourselves how great injury ye do unto God, and how sore punishment hangeth over your heads for the same; when ye wilfully abstain from the Lord's Table, and separate from your brethren, who come to feed on the banquet of that most heavenly food. These things if ye earnestly confider, ye will by God's grace return to a better mind: for the obtaining whereof we shall not cease to make our humble petitions unto Almighty God our heavenly Father.

At the time of the Celebration of the Communion, the Communicants being conveniently placed for the receiving of the Holy Sacrament, the Priest shall say this Exhortation.

DEARLY beloved in the Lord, ye that mind to come to the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, must consider how Saint Paul exhorteth all persons diligently to try and examine themselves, before they presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. For as the benefit is great, if with a true penitent heart and lively faith we receive that holy Sacrament; (for then we spiritually eat the Flesh of Christ, and drink his Blood; then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in us; we are one with Christ, and Christ with us:) so is the danger great, if we receive the same unworthily. For then we are guilty of the Body and Blood of Christ our Saviour; we eat and drink our own damnation, not considering the Lord's Body; we kindle God's wrath against us; we provoke him to plague us with divers diseases, and sundry kinds of death. Judge therefore yourselves, brethren, that ye be not judged of the Lord; repent ye truly for your sins past; have a lively and stedfast faith in Christ our Saviour; amend your lives, and be in perfect charity with all men; so shall ye be meet partakers of those holy Mysteries. And above all things ye must give most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Saviour Christ, both God and man; who did humble himself, even to the death upon the Cross, for us, miserable sinners, who lay in darkness and the shadow of death; that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life. And to the end that we should alway remember the exceeding great love of our Master and only Saviour Jesus Christ, thus dying for us, and the innumerable benefits which by his precious blood-shedding he hath obtained to us; he hath instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death, to our great and endless comfort. To him therefore, with the Father, and the Holy Ghost, let us give (as we are most bounden) continual thanks; submitting ourselves wholly to his holy will and pleasure, and studying to serve him in true holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say to them that come to receive the holy Communion:

YE that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

Then shall this general Confession be made in the name of all those that are minded to receive the Holy Communion, by one of the Ministers; both he and all the People kneeling humbly upon their knees, and saying:

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we, from time to time most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name, Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
Then shall the Priest (or the Bishop, being present,) stand up, and turning himself to the People, pronounce this Absolution.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them, that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ faith unto all that truly turn to him.

COME unto me, all ye that travail, and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matth. xi. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John iii. 16.

Hear also what Saint Paul faith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. i. 15.

Hear also what Saint John faith.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins. 1 St. John ii. 1, 2.
After which the Priest shall proceed, saying,
Lift up your hearts.
Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.
Priest. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
Answer. It is meet and right so to do.

Then shall the Priest turn to the Lord's Table, and say,
IT is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, *Holy Father, Almighty Everlasting God.

Here shall follow the proper Preface, according to the Time, if there be any specially appointed: or else immediately shall follow, THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the Company of Heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts, Heaven and Earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord most High. Amen.

PROPER PREFACES.

Upon Christmas-day, and seven Days after.
BECAUSE thou didst give Jesus Christ thine only Son to be born as at this time for us; who, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, was made

* These Words [Holy Father] must be omitted on Trinity Sunday.
very man of the substance of the Virgin Mary his Mother: and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin. Therefore with Angels, &c.

\textit{I Upon Easter-day, and seven Days after.}

BUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious Resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life. Therefore with Angels, &c.

\textit{I Upon Ascension-day, and seven Days after.}

THROUGH thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who, after his most glorious Resurrection manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven to prepare a place for us; that where he is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with him in glory. Therefore with Angels, &c.

\textit{I Upon Whit'sunday, and six Days after.}

THROUGH Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven with a sudden great sound, as it had been a mighty wind, in the likeness of fiery tongues, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth; giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldness with fervent zeal, constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error, into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ. Therefore with Angels, &c.

Upon the feast of Trinity only.

WHO art one God, one Lord; not one only person, but three persons in one substance. For that which we believe of the glory of the Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality. Therefore with Angels, &c.

After each of which Prefaces, shall immediately be sung or said,

THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the Company of Heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts, Heaven and Earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord most High. Amen.

Then shall the Priest, kneeling down at the Lord's Table, say in the Name of all them that shall receive the Communion, this Prayer following.

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies: We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

When the Priest, standing before the Table, hath so ordered the Bread and Wine, that he may with the more readiness and decency break the Bread before the People, and take the Cup into his Hands; he shall say the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth:

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there, (by his one oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again; Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee; and grant that we receiving these thy creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood; Who in the same night that he was betrayed,* took bread; and when he had given thanks, + he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, † this is my Body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me.
Likewise after supper § he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying,
Drink ye all of this; for this || is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins: Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me. Amen.

† Then shall the Minister first receive the Communion in both Kinds himself, and then proceed to deliver the same to the Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, in like Manner, (if any be present;) and after that to the People also in order, into their Hands, all meekly kneeling. And when he delivereth the Bread to any one, he shall say,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance

* Here the Priest is to take the Paten into his Hands:
+ And here to break the Bread:
†† And here to lay his Hand upon all the Bread.
§ Here he is to take the Cup into his Hand.
|| And here to lay his Hand upon every Vessel (be it Chalice or Flagon) in which there is any Wine to be consecrated.
that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving.

I And the Minister that delivereth the Cup to any one, shall say,

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

If the consecrated Bread or Wine be all spent before all have communicated, the Priest is to consecrate more, according to the Form before prescribed; beginning at ["Our Saviour Christ in the same Night,"

&c.] for the Blessing of the Cup.

When all have communicated, the Minister shall return to the Lord's Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair Linen Cloth.

Then shall the Priest say the Lord's Prayer, the People repeating after him every Petition.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread;* And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

The bread necessary for our subsistence. See Dr. Willan on the original Greek, p. 117.
After shall be said as followeth.

O LORD and heavenly Father, we thy humble servants entirely desire thy fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that all we, who are partakers of this holy Communion, may be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty world without end. Amen.

Or this.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us, who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour
Jesu Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical Body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting Kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son. And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Then shall be said or sung,

GLORY be to God on high, and in earth peace, good-will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son Jesu Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us: Thou, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us: Thou, that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer: Thou, that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present,) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Collects to be said after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, every such day one or more; and the same may be said also, as often as occasion shall serve, after the Collects either of Morning or Evening Prayer, Communion, or Litany, by the Discretion of the Minister.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY Lord, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments; that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praise of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name; and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking; We beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities; and those things, which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us, for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
THE COMMUNION.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Son’s Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee; and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

1 Upon the Sundays and other Holy-days (if there be no Communion) shall be said all that is appointed at the Communion, until the end of the general Prayer [“For the whole State of Christ’s Church militant here in Earth”] together with one or more of these Collects last before rehearsed, concluding with the Blessing.

1 And there shall be no Celebration of the Lord’s Supper, except there be a convenient Number to communicate with the Priest, according to his Discretion.

1 And if there be not above twenty Persons in the Parish of Discretion to receive the Communion; yet there shall be no Communion, except Four, (or Three at the least) communicate with the Priest.

1 And in Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and Colleges, where there are many Priests and Deacons, they shall all receive the Communion with the Priest every Sunday at the least, except they have a reasonable Cause to the contrary.

And to take away all Occasion of Dissention, and Superstition, which any Person hath or might have concerning the Bread and Wine, it shall suffice that the Bread be such as is usual to be eaten; but the best and purest Wheat Bread that conveniently may be gotten.

And if any of the Bread and Wine remain unconsecrated, the Curate shall have it to his own use; but if any remain of that which was consecrated, it shall not be carried out of the Church, but the Priest and such other of the Communicants as he shall then call unto him, shall immediately after the Blessing, reverently eat and drink the same.

The Bread and Wine for the Communion shall be provided by the Curate and the Church-wardens, at the Charges of the Parish.

And note, That every Parishioner shall communicate at the least Three Times in the Year, of which Easter to be one. And yearly at Easter every Parishioner shall reckon with the Parson, Vicar, or Curate, or his or their Deputy or Deputies; and pay to them or him all Ecclesiastical Duties, accustomedly due, then and at that Time to be paid.

After the Divine Service ended, the Money given at the Offertory, shall be disposed of to such pious and charitable uses, as the Minister and Church-wardens shall think fit. Wherein if they disagree, it shall be disposed of as the Ordinary shall appoint.

"WHEREAS it is ordained in this office for the Administration of the Lord's Supper, that the Communicants should receive the same kneeling; (which Order is well meant, for a signification of our humble and grateful acknowledgment of the benefits of Christ therein given to all worthy receivers, and for the avoiding of such profanation and disorder in the holy Communion, as might otherwise ensue;) yet, left the same kneeling should by any Persons, either out of ignorance and infirmity, or out of malice and obstinacy be misconstrued and depraved; It is hereby declared, That thereby no adoration is intended, or ought to be done, either unto the Sacramental Bread or Wine there bodily received, or unto any Corporal Presence of Christ's natural Flesh and Blood. For the Sacramental Bread and Wine remain still in their very natural substances; and therefore may not be adored; (for that were Idolatry, to be abhorred of all faithful Christians;) and the natural Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ are in Heaven, and not here; it being against the truth of Christ's natural Body, to be at one time in more places than one."
THE MINISTRATION OF PUBLICK BAPTISM OF INFANTS, TO BE USED IN THE CHURCH.

I. THE People are to be admonished, That it is most convenient that Baptism should not be administered but upon Sundays, and other Holy-days, when the most number of People come together; as well for that the Congregation there present may testify the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the number of Christ's Church; as also because in the Baptism of Infants, every man present may be put in remembrance of his own profession made to God in his Baptism. For which cause also it is expedient that Baptism be ministered in the vulgar tongue. Nevertheless, (if necessity so require) Children may be baptized upon any other Day.

II. And note, That there shall be for every Male-Child to be baptized, two Godfathers and one Godmother; and for every Female, one Godfather and two Godmothers.

III. When there are Children to be baptized, the Parents shall give knowledge thereof over night, or in the morning before the beginning of Morning Prayer, to the Curate. And then the Godfathers and Godmothers, and the People, with the Children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the last Lesson at Morning Prayer, or else immediately after the last Lesson at Evening Prayer, as the Curate by his discretion shall appoint. And the Priest coming to the Font (which is then to be filled with pure Water,) and standing there, shall say, HATH this Child been already baptized, or no? If they answer, “No:” then shall the Priest proceed as followeth.

DEARLY beloved, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin; and that our Saviour Christ faith, None can enter into the Kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost*; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy he will grant to this Child that thing which by nature he cannot have; that he may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a lively member of the same.

Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptism; and by the Baptism of thy well-beloved

- Baptism.
Son Jesus Christ in the river Jordan, didst sanctify Water to the mystical washing away of sin; We beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon this Child; wash him and sanctify him with the Holy Ghost; that he being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Ark of Christ's Church; and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally he may come to the land of everlasting life; there to reign with thee world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour, the life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for this Infant, that he coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive Remission of his sins by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that seek find; open the gate unto us that knock; that this Infant may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal Kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.
Then shall the People stand up, and the Priest shall say,

Hear the words of the Gospel written by St. Mark, in the xth Chapter, at the 13th Verse.

THEY brought young Children to Christ, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief Exhortation upon the Words of the Gospel.

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he blamed those that would have kept them from him; how he exhorteth all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward gesture and deed he declared his good-will toward them; for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will likewise favourably receive this present Infant; that he will embrace him with the arms of his mercy; that he will give unto him the blessing of eternal life, and make him partaker of his everlasting Kingdom. Wherefore, we being thus persuaded of the good-will of our heavenly Father towards this Infant, declared by his Son Jesus Christ; and nothing doubting but that he favourably alloweth this charitable work of ours, in bringing this Infant to his holy Baptism; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee; Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Infant, that he may be born again, and be made an heir of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Then shall the Priest speak unto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

DEARLY beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized, ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him of his sins, to sanctify him with the Holy Ghost, to give him the Kingdom of heaven, and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his Gospel to grant all these things that ye have prayed for: which promise, he for his part will most surely keep and perform. Wherefore after this promise made by Christ, this Infant must also faithfully for his part, promise by you that are his Sureties, (until he come of age to take it upon himself) that he will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his commandments.

I demand therefore,

DOST thou, in the Name of this Child, renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answ. I renounce them all.

Minister.

DOST thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth?

And in Jesus Christ his only-begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and burried; that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints;
the Remission of Sins; the Resurrection of the Flesh; and everlasting Life after death?
Anfw. All this I steadfastly believe.

Minister.

WILT thou be baptized in this Faith?
Anfw. That is my desire.

Minister.

WILT thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?
Anfw. I will.

Then shall the Priest say,

O MERCIFUL God, grant that the old Adam in this Child may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in him. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and Ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy Congregation; sanctify this Water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that this Child now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Priest shall take the Child into his hands, and shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers, Name this Child.

And then naming it after them (if they shall certify him that the Child may well endure it) he shall dip it in the Water discreetly and warily, saying,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

But if they certify that the Child is weak, it shall suffice to pour Water upon it, saying the aforesaid Words,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then the Priest shall say,

WE receive this Child into the Congregation of Christ's flock; * and do sign him with the sign

* Here the Priest shall make a Cross upon the Child's Forehead.

† One of the soldiers pierced his side, and there came out blood and water. John xix. 34.
of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

Seeing now, dearly beloved brethren, that this Child is regenerate, and grafted into the Body of Christ's Church; let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this Child may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

Then shall be said, all kneeling:

Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

We yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucify the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sin; and that as he is made partaker of the death of thy Son, he may also be partaker of his resurrection; so that finally with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an inheritor of thine everlasting kingdom, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then, all standing up, the Priest shall say to the Godfathers and Godmothers this Exhortation following.

FORASMUCH as this Child hath promised by you his Sureties, to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your parts and duties to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession he hath here made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons; and chiefly ye shall provide, that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health; and that this Child may be virtuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life; remembering always, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and rose again for us; so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

Then shall he add, and say,

YE are to take care that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and be further instructed in the Church Catechism, set forth for that purpose.

IT is certain by God's Word, that Children which are baptized, dying before they commit actual Sin, are undoubtedly saved.

THE MINISTRATION OF

PRIVATE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN,

IN HOUSES.

THE Curates of every Parish shall often admonish the People, that they defer not the Baptism of their Children longer than the first or second Sunday next after their Birth, or other Holy-day falling between, unless upon a great and reasonable cause, to be approved by the Curate.

And also they shall warn them, that without like great cause and necessity they procure not their Children to be baptized at home in their houses. But when need shall compel them so to do, then Baptism shall be administered on this fashion.

First, let the Minister of the Parish (or in his absence, any other lawful Minister that can be procured) with them that are present, call upon God, and say the Lord's Prayer, and so many of the Collects appointed to be said before in the Form of Publick Baptism, as the time and present exigence will suffer: And then, the Child being named by some one that is present, the Minister shall pour Water upon it, saying these Words:

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then all kneeling down, the Minister shall give Thanks unto God, and say,

WE yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And we humbly beseech thee to grant, that as he is now made part-taker of the Death of thy Son, so he may be also of his Resurrection: and that finally, with the residue of thy Saints, he may inherit thine everlasting Kingdom, through the same thy Son Jefus Chrift our Lord. Amen.

I And let them not doubt, but that the Child so baptized, is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized again. Yet nevertheless, if the Child, which is after this Sort baptized, do afterward live, it is expedient that it be brought into the Church, to the intent, that if the Minister of the same Parish did himself baptize that Child, the congregation may be certified of the true Form of Baptifm, by him privately before used: In which Case he shall say thus,

I CERTIFY you, that according to the due and prescribed Order of the Church, at such a time, and at such a place, before divers witnesses I baptized this Child.

But if the Child were baptized by any other lawful Minister; then the Minister of the Parish where the Child was born or christened, shall examine and try whether the Child be lawfully baptized, or no. In which case, if those that bring any Child to the Church, do answer, that the same Child is already baptized; then shall the Minister examine them further, saying,

By whom was this Child baptized?
Who was present when this Child was baptized?

E e 2
Because some things essential to this Sacrament may happen to be omitted through fear or haste, in such times of extremity; therefore I demand further of you,

With what Matter was this Child baptized?
With what Words was this Child baptized?

And if the Minister shall find by the Answers of such as bring the Child, that all things were done as they ought to be; then shall he not christen the Child again, but shall receive him as one of the flock of true Christian people, saying thus;

I CERTIFY you, that in this case all is well done, and according unto due order, concerning the baptizing of this Child; who being born in original sin, and in the wrath of God, is now by the laver of regeneration in Baptism, received into the number of the children of God, and heirs of everlasting life: For our Lord Jesus Christ doth not deny his grace and mercy unto such Infants, but most lovingly doth call them unto him, as the holy Gospel doth witness to our comfort on this wise:

St. Mark x. 13.

THEY brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of God.
Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

I After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief Exhortation upon the Words of the Gospel.

Beloved, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he blamed those that would have kept them from him; how he exhorted all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how by his outward gesture and deed he declared his good-will toward them; for he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he hath likewise favourably received this present Infant; that he hath embraced him with the arms of his mercy, and (as he hath promised in his holy Word) will give unto him the blessing of eternal life, and make him partaker of his everlasting kingdom. Wherefore, we being thus persuaded of the good-will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Son Jesus Christ, towards this Infant; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say the Prayer, which the Lord himself taught us:

Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, As it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee; Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy holy Spirit to this Infant, that he being born again, and being made an heir of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may continue thy servant, and attain thy promise, through the fame our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Then shall the Priest demand the Name of the Child:
which being by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Minister shall say,

DOST thou, in the Name of this Child, ren-nounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of this world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh; so
that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?
Answ. I renounce them all.

Minister.

DOST thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth?
And in Jesus Christ his only-begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholick Church; the Communion of Saints; the Remission of Sins; the Resurrection of the Flesh; and everlasting Life after death?

Anfw. All this I steadfastly believe.

Minister.

WILT thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Anfw. I will.

Then the Priest shall say,

WE receive this Child into the Congregation of Christ's flock; * and do sign him with the sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

> Then shall the Priest say,

SEEING now dearly beloved brethren, that this Child is by Baptism regenerate, and grafted into the Body of Christ's Church; let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that he may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

> Then shall the Priest say,

WE yield thee most hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy Holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. Amen.

> Then all standing up, the Minister shall make this Exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your parts and duties to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession he hath made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons; and chiefly ye shall provide, that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments in the vulgar tongue, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health; and that this Child may be virtuously brought up to lead a godly and a Christian life; remembering alway, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and be made like unto him; that as he died, and rose again for us; so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

But if they which bring the Infant to the Church, do make such uncertain Answers to the Priest's Questions, as that it cannot appear that the Child was baptized with Water, "In the Name of the "Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost," (which are essential Parts of Baptism;) then let the Priest baptize it in the Form before appointed for Publick Baptism of Infants; saving that at the dipping of the Child in the Font, he shall use this Form of words,

IF thou art not already baptized, N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

THE MINISTRATION OF BAPTISM TO SUCH AS ARE OF RIPER YEARS, AND ABLE TO ANSWER FOR THEMSELVES.

1 WHEN any such Persons, as are of Riper Years, are to be baptized, timely Notice shall be given to the Bishop, or whom he shall appoint for that purpose, a Week before at the least, by the Parents, or some other discreet Persons; that so due care may be taken for their Examination, whether they be sufficiently instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves with Prayers and Fasting for the receiving of this Holy Sacrament.

4 And if they shall be found fit, then the Godfathers and Godmothers (the People being assembled upon the Sunday or Holy-day appointed) shall be ready to present them at the Font, immediately after the Second BAPTISM IN RIPER YEARS.

Lesson, either at Morning or Evening Prayer, as the Curate in his Discretion shall think fit.

I And standing there, the Priest shall ask, whether any of the Persons here presented be baptized, or no: If they shall answer “No;” then shall the Priest say thus:

DEARLY beloved, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, (and that which is born of the flesh is flesh) and they that are in the flesh cannot please God, but live in sin, committing many actual transgressions; and that our Saviour Christ faith, None can enter into the Kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant to these Persons that which by nature they cannot have; that they may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ’s holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

I Then shall the Priest say,

Let us pray.

(And here all the Congregation shall kneel.)

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who of thy great mercy didst save Noah and his family in the ark from perishing by water; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy BAPTISM IN RIPER YEARS.

Baptism; and by the Baptism of thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ in the river Jordan, didst sanctify the element of Water to the mystical washing away of sin; We beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon these thy servants; wash them, and sanctify them with the Holy Ghost, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Ark of Christ's Church; and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of everlasting life; there to reign with thee world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succour, the life of them that believe, and the resurrection of the dead; We call upon thee for these Persons, that they coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of their sins by spiritual regeneration. Receive them, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall receive;* seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us that ask; let us that seek, find; open the gate unto us that knock; that these Persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal Kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the People stand up, and the Priest shall say,

Hear the words of the Gospel written by Saint John, in the third Chapter, beginning at the first Verse:

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus faith unto him, How can a man be born, when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
After which he shall say this Exhortation following.

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the express words of our Saviour Christ. That except a man be born of Water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. Whereby ye may perceive the great necessity of this Sacrament, where it may be had. Likewise, immediately before his ascension into heaven, (as we read in the last Chapter of Saint Mark's Gospel,) he gave command to his disciples, saying, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned. Which also sheweth unto us the great benefit we reap thereby.

For which cause Saint Peter the Apostle, when upon his first preaching of the Gospel many were pricked at the heart, and said to him and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? replied and said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost: For the promise is to you and your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words exhorted he them, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. For (as the same Apostle testifieth in another place) even Baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will favourably receive these present Persons, truly repenting, and coming unto him by faith; that he will grant them remission of their sins, and bestow upon them the Holy Ghost; that he will give them the blessing of eternal life, and make them partakers of his everlasting kingdom.

Wherefore we being thus persuaded of the goodwill of our heavenly Father towards these Persons, declared by his Son Jesus Christ; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks to him, and say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, for that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these Persons, that they may be born again, and be made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Then the Priest shall speak to the Persons to be baptized on this wise:

WELL-BELOVED, who are come hither, desiring to receive holy Baptism, ye have heard how the Congregation hath prayed, that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you and bless you, to release you of your sins, to give you the Kingdom of Heaven, and everlasting Life. Ye have heard also, that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his holy Word to grant all those things that we have prayed for; which promise he, for his part, will most surely keep and perform.

Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, ye must also faithfully, for your part, promise in the presence of these your Witnesses, and this whole Congregation, that ye will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy word, and obediently keep his commandments.

Then shall the Priest demand of each of the Persons to be baptized, severally, these Questions following:

Quest. DOST thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the carnal desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Anfw. I renounce them all.

Quest. DOST thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth?

And in Jesus Christ his only-begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the Remission of Sins; the Resurrection of the Flesh; and everlasting Life after death?

Anfw. All this I stedfastly believe.

Queft. WILT thou be baptized in this Faith?

Anfw. That is my desire.

Queft. WILT thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Anfw. I will endeavour so to do, God being my helper.

I Then shall the Priest say,

O MERCIFUL God, grant that the old Adam in these Persons may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnal affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.
Grant that they being here dedicated to thee by our Office and Ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live, and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in* the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; Regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of this Congregation; sanctify this Water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that the Persons now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful and elect children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest take each Person to be baptized, by the right hand, and placing him conveniently by the Font, according to his Discretion, shall ask the Godfathers and Godmothers the Name; and then shall dip him in the Water, or pour Water upon him, saying,

N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

* INTO the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. See Dr. Willan, p. 205.
Then shall the Priest say,

WE receive this Person into the Congregation of Christ's flock; * and do sign him with the sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

Then shall the Priest say,

SEEING now, dearly beloved brethren, that these Persons are regenerate, and grafted into the Body of Christ's Church, let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that they may lead the rest of their life according to this beginning.

Then shall be said the Lord's Prayer, all kneeling.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

* Here the Priest shall make a Cross upon the Person's Forehead.
WE yield thee humble thanks, O heavenly Father, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee; Increase this knowledge; and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these Persons; that being now born again, and made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, they may continue thy Servants, and attain thy promises, through the same Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, everlastingly. Amen.

Then all standing up, the Priest shall use this exhortation following; speaking to the Godfathers and Godmothers first.

FORASmuch as these Persons have promised in your presence to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember that it is your part and duty to put them in mind, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession they have now made before this Congregation, and especially before you their chosen Witnesses. And ye are also to call upon them to use all diligence to be rightly instructed in God's Holy Word; that so they may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and live godly, righteously, and soberly in this present world.
And then speaking to the new baptized Persons, he shall proceed, and say,

AND as for you, who have now by Baptism put on Christ, it is your part and duty also, being made the children of God and of the light by faith in Jesus Christ, to walk answerably to your Christian calling, and as becometh the children of light; remembering always that Baptism representeth unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and rose again for us; so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

It is expedient that every Person, thus baptized, should be confirmed by the Bishop so soon after his Baptism as conveniently may be; that so he may be admitted to the holy Communion.

If any Persons, not baptized in their Infancy, shall be brought to be baptized before they come to years of Discretion to answer for themselves; it may suffice to use the Office for Publick Baptism of Infants, or (in case of extreme Danger) the office for Private Baptism; only changing the word [Infant] for [Child, or Person] as occasion requireth.
A CATECHISM;
THAT IS TO SAY,
AN INSTRUCTION, TO BE LEARNED OF EVERY PERSON BEFORE HE BE BROUGHT TO BE CONFIRMED BY THE BISHOP.

Question. WHAT is your Name?
Answer. N. or M.

Question. Who gave you this Name?
Answer. My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptism; wherein I was made a member of Christ, the Child of God, and an inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Question. What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?
Answer. They did promise and vow three things in my name: First, That I should renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanity of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh. Secondly, That I should believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. And thirdly, That I should keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of my life.

Question. Dost thou not think that thou art bound to believe, and to do, as they have promised for thee?
Anfw. Yes verily, and by God's help so I will. And I heartily thank our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of salvation, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. And I pray unto God to give me his grace, that I may continue in the same unto my life's end.

Catechist. Rehearse the Articles of thy Belief?

Answer.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth: And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, The third day he rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven; And sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost: The Holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of Sins; The Resurrection of the Body; And the life everlasting. Amen.

Quest. What dost thou chiefly learn in these Articles of thy Belief?

Answ. First, I learn to believe in God the Father, who hath made me, and all the world; Secondly, In God the Son, who hath redeemed me, and all mankind;
Thirdly, In God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of God.

Quest. You said, that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you, that you should keep God's Commandments: Tell me how many there be?

Answ. Ten.

Quest. Which be they?

Answ. THE same which God spake in the twentieth Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have none other gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thyself any graven image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, or in the water under the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and shew mercy unto thousands in them that love me, and keep my commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath-day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattle, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no murder.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is his.

Queft. What dost thou chiefly learn by these Commandments?

Anfw. I learn two things: My duty towards God, and my duty towards my Neighbour.

Queft. What is thy duty towards God?

Anfw. My duty towards God, is to believe in him, to fear him, and to love him with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength; to worship him, to give him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to call upon him, to honour his holy Name and his Word, and to serve him truly all the days of my life.

Quest. What is thy duty towards thy Neighbour?

Answ. My duty towards my Neighbour, is to love him as myself, and to do to all men, as I would they should do unto me: To love, honour, and succour my father and mother: To honour and obey the King, and all that are put in authority under him: To submit myself to all my governors, teachers, spiritual pastors and masters: To order myself lowly and reverently to all my betters: To hurt no body by word or deed: To be true and just in all my dealings: To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart: To keep my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from evil speaking, lying, and flandering: To keep my body in temperance, sobriety, and chastity: Not to covet nor desire other men's goods; but to learn and labour truly to get mine own living, and to do my duty in that state of life, unto which it shall please God to call me.

Catechist. My good Child, know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thyself, nor to walk in the commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special Grace; which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent Prayer:
Let me hear therefore, if thou canst say the Lord's Prayer?

Answer.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Question. What desirest thou of God in this Prayer?

Answer. I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and to all people; that we may worship him, serve him, and obey him, as we ought to do. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things, that be needful both for our souls and bodies; and that he will be merciful unto us, and forgive us our sins; and that it will please him to save and defend us in all dangers ghostly and bodily; and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death. And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ: and therefore I say, Amen; So be it.

Question.

HOW many Sacraments hath Christ ordained in his Church?
Anfw. Two only, as generally necessary to salvation, that is to say, Baptism, and the Supper of the Lord.

Queft. What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?
Anfw. I mean an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace given unto us, ordained by Christ himself, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a pledge to assure us thereof.

Queft. How many parts are there in a Sacrament?
Anfw. Two; the outward visible sign, and the inward spiritual grace.

Queft. What is the outward visible sign, or form in Baptism?
Anfw. Water; wherein the person is baptized, "In* the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

Queft. What is the inward and spiritual grace?
Anfw. A death unto sin, and a new birth unto Righteousness: for being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace.

Queft. What is required of persons to be baptized?
Anfw. Repentance, whereby they forfake sin; and faith, whereby they steadfastly believe the promises of God made to them in that Sacrament.

* INTO the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. See Dr. Willan, p. 205.
Queft. Why then are Infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age they cannot perform them?

Anfw. Because they promise them both by their Sureties; which promise, when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

Queft. Why was the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper ordained?

Anfw. For the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of the benefits which we receive thereby?

Queft. What is the outward part, or sign of the Lord’s Supper?

Anfw. Bread and Wine, which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Queft. What is the inward part, or thing signified?

Anfw. The Body and Blood of Christ, which are verily and indeed taken and received by the faithful in the Lord’s Supper.

Queft. What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?

Anfw. The strengthening and refreshing of our souls by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the bread and wine.

Queft. What is required of them who come to the Lord’s Supper?

Anfw. To examine themselves, whether they repent them truly of their former sins, steadfastly purposing to lead a new life; have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death; and be in charity with all men.

1 The Curate of every Parish shall diligently upon Sundays and Holy-days, after the Second Lesson at Evening Prayer, openly in the Church instruct and examine so many Children of his Parish sent unto him, as he shall think convenient, in some part of this Catechism.

1 And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters, and Dames, shall cause their Children, Servants, and Apprentices, (which have not learned their Catechism) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to hear, and be ordered by the Curate, until such time as they have learned all that is here appointed for them to learn.

1 So soon as Children are come to a competent Age, and can say in their Mother Tongue, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments; and also can answer to the other Questions of this short Catechism; they shall be brought to the Bishop. And every one shall have a Godfather, or a Godmother, as a Witness of their Confirmation.

1 And whenever the Bishop shall give knowledge for Children to be brought unto him for their Confirmation, the Curate of every Parish shall either bring, or send in writing, with his hand subscribed thereunto, the Names of all such Persons within his Parish, as he shall think fit to be presented to the Bishop to be confirmed. And if the Bishop approve of them, he shall confirm them in manner following.

THE ORDER OF

CONFIRMATION,

OR LAYING ON OF HANDS UPON THOSE THAT ARE BAPTIZED, AND COME TO YEARS OF DISCRETION.

Upon the day appointed, all that are to be then confirmed, being placed, and standing in Order before the Bishop; he (or some other Minister appointed by him) shall read this Preface following.

TO the end that Confirmation may be ministered to the more edifying of such as shall receive it, the Church hath thought good to order, That none hereafter shall be confirmed, but such as can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments; and can also answer to such other Questions, as in the short Catechism are contained: which Order is very convenient to be observed; to the end that Children, being now come to the years of discretion, and having learned what their Godfathers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptism, they may themselves, with their own mouth and consent, openly before the Church, ratify and confirm the same; and also promise, that by the grace of God they will evermore endeavour themselves, faithfully to observe such things, as they by their own confession have assented unto.

1 Then shall the Bishop say,

DO ye here, in the presence of God, and of this Congregation, renew the solemn promise and vow that was made in your name at your Baptism; ratifying and confirming the same in your own persons, and acknowledging yourselves bound to believe, and to do all those things, which your Godfathers and Godmothers then undertook for you?

1 And every one shall audibly answer, “I do.”

The Bishop.

OUR help is in the Name of the Lord;
Answ. Who hath made heaven and earth.
Bishop. Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
Answer. Henceforth, world without end.
Bishop. Lord, hear our prayers;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

The Bishop. Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy servants by water and the Holy Ghost, and hast given unto them forgiveness of all their sins; Strengthen them, we beseech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghost the Comforter, and daily increase in them thy manifold gifts of grace; the spirit of wisdom and understanding; the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength; the spirit of knowledge and true godliness; and fill them, O Lord, with the spirit of thy holy fear, now and for ever. Amen.

Then all of them in Order kneeling before the Bishop, he shall lay his hand upon the head of every one severally, saying,

DEFEND, O Lord, this thy Child [or, this thy Servant] with thy heavenly grace, that he may continue thine for ever, and daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until he come unto thy everlasting kingdom. Amen.

Then shall the Bishop say,

The Lord be with you:

Answer. And with thy spirit.

And (all kneeling down) the Bishop shall add,

Let us pray.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

And this Collect.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who makest us both to will and to do those things that be good... and acceptable unto thy Divine Majesty; We make our humble supplications unto thee for these thy servants, upon whom (after the example of thy holy Apostles) we have now laid our hands, to certify them (by this sign) of thy favour and gracious goodness towards them. Let thy Fatherly hand, we beseech thee, ever be over them; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who with thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY Lord, and everlasting God, vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to direct, sanctify, and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of thy laws, and in the works of thy commandments; that through thy most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then the Bishop shall bless them, saying thus,

THE blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you, and remain with you for ever. Amen.

And there shall none be admitted to the holy Communion, until such time as he be confirmed, or be ready and desirous to be confirmed.
THE FORM OF

SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY.

First the Banns of all that are to be married together, must be published in the Church three several Sundays or Holy-days, in the time of Divine Service, immediately before the sentences for the Offertory; the Curate saying after the accustomed manner:

I PUBLISH the Banns of Marriage between M. of —— and N. of ——. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it: This is the first [second or third] time of asking.

And if the Persons that are to be married, dwell in divers Parishes, the Banns must be asked in both Parishes; and the Curate of the one Parish shall not solemnize Matrimony betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banns being thrice asked from the Curate of the other Parish.

At the day and time appointed for Solemnization of Matrimony, the Persons to be married shall come into the Body of the Church with their Friends and Neighbours: and there standing together, the Man on the right hand, and the woman on the left, the Priest shall say,

DEARLY beloved, we are gathered together
here in the sight of God, and in the face of this Congregation, to join together this Man and this Woman in holy Matrimony; which is an honourable Estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that is betwixt Christ and his Church: which holy Estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee; and is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men: and therefore is not by any to be enterprized, nor taken in hand unadvisedly, lightly, or wantonly, to satisfy men's carnal lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that have no understanding; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God; duly considering the causes for which Matrimony was ordained.

First, It was ordained for the procreation of children, to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the Lord, and to the praise of his holy Name.

Secondly, It was ordained for a remedy against sin, and to avoid fornication; that such persons, as have not the gift of continency, might marry, and keep themselves undefiled members of Christ's body.

Thirdly, It was ordained for the mutual society, help, and comfort, that the one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity, and adversity: Into which holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. Therefore if any man can shew any just cause, why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

And also, speaking unto the Persons that shall be married, he shall say:

I REQUIRE and charge you both (as ye will answer at the dreadful day of judgement, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, ye do now confess it. For be ye well assured, that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word doth allow, are not joined together by God, neither is their Matrimony lawful.

At which Day of Marriage, if any man do allege and declare any impediment, why they may not be coupled together in Matrimony, by God's Law, or the Laws of this Realm; and will be bound, and sufficient Sureties with him, to the Parties; or else put in a Caution (to the full value of such charges, as the Persons to be married do thereby sustain) to prove his Allegation: Then the solemnization must be deferred, until such time as the truth be tried.

If no impediment be alleged, then shall the Curate say unto the Man,

M. WILT thou have this woman to thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour, and keep her in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

1 The Man shall answer, "I will."

1 Then shall the Priest say unto the Woman,

N. WILT thou have this man to thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, and serve him, love, honour, and keep him in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

1 The woman shall answer, "I will."

1 Then shall the Minister say,

Who giveth this Woman to be married to this Man?

1 Then shall they give their troth to each other in this manner:

1 The Minister receiving the Woman at her Father's or Friend's hands, shall cause the Man with his right hand to take the Woman by her right hand, and to say after him as followeth:

I M. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my troth.
Then shall they loose their hands; and the Woman with her right hand taking the Man by his right hand, shall likewise say after the Minister:

I N. take thee M. to my wedded husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, cherish, and to obey, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I give thee my troth.

Then shall they again loose their hands; and the Man shall give unto the Woman a Ring, laying the same upon the book, with the accustomed duty to the Priest and Clerk. And the Priest taking the Ring, shall deliver it unto the Man, to put it upon the fourth finger of the Woman's left hand. And the Man holding the Ring there, and taught by the Priest, shall say,

WITH this Ring I thee wed, with my body I thee worship, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Then the Man leaving the Ring upon the fourth finger of the Woman's left hand, they shall both kneel down; and the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

O ETERNAL God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, giver of all spiritual grace, the author of everlasting life; Send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bles in thy Name; that as Isaac and Rebecca* lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made, (whereof this Ring given and received is a token and pledge;) and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

† Then shall the Priest join their right hands together, and say,

Those whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

† Then shall the Minister speak unto the People.

FORASMUCH as M. and N. have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth either to other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving of a Ring, and by joining of hands; I pronounce that they be man and wife together, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

† And the Minister shall add this Blessing.

GOD the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with his favour look upon you; and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace, that ye may so live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting.

Amen.

Then the Minister or Clerks going to the Lord's Table, shall say or sing this Psalm following.

Beati omnes. Psalm cxxviii.

BLESSED are all they that fear the Lord: and walk in his ways.

For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine: upon the walls of thine house;

Thy children like the olive-branches: round about thy table. Lo, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

The Lord from out of Sion shall so bless thee: that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long;

Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children: and peace upon Israel.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Or this Psalm.

Deus misereatur. Psalm lxvii.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.
O F M A T R I M O N Y.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice, and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

The Psalm ended, and the Man and the Woman kneeling before the Lord's Table, the Priest standing at the Table, and turning his face towards them, shall say,

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Answer. Christ, have mercy upon us.*

Minister. Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

* Christ's own declarations is a proof of his divinity. See Burges's Sermon.
Minister. O Lord, save thy servant, and thy handmaid;
Answer. Who put their trust in thee.
Minister. O Lord, send them help from thy holy place;
Answer. And evermore defend them.
Minister. Be unto them a tower of strength,
Answer. From the face of their enemy.
Minister. O Lord, hear our prayer;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.
Minister.
O GOD of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, bless these thy servants, and sow the seed of eternal life in their hearts; that whatsoever in thy holy Word they shall profitably learn, they may in deed fulfil the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully upon them from heaven, and bless them. And as thou didst send thy blessing upon Abraham and Sarah, to their great comfort; so vouchsafe to send thy blessing upon these thy servants; that they obeying thy will, and always being in safety under thy protection, may abide in thy love unto their lives' end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Prayer next following shall be omitted, where the Woman is past Child-bearing.

O MERCIFUL Lord and heavenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankind is increased; We beseech thee, assist with thy blessing these two persons; that they may both be fruitful in procreation of children, and also live together so long in godly love and honesty; that they may see their children christianly and virtuously brought up, to thy praise and honour, through Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, who by thy mighty power hast made all things of nothing; who also (after other things set in order) didst appoint, that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) woman should take her beginning; and knitting them together, didst teach that it should never be lawful to put asunder those whom thou by Matrimony hadst made one: O God, who hast consecrated the State of Matrimony to such an excellent mystery, that in it is signified and represented the spiritual marriage and unity betwixt Christ and his Church; Look mercifully upon these thy servants, that both this man may love his wife, according to thy Word, (as Christ did love his spouse the Church; who gave himself for it, loving and cherishing it even as his own flesh;) and also that this woman may be loving and amiable, faithful and obedient to her husband; and in all quietness, sobriety, and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons.
O Lord, bless them both, and grant them to inherit thy everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.
OF MATRIMONY

I Then shall the Priest say,

ALMIGHTY God, who at the beginning did create our first parents, Adam and Eve, and did sanctify and join them together in marriage; Pour upon you the riches of his grace, sanctify, and bless you; that ye may please him both in body and soul, and live together in holy love unto your lives' end. Amen.

II After which if there be no Sermon declaring the duties of Man and Wife, the Minister shall read as followeth.

ALL ye that are married, or that intend to take the holy estate of Matrimony upon you, hear what the holy Scripture doth say as touching the duty of husbands towards their wives, and wives towards their husbands.

Saint Paul, in his Epistle to the Ephesians, the fifth Chapter, doth give this commandment to all married men; Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it, that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the Word; that he might present it to himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself: For no man ever yet hated his own flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church: For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife; and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery; but I speak concerning Christ and the Church. Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife, even as himself. Ephes. v. 25.

Likewise the same Saint Paul, writing to the Colossians, speaketh thus to all men that are married; Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Colos. iii. 19.

Hear also what Saint Peter, the Apostle of Christ, who was himself a married man, faith unto them that are married; Ye husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge; giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindered. 1 St. Pet. iii. 7.

Hitherto ye have heard the duty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewise, ye wives, hear and learn your duties toward your husbands, even as it is plainly set forth in holy Scripture.

Saint Paul, in the aforenamed Epistle to the Ephesians, teacheth you thus; Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the body. Therefore as the Church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. And again he faith, Let the wife see that she reverence her husband. Ephes. v. 22.

And in his Epistle to the Colossians, Saint Paul giveth you this short Lesson; Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. Col. iii. 18.

Saint Peter also doth instruct you very well, thus saying; Ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the Word, they also may without the Word be won by the conversation of the wives; while they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaighting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible; even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the fight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands; even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord; whose daughters ye are as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. 1 St. Pet. iii. 1.

It is convenient that the new married Persons should receive the Holy Communion at the time of their Marriage, or at the first opportunity after their Marriage.
THE VISITATION OF THE SICK.

I. When any Person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish; who coming into the sick Person's house, shall say,

PEACE be to this house, and to all that dwell in it.

II. When he cometh into the sick man's presence, he shall say, kneeling down,

REMEMBER not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers: Spare us, good Lord; spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious Blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Answ. Spare us, good Lord.

III. Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. O Lord, fave thy servant;
Answer. Which putteth his truft in thee.
Minister. Send him help from thy holy place;
Answer. And evermore mightily defend him.
Minister. Let the enemy have no advantage of him;
Answer. Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.
Minister. Be unto him, O Lord, a strong tower,
Answer. From the face of his enemy.
Minister. O Lord, hear our prayers;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Minister.

O Lord, look down from heaven, behold, visit, and relieve this thy servant: Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy, give him comfort and sure confidence in thee, defend him from the danger of the enemy, and keep him in perpetual peace and safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HEAR us, Almighty and most merciful God and Saviour; extend thy accustomed goodness to this thy servant, who is grieved with sickness: Sanctify, we beseech thee, this thy Fatherly correction to him; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance: That if it shall be thy good pleasure to restore him to his former health, he may lead the residue of his life in thy fear, and to thy glory: or else, give him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painful life ended, he may dwell with thee in life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

1 Then shall the Minister exhort the sick Person after this form, or other like.

DEARLY beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakness, and sickness. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickness is, know you certainly, that it is God's visitation. And for what cause soever this sickness is sent unto you; whether it be to try your patience for the example of others, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the increase of glory and endless felicity; or else it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father, know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your sins, and bear your sickness patiently, trusting in God's mercy, for his dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, and render unto him humble thanks for his Fatherly visitation, submitting yourself wholly unto his will; it shall turn to your profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlasting life.

7 If the Person visited be very sick, then the Curate may end his Exhortation in this place or else proceed.

TAKE therefore in good part the chastisement of the Lord: For (as Saint Paul faith in the twelfth Chapter to the Hebrews) whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers; then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure: but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. These words, good brother, are written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction; that we should patiently, and with thanksgiving, bear our heavenly Father's correction, whencesover by any manner of adversity it shall please his gracious goodness to visit us. And there should be no greater comfort to Christian persons, than to be made like unto Christ, by suffering patiently adversities, troubles, and sicknesses: For he himself went not up to joy, but first he suffered pain; he entered not into his glory before he was crucified. So truly our way to eternal joy, is to suffer here with Christ; and our door to enter into eternal life, is gladly to die with Christ; that we may rise again from death, and dwell with him in everlasting life. Now therefore, taking your sickness, which is thus profitable for you, patiently; I exhort you in the Name of God, to remember the profession which you made unto God in your Baptism. And forasmuch as after this life there is an account to be given unto the righteous Judge, by whom all must be judged without respect of persons; I require you to examine yourself and your estate, both toward God and man; so that accusing and condemning yourself for your own faults, you may find mercy at our heavenly Father's hand for Christ's sake, and not to be accused and condemned in that fearful judgement. Therefore I shall rehearse to you the Articles of our Faith; that you may know, whether you do believe as a Christian man should, or no.

DOST thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth? And in Jesus Christ his only-begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?
And doft thou believe in the Holy Ghoft; the holy Catholick Church; the Communion of Saints; the Remission of Sins; the Resurrection of the Flesh; and everlasting Life after death?

1. The sick Person shall answer,
   All this I stedfastly believe.

Then shall the Minister examine whether he repent him truly of his sins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him to forgive, from the bottom of his heart, all Persons that have offended him; and if he hath offended any other, to ask them forgiveness; and where he hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power. And if he hath not before disposed of his goods, let him then be admonished to make his Will, and to declare his Debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him; for the better discharging of his Conscience, and the quietness of his Executors. But men should often be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of their temporal estates, whilst they are in health.

These words before rehearsed, may be said before the Minister begin his Prayer, as he shall see cause.

The Minister should not omit earnestly to move such sick Persons as are of ability, to be liberal to the poor.

Here shall the sick person be moved to make a special Confession of his sins, if he feel his Conscience troubled with any weighty matter. After which Confeffion, the Priest shall absolve him (if he humbly and heartily desire it) after this fort:

OUR Lord Jefus Chrift, who hath left power to his Church to absolve all fimmers, who truly repent and believe in him; of his great mercy forgive thee thine offences: And by his authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all thy sins, In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

And then the Priest shall say the Collect following.

Let us pray.

O MOST merciful God, who according to the multitude of thy mercies, doft so put away the sins of those who truly repent, that thou rememberest them no more; Open thine eye of mercy upon this thy fervant, who moft earnestly desireth pardon and forgivenefs. Renew in him (moft loving Father) whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailneß; preserve and continue this fick member in the unity of the Church; consider his contrition, accept his tears, aflwage his pain, as shall seem to thee moft expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full truft only in thy mercy, impute not unto him his former sins; but strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit; and when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto thy favour, through the merits of thy moft dearly beloved Son Jefus Chrift our Lord. Amen.
Then shall the Minister say this Psalm.

Psalm lxxi. In te, Domine, speravi.

In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteousness; incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort; thou hast promised to help me; for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.

Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: thou art he, that took me out of my mother's womb; my praise shall alway be of thee.

I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of age: forfake me not when my strength faileth me.

For mine enemies speak against me; and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him; for there is none to deliver him.
Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.

Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.

Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am grey-headed: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousness, O God, is very high; and great things are they that thou hast done: O God, who is like unto thee!

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

I Adding this:

O SAVIOUR of the world*, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us; save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

* See Burgess's Sermon on the Divinity of Christ.
Then shall the Minister say,

THE Almighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all them that put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey, be now and evermore thy defence, and make thee know and feel, that there is none other Name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

And after that shall say,

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit thee. The Lord bless thee, and keep thee. The Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

A Prayer for a sick Child.

O ALMIGHTY God, and merciful Father, to whom alone belong the issues of life and death; Look down from heaven, we humbly beseech thee, with the eyes of mercy upon this Child now lying upon the bed of sickness: Visit him, O Lord, with thy salvation; deliver him in thy good appointed time from his bodily pain, and save his soul for thy mercies' sake: That if it shall be thy pleasure to prolong his days here on earth, he may live to thee, and be an instrument of thy glory, by serving thee faithfully, and doing good in his
A Prayer for a sick Person, when there appeareth small hope of recovery.

O FATHER of mercies, and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We fly unto thee for succour in behalf of this thy servant, here lying under thy hand in great weakness of body. Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit in the inner man. Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errors of his life past, and stedfast faith in thy Son Jesus; that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in heaven, before he go hence, and be no more seen. We know, O Lord, that there is no word impossible with thee; and that if thou wilt, thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance amongst us: Yet forasmuch as in all appearance the time of his dissolution draweth near; so fit and prepare him, we beseech thee, against the hour of death; that after his departure hence in peace, and in thy favour, his soul may be received into thine everlasting kingdom, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, thine only Son, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A Commendatory Prayer for a sick Person at the point of departure.

O ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; We humbly commend the soul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator, and most merciful Saviour; most humbly beseeching thee, that it may be precious in thy sight. Wash it, we pray thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb, that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted in the midst of this miserable and naughty world, through the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before thee. And teach us who survive, in this and other like daily spectacles of mortality, to see how frail and uncertain our own condition is; and so to number our days, that we may seriously apply our hearts to that holy and heavenly wisdom, whilst we live here, which may in the end bring us to life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ thine only Son our Lord. Amen.
A Prayer for Persons troubled in Mind or in Conscience.

O BLESSED Lord, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforts; We beseech thee, look down in pity and compassion upon this thy afflicted servant. Thou writest bitter things against him, and makest him to possess his former iniquities; thy wrath lieth hard upon him, and his soul is full of trouble: But, O merciful God, who hast written thy holy Word for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of thy holy Scriptures, might have hope; give him, a right understanding of himself, and of thy threats and promises; that he may neither cast away his confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee. Give him strength against all his temptations, and heal all his distempers. Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax. Shut not up thy tender mercies in displeasure; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. Deliver him from fear of the enemy, and lift up the light of thy countenance upon him, and give him peace, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
THE COMMUNION OF THE SICK.

Forasmuch as all mortal men be subject to many sudden perils, diseases, and sicknesses, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life: therefore, to the intent they may be always in a readiness to die, whencesoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Curates shall diligently from time to time (but especially in the time of pestilence, or other infectious sickness) exhort their Parishioners to the often receiving of the holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, when it shall be publickly administered in the Church; that so doing, they may, in case of sudden visitation, have the less cause to be disquieted for lack of the same. But if the sick Person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house; then he must give timely notice to the Curate, signifying also how many there are to communicate with him, (which shall be three, or two at the least) and having a convenient place in the sick Man's house, with all things necessary so prepared, that the Curate may reverently minister; he shall there celebrate the holy Communion, beginning with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, here following.
THE COLLECT.

ALMIGHTY, everliving God, Maker of mankind, who dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chastise every one whom thou dost receive; We beseech thee to have mercy upon this thy servant visited with thine hand, and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health (if it be thy gracious will;) and whenever his soul shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE. Hebr. xii. 5.

MY son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him. For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth; and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

VERILY, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my Word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

After which the Priest shall proceed according to the form before prescribed for the holy Communion, beginning at these words, ["Ye that do truly, &c."]

At the time of the distribution of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall first receive the Communion himself, and after minister unto them that are appointed to communicate with the sick, and last of all to the sick person.
But if a man, either by reason of extremity of sickness, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lack of company to receive with him, or by any other just impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood, the Curate shall instruct him, that if he do truly repent him of his Sins, and stedfastly believe that Jesus Christ hath suffered death upon the Cross for him, and shed his Blood for his redemption; earnestly remembering the benefits he hath thereby, and giving him hearty thanks therefore; he doth eat and drink the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ profitably to his Soul's health, although he do not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.

When the sick Person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest, for more expedition, shall cut off the Form of the Visitation at the Psalm ['In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, 'Ec.,'] and go straight to the Communion.

In the time of the Plague, Sweat, or such other like contagious times of sickness or diseases, when none of the Parish or neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the Sick in their houses, for fear of the infection; upon special request of the diseased, the Minister may only communicate with him.
THE ORDER FOR

THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

I Here is to be noted, That the Office ensuing is not to be used for any that die unbaptized, or excommunicate, or have laid violent hands upon themselves.

II The Priest and Clerks meeting the Corpse at the entrance of the Church-yard, and going before it, either into the Church, or towards the grave, shall say, or sing,

I AM the resurrection and the life, faith the Lord:* he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. St. John xi. 25, 26.

I KNOW that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin, worms destroy this body; yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord. 1 Tim. vi. 7. Job i. 21.

* Jefus faith, I am the way, the truth, and the life. John xiv. 6.
Burying the Dead.
After they are come into the Church, shall be read one or both of these Psalms following.

Psalms xxxix. Dixi, Custodiam.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways: that I offend not in my tongue.

I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the ungodly is in my sight.

I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me.

My heart was hot within me; and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue;

Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee; and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.

Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.
Take thy plague away from me: I am even consumed by means of thy heavy hand.

When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears;

For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Psalm xc. Domine, refugium.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.

For a thousand years, in thy sight, are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep; and fade away suddenly, like the grass.
In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are three-score years and ten; and though men be so strong, that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

So teach us to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious unto thy servants.

O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast plagued us: and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.
Shew thy servants thy work: and their children thy glory.

And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us: O prosper thou our handy work.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Then shall follow the Lesson, taken out of the Fifteenth Chapter of the former Epistle of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

1 Cor. xv. 20.

NOW is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death: For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he faith, All things are put under him; it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die. And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or some other grain: But God giveth it a body, as it hath pleased him; and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead: It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam, was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit. Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery: We shall not all sleep; but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.) For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality; then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

When they come to the Grave, while the Corpse is made ready to be laid into the earth, the Priest shall say, or the Priest and Clerks shall sing:

MAN that is born of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succour, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour*, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts;
shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee.

* Whatever is within, whatever is without us, calls aloud for a Saviour.—Duché.
Then while the earth shall be cast upon the Body by some standing by, the Priest shall say,

FORAS MUCH as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy to take unto himself the soul of our dear brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile body, that it may be like unto his glorious body, according to the mighty working, whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.

Then shall be said, or sung,

I HEARD a voice from heaven, saying unto me; Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: even so faith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours. Rev. xiv. 13.

Then shall the Priest say,

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.
Priest.

ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; we give thee hearty thanks, for that it hath pleased thee to deliver this our brother out of the miseries of this sinful world; beseeching thee, that it may please thee of thy gracious goodness, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom; that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thy eternal and everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT.

O MERCIFUL God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Resurrection and the Life; in whom whosoever believeth shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth, and believeth in him, shall not die eternally; who also hath taught us, by his holy Apostle Saint Paul, not to be sorry as men without hope, for them that sleep in him; We meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him, as our hope is, this our brother doth; and that at the general Resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable in thy sight; and receive that blessing, which thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world: Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

THE THANKSGIVING OF WOMEN AFTER CHILD-BIRTH, COMMONLY CALLED,
THE CHURCHING OF WOMEN.

1 The Woman, at the usual time after her Delivery, shall come into the Church, decently appareled, and there shall kneel down in some convenient place, as hath been accustomed, or as the Ordinary shall direct: And then the Priest shall say unto her,

FORASMUCH as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodness to give you safe deliverance, and hath preserved you in the great danger of Child-birth, you shall therefore give hearty thanks unto God, and say;
I Then shall the Priest say,

Psalm cxvi. Dilexi quoniam.

I AM well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer;

That he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.

I found trouble and heaviness; and I called upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and he helped me.

Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

I believed, and therefore will I speak; but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste, All men are liars.

What reward shall I give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?

I will receive the cup of salvation: and call upon the Name of the Lord.
I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: in the courts of the Lord's house, even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, &c.
As it was in the beginning, &c.

Except the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

Except the Lord keep the city: the watchman waketh but in vain.

It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Lo, children and the fruit of the womb: are an heritage and gift, that cometh of the Lord.

Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant: even so are the young children.

Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Glory be to the Father, &c.
As it was in the beginning, &c.

Then the Priest shall say,
Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
OUR Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

Minister. O Lord, save this woman thy servant;
Answer. Who putteth her trust in thee.
Minister. Be thou to her a strong tower;
Answer. From the face of her enemy.
Minister. Lord, hear our prayer;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.
Minister. Let us pray.

O ALMIGHTY God, we give thee humble thanks, for that thou hast vouchsafed to deliver this woman thy servant from the great pain and peril of Child-birth; Grant, we beseech thee, most merciful Father, that she through thy help may both faithfully live, and walk according to thy will in this life present; and also may be partaker of everlasting glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Woman that cometh to give her Thanks, must offer accustomed Offerings; and if there be a Communion, it is convenient that she receive the holy Communion.
A COMMINATION,

OR DENOUNCING OF

GOD'S ANGER AND JUDGEMENTS AGAINST SINNERS,

WITH CERTAIN PRAYERS TO BE USED ON THE FIRST DAY OF LENT, AND AT OTHER TIMES, AS THE ORDINARY SHALL APPOINT.

After Morning Prayer, the Litany ended according to the accustomed manner, the Priest shall in the Reading-pew, or Pulpit, say,

BRETHREN, in the Primitive Church, there was a godly Discipline, that at the beginning of Lent, such Persons as stood convicted of notorious sin, were put to open penance, and punished in this world, that their souls might be saved in the day of the Lord; and that others, admonished by their example, might be the more afraid to offend.

Instead whereof (until the said Discipline may be restored again, which is much to be wished) it is thought good, that at this time (in the presence of you all) should be read the general Sentences of God's cursing against impenitent sinners, gathered out of the seventh and twentieth Chapter of Deuteronomy, and other places of Scripture; and that ye should answer to every sentence, Amen: To the intent that being admonished of the great indignation of God against sinners, ye may the rather be moved to earnest and true repentance; and may walk more warily in these dangerous days; fleeing from such vices, for which ye affirm with your own mouths the curse of God to be due.

CURSED is the man that maketh any carved or molten image, to worship it. Deut. xxvii. 15.

I And the People shall answer and say, "Amen."
Minister. Cursed is he, that curseth his father or mother. Ver. 16.
Answer. Amen.

Minister. Cursed is he, that removeth his neighbour's land-mark. Ver. 17.
Answer. Amen.

Minister. Cursed is he, that maketh the blind to go out of his way. Ver. 18.
Answer. Amen.

Minister. Cursed is he, that perverteth the judgement of the stranger, the fatherless, and widow. Ver. 19.
Answer. Amen.

Minister. Cursed is he, that smiteth his neighbour secretly. Ver. 24.
Answer. Amen.
Minister. Cursed is he, that lieth with his neighbour's wife. Lev. xx. 10.
Answer. Amen.
Minister. Cursed is he, that taketh reward to slay the innocent. Deut. xxvii. 25.
Answer. Amen.
Minister. Cursed is he, that putteth his trust in man, and taketh man for his defence, and in his heart goeth from the Lord. Jer. xvii. 5.
Answer. Amen.
Minister. Cursed are the unmerciful, fornicators, and adulterers, covetous persons, idolaters, slanderers, drunkards, and extortioners. S. Matth. xxv. 41. 1 Cor. vi. 9. 10.
Answer. Amen.

NOW seeing that all they are accursed (as the prophet David beareth witness) who do err and go astray from the Commandments of God; let us (remembering the dreadful judgement hanging over our heads, and always ready to fall upon us) return unto our Lord God, with all contrition and meekness of heart; bewailing and lamenting our sinful life, acknowledging and confessing our offences, and seeking to bring forth worthy fruits of penance. For now is the ax put unto the root of the trees, so that every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire*. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God: He shall pour down rain upon the sinners, snares, fire, and brimstone, storm and tempest; this shall be their portion to drink. For lo, the Lord is come out of his place, to visit the wickedness of such as dwell upon the earth. But who may abide the day of his coming? Who shall be able to endure, when he appeareth? His fan is in his hand, and he will purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the barn; but he will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire. The day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night: and when men shall say, Peace, and all things are safe; then shall sudden destruction come upon them, as sorrow cometh upon a woman travailing with child, and they shall not escape. Then shall appear the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obdurate sinners, through the stubbornness of their heart, have heaped unto themselves; which despised the goodness, patience, and long sufferance of God, when he calleth them continually to repentance. Then shall they call upon me, (faith the Lord) but I will not hear; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me; and that, because they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the Lord; but abhorred my counsel, and despised my correction. Then shall it be too late to knock, when the door shall be shut; and too late to cry for mercy, when it is the time of justice. O terrible voice of most just judgement, which shall be pronounced upon them, when it shall be said unto them, Go, ye cursed, into the fire everlasting, which is prepared for the devil and his angels! Therefore, brethren, take we heed betime, while the day of salvation lasteth; for the night cometh, when none can work: But let us, while we have the light, believe in the light, and walk as children of the light; that we be not cast into utter darkness, where is weeping and gnashing of teeth. Let us not abuse the goodness of God, who calleth us mercifully to amendment; and of his endless pity promiseth us forgiveness of that which is past, if with a perfect and true heart we return unto him. For though our sins be as red as scarlet, they shall be made white as snow; and though they be like purple, yet they shall be made white as wool. Turn ye (faith the Lord) from all your wickedness, and your sin shall not be your destruction: Cast away from you all your ungodliness that ye have done; make you new hearts, and a new spirit: wherefore will ye die, O ye house of Israel, seeing that I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, faith the Lord God? Turn ye then, and ye shall live. Although we have sinned, yet we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins. For he was wounded for our offences, and smitten for our wickedness. Let us therefore return unto him, who is the merciful receiver of all true penitent sinners; assuring ourselves that he is ready to receive us, and most willing to pardon us, if we come unto him with faithful repentance: If we submit ourselves unto him, and from henceforth walk in his ways; if we will take his easy yoke, and light burden upon us, to follow him in lowliness, patience, and charity, and be ordered by the governance of his Holy Spirit; seeking always his glory, and serving him duly in our vocation with thanksgiving: This if we do, Christ will deliver us from the curse of the law, and from the extreme malediction which shall light upon them that shall be set on the left hand; and he will set us on his right hand, and give us the gracious benediction of his Father, commanding us to take possession of his glorious Kingdom: unto which he vouchsafe to bring us all, for his infinite mercy. Amen.

I Then shall they all kneel upon their knees, and the Priest and Clerks kneeling (in the Place where they are accustomed to say the Litany) shall say this Psalm.

Psalm li. Miserere mei, Deus. HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.
Wash me throughly from my wickedness: and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones, which thou hast broken, may rejoice.

Turn thy face from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of thy help again: and establish me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem;

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, As it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister. O Lord, save thy servants,
Anfwer. That put their trust in thee.
Minifter. Send unto them help from above;
Anfwer. And evermore mightily defend them.
Minifter. Help us, O God our Saviour;
Anfwer. And for the glory of thy Name deliver us; be merciful to us sinners, for thy Name's sake.
Minifter. O Lord, hear our prayer;
Anfwer. And let our cry come unto thee.
Minifter. Let us pray.

O LORD, we beseech thee, mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee; that they, whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O MOST mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made; who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins: Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgement with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the People say this that followeth, after the Minister.

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, Be favourable to thy people, Who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, Full of compassion, Long-suffering, And of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, And in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them; And let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great; And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, Through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Minister alone shall say,

THE Lord bless us, and keep us; the Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon us, and give us peace now and for evermore. Amen.

A COMMUNICATION.

In the midst of our trials, and to make haste to prepare for the work to come through the grace of God, let us think about our Lord and his people. Let us be watchful, and let us pray for the church. May we be strengthened in our faith, and let us be humble before the Lord. May our prayers be answered, and may we be led by the Spirit of God. Amen.

I am mindful of your people, and let my heart be filled with joy. May the Lord bless you and keep you.

Turn again, O Lord, to your people,停车场。Who is so great as the Lord, and who is so mighty as our God? Turn again, O God of compassion, and give us strength, that we may serve you with joy. And may our prayers be answered, and may we be blessed by the Lord. Amen.

I am with you, my people. May the Lord be with you, and may your prayers be answered. Amen.

PREPARATIVE TO A SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION,

CHURCH OF ENGLAND REQUIRES
FROM HER COMMUNICANTS.

LONDON: PRINTED FOR J. GOOD, AND E. HARDING.
THE usual reason which men assign for their not coming so often to the Holy Sacrament as they would do, is their fear of eating and drinking unworthily, and consequently of incurring their own Damnation thereby. The design then of this short discourse is, to shew what that Sacramental Preparation is, which is absolutely necessary to qualify men for a worthy participation of the Lord's Supper, that so men may come without the least fear of eating and drinking Damnation to themselves: For which purpose, I conceive no rule, no instruction more safe, easy, and instructive, than that of our Church Catechism, which I have endeavoured to explain, and to accommodate for the use and benefit of the meanest capacity.

The concluding part of this discourse contains Prayers and Meditations preparative to a Sacramental Preparation; and though they be few in number, yet I hope they will fully answer all those several parts of a communicant’s duty, according to that rule and standard which our Church has fixed for our Guide and Companion to the holy Altar. By the addition of those Psalms, and proper Lessons annexed to each particular Prayer and Meditation, the communicant may enlarge his devotions to what degree or length he pleaseth. By which method you have as much matter for actual preparation in this book, as in any other discourse of this nature whatsoever.
ALL those blessings which we now enjoy, and hope hereafter to receive from Almighty God, are purchased for us, and must be obtained through the merits and intercession of the holy Jesus, who has "instituted and ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of his love, and for a "continual remembrance of his Death and Passion, to our great and endless comfort," Luke xxii. 19. 1 Cor. xi. 14. But then we must remember, that these benefits and blessings, which the Son of God has purchased for us, are no where promised, but upon condition that we ourselves are first duly qualified for them. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is a solemn ratification of our baptismal covenant, wherein God for his part hath faithfully promised "pardon and remission of sins to all true penitents," and we for our parts are therein solemnly bound to be faithful and obedient unto him, 2 Tim. ii. 19. Before then we can promise to ourselves any benefit or advantage from the participation of this solemn rite and covenant between God and us, we must endeavour (what in us lies) to possess our souls with all those divine qualifications which this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper requires to render us worthy partakers thereof.

And what those are, it is the design of this discourse to inquire; wherein I shall endeavour to shew what that preparation of heart and mind is, which must dispose us for a worthy participation of the blessed Sacrament: And herein I hope to remove all those fears and scruples which arise in our minds, about "eating and drinking unworthily, and of incurring our own Damnation thereby," as groundless and unwarrantable; and to do this, I will take occasion to explain that part of our Church Catechism, designedly intended for our instruction, with relation to this duty of a Sacramental Preparation; namely,
Q. "What is required of them who come to the Lord's Supper?
A. "To examine themselves whether they repent them truly of their former sins, stedfastly purposing to lead a new life, have a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of his death, and to be in charity with all men." This is that Sacramental Preparation which our Church (in as few words as is possible) hath provided for our Companion or Guide to the holy Altar. The duty, then, of a devout communicant consisteth in these six following particulars: 1. Self-examination; "to examine themselves." 2. Repentance towards God; "whether they repent them truly of their former sins." 3. Holy purposes, or resolutions of a new life; "stedfastly purposing to lead a new life." 4. Faith in God's mercy through Christ; "to have a lively faith," &c. 5. "A thankful remembrance of his death." 6thly, and lastly, unsheigned love or charity for all mankind, "and to be in charity with all men."

The first part then of a communicant's duty is self-examination: a duty not only enjoined by human authority, but likewise commanded by St. Paul: "But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup," 1 Cor. xi. 28. intimating, that no man should presume to eat of that bread, and drink of that cup, without a previous preparation, if he meant to escape that same judgement or condemnation which these Corinthians brought upon themselves for their irreverent, sinful, and disorderly behaviour at this Sacrament; and this was the occasion of St. Paul's caution and reproof: "*He that eateth and drinketh unworthily," says the Apostle, "eateth and drinketh Damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body."

But that our preparation may be so well performed by us as to prevent the like danger, let us, as the wise man adviseth, "remember the end, and we shall never do amiss," Eccl. vii. 16. First then, That we may come to this heavenly feast holy, and adorned with the wedding garment, Matt. xxii. 11. we must search our hearts, and examine our consciences, not only till we see our sins, but until we hate them; and instead of those filthy rags of our righteousness, we must adorn our minds with pure and pious dispositions; "even that clean linen, the righteousness of the saints," Rev. xix. 8. With these ornaments are holy souls fitted for the society of that celestial company, which are to be met with at this solemnity. Secondly, Another end or design of this strict preparation is, That we may be accepted by God as worthy communicants; that "he who knoweth the secrets of all our hearts, neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight, but all things are naked and open unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do," Jer. xvii. 10. Heb. iv. 13. may approve of the sincerity of our repentance; and the king, who comes in to view the guests, Matt. xxii. 11. may (though, strictly speaking, we are not so) count us worthy of his favour and countenance. And how to attain so great a blessing, these following instructions will help and assist us:

First, We are directed to "repent us truly of all our former sins." This is that preparation which Christ himself requires of us, Matt. iii. 2, 3. A duty, you know, which our sinful lives make always necessary for our consideration, if ever we expect eternal happiness hereafter, Luke xiii. 3. But more especially the dignity of this Sacrament requires that it should be inquired into with more than ordinary care and circumspection, because without sincere repentance* we cannot expect any benefit or advantage from the death and passion of Christ, which in this Sacrament we commemorate, and have the merits of it conveyed to us by the sacred memorial. Supposing then that this is sufficient to convince you of the necessity and importance of this duty, that upon it depends our welcome unto this heavenly feast unto which we are called; I proceed now, in the second place, to inform you, That if our repentance or return to God be real and sincere, it will produce these following good effects in us:

First, "A sense, a sorrow, and confession, of all our former sins. Secondly, a steadfast purpose or resolution to lead a new life." These are the genuine fruits of a true repentance, and must always accompany our return to God, if we hope to have it effectual to our salvation. And,

First, We must labour to get a sense or sight of all our former sins and wickedness; this will readily present itself to us by comparing our lives and actions by the rule or standard of God's word, which we must make the measure of our examination. St. Paul shews us, Rom. iii. 20. that by the law is the knowledge of sin; and our own experience will convince us, that there is no way more likely to discover our iniquities, and to humble ourselves for them, than a serious application of God's word to our crooked paths: and this duty of self-examination is never more properly applied to, than when we intend to receive the Holy Communion; for unless we see the number, and apprehend the heinousness, of our offences, and fear the vengeance due unto us for them, we are altogether unfit for the commemoration of his Death, "Who died for our sins, and rose again for our justification." It is the sense and sight of sin that must shew us the need and necessity of a glorious Redeemer, and what obligations we are under to bless and praise God for our salvation by his Son Jesus Christ. Of such great use and advantage is this duty of self-examination, at all times, that Pythagoras, in those golden verses which go under his name, particularly recommends the same to his scholars. Every night before they slept, he enjoins them to examine themselves what good they had done, and wherein they had transgressed. "Run over these things," said he; "and if you have done an evil, be troubled; if good, rejoice." This course, if daily followed, as is suggested by Hierocles, his excellent commentator, perfects the divine image in those that use it. Plutarch, Epictetus, Seneca, and the emperor Marcus Antoninus, agree in recommending the same practice by their own example; but especially holy David; "I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies," Psalm cxix. 59. And this method, no doubt, is an admirable means to improve us in virtue, and the most effectual way to keep our consciences awake, and to make us stand in awe of ourselves, and afraid to sin, when we know, beforehand, that we must give so severe an account to ourselves of every action. And when we are employing our minds in this duty of self-examination before the Communion, or at any other time, we must discharge it as impartially as is possible for us, judging as severely of our own actions, as we would do of our greatest and worst enemy; or otherwise we shall but flatter and deceive ourselves in a matter of the greatest weight and importance, namely, the knowing the state and condition of our souls: But if our enquiries are just and true, we shall then plainly discover wherein, and how often, we have gone astray and done amiss. We shall, by the faithful discharge of this duty, bring to light "all our ungodly, unjust, and uncharitable actions; all our vain and filthy speeches; all our wanton, proud, and covetous thoughts." Such a strict and impartial examination will discover to us that accursed thing, "Sin," Deut. vii. 26. which has defiled our nature, made God our enemy, and will exclude us the kingdom of heaven, if not repented of, 1 Cor. vi. 9, 10. But by such a severe scrutiny as this, we shall soon perceive the number of our transgressions, what vile wretches and grievous offenders we are, how often we have broken our most serious vows and resolutions, especially after the receiving the holy Sacrament, and in times of sickness and distress: such a sight and such a prospect of misery as this should excite in us a hearty trouble and sorrow for sin; especially if we cast an eye upon the final issue and consequences of it, with respect to the world to come. "Upon the ungodly," says holy David, "God will rain snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest; this shall be their portion to drink," Psalm xi. 7. "Great plagues remain for the ungodly: indignation and wrath, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doth evil," Rom. ii. 8, 9. "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the people that forget God." These and many other such like texts of Scripture, may give us some idea or notion of the deplorable condition of the wicked in a future state, and of God's hatred against sin. And is not this then, without multiplying arguments, sufficient to affect us with great grief and sorrow, when we consider that so long as we live in a vicious course, so long are we exposed to all those plagues and torments which God hath in store for wicked men, and will most certainly be their lot and portion, if not prevented by a timely repentance?

The second part of a true repentance is Contrition, or a sorrowful bewailing of our own sinfulness in thought, word, and deed. When we call to mind the sins and follies of our past lives, and the dangers we are like to fall into, surely we cannot be otherwise affected, than sensibly grieved with the thoughts and apprehensions of our present and approaching misery. The sorrows of David, and the repentance of Peter, 2 Sam. xii. Luke xxii. shewed themselves in floods of tears, and were too great to be confined within: but our hearts are generally so hard and unrelenting, that we sin against God, and lose our own souls, without so much as a sigh or a tear. I know that the tempers of people are different; some can shed tears upon every flight occasion; and others cannot weep, though their hearts are ready to break for grief; and therefore we are not to judge of the sincerity of our own or other people's repentance by such signs and tokens; nor are tears always necessary to repentance, though they very well become us; and the least we can do when we have done amiss, is to be sorry for it, and to condemn our folly, and to be full of indignation and displeasure against ourselves. "I will declare my iniquity," faith holy David, "and be sorry for my sin," Psalm xxxviii. 18. Especially if we have been very wicked, and have multiplied our transgressions, and have continued long in an evil course, have neglected God, and have forgotten him days without number; then the measure of our sorrow must bear some proportion to the degrees of our sins; if they have been as "scarlet" and "crimson," Isa. i. 18, that is, of a deeper dye than ordinary, then our sorrow must be as deep as our guilt: if not so great, we ought to shew as much trouble and contrition of spirit, as to produce in us a penitential confession of all our former sins.

Which is the third property of a sincere repentance. "I will acknowledge my sin unto thee," says holy David, "and mine unrighteousness have I not hid." I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord, and so thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin," Psal. xxxii. 5. Which confession of sins must not be in general terms only, that we are sinners with the rest of mankind, but it must be a special declaration to God of all our most heinous sins, in thought, word, and deed, with all their several aggravations, laying open our sores to our heavenly Physician; and this we must do, to shew that we condemn all our former evil and vicious courses, with a full purpose and resolution of mind (by God's assistance) never to do the like again. Unless this be done, our sorrow for sin, and the confession of our wickedness, can never profit us in the sight of God, if it be not joined with a firm resolution of leading a new life.

Which is the fourth and most essential part of a sincere repentance, and the only condition of finding mercy with God. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but who so confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy," Prov. xxviii. 13. "Let the wicked man forsake his ways, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, and he will abundantly pardon," Isa. lv. 7. "I tell you nay," faith Christ, "but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish," Luke, xiii. 3. "Repent ye, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out," Acts iii. 19. Those preceding parts of repentance before mentioned, are only preparative to this; that which must complete and finish the work of a new convert is, to become a new creature, "to turn from our evil ways, and to break off our sins by righteousness." This certainly must be the desire and intention of all communicants, if they hope or expect any benefit or advantage from this solemn rite or covenant, for he that comes, with a design or intention of continuing in his former sins, comes somewhat like unto Judas, that came and received, and at the same time continued his resolution of betraying his master. That which makes a man absolutely unfit to receive the holy Sacrament, is the living in the constant and habitual practice of any known sin, without the least desire or intention of repentance or amendment. Such a man's approach to the holy table, no doubt, is to "eat and drink his own Damnation," since it is a plain mocking of God, and a great contempt and abuse of his divine authority. We must therefore (by the help and assistance of God's grace) "resolve to lead a new life, following the commandments of God," or otherwise our former examinations will appear but flight and superficial, our fight and sense of sin trivial and indifferent, our sorrow and contrition of spirit forced and hypocritical, and our confessions odious and formal. Therefore examine well the sincerity of your repentance and resolutions, that you neither deceive God nor yourselves: Him you cannot, because he is "a search of the heart, and a discern of the thoughts," nor will he accept of any thing which is not hearty and unfeigned.

Not that we are to suppose that this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, doth require perfect obedience in all our addresses to the holy Altar, or that none must come but such as are in a sinless state of perfection: No, this were impossible; because "there is no man which liveth and sinneth not; for who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?" The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is not a converting, but a confirming ordinance; intended to preserve and increase that spiritual life and grace which we received at our baptism: So that when we come to the holy Communion, we come thither for fresh supplies of grace and goodness, "for the strengthening and refreshing of our souls in all holiness and virtue."

As our natural bodies are fed and nourished with those elements of bread and wine, the same effect is wrought in the soul, in the inward man, by these holy mysteries, as in the outward man by bread and wine; bread being the staff of life, and wine the most sovereign cordial (when taken in due proportion) to cheer and rejoice the heart. And thus our souls, by this Sacrament, are fortified and strengthened with grace, wisdom, courage, and all other spiritual gifts, to keep us through faith unto salvation. Both the comfort and benefit of it are great; the comfort of it, because it does not only represent to us the exceeding love of our Saviour, in giving his body to be broken, and his blood to be shed for us: but it likewise seals to us all those blessings and benefits which are purchased and procured for us by his death and passion; namely, the pardon of sin, and power against it. The benefit of frequent communion is also of great advantage, because thereby we are confirmed in all grace and goodness, and our resolutions to live in obedience and conformity to God's laws are strengthened; and the grace of God's holy spirit, to do his will, is hereby conveyed to us: It is the sovereign remedy against all temptations, by mortifying our passions, and by spiritualizing our affections: In a word, it is the likeliest method to make our bodies the temples of the Holy Ghost, and to prepare our souls for the enjoyment of God to all eternity.

And if at any time, through ignorance, surprise, or the violence of any other temptation, we should fall into those very sins which we have repented of, and vowed against when we were at the last Sacrament, yet these relapses should not make us afraid of coming again, since we have always the benefit of repentance allowed us: If after a relapse we repent, and renew our resolutions with a hearty grief and contrition of spirit, we are made whole as before. "If the wicked," faith God, "will turn from all his sins that he hath committed; all his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him," Ezek. xviii. 21, 22. "Sin no more," says our Saviour to the woman taken in adultery, "and I will not condemn thee," John viii. 11. It is not the commission of this or that great sin that will utterly exclude us from God's mercy and forgiveness; for then, indeed, no person could escape Damnation, because "there is not a just man upon earth that doeth good and sinneth not," Eccles. vii. 20. But it is our living and dying without repentance and amendment that brings God's wrath and vengeance upon us. His mercies are not limited; he will not only pardon us once or twice, but always upon our repentance and return to him. No time, no age or season, does he except against; but "whenever the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive," Ezek. xviii. 27. Neither is there any sin, though never so vile and heinous in its own nature, but shall be remitted and forgiven, unless it be that against the Holy Ghost. "All manner of sins and blasphemies shall be forgiven unto men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven," Matt. xii. 31, 32. And consequently this sin of eating and drinking unworthily, in the worst sense, cannot be a damning sin, because God in the Gospel (for Christ's sake) hath promised to forgive all our sins, upon our repentance, and therefore this of unworthy receiving among the rest.

Some people, I remember, have been very much concerned and discomposed at their devotions, upon the repetition of some few expressions, contained in the last exhortation to the Communion; namely, "Of being guilty of the body and blood of Christ our Saviour--Of eating and drinking our own Damnation—Not considering the Lord's body—Kindling God's wrath against us—Provoking him to plague us with divers diseases and sundry kinds of death." These are hard sayings, and some of them too hard to be understood: But however, they are all avoided and escaped by coming worthily, that is, with Faith and Repentance: Therefore let not these terrible expressions trouble you, or detain you from the holy Communion: Repent and believe, and you are safe and secure from falling into any of these dangers which these sentences may seem to threaten you with. So that the want of preparation, as some men have alleged, and in the sense they generally take it, can never be a sufficient plea or pretence for their not coming to the holy Communion; because, after our best and strictest endeavours to prepare ourseves, we profess (before...
God and the congregation) “That we do not come to this heavenly table trusting in our own righteousness, but in his manifold and great mercies.” By these we are invited to come; and to the mercy of God (through Christ) all of us must flee and take sanctuary in: who has promised that “he will in no wise cast out those who come unto him,” John vi. 37. “A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise,” Psalm li. 17. There is nothing dreadful in this Sacrament, but to the wilful, impenitent, and persevering sinner, whose condition is dreadful, and every page in Scripture is terrible against such, whether they come, or not; but to the penitent and humble soul, nothing is dismal or affrighting in this holy feast; for there is none condemned for unworthy receiving, but such who deserve it for continuing in their iniquities; and this impenitence renders even their prayers an “abomination to the Lord.” Though they never partake of the body and blood of Christ, they are in equal danger with those who eat and drink unworthily; nay, I might say in greater, because the latter use the means in obedience to our Saviour’s command, and the former wilfully neglect that which would prevent their Damnation, if rightly considered, and timely applied to. The surest way, I say, to prevent our Damnation, is, to receive the Sacrament more frequently than men usually do; that by constant participation of this spiritual food, of the living bread which comes down from heaven, their souls may be nourished in all goodness, and new supplies of God's grace and holy spirit may be continually derived to them for the purifying of their hearts, and to enable them to run the ways of God's commandments with more constancy and delight than they did before. So that the true consequence of eating and drinking unworthily, should rather excite our care and diligence in this duty, than delude us with false reasonings, to such as neglect, as will certainly increase our Damnation; it being certain that God will never cast any man into eternal flames for striving to do his duty as well as he can. "If there be first a willing mind," faith the apostle, "it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not," 2 Cor. viii. 12. Neither ought we to think so unworthily of the Son of God, who came into the world to save sinners, that he would institute this ordinance to be a snare to entangle our souls with. It was not ordained for angels, or for glorified saints, but for humble and penitent sinners to bring them home to God; it being a seal of their pardon, and a refreshing declaration of our heavenly Father's readiness to forgive the chiefest of sinners for Jesus's sake: who graciously calls upon all who are "wearied and oppressed with the guilt and burden of their sins, to come to him, and he will refresh them," Matt. xi. 28. "Christ came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance," Matt. xi. 13. And consequently such as account themselves most unworthy, are those very persons whom Christ doth here call and invite to this Sacrament, when deeply sensible of their unworthiness. Were we not sinners, were we not "conceived and born in sin," we should not need such means and instruments of grace as Sacraments are; but, "being by nature born in sin, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of grace, and inheritors of the kingdom of heaven."

"*They that are whole," faith Christ, "have no need of a physician, but they that are sick." This being the case of all mankind with respect to their spiritual life, there is no other way to free ourselves from this death of sin, but by speedily applying ourselves to our heavenly Physician, who came into the world to seek and to save those that are lost, and ready to perish; and the very sense of our own unworthiness is, of all other arguments, the best qualification to recommend us to God's favour and mercy, since we know that he resifteth the proud [and presumptuous sinner], but never denies his grace and favour to the humble and meek. As often then as we come to the holy Communion with such an honest and true heart, as to exercise our "repentance towards God, our faith, and hope of his mercy, through Christ,

for the forgiveness of our sins, and our love and charity for all mankind;" such a temper and resolution of mind as this, will, doubtless, render us worthy partakers of these holy mysteries, and prevent us "eating and drinking Damnation to ourselves." Nay, I farther add, that any person thus disposed or qualified, may come (if it should be required) at an hour's warning, as safely as he may come to Church and say his prayers, or hear a sermon. The dueness of Preparation doth not so much depend upon our setting aside so many extraordinary days for the forcing ourselves into a religious posture of mind, as upon the plain, natural frame and disposition of our souls, as they constantly stand inclined to virtue and goodness through the general course of our lives. From whence I infer, that a multitude of business, or a man's being deeply engaged in the public affairs of this world, cannot be any just plea or pretence for his not coming to the holy Communion; because all business is consistent with the duties of religion, provided we govern our affairs by christian principles. For though such men have not leisure for so much actual preparation, yet they may have that habitual preparation, upon which the great stress ought to be laid in this matter: Nay, even the conscientious discharge of a man's duty in his business, may be one of the best qualifications to recommend him to God; since every man serves God when he follows his calling with diligence, and observes justice and honesty in all his dealings: and consequently the greater danger and temptation he is exposed to through the multiplicity of business, the more need hath he of God's grace and assistance, which are abundantly communicated to us in this holy ordinance: so that men of business, if they have any serious thoughts of another world, ought more especially to lay hold on such opportunities which secure the salvation of their souls; for as they who have leisure ought to receive constantly, as the best improvement of their time; so they that are engaged in many worldly affairs, ought to come the oftener to the holy Communion, and learn how to sanctify their employments. But to proceed:

The other branch of a communicant's duty is, to "examine whether he hath a lively faith in God's mercy through Christ." "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith," 2 Cor. xiii. 5. this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper being only appointed for such believers as own their Baptism, and profess the Faith of Christ crucified, and understand the fundamental articles of the Christian Religion contained in the Apostles' Creed, and also the end and design of this holy institution. The benefits of our Saviour's death and passion in this Sacrament are indeed freely offered unto all, but only effectually to believers. "As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe in his name,” John i. 12. “And this is life eternal, that they might know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent,” John xvii. 3. All that Christ hath done and suffered for us men and our salvation, can never profit us, unless we have faith* to believe it: that which must render the benefits and blessings of the gospel effectual to our salvation is our faith in Christ. “Verily I say unto you,” faith our Saviour, “he that heareth my words, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life,” John v. 24. The ancient churches accounted those only faithful that had received the Lord’s Supper; and the Germans allowed none to come unto their sacrifices who had lost their shields; nor does our own Church allow that any of us should come to this christian sacrifice without the shield of faith. “Draw near with faith,” says the priest, “and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort.” And this faith hath God’s mercy, through Christ, for its object, as the fountain and foundation of all those infinite blessings and comforts which we gain by his manifestation in the flesh; and if we enquire into the cause and reason of so much mercy and goodness to mankind, no other can be given, but “the riches of his mercy,” Eph. ii. 4. And if we further enquire how this mercy becomes ours, the answer is plain---it was through Christ, by whom all the blessings of this life, and those of a better, are purchased for us, and must be obtained through the merits and intercession of the holy Jesus: by him we were redeemed, “and according to the riches of his grace we have obtained remission of our sins, and through him at last we shall be glorified.”

And to this faith we must join “a thankful remembrance of his death, and of those benefits which we receive thereby.” “Our gracious and merciful Lord,” faith holy David, “hath so done his marvellous works, that they ought to be had in remembrance,” Psal. cxi. 4. But especially this work of our redemption by Jesus Christ, which to forget were an ingratitude baser and viler than ever heathens, or publicans, the very worst of people among the Jews, were known to be guilty of towards their benefactors---Matt. v. 46.

“Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins,” 1 John iv. 10. This is a mercy far above all other mercies; nay, it is even this which sweetens all other mercies to us. Had there been no redemption, our creation had only made us capable of endless torments; and it had been better for us never to have been born, than to be born to inevitable ruin: which must have been our lot and portion, had not "the Son of God, by his own oblation of himself, once offered up on the cross, made a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice and satisfaction to God for the sins of the whole world." The consequences of this redemption are so infinitely great and valuable, that it as much surpasses our understanding as it does our merits. We are to declare and publish to all the world, what God hath done to save mankind from that Damnation which they had deserved, and restore us again to that happiness and glory which we could never expect or hope to enjoy, had not Christ died for us. "O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul," Psalm lxvi. 16. "Praise the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, praise his holy name: praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; who forgiveth all thy sins, and healeth all thy infirmities; who saveth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving kindness," Psalm ciii. 1, 2, 3, 4. With what joy and thankfulness then should every good christian commemorate this exceeding love of God, in the salvation of sinners by Jesus Christ! This was the proper end and design of this institution, to perpetuate this wonderful love of Christ in laying down his life for us. "Do this in remembrance of me," faith our Saviour, a little before his crucifixion; which being a solemn command of "our Master and only Saviour thus dying for us," we cannot refuse obedience hereunto, without being guilty of the most horrible ingratitude and contempt of his divine authority. He hath appointed it for a solemn commemoration of his great love to us, in laying down his life for us men, and for our salvation; and therefore he commands us to do it in remembrance of him: and St. Paul tells us, that "as often as we eat this bread and drink this cup, we do shew forth the Lord's death till he come." As for those men then amongst us who profess themselves christians, and hope for salvation by Jesus Christ, not to pay obedience to this his command, is a downright affront to his sacred Majesty; and he may justly upbraid us christians, as he did once the Jews; "Why call ye me Lord, Lord; and do not the things which I say?" How unworthy are we of that salvation which he hath wrought for us, if we deny him so small a favour, such a reasonable request, as to commemorate his death and bitter passion once a month, or at least thrice a year, "who did humble himself, even to the death of the cross, for us miserable sinners; who lay in darkness, and in the shadow of death: that he might make us the children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life." In this Sacrament of the Lord's Supper we have the pardon and remission of all our sins, the grace and assistance of God’s holy Spirit, and the hopes of eternal life and happiness, freely offered unto us: and therefore had we no love, no regard, or reverence, to the dying words of our crucified Saviour, yet surely the consideration of our own present and future advantage might prevail with us to be more frequent at the Lord’s table than we usually are.

Hitherto a communicant hath been directed to set his heart right towards God; but this is not all, he must proceed farther, and enquire how it stands towards his neighbour, since we are expressly forbidden, Matt. v. 23, 24. to offer up any gift or oblation unto God, if our hearts are leavened with malice, hatred, or revenge. “If thou bring thy gift unto the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.” Here you see that Christ prefers mercy before sacrifice. And it is generally agreed on by the ancient fathers, that these words of our Saviour do directly point at this Sacrament, on purpose to oblige all communicants to forgive all manner of injuries “before they presume to eat of that bread, or to drink of that cup.” And it is expressly said, Matt. vi. 14, 15. that our prayers are not accepted, nor our pardon sealed in heaven, until such time as we forgive men their trespasses;
and to be sure we can never be welcome or worthy guests at this heavenly feast, where Jesus, the Saviour of penitents and the Prince of Peace, is spiritually present, unless our repentance reconciles us to God, and our charity to all mankind.

And this charity of the heart, in forgiving injuries, must likewise shew itself by the hand, in relieving the wants and necessities of the poor. We read, that when this Sacrament was administered in the apostles' days, large collections of monies were then gathered for the maintenance of the poor Clergy and Laity, Acts ii. 44, 45, 46. and 1 Cor. xvi. 1. And Theodoret observes, that Theodosius the emperor, when his time came to offer, arose, and presented his oblations with his own hands. It was not determined how much every man should give, but all men were exhorted and enjoined to offer something, according to their ability; which if any neglected, the fathers censured them as unworthy communicants: and to be sure nothing within our power can so effectually recommend our prayers and devotions as this of charity; it being well observed, Matt. vi. that our Saviour hath inclosed alms between prayer and fasting, and therefore they are called its two wings, without which it will never fly so high as the throne of God. While Cornelius was fasting and praying, we read, that an angel from heaven was dispatched to him with this happy message: "Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God," Acts x. 4. "He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again," Prov. xix. 17. "Charge them that are rich in this world,---that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate, laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life," 1 Tim. vi. 17, 18, 19. "Do ye not know that they who minister about holy things, live of the sacrifice, and they who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord also ordained, that they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel," 1 Cor. ix. 13, 14. "If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your worldly things?" Ver. 11. But we may justly complain with Basil, that we know some who will "fast and pray, sigh and groan, yea, and do all acts of religion which cost them nothing, but will not give one farthing to the poor. What benefit is there," faith he, "of all the rest of their devotions?"

And when the communicant has thus far advanced towards the altar, in his examination, repentance, &c. he must not forget another excellent preparative belonging to this duty of communicating worthily, which although it be not mentioned in our Church Catechism, yet it is always implied as a necessary part of our Sacramental Preparation; that is, Prayer,* private and public; a duty upon which all our present and future blessings depend, Matt. vii. 7, 8. and 21, 22. And so near a relation hath this duty of prayer with this Sacrament, that all those blessings therein contained and promised, are only in return to our prayers; and no doubt but that man, who makes a conscientious practice of this duty in his closet, and at Church, can never be unprepared for this Sacrament, nor want a title to God's peculiar favour and blessing: "For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers," 1 Peter iii. 12. The constant exercise of prayer is the best method to get the mastery over our evil inclinations and corrupt affections, and to overcome our vicious habits. It preserves a lively sense of God and religion in our minds, and fortifies us against those temptations that assault us: it spiritualizes our nature, raiseth our souls above this world, and supports us under the troubles and calamities of this life, by sanctifying such afflictions; it leads us gradually to the perfection of a Christian life, and preserves that union between God and our souls, which feeds our spiritual life with grace and goodness; without it, we in vain pretend to discharge those Christian duties incumbent on us, or to prosper in our temporal affairs, which must have God's blessing to crown them with success. And as prayer in general has these great blessings and advantages attending it, so give me leave to suggest to you under this head, that those public prayers and devotions, which we offer unto God in our Churches, are not only more acceptable to him, but also much more edifying and advantageous to ourselves. They cannot but be more acceptable to God, because thereby his honour and glory is much more considerably advanced and maintained in the world, than by our private devotions. By these outward signs and tokens, we publicly declare to all the world that inward regard and esteem which we have for his divine perfections and goodness: hereby we "let our light so shine before men, that they may see our good works, and glorify our father which is in heaven," Matt. v. 16. There is no duty in Scripture more frequently commanded, none more earnestly pressed upon us, than this of public prayer. We have the example of all good men in all ages for it, and of Christ himself, who was daily in the temple and in the synagogues, and, no question, frequented those places at the usual hours of prayer, because then he had the fairest opportunity, from those public assemblies, to instruct, and to exhort to faith and repentance. 2dly. We may expect greater blessings and success to our requests and desires, when we join in the public prayers of our Church, than from private, because our Saviour has in a special manner promised to such assemblies his immediate presence, that "where two or three are gathered together in his name, there will he be in the midst of them;" which he hath no where said of private prayer, though both are very good, nay, both are absolutely necessary for the beginning and ending of a christian life; and it is a very bad sign of some evil principle or other, for any man to be much a stranger to the house of prayer, which is one of the greatest blessings and privileges (if we know how to value the same) that we can have in this world, and has always been accounted such among all wise and good men. It is certain, that the Turks, whom we call infidels, go to their public devotions five times every day; and shall not they rise in judgement against us christians, who cannot afford to go once or twice a day to God's house, when we have both leisure and opportunity? If men shall be judged for every idle word, to be sure they shall not pass unpunished for all the neglects and omissions of their duty of this nature. But to proceed:

To this duty of fervent prayer, the communicant should spend some portion of time in reading and meditation, to raise his soul into a devout and heavenly temper. The proper office of reading is to gain spiritual food and sustenance, and of meditation, to digest it. Those divine subjects most proper for our serious contemplation on this solemn occasion, I think, are "our Saviour's sermon on the mount; the love of God in the salvation of sinners, through Jesus Christ; repentance, faith, charity, death and judgement; the happy condition of a future state of blessedness, and the miserable condition of the damned in hell." These, and the like, as they offer themselves unto you, should be meditated upon, until some sorrow of mind, some ardour of devotion, some act of faith, some flame of love and charity, arise in your souls.

Thus have I briefly represented to you, both the nature and necessity of a Sacramental Preparation, which in a great measure contains the whole duty of a christian's life; namely, "Repentance towards God, faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ, and charity towards our neighbour:" and I also hope whosoever among us will but endeavour to prepare themselves for the holy Communion, according to the fore-mentioned directions, may (by the help of God) upon all occasions come to the Lord's table, without the least fear or danger of "eating and drinking Damnation to themselves."

And now some people may censure this discourse, as giving too great liberty and encouragement to approach the Lord's table with less preparation than otherwise men would venture to do. But I know no ground or reason for any such suggestion, if they impartially consider the excellence and perfection of that Guide and Companion I have followed throughout the whole. And to represent this duty of frequent communion otherwise than what the Church requires, is an injury both to God and to ourselves. And I dare affirm, that no part of divine worship has suffered more on this account, than that of the holy Communion. Thousands of people not daring, in all their life-time (though very good livers), to partake of the Lord's Supper, for fear of eating and drinking their own Damnation.
A Prayer to God for his gracious Assistance and Direction in our Sacramental Preparation.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth! heaven and earth are full of thy majesty and of thy glory: I the unworthiest of all creatures do here, in all humility of soul and body, prostrate myself before thee, acknowledging my own weakness and insufficiency to do any thing that is good or well-pleasing in thy sight: and therefore humbly implore the special influence of thy grace and holy Spirit, to further these my endeavours for a worthy participation of the holy Communion of the body and blood of Christ, which he has commanded me to do in remembrance of him, and of those benefits which we receive thereby. Teach me, O Lord, the right way, and lead me in the paths of holy preparation, that I may be received as a worthy and welcome guest at this thy heavenly table. Possess my mind with a true sense of the greatness of this mystery, and the excellency of thy mercy in preparing this table for our spiritual food. Inspire my soul with pure and pious dispositions; and, instead of those filthy rags of my righteousness, clothe me with the righteousness of the saints, that my heart may be a clean, though homely, receptacle for my Savior, and one day fitted for the blessed society of saints and angels in heaven, through Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, &c. See Psal. xxiii, xxvi. cxi.

A Prayer for the Gift and Grace of Repentance.

ALMIGHTY and eternal Lord God, "who art of purer eyes than to behold iniquity, and hast more especially enjoined all those who compass thine altar, to wash their hands in innocency," vouchsafe me unfeigned repentance for my past sins, a hearty sorrow and contrition of spirit to lament my sinfulness, and most firm and stedfast purposes to lead a new life. It is the voice of thy wondrous goodness, and mercy, that if "the wicked shall forfake his ways, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, thou wilt have mercy upon him, and abundantly pardon him." O let thy goodness (whereof I have had so great a share, and plentiful experience) "lead me to repentance not to be repented of," that I may be a fit guest at thy Son's table. "Have mercy upon me, O Lord, and, according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out all my transgressions for thy mercy's sake in Christ Jesus, the Son of thy love, whom thou hast set forth to be the propitiation for our sins." Grant this, O merciful Father, for the sake of my blessed Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

See Psalm vi. xxv. xxxii. xxxviii.

A Prayer before Self-examination.

O LORD, thou that art the "searcher of all our hearts, and a discerner of the very thoughts, and in whose sight all things are naked and open," be pleased to impart a ray of thy heavenly light, to discover all the sins and infirmities of my past life, and whatsoever else thou knowest wherein I have done amiss, that henceforward no secret sin may lie undiscovered and corrupted in my soul; that by examining my life and conversation by thy law, the rule and measure of my duty, I may understand the true state and condition of my soul; and, from a just sense and sight of all my transgressions, through the assistance of thy grace and heavenly benediction, I may be enabled to reform my life, and to turn my feet unto thy testimonies; so faithfully to search and examine my own conscience, that I may come holy and clean to thy heavenly f feast, and be received as a worthy partaker of that holy table which thou hast called me to. Grant this for thy mercy's sake in Christ Jesus. Amen.

See Psalm cxxxix.

Brief Heads of Self-examination upon each Commandment.

Commandment I.

THOUGH I have not atheistically denied the being of a God, or wickedly renounced him by apostacy, yet have I not loved, desired and delighted in other things more than in God? Or, have I not feared men, and dreaded the displeasure of the world, more than of God? Or, have I not trusted in men, and relied upon the world, more than upon God? Have I not despaired of God's mercy? Or, by presuming too much upon it, encouraged myself in sin? Have I not been unthankful for mercies received? Or, have I not ascribed the glory and honour of what I now enjoy to myself more than to God? (say) "God be merciful to me a sinner," or "lay not this" (or "these) sins to my charge." [Repeat the same at the end of every commandment.]

II.

Though I have not worshipped God by images, yet have I not entertained gross and false conceptions of him? Or, have I not wilfully omitted coming to Church, or to the public prayers, when I had no just occasion to hinder me? Or, have
I not rudely, irreverently, or wantonly behaved myself during the time of divine service? Or, have I not wilfully refused to come to the Lord's Supper, when I have been called to it? Or, have I not rashly and unadvisedly received the Sacrament without due preparation? Or, have I not broken my vows and resolutions which I then made?

III.

If I have not openly blasphemed the name of God, yet have I not lightly or irreverently spoken of him? Or, have I not profanely jeered upon, or abused his holy places or persons, or any thing else dedicated to his service? Or, have I not taken God's name in vain, by common swearing and cursing? Or, have I not taken false and unlawful oaths? Or, have I not broken my vows and resolutions, especially my baptismal?

IV.

Have I not neglected the worship of God on his sabbaths? Have I not spent part thereof in vain sports, idle discourses, visits, and many other unnecessary affairs? Or, have I not suffered others to profane the sabbath, when it was in my power to restrain them from so doing?

V.

Have I not been stubborn, irreverent, and undutiful towards my parents, rejecting their counsels, despising their government, and coveting their estates before their death? Or, have I contributed towards their necessities when they were in want, and I had it in my power to help them? Or, have I not been disloyal to my prince, stubborn and unfaithful to my master, refractory and unthankful to my minister, peevish and unkind to my friend and companion?

VI.

If I have not actually taken away the life of any person, yet have I not made my neighbour's life grievous by oppression, rage, and violence against him? Or, have I not by fighting or quarrelling wounded his person? Or, have I not tempted him, by any other vice or intemperance, to destroy his health, and so shorten his days? Or, have I not by false or contumelious speeches wounded his good name and reputation? Or, have I not by my own luxury and intemperance in eating and drinking, been accessory to my own death?

VII.

If I have escaped the groser acts of adultery and fornication, yet have I not conceived lust in my heart, and neglected the means to preserve my own and others' chastity? Or, have I not, by gluttony and drunkenness, or by any impure thoughts or words, defiled my soul? Or, have I not accustomed myself to filthy talking, jesting,
A COMPANION TO THE ALTAR.

and immodest garbs, and unchaste behaviour in common conversation?

VIII.

If I have not been guilty of common and public stealing, yet have I been true and just in all my dealings? Or, have I not contracted debts, when I was conscious to myself that I was not able to pay, or make restitution? Or, have I not wasted my own or others' estates by riotous living? Or, have I not by violence and oppression exacted of my inferiors, or by unlawful usury taken advantage of their necessities?

IX.

If I have not before the magistrate sworn falsely against any man, yet have I not accustomed myself to lying and flandering? Or, have I not accused my neighbour unjustly? Or, have I not concealed the truth of another, when justice and charity obliged me to give evidence of it? Or, have I not unjustly sought to uphold my own credit, or to blast any other person's?

X.

Have I not secretly complained against the providence of God, as if others had too much, and I too little? Or, have I not by unlawful means endeavoured to deprive others of their goods and property? Or, have I laboured truly and faithfully to get my own living, and been content with that state of life unto which it hath pleased God to call me?

A penitential Confession of Sins; with an humble Supplication for Mercy and Forgiveness.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; create and make in me a new and contrite heart, that I, worthily lamenting my sins, and acknowledging my wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See Psalm vi. xxxii. xxxviii. li.

An Act of Contrition.

"FATHER, I have sinned against Heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. Wo is me, O Lord, who was conceived and born in sin:" the thoughts of my heart were inclined unto evil from my youth. Wo is me that I have sinned against thee my Creator and kind benefactor. Lord, I have done evil continually in thy sight, and my life hath been little else than one continual course of impiety, unthankfulness, and of unworthy returns for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to me. Wo is me that I should thus requite the Lord. O that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for my sin! O gracious Lord, look on me as thou didst on the apostle St.
Peter,* and let thy compassionate look so pierce my stony heart, that I may weep bitterly for my sins, and may have that “godly sorrow which worketh repentance unto salvation not to be repented of,” for Jesus's sake. Amen.

See Psalm xxv. xxxii. xxxviii.

A Resolution to lead a new Life.

AND now, O Lord, I do not only with great shame and confusion of face confess and bewail the sinfulness and vanity of my own life, but I do stedfastly resolve and purpose (through the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit directing me) to “renounce the devil and all his works, the pomps and vanities of this wicked world, and all the sinful lusts of the flesh.” Be pleased, O Lord, to strengthen and confirm all these good resolutions in me. And I heartily thank thee, O heavenly Father, for calling me to this state of salvation through Jesus Christ my Saviour, “who died for my sins, and rose again for my justification;” and I humbly beseech thee for his sake to give me grace to continue in the same unto my life's end. Amen.

See Psalm i. xxiii. xxiv. xxv. cxix. cxxvi.

A Prayer for Faith in God's Mercy through Christ.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who, for the greater confirmation of our faith and confidence in thy mercy, hast in thy holy gospel declared, that “whosoever believeth in thy Son

Jesu Christ, shall not perish, but have everlasting life:" and that "this is life eternal, to know thee the only true God, and Jesu Christ, whom thou hast sent:" Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in me evermore. O let me not rest in a dead faith, but that I may have such a lively faith, as will shew itself by love and good works; such a victorious faith, which may enable me to overcome the world, and conform me to the image of thy Son Jesu Christ, in whom I believe. O grant me such a due sense of thy infinite mercy, shewed to mankind in so much misery, as may never depart out of my mind.

I steadfastly believe, O blessed Jesu, that thou didst suffer upon the cross to save me, and all the world, from the guilt and punishment of our sins. O give me that grace, that I may die to sin, and rise again unto righteousness! Accept my imperfect sorrow, repentance, faith, and weak resolutions; and let thy precious merits, O my crucified Saviour, supply all my wants and imperfections. Thou hast said, "Come unto me, all ye that labour, and are weary, and heavy laden, and I will refresh you." O blessed Jesu, I come unto thee in all humility, and deeply sensible of my great unworthiness: O do thou bear this burden of sin for me, and refresh me with comfortable hopes of thy mercy and forgiveness, and the truth of thy salvation, O gracious Lord! To whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory for ever. Amen.

See Psalm xix. lvii. Eph. ii. 6, 11.

A thankful Remembrance of the Death of Christ.

"ALMIGHTY God our heavenly Father, who of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption, and hast instituted and ordained holy mysteries as pledges of his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death and passion, to our great and endless comfort:" Behold, I do most affectionately, and with all the powers of my soul and body, return my most hearty praise and thanksgiving for thy great mercy and tender compassion to me and all mankind, in sending thy only Son into the world, to redeem us from sin and misery; and, by his meritorious death and passion, to purchase for us eternal life. Grant, O Lord, that I may always most gratefully remember this exceeding love of my only Saviour Jesus Christ, thus dying for me; and work in me all such holy and heavenly affections, as may dispose my heart to be a worthy guest at thy holy table, prepared for the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ, and of those benefits which we receive thereby. "Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; who forgiveth all thy sins, and healeth all thine infirmities; who saveth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness."

See Psalm ciii. 2, 3, 4.

_A Prayer for the Grace of Charity._

"O LORD, who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth; send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into my heart that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace, and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is accounted dead before thee;" more especially when I am going to commemorate the unspeakable love of my blessed Saviour in dying for me, let not my heart be destitute of love towards my brethren; extend thy mercy and forgiveness unto all mine enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and turn their hearts: which I as sincerely beg for them, as I hope for mercy and forgiveness at thy hands. Possess me with kindness and good-will for all mankind, that my faith may work by love, and dispose my heart, according to my ability, to administer towards the wants and necessities of those who are any ways afflicted or distressed, in mind, body, or estate, and to do unto all men as I would they should do unto me; and give me that charity which covereth a multitude of sins, that by doing good for evil, all men may know that I am thy disciple. Grant this for Jesus's sake. Amen.

A Prayer the Morning you intend to communicate.

O MOST gracious and eternal Lord God, who hast called all such as are weary and heavy leaden to come unto thee by faith and repentance, and thou wilt refresh them; in assiance on this thy gracious invitation, I will come to thy heavenly table, not trusting in my own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies; and although I am not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs that fall from thy table, yet since it is thy property always to have mercy, I will not despair of a kind reception: Forgive my want of a due preparation, and accept of my sincere desire to perform an acceptable service unto thee. Clothe me with the wedding garment, even the graces of the gospel, and then I am sure I shall be a welcome guest at thy table, when I shall come thither in the likeness of thy Son Jesus Christ, in whom thou art well pleased. Possess my soul with a lively faith, profound humility, filial obedience, inflamed affection, and universal charity, that so I may become a worthy partaker of these holy mysteries, to my great and endless comfort. Grant this, O heavenly Father, if it be thy blessed will, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Short Prayers and Meditations before the Minister, at Church, begins the Communion Service.

At going up to the Altar.

IN the multitude of thy mercies, O Lord God, do I now approach thine altar; O pardon my sins, and look not upon my unworthiness (for I am a sinful creature, O Lord), but upon those motives which drew me hither, even my own miseries and thy tender mercies; therefore help me to supply in humility what I want in worthiness, and let my bended knees and contrite heart shew that I durst not have adventured hither, had not thy mercy held out the golden sceptre and said, "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you."

At giving your Alms.

O LORD, who didst not despise the widow’s mite, accept of this little which I freely offer towards the relief of any of thy poor members. Mark xii. 42.

When the Priest is setting in Order the Elements to be consecrated.

LOOK down, O Lord God, from thy holy habitation, and from the glorious throne of thy kingdom, and sanctify us.

When you receive the Bread.

LORD, I am not worthy of the crumbs which fall from thy table, and yet thou givest unto me the bread of life. Evermore give me this bread, that I may eat thereof, and not die eternally. John vi. 34, 50.

After receiving the Bread.

NOT unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give the praise, for thy loving-mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

Before receiving the Cup.

WHAT reward shall I give unto the Lord for all the benefits that he hath done unto me? I will receive the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord.

After Drinking.

BLESSED be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for his unspeakable gift, in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of our sins.

When you retire from the Altar.

'BLESS the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless his holy name; bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; who forgiveth all thine iniquities, and healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies.' O let that heavenly food*, which thou hast so lately fed me with, transfuse new life and new vigour into my soul, and into the souls of all those who have been partakers with me of this Holy Communion, that our faith, hope, and charity, may daily increase; and that we may all grow Prayers and Meditations which may be joined to the former, where the Communions are large.

Aspirations for a devout Communicant.

ENLIGHTEN, O Lord, the eyes of my understanding with the light of faith and wisdom, that I may ever look on thee my Redeemer as the Way, the Truth, and the Life, which leadeth unto eternal life.---What am I, Lord, and what is my father's house, that thou should'st thus follow me with thy blessings? I was created by thee and for thee, and may'st thou ever be the comfort of my soul.---Good Jesus, my hope and only refuge, I here render thee hearty thanks for all thy sufferings, and beg that I may find shelter in thy wounds against all enemies, ghostly and bodily. Imprint the memory of them fast in my heart, that I may love thee, and in all my sufferings never want thy divine assistance, or forget what thou hast suffered for me. Take from me all self-love, and give me perfect love for thee, that I may now be more faithful in my duty; and let nothing for the future put me out my way. O that I could ever remember thee, think of thee, and delight in thee alone, and love thee only, who hast loved us, and washed us with thy most precious blood from the guilt of our sins. O that my senses may ever be shut against all vanity and sin, that my mind being free from all fruitless solicitude and fear, I may fix my heart there where true joys are only to be found. From henceforth I will seek unto thee my only good; my affections and desires shall be fixed on thee, "in whose presence there is fulness of joy, and at whose right-hand there are pleasures for evermore."---My will I now resign into thy hands, desiring that thy will may be mine, both now and for ever. Be thou my instructor and director in all things, that I may never do or speak, desire or think, any thing but what is according to thy good will.

2. I AM thy servant, O Lord; O give me understanding according to thy word, that I may learn thy commandments, and lay aside all interest, besides that of heaven. O sweet Jesus! fountain of all goodness, guide my feet in thy paths, and teach me to do thy will. Disengage my heart from all unprofitable solicitude and vain desires; and though I live here upon earth, yet raise my affections to things above. How sweet, O Lord, is thy spirit! How pleafant to my lips are the words of thy mouth! O that I could ever be mindful of them, to fulfil thy laws! Make me to die daily to the world and all its vanities, and let the greatness of thy love make all that is earthly appear as nothing to me.---Protect me against mine enemies, and in all dangers appear in my defence. Make haste to help me, O Lord, and say unto my soul, "I am thy salvation." Remember thou art my Redeemer, and have compassion on my poor distressed soul; clothe it with all virtue, and feed it with thy grace, for it belongs to thee to take care of those whom thou hast redeemed. In thee I live, sweet Jesus! for thy sake I desire to die; both living and dying I will ever profess that thou art good, and that thy mercy endures for ever.

3 O THAT I could now give thee, O Lord, all that praise, glory, and honour, with which the angels and blessed spirits glorify thee in heaven! But because I am unable to do this, accept at least this my desire and good will. Deliver me, O God, from every thing that is contrary to thy will, and be pleased to dispose of my soul as may be for thy glory and honour. I surrender myself into thy hands, and entirely resolve to submit to that state of life thou shalt please to appoint me; and if it be more for thy honour that I suffer, I cheerfully accept it; "not my will, but thine be done." Let nothing be now my comfort but thou, Lord Jesus, and nothing afflict me but my sins, and whatever else is displeasing to thy divine majesty. O blessed Jesus, life eternal! by whom I live, and without whom I die, grant that I may now be united to thee, and that in the embraces of thy holy love and divine will, I may rest for ever. When shall I see thee, O sweet Saviour! when shall I appear before thy face! when shall I see thee in the land of the living! Till then I sigh and bewail my banishment, desiring to be dissolved, and to be with Christ.

If these Ejaculations are not sufficient until the Post-Communion begins, you may enlarge them by reading more or less of these following Places in Scripture, viz.

For grace to love God's law, Psalm xix, cxix.
For a holy life, Psalm lxxxv.
For salvation and eternal joy, Psalm xvi. xxiv.
For assurance of God's care and protection, Psalm xxxvii.
For the comfort of God's holy Spirit, Psalm xxiv.
For the grace of humility, Psalm cxxxi.
For devotion in religion, Psalm xxvii.
Thanksgiving for God's mercies, Psalm ciii. cxxxvi, cxxxviii.
For pardon of sins, Psalm lxxxv, cvi, cxviii.
For redemption by Christ, Psalm xcvi, cxviii.

An Act of Thankfulness and Resolution before the Post-Communion begins.

"PRAISE the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless his holy name:" for now I find the mercy, the peace, the comfort, and the grace which flows from this fountain of spiritual communion with Christ. Let all the world know what he hath done for my soul: he hath rescued me, and many of these my poor* brethren, from the nethermost hell; wherefore I will love thee, O holy Jesu!
more than I can express, and live and die in that most holy religion which thou hast revealed to me. O let me never pollute that body, or defile that soul, which the Saviour of the world delights to dwell in. O let no oaths or lyings, backbitings or flanderings, profane those lips; no obscenity or intemperance pollute that mouth, through which these holy symbols have so lately passed: for which fresh instance of thy mercy and goodness, I will praise thy holy name, be-feeching thee to keep me in this temper and resolution of mind until "death is swallowed up in victory." Amen.

A Prayer against evil and perplexing Thoughts.

"GO not far from me, O Lord my God; mak haste to help me;" for corrupt imaginations are perpetually rising in my breast, and in-umerable fears and sorrows close me in on every side. Be pleased, O gracious Lord, in this perplexity, to refresh my soul with some speedy comfort. Scatter and disperse all these dark and sinful thoughts which haunt my soul, by shedding abroad the light of thy grace in my heart; for in the extremity of this my grief, this is my only hope and comfort, that I can take sanctuary in thy goodness, repose my confidence and cast all my care and burden on thee, who never failest them that call upon thee. Give me patience under these adversities, and a happy issue out of all these afflictions, both of body and mind. "Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate and in misery. The forrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of all my troubles: look upon mine adversity and misery, and forgive me all my sins. O keep my soul and deliver me: let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee," through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. See Psalm vi. cii, xxxiv, xlii, xliii.

Upon Christmas Day, and seven Days after, you may add these to your other Devotions.

I DESIRE, O Lord, to bless and praise thine infinite goodness, who didst take compassion upon mankind in their greatest misery, and hast provided so admirable a remedy, by sending thy only begotten Son to recover our corrupt and degenerate nature, and by the purity of his doctrine, the example of his life, and the sacrifice of his death, to purchase eternal happiness for us. Grant, O Lord, that through the assistance of thy grace and heavenly benediction, I may daily comply with those great things which thou hast done and designed for my salvation. Possess my soul with purity and piety, and all other christian graces and virtues; that living soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, I may hereafter dwell with thee, O Father of Mercies, and God of all Comforts, in those mansions of bliss and glory which thou hast prepared for them that love thee. Amen.

See Psalm xix, xliv, lxxxix.

Easter Day, and seven Days after.

BLESSED Jesus, who hast triumphed over the powers of darkness, and conquered hell and the grave, and who, by thy glorious resurrection, hast made known the power of thy divinity, and proved thyself the true Messias, keep me steadfast in this faith; and grant that all the actions of my life may testify the reality and sincerity of my belief, by a suitable conversation; that I may rise from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that as I am buried with thee by baptism, I may henceforth mortify all my corrupt lusts and affections, and daily proceed in all virtue and godliness of living; that departing this life in thy faith and fear, I may have my perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thy eternal, everlasting kingdom, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

See Psalm ii, lvii, cxi.

Whitsunday, and six Days after.

O LORD my God, who by thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, hast promised the assistance of thy holy Spirit to all that ask it of thee, I beseech thee always to direct my ways and actions, the thoughts and intentions of my heart, by the light of thy holy Spirit. Let him be unto me a Spirit of sanctification, to purify my corrupt nature; a Spirit of counsel in all my difficulties; of direction in all my doubts, fears, and scruples; of courage in all my dangers; of constancy and consolation to me under all my persecutions and sufferings, especially in time of sickness, and at the hour of death; that being governed and guided by his divine influence and direction, I may pass through all the changes and chances of this mortal life, till he brings me to everlasting life, there to reign with the ever blessed and glorious Trinity, world without end. Amen.

See Psalm xxxiv, xlii, xliii, li.

Trinity Sunday.

GLORY be to thee, O God the Father, for creating me after thine own image, capable of loving thee, and enjoying thee eternally; for recovering me from a state of sin and misery, when I had lost and undone myself.---Glory be to thee, O God the Son, for undertaking the wonderful work of man's redemption, for rescuing me from the slavery of sin, and the dominion of Satan; for the accomplishing which miraculous work of our salvation, thou didst descend from heaven, and didst put on the form of a servant, live a miserable life, and die a painful and accursed death.---Glory be to thee, O God the Holy Ghost, for those miraculous gifts and graces thou didst bestow upon the apostles, and for those ordinary gifts, whereby sincere christians, in all ages, are enabled to work out their salvation; for thy preventing and restraining grace; for the subduing our understanding and affections to the obedience of faith and godliness; for inspiring us with good thoughts, and kindling good desires in our souls; for assisting us in all the methods of procuring eternal happiness.---Blessing and honour, thanksgiving and praise, more than I can express or conceive, be unto thee, O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for ever and ever. Amen.

See Psalm ii, xlvii, lxxii, cx.

After the Blessing, namely—" The Peace of God."

GRANT, O Lord, that we, and all thy faithful servants, who have this day been made partakers of the holy Sacrament, may obtain remission of our sins, and be confirmed in piety towards God, and in charity towards our neighbour; and may be delivered from the power and temptation of satan, and being filled with thy Spirit may become worthy members of Christ's holy Church, and at last inherit eternal life, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Thanksgiving after the Sacrament, to be said at Home.

THOU, O my God, hast comforted my soul, thou hast strengthened and refreshed me with thy blessings, and rejoiced my heart with the tokens of thy love. How transporting are thy comforts, and how ravishing the effects of thy goodness towards them that fear thee! Thou hast treated a vile sinner at thy own table, and fed me with the bread that came down from heaven. In what am I better than those to whom thou dost not grant this favour? It is not for my merits, but because thou wilt be glorified in doing good to the most unworthy, thou hast this day made me a happy example of this thy free grace and bounty. Grant me this favour also, O my God, that through the whole course of my life I may give thee praise and glory; that the due sense of thy mercies may make me unfeignedly thankful; and that my thankfulness may appear in a care to walk before thee in holiness, sobriety, and righteousness, all the days of my life.

A Prayer in private after receiving the Holy Communion.

O HOW plentiful is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, which thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thy mercy, even before the sons of men! I praise and magnify thy great and glorious name, O Lord, for all those manifold mercies and comforts which thou hast bestowed upon me ever since I was born. O Lord God, thou hast been my trust from my youth; by thee have I been holden up from the womb; my praise shall continually be of thee. But above all, blessed, and for ever blessed, be thy holy name, for the manifestation of thy Son Jesus Christ, the fountain and foundation of all our happiness, and for feeding me this day (who am unworthy of the least of all thy mercies) with the spiritual food of his most precious body and blood, to my great and endless comfort. Enable me, O Lord, through thy gracious assistance, to perform the conditions of that sacramental covenant which I have this day so solemnly renewed and confirmed in thy presence, and at thy table, that through the strength and power of that heavenly food, I have there been partaker of, I may daily grow in grace, and in the knowledge of Christ Jesus, and abound in every good word and work. And subdue in me all those inordinate lusts and corrupt affections which war against my soul; purify my mind from all evil thoughts, bad intentions, and evil designs; and suffer not pride, vain-glory, self-love, malice, hatred, or revenge, or any other evil whatsoever, to reign in my mortal body; but do thou keep it for ever in the purpose of my heart, faithfully to fulfil these my baptismal vows and resolutions, which I have now again renewed at thy holy table; that, by persevering in all virtue and holiness of life, I may at length be an inheritor of that infinite happiness and glory, which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer in private for the Grace of Perseverance.

HEAR, most merciful Saviour, I humbly beseech thee, and let thy grace be ever assistant to all the endeavours and designs of thy weak and unworthy servants. I am not able of myself to do or think any thing that is good or well-pleasing in thy sight. O let thy holy Spirit continually guard me against those numerous temptations which so strongly encounter me. Fix my inconstant mind, that I may not be led away with the errors of the wicked, and fall from my own steadfastness, but that I may persevere in good works unto the end. Moderate my affections and desires, and confine them only to such objects as are well-pleasing in thy sight. Let thy will be the sole guide and measure of mine, that all my hopes and wishes may centre in thee alone, and nothing may ever appear desirable to me, in comparison of a pure heart and peaceable conscience; "Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth: O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy name." Make me to love thee, as I ought, above all things, and let the interest of thy honour and glory be always dearer to me than gold or silver,* or any other temporal advantage; for thou, O Lord, art my portion, thou art my only rest, in thee alone is fulness of joy and true satisfaction, and without thee is misery and torment. O grant me this blessed retreat, this happy security, and then I shall find rest unto my soul, both here and hereafter. Amen.

* The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver. Pf. cxix.72.

See Psalm lxxxvi, cxix.

_Morning Prayer._

"PONDER my words, O Lord; consider my meditation: my voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord; early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up," Psalm v. 1, 3. Almighty God, who dwelling in the highest heavens, yet vouchsaft to regard the lowest creature here upon earth, I humbly adore thy sacred majesty, and with all the powers of my soul and body do exhort and praise thy holy name for all the mercies and comforts of this life, and for the hopes and assurance of a better; for protecting me from the evils and dangers of the night past, and for bringing me safe to the light of a new day; continue this thy mercy and goodness to me; and as thou hast awakened my body from sleep, so raise my soul from the death of sin unto a life of righteousness. Deliver me, O God, from the evils of this day, and guide my feet in the paths of peace and holiness, and strengthen my resolutions to embrace all opportunities of doing good, and carefully to avoid all occasions of evil, especially those sins which by nature and inclination I am most likely to fall into: and when through frailty, or the violence of any other temptation, I fall from my duty, do thou in mercy restore me again with a double portion of thy grace and holy Spirit, to maintain a more vigorous defence against Satan and his devices. Shower down thy graces and blessings upon all my relations, [on my father and mother, on my brethren and sisters] on all my friends, and give thy holy angels charge over them, to protect them from all sin and danger. Make me diligent in the duties of my calling, and that in all the changes and chances of this life I may absolutely submit to thy divine Providence. Let thy blessings be upon my actions, and let thy wisdom direct my intentions, that so the whole course of my life, and the principal designs of my heart may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that which is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

See Psalm iv, xvi, xxiii, lxxxvi.

When you go out of your Chamber.

THE blessing of God descend upon me and all belonging to me, and dwell in my heart for evermore: and bless my going out and my coming in, now and for ever. Amen.

Evening Prayer.

“LET my prayer, O Lord, be set forth as incense, and the lifting up of my hands be as an evening sacrifice,” Psalm cxli. 2. O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, whose glory the heaven of heavens cannot contain, look down from the throne of thy majesty, and behold thy unworthy servant, prostrate at the foot of thy mercy-seat, humbly confessing unto thee the vanity and sinfulness of my whole life; especially the omissions of my duty, and commissions of sin this day, wherewith I have so lately offended thine infinite majesty and goodness, and so grievously wounded my own soul. Of these, and all other my transgressions, I most earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these my misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto me, the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon me, most merciful Father; for thy Son Jesus Christ's sake forgive me all that is past, and accept of these my prayers and supplications, through the merits and mediation of the same our Mediator and Redeemer. And although I am unworthy, through my manifold sins and iniquities, to offer unto thee any sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, yet I beseech thee to accept of this my bounded duty, with my unfeigned thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to me and all mankind, purely proceeding from thy bounty, and wholly intended for my good, and particularly for preserving me this day in the midst of so many dangers incident to my condition, and from so many calamities as are due to my sins. Thou art my Creator, O my God, and Protector; thou art the ultimate end of my being, and supreme perfection of my nature; under the shadow of thy wings is perpetual repose, and from the light of thy countenance flows eternal joy and felicity; to whom be glory and honour, world without end. Amen.

And thou, O Lord, by whom kings reign, and princes decree justice, bless our most gracious Sovereign Lord King George, our gracious Queen Charlotte, his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family. All my relations, friends, and kind benefactors; let thy providence succour them and theirs from all evil and danger, and do thou reward them seven-fold into their bosom for all the good they have done or said of me. Be pleased likewise, O Lord, (in whose hands are the issues of life and death) to succour, help, and comfort all that are in danger, necessity and tribulation, all that labour under any bodily pain, sickness, or temptation, or are disturbed in mind; relieve such according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. Subdue in me the evil spirit of wrath and revenge, and dispose my heart patiently to bear reproaches and wrongs, and to be ready not only to forgive, but also to do good for evil, that all men may know that I am Christ's disciple. And finally, O Lord, since thou hast ordained the day to labour in, and the night to take our rest, as I praise thee for the mercies of the day, so I humbly beg the continuance of thy gracious protection over me this night. Let thy holy angels pitch their tents about my bed, that being safely delivered from all perils and dangers of this night, and comfortably refreshed with moderate sleep, I may be enabled to discharge the duties of my calling, and faithfully to persevere in holiness and pureness of living all the days of my life, to thy honour and glory, through our only mediator and advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, &c.

When you lie down in your Bed.

I WILL lay me down in peace, and take my rest, for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me to dwell in safety; and into thy hands I recommend my spirit, my soul, and my body, for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of Truth!
BLESSED is the man, that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners: and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful;

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the water-side: that will bring forth his fruit in due season.
4 His leaf also shall not wither: and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the ungodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgement: neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm II. Quare fremuerunt gentes?

WHY do the heathen so furiously rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together: against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let us break their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath: and vex them in his fore displeasure.

6 Yet have I set my King: upon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preach the law, whereof the Lord hath said unto me: Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruise them with a rod of iron: and break them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be learned, ye that are judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord in fear: and rejoice unto him with reverence.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way: if his wrath be kindled, (yea, but a little) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Psalm III. Domine, quid multiplicati?

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soul: There is no help for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter up of my head.

4 I did call upon the Lord with my voice: and he heard me out of his holy hill.

5 I laid me down and slept, and rose up again: for the Lord sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid for ten thousands of the people: that have set themselves against me round about.
7 Up, Lord, and help me, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: and thy blessing is upon thy people.

Psalm IV. Cum invocarem.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour: and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after leaing?

3 Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly: when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness: and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say: Who will shew us any good?

7 Lord, lift thou up: the light of thy countenance upon us.

8 Thou hast put gladness in my heart: since the time that their corn and wine and oil increased.
9 I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Psalm V. Verba mea auribus.

PONDER my words, O Lord: consider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voice shalt thou hear betimes, O Lord: early in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickedness: neither shall any evil dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy fight: for thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leisuing: the Lord will abhor both the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thine house, even upon the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies: make thy way plain before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth: their inward parts are very wickedness.
10 Their throat is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God; let them perish through their own imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their ungodliness; for they have rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee rejoice: they shall ever be giving of thanks, because thou defendest them, they that love thy name shall be joyful in thee;

13 For thou, Lord, wilt give thy blessing unto the righteous: and with thy favourable kindness will thou defend him as with a shield.*

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM VI. Domine, ne in furore.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak: O Lord, heal me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul also is sore troubled: but, Lord, how long wilt thou punish me?

4 Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 For in death no man remembereth thee: and who will give thee thanks in the pit?

* I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. Gen. xv. 1.
6 I am weary of my groaning; every night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my tears.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worn away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me, all ye that work vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded, and fore vexed: they shall be turned back, and put to shame suddenly.

Psalm VII. Domine, Deus meus.

O LORD my God, in thee have I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me;

2 Left he devour my soul, like a lion, and tear it in pieces: while there is none to help.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done any such thing: or if there be any wickedness in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I have delivered him that without any cause is mine enemy;

5 Then let mine enemy persecute my soul, and take me: yea, let him tread my life down upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Stand up, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift up thyself, because of the indignation of mine enemies: arise up for me in the judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And so shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift up thyself again.

8 The Lord shall judge the people; give sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteousness, and according to the innocency that is in me.

9 O let the wickedness of the ungodly come to an end: but guide thou the just.

10 For the righteous God: trieth the very hearts and reins.

11 My help cometh of God: who preserveth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous Judge, strong, and patient: and God is provoked every day.

13 If a man will not turn, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

14 He hath prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

15 Behold, he travaileth with mischief: he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth ungodliness.

16 He hath graven and digged up a pit: and is fallen himself into the destruction that he made for other.
17 For his travail shall come upon his own head: and his wickedness shall fall on his own pate.

18 I will give thanks unto the Lord, according to his righteousness: and I will praise the Name of the Lord most High.

Psalm VIII. Domine, Dominus nostre.

O LORD our Governor, how excellent is thy Name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glory above the heavens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies: that thou mightest still the enemy, and the avenger.

3 For I will consider thy heavens, even the works of thy fingers: the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained.

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him: and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower than the angels: to crown him with glory and worship.

6 Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet;

7 All sheep and oxen: yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea: and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.
9 O Lord our Governor: how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM IX. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: yea, my songs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Higheft.

3 While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perifh at thy presence.

4 For thou haft maintained my right and my cause: thou art fet in the throne that judgeth right.

5 Thou haft rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the ungodly: thou haft put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, deffcruftions are come to a perpetual end: even as the cities which thou haft destroyed; their memorial is perifhed with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath also prepared his seat for judgement.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousness: and minister true judgement unto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: even a refuge in due time of trouble.
10 And they that know thy name, will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee.

11 O praise the Lord, which dwelleth in Sion: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he rememberereth them: and forgettest not the complaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord; consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me: thou that liftest me up from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid privately, is their foot taken.

16 The Lord is known to execute judgement: the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poor shall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever.

19 Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O Lord: that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.
Psalm X. Ut quid, Domine?

WHY standest thou so far off, O Lord: and hidest thy face in the needful time of trouble?

2 The ungodly for his own lust doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the crafty wiliness that they have imagined.

3 For the ungodly hath made boast of his own heart's desire: and speaketh good of the covetous, whom God abhorreth.

4 The ungodly is so proud, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are alway grievous: thy judgements are far above out of his sight, and therefore deseth he all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, Tush, I shall never be cast down: there shall no harm happen unto me.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is ungodliness and vanity.

8 He sitteth lurking in the thievish corners of the streets: and privily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent; his eyes are set against the poor.

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his den: that he may ravish the poor.

10 He doth ravish the poor: when he getteth him into his net.
11 He falleth down, and humbleth himself: that the congregation of the poor may fall into the hands of his captains.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, and he will never see it.

13 Arise, O Lord God, and lift up thine hand: forget not the poor.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth say in his heart, Tush, thou God carest not for it.

15 Surely, thou hast seen it: for thou beholdest ungodliness and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the matter into thine hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; for thou art the helper of the friendless.

17 Break thou the power of the ungodly and malicious: take away his ungodliness, and thou shalt find none.

18 The Lord is king for ever and ever: and the heathen are perished out of the land.

19 Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the poor: thou preparest their heart, and thine ear hearkeneth thereto;

20 To help the fatherless and poor unto their right: that the man of the earth* be no more exalted against them.

* Man of sin, &c. 2 Thess. ii. 3. See also Rev. xiii. 11.
Psalm XI. In Domino confido.

IN the Lord put I my trust: how say ye then to my soul, that she should flee as a bird unto the hill?

2 For lo, the ungodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrows within the quiver; that they may privily shoot at them which are true of heart.

3 For the foundations will be cast down: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lord is in his holy temple: the Lord's seat is in heaven.

5 His eyes consider the poor: and his eye-lids try the children of men.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the ungodly, and him that delighteth in wickedness, doth his soul abhor.

7 Upon the ungodly, he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest: this shall be their portion to drink.

8 For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness: his countenance will behold the thing that is just.

Evening Prayer.

Psalm XII. Salvum me fac.

HELP me, Lord; for there is not one godly man left: for the faithful are minished from among the children of men.
2 They talk of vanity every one with his neighbour: they do but flatter with their lips, and differ in their double heart.
3 The Lord shall root out all deceitful lips: and the tongue that speaketh proud things;
4 Which have said, With our tongue will we prevail: we are they that ought to speak; who is Lord over us?
5 Now for the comfortless troubles fake of the needy: and because of the deep fighting of the poor;
6 I will up, faith the Lord: and will help every one from him that swelleth against him, and will set him at rest.
7 The words of the Lord are pure words: even as the silver, which from the earth is tried, and purified seven times in the fire.
8 Thou shalt keep them, O Lord: thou shalt preserve him from this generation for ever.
9 The ungodly walk on every side: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Psalm XIII. Ufque quo, Domine?

How long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, for ever: how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
2 How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph over me?
3 Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death;
4 Left mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him: for if I be cast down, they that trouble me will rejoice at it.
5 But my trust is in thy mercy: and my heart is joyful in thy salvation.
6 I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord most Highest.

Psalm XIV. Dixit iniquiens.

The fool hath said in his heart: There is no God.

2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doings: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

3 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to see if there were any that would understand, and seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way; they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues have they deceived: the poison of asps is under their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction and unhappiness is in their ways; and the way of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes.
8 Have they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischief: eating up my people as it were bread, and call not upon the Lord?

9 There were they brought in great fear, even where no fear was: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counsel of the poor: because he putteth his trust in the Lord.

11 Who shall give salvation unto Israel out of Sion? When the Lord turneth the captivity of his people: then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM XV. Domine, quis habitabit?

LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle: or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?

2 Even he, that leadeth an uncorrupt life: and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3 He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour: and hath not flandered his neighbour.

4 He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes: and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.
5 He that sweareth unto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not: though it were to his own hindrance.

6 He that hath not given his money upon usury: nor taken reward against the innocent.

7 Who so doeth these things: shall never fall.

Psalm XVI. Conserva me, Domine.

Preserve me, O God: for in thee have I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord: Thou art my God; my goods are nothing unto thee.

3 All my delight is upon the saints, that are in the earth: and upon such as excel in virtue.

4 But they that run after another god: shall have great trouble.

5 Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintain my lot.

7 The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

8 I will thank the Lord for giving me warning: my reins also chasten me in the night-season.

9 I have set God always before me: for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.
Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoiced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For why? thou shalt not leave my soul in hell: neither shalt thou suffer thy holy One to see corruption.

Thou shalt shew me the path of life; in thy presence is the fulness of joy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

Psalm XVII. Exaudi, Domine.

Hear the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

Thou hast proved and visited mine heart in the night season; thou hast tried me, and shalt find no wickedness in me: for I am utterly purposed that my mouth shall not offend.

Because of men's works, that are done against the words of thy lips: I have kept me from the ways of the destroyer.

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths: that my footsteps slip not.

I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear me: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words.

Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, thou that art the favour of them which put their trust in thee: from such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keep me as the apple of an eye: hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

9 From the ungodly that trouble me: mine enemies compass me round about to take away my soul.

10 They are inclosed in their own fat: and their mouth speaketh proud things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on every side: turning their eyes down to the ground;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey: and as it were a lion's whelp, lurking in secret places.

13 Up, Lord, disappoint him, and cast him down: deliver my soul from the ungodly, which is a sword of thine;*

14 From the men of thy hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the evil world: which have their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure.

15 They have children at their desire: and leave the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for me, I will behold thy presence in righteousness: and when I awake up after thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it.

* "They are the sword, the hand is thine." Watts.
EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM XVIII. Diligam te, Domine.

1 I WILL love thee, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my stony rock, and my defence: my Saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.

2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The forrows of death compassed me: and the overflowings of ungodlines made me afraid.

4 The pains of hell came about me: the snares of death overtook me.

5 In my trouble I will call upon the Lord: and complain unto my God.

6 So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple: and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out in his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and it was dark under his feet.
10 He rode upon the Cherubins, and did fly: he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick clouds to cover him.

12 At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed: hailstones, and coals of fire.

13 The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Higheft gave his thunder: hailstones, and coals of fire.

14 He sent out his arrows, and scattered them: he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall send down from on high to fetch me: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me: for they are too mighty for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my Upholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of liberty: he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleanness of my hands shall he recompenfe me.
21 Because I have kept the ways of the Lord: and have not forfaken my God, as the wicked doth.
22 For I have an eye unto all his laws: and will not cast out his commandments from me.
23 I was also uncorrupt before him: and eschewed mine own wickedness.
24 Therefore shall the Lord reward me after my righteous dealing: and according unto the cleanness of my hands in his eye-fight.
25 With the holy thou shalt be holy: and with the perfect man thou shalt be perfect.
26 With the clean thou shalt be clean: and with the froward thou shalt learn frowardness.
27 For thou shalt save the people, that are in adversity: and shalt bring down the high looks of the proud.
28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darkness to be light.
29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men: and with the help of my God I shall leap over the wall.
30 The way of God is an undefiled way: the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire; he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.
31 For who is God, but the Lord: or who hath any strength, except our God?
32 It is God, that girdeth me with strength of war: and maketh my way perfect.
33 He maketh my feet like harts feet: and setteth me up on high.
34 He teacheth mine hands to fight: and mine arms shall break even a bow of steel.

35 Thou hast given me the defence of thy salvation: thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make room enough under me for to go: that my foot-steps shall not slide.

37 I will follow upon mine enemies, and overtake them: neither will I turn again, till I have destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not be able to stand: but fall under my feet.

39 Thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou shalt throw down mine enemies under me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their backs upon me: and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall cry, but there shall be none to help them: yea, even unto the Lord shall they cry, but he shall not hear them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind: I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I have not known: shall serve me.
45 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall fail: and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my strong helper: and praised be the God of my salvation.

48 Even the God, that seeth that I be avenged: and subdueth the people unto me.

49 It is he, that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles: and sing praises unto thy Name.

51 Great prosperity giveth he unto his King: and sheweth loving-kindness unto David his Anointed, and unto his seed for evermore.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm XIX. Cæli enarrant.

The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

2 One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speech nor language: but their voices are heard among them.
4 Their found is gone out into all lands: and their words into the ends of the world.

5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun: which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

6 It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, and runneth about unto the end of it again: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever: the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me: so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.
14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy fight, 15 O Lord: my strength, and my Redeemer.

PSALM XX. Exaudiat te Dominus.

THE Lord hear thee in the day of trouble: the name of the God of Jacob defend thee;
2 Send thee help from the sanctuary: and strengthen thee out of Sion;
3 Remember all thy offerings: and accept thy burnt-sacrifice;
4 Grant thee thy heart's desire: and fulfill all thy mind.
5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God: the Lord perform all thy petitions.
6 Now know I, that the Lord helpeth his Anointed, and will hear him from his holy heaven: even with the wholesome strength of his right hand.
7 Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God.
8 They are brought down, and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.
9 Save, Lord, and hear us, O King of heaven: when we call upon thee.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

THE King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.
Thou hast given him his heart's desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

For thou shalt prevent him with the blessings of goodness: and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life: even for ever and ever.

His honour is great in thy salvation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay upon him.

For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity: and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.

And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscarry.

All thine enemies shall feel thy hand: thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth: and their seed from among the children of men.

For they intended mischief against thee: and imagined such a device as they are not able to perform.

Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

Be thou exalted; Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing, and praise thy power.
Psalm XXII. Deus, Deus meus.

My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not: and in the night-season also I take no rest.

3 And thou continuest holy: O thou Worship of Israel!

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They called upon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the out-cast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

8 He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb: thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.

10 I have been left unto thee ever since I was born: thou art my God even from my mother's womb.
11 O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to help me.
12 Many oxen are come about me: fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side.
13 They gape upon me with their mouths: as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.
14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.
15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.
16 For many dogs are come about me: and the counsel of the wicked layeth siege against me.
17 They pierced my hands and my feet; I may tell all my bones: they stand flaring and looking upon me.
18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots upon my vesture.
19 But be not thou far from me, O Lord: thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.
20 Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling* from the power of the dog.
21 Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.
22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

* Hebrew. My only one. See Gen. xxii. 2.
23 O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and fear him, all ye seed of Israel;

24 For he hath not despised, nor abhorred the low estate of the poor: he hath not hid his face from him, but when he called unto him, he heard him.

25 My praise is of thee in the great congregation: my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.

26 The poor shall eat, and be satisfied: they that seek after the Lord shall praise him; your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For the kingdom is the Lord's: and he is the Governor among the people.

29 All such as be fat upon earth: have eaten, and worshipped.

30 All they that go down into the dust shall kneel before him: and no man hath quickened his own soul.

31 My seed shall serve him: they shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness: unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made.
Psalm XXIII. Dominus regit me.

THE Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

2 He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

6 But thy loving kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Morning Prayer.

Psalm XXIV. Domini est terra.

THE earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is: the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas: and prepared it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord: or who shall rise up in his holy place?

4 Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart: and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn, to deceive his neighbour.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord: and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him: even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is the King of glory: it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is the King of glory: even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Psalm XXV. Ad te, Domine, levavi.

UNTO thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed: but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths.

4 Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me: for thou art the God of my salvation; in thee hath been my hope all the day long.
5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies: and thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old.

6 O remember not the sins and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy think thou upon me, O Lord, for thy goodness.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that are meek shall he guide in judgment: and such as are gentle, them shall he learn his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth: unto such as keep his covenant, and his testimonies.

10 For thy name's sake, O Lord: be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

11 What man is he, that feareth the Lord: him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

12 His foul shall dwell at ease: and his seed shall inherit the land.

13 The secret of the Lord is among them that fear him: and he will shew them his covenant.

14 Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord: for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am desolate and in misery.

16 The forrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.
17 Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive* me all my sin.
18 Consider mine enemies, how many they are: and they bear a tyrannous hate against me.
19 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be confounded; for I have put my trust in thee.
20 Let perfection and righteous dealing wait upon me: for my hope hath been in thee.
21 Deliver Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Psalm XXVI.  Judica me, Domine.
BE thou my judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.
2 Examine me, O Lord, and prove me: try out my reins and my heart.
3 For thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes: and I will walk in thy truth.
4 I have not dwelt with vain persons: neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.
5 I have hated the congregation of the wicked: and will not fit among the ungodly.
6 I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord: and so will I go to thine altar;
7 That I may shew the voice of thanksgiving: and tell of all thy wondrous works.
8 Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

* Hebrew. Lift up, bear, take away. Compare 1 John 29.
9 O shut not up my soul with the sinners: nor my life with the blood-thirsty;
10 In whose hands is wickedness: and their right hand is full of gifts.
11 But as for me, I will walk innocently: O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.
12 My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM XXVII. Dominus illuminatio.

THE Lord is my light, and my salvation; whom then shall I fear: the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked, even mine enemies, and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh: they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.
4 One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require: even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwellingshall he hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.
6 And now shall he lift up mine head: above mine enemies round about me.
7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness: I will sing, and speak praises unto the Lord.
8 Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee: have mercy upon me, and hear me.
9 My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: thy face, Lord, will I seek.
10 O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.
11 Thou hast been my succour: leave me not, neither forfake me, O God of my salvation.
12 When my father and my mother forfake me: the Lord taketh me up.
13 Teach me thy way, O Lord: and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.
14 Deliver me not over into the will of mine adversaries: for there are false witnesses risen up against me, and such as speak wrong.
15 I should utterly have fainted: but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.
16 O tarry thou the Lord's leisure: be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the Lord.
PSALM XXVIII.

Ad te, Domine.

unto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: think no scorn of me; lest if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee: when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.

3 O pluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly and wicked doers: which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deeds: and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.

5 Recompense them after the work of their hands: pay them that they have deserved.

6 For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands: therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

7 Praised be the Lord: for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

8 The Lord is my strength, and my shield; my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped; therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

9 The Lord is my strength: and he is the wholesome defence of his Anointed.
10 O save thy people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: feed them, and set them up for ever.

Psalm XXIX. Afferte Domino.

BRING unto the Lord, O ye mighty, bring young rams unto the Lord: ascribe unto the Lord worship and strength;

2 Give the Lord the honour due unto his Name: worship the Lord with holy worship.

3 It is the Lord, that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God, that maketh the thunder.

4 It is the Lord, that ruleth the sea; the voice of the Lord is mighty in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

5 The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedar-trees: yea, the Lord breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf: Lebanon also and Sirion, like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the Lord divideth the flames of fire; the voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness: yea, the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Cades.

8 The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to bring forth young, and discovereth the thick bushes: in his temple doth every man speak of his honour.

9 The Lord sitteth above the water-flood: and the Lord remaineth a King for ever.
10 The Lord shall give strength unto his people: the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

M OR N I N G P R AY E R.

P S A L M XXX. Exaltabo te, Domine.

1 I WILL magnify thee, O Lord, for thou hast set me up: and not made my foes to triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried unto thee: and thou hast healed me.

3 Thou, Lord, hast brought my soul out of hell: thou hast kept my life from them that go down to the pit.

4 Sing praises unto the Lord, O ye faints of his: and give thanks unto him for a remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heaviness may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I never shall be removed: thou, Lord, of thy goodness hadst made my hill so strong.

7 Thou didst turn thy face from me: and I was troubled.

8 Then cried I unto thee, O Lord: and gat me to my Lord right humbly.
9 What profit is there in my blood: when I go down to the pit?
10 Shall the dust give thanks unto thee: or shall it declare thy truth?
11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me: Lord, be thou my helper.
12 Thou hast turned my heaviness into joy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.
13 Therefore shall every good man sing of thy praise without ceasing: O my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

Psalm XXXI. In te, Domine, speravi.

IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion, deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear to me: make haste to deliver me.
3 And be thou my strong rock, and house of defence: that thou mayest save me.
4 For thou art my strong rock, and my castle: be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Name’s sake.
5 Draw me out of the net, that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.
6 Into thy hands I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.
7 I have hated them that hold of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath been in the Lord.
8 I will be glad, and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities.

9 Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: but hast set my feet in a large room.

10 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness: yea, my soul and my body.

11 For my life is waxen old with heaviness: and my years with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquity: and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me: and they, that did see me without, conveyed themselves from me.

14 I am clean forgotten, as a dead man out of mind: I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude: and fear is on every side, while they conspire together against me, and take their counsel to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord: I have said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand; deliver me from the hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.
18 Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee: let the ungodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence: which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully speak against the righteous.

21 O how plentiful is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men!

22 Thou shalt hide them privily by thine own presence from the provoking of all men: thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for he hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city.

24 And when I made haste, I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Nevertheless, thou heardest the voice of my prayer: when I cried unto thee.

26 O love the Lord, all ye his saints: for the Lord preserveth them that are faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be strong, and he shall establish your heart: all ye that put your trust in the Lord.
PSALMS. DAY VI.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM XXXII. Beati, quorum.

BLESSED is he, whose unrighteousness is forgiven: and whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man, unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

4 For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in summer.

5 I will acknowledge my sin unto thee: and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

6 I said, I will confess my sins unto the Lord: and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

9 I will inform thee; and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no understanding: whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

11 Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoice in the Lord: and be joyful, all ye that are true of heart.

Psalm XXXIII. Exultate, justi.

REJOICE in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful.

2 Praise the Lord with harp: sing praises unto him with the lute, and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto the Lord a new song: sing praises lustily unto him with a good courage.

4 For the word of the Lord is true: and all his works are faithful.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgement: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as it were upon an heap: and layeth up the deep, as in a treasure-house.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: stand in awe of him, all ye that dwell in the world;

9 For he spake, and it was done: he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: and maketh the devices of the people to be of none effect, and casteth out the counsels of princes.

11 The counsel of the Lord shall endure for ever: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed are the people, whose God is the Lord Jehovah: and blessed are the folk, that he hath chosen to him, to be his inheritance.

13 The Lord looked down from heaven, and beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling he considereth all them that dwell on the earth.

14 He fashioneth all the hearts of them: and understandeth all their works.

15 There is no king that can be saved by the multitude of an host: neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.

16 A horse is counted but a vain thing to save a man: neither shall he deliver any man by his great strength.

17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him: and upon them that put their trust in his mercy;

18 To deliver their soul from death: and to feed them in the time of dearth.

19 Our soul hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our help, and our shield.
20 For our heart shall rejoice in him: because we have hoped in his holy Name.

21 Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us: like as we do put our trust in thee.

Psalm XXXIV. Benedicam Domino.

I WILL alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O praise the Lord with me: and let us magnify his Name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he delivered me out of all my fear.

5 They had an eye unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 Lo, the poor crieth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and faveth him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him: and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see, how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord, ye that are his saints: for they that fear him lack nothing.

10 The lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they who seek the Lord, shall want no manner of thing that is good.

11 Come, ye children, and hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
12 What man is he, that lufteth to live: and would fain see good days?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil: and thy lips, that they speak no guile.

14 Eschew evil, and do good: seek peace, and ensue it.*

15 The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous: and his ears are open unto their prayers.

16 The countenance of the Lord is against them that do evil: to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a contrite heart: and will save such as be of an humble spirit.

19 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.

21 But misfortune shall slay the ungodly: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The Lord delivereth the souls of his servants: and all they that put their trust in him shall not be desitute.

* If it be possible, live peaceably with all men. Rom. xii. 18.
Psalm XXXV. Judica, Domine.

PSALM XXXV. Judica, Domine.

Psalm XXXV. Judica, Domine.

PLEAD thou my cause, O Lord, with them that strive with me; and fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Lay hand upon the shield and buckler: and stand up to help me.

3 Bring forth the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded, and put to shame, that seek after my soul: let them be turned back, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the wind: and the Angel of the Lord scattering them.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For they have privily laid their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, even without a cause have they made a pit for my soul.

8 Let a sudden destruction come upon him unawares, and his net, that he hath laid privily, catch himself: that he may fall into his own mischief.

9 And, my soul, be joyful in the Lord: it shall rejoice in his salvation.
10 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee, who deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poor, and him that is in misery, from him that spoileth him!

11 False witnesses did rise up: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good: to the great discomfort of my soul.

13 Nevertheless, when they were sick, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soul with fasting: and my prayer shall turn into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved myself, as though it had been my friend, or my brother: I went heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the very abjects came together against me unawares, making mouths at me, and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers were busy mockers: who gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou look upon this: O deliver my soul from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the lions.

18 So will I give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies, triumph over me ungodly: neither let them wink with their eyes, that hate me without a cause.
20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitful words against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped upon me with their mouths, and said: Fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seen, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, go not far from me, O Lord.

23 Awake, and stand up to judge my quarrel: avenge thou my cause, my God, and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousness: and let them not triumph over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would we have it: neither let them say, We have devoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame together, that rejoice at my trouble: let them be cloathed with rebuke and dishonour, that boast themselves against me.

27 Let them be glad and rejoice, that favour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the Lord, who hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of thy righteousness: and of thy praise all the day long.
PSALM XXXVI. Dixit injustus.

MY heart sheweth me the wickedness of the ungodly: that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own sight: until his abominable sin be found out.

3 The words of his mouth are unrighteous, and full of deceit: he hath left off to behave himself wisely, and to do good.

4 He imagineth mischief upon his bed, and hath set himself in no good way: neither doth he abhor any thing that is evil.

5 Thy mercy, O Lord, reacheth unto the heavens: and thy faithfulness unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness standeth like the strong mountains: thy judgements are like the great deep.

7 Thou, Lord, shalt save both man and beast; How excellent is thy mercy, O God: and the children of men shall put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteousness of thy house:* and thou shalt give them drink of thy pleasures, as out of the river.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue forth thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee: and thy righteousness unto them that are true of heart.

* Behold my servants shall eat, &c. Isaiah lxv. 13.
11 O let not the foot of pride come against me: and let not the hand of the ungodly cast me down.

12 There are they fallen all that work wickedness: they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm XXXVII. Noli æmulari.

FRET not thyself because of the ungodly: neither be thou envious against the evil-doers;

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass: and be withered even as the green herb.

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and be doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and he shall give thee thy heart's desire.

5 Commit thy way unto the Lord, and put thy trust in him: and he shall bring it to pass.

6 He shall make thy righteousness as clear as the light: and thy just dealing as the noon-day.

7 Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently upon him: but grieve not thyself at him, whose way doth prosper, against the man that doeth after evil counsels.

8 Leave off from wrath, and let go displeasure: fret not thyself, else shalt thou be moved to do evil.
9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone: thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be away.

11 But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth: and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The ungodly seeketh counsel against the just: and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh him to scorn: for he hath seen that his day is coming.

14 The ungodly have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow: to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as are of a right conversation.

15 Their sword shall go through their own heart: and their bow shall be broken.

16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better than great riches of the ungodly.

17 For the arms of the ungodly shall be broken: and the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the days of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for ever.

19 They shall not be confounded in the perilous time: and in the days of dearth they shall have enough.

20 As for the ungodly, they shall perish; and the enemies of the Lord shall consume as the fat of lambs: yea, even as the smoke, shall they consume away.

21 The ungodly borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous is merciful and liberal.

22 Such as are blessed of God, shall possess the land: and they that are cursed of him, shall be rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good man's going: and maketh his way acceptable to himself.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be cast away: for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old: and yet saw I never the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is ever merciful, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Flee from evil, and do the thing that is good: and dwell for evermore.

28 For the Lord loveth the thing that is right: he forsaaketh not his that be godly, but they are preserved for ever.

29 The unrighteous shall be punished: as for the seed of the ungodly, it shall be rooted out.

30 The righteous shall inherit the land: and dwell therein for ever.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom: and his tongue will be talking of judgement.
32 The law of his God is in his heart: and his goings shall not slide.
33 The ungodly seeth the righteous: and seeketh occasion to slay him.
34 The Lord will not leave him in his hand: nor condemn him when he is judged.
35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possess the land: when the ungodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.
36 I myself have seen the ungodly in great power: and flourishing like a green bay-tree.
37 I went by, and lo, he was gone: I fought him, but his place could no where be found.
38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing that is right: for that shall bring a man peace at the last.
39 As for the transgressors, they shall perish together: and the end of the ungodly is, They shall be rooted out at the last.
40 But the salvation of the righteous cometh of the Lord: who is also their strength in the time of trouble.
41 And the Lord shall stand by them, and save them: he shall deliver them from the ungodly, and shall save them, because they put their trust in him.
MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm XXXVIII. Domine, ne in furore.

PUT me not to rebuke, O Lord, in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heavy displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me: and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 For my wickednesses are gone over my head: and are like a sore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt: through my foolishness.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and misery: that I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble, and sore smitten: I have roared for the very disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me: and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking upon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood afar off.

12 They also that fought after my life, laid snares for me: and they that went about to do me evil, talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deaf man, and heard not: and as one that is dumb, who doth not open his mouth.

14 I became even as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God.

16 I have required that they, even mine enemies, should not triumph over me: for when my foot slipt, they rejoiced greatly against me.

17 And I, truly, am set in the plague: and my heaviness is ever in my sight.

18 For I will confess my wickedness: and be sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies live, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully, are many in number.

20 They also that reward evil for good, are against me: because I follow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God: be not thou far from me.

22 Haste thee to help me: O Lord God of my salvation.
Dixi, Cujlodiam.

1 SAID, I will take heed to my ways: that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I will keep my mouth as it were with a bridle: while the ungodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea, even from good words; but it was pain and grief to me.

4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lord, let me know my end, and the number of my days: that I may be certified how long I have to live.

6 Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee: and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8 And now, Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is even in thee.

9 Deliver me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

10 I became dumb, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am even consumed by the means of thy heavy hand.
12 When thou with rebukes doft chaften man for sin, thou makeft his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

13 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.

PSALM XL. Expectans expectavi.

I WAITED patiently for the Lord: and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay: and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: even a thanksgiving unto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and fear: and shall put their trust in the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord: and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

6 O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, like as be also thy thoughts, which are to us-ward: and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.
7 If I should declare them, and speak of them: they should be more than I am able to express.

8 Sacrifice and meat-offering thou wouldest not: but mine ears hast thou opened.

9 Burnt-offerings, and sacrifice for sin, hast thou not required: then said I, Lo, I come.*

10 In the volume of the book it is written of me, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God: I am content to do it, yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I have declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

12 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

13 I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth: from the great congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord: let thy loving-kindness and thy truth alway preserve me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about me; my sins have taken such hold upon me, that I am not able to look up: yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me: make haste, O Lord, to help me.

17 Let them be ashamed, and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it: let

* Heb. x. 7. John iv. 34. and v. 30. John xvii. 4. them be driven backward, and put to rebuke, that wish me evil.

18 Let them be defolate, and rewarded with shame: that say unto me, Fie upon thee, fie upon thee.

19 Let all those that seek thee, be joyful and glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

20 As for me, I am poor and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and Redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM XLI. Beatus qui intelligit.

BLESSED is he that considereth the poor and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble.

2 The Lord preserve him, and keep him alive, that he may be blessed upon earth: and deliver not thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord comfort him, when he lieth sick upon his bed: make thou all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, Lord, be merciful unto me: heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.
5 Mine enemies speak evil of me: When shall he die, and his name perish?
6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: and his heart conceiveth falsehood within himself, and when he cometh forth, he telleth it.
7 All mine enemies whisper together against me: even against me do they imagine this evil.
8 Let the sentence of guiltiness proceed against him: and now that he lieth, let him rise up no more.
9 Yea, even mine own familiar friend, whom I trusted: who did also eat of my bread, hath laid great wait for me.
10 But be thou merciful unto me, O Lord: raise thou me up again, and I shall reward them.
11 By this I know thou favourest me: that mine enemy doth not triumph against me.
12 And when I am in my health, thou upholdest me: and shalt set me before thy face for ever.
13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: world without end. Amen.

Psalm XLII. Quemadmodum.
Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks: so longeth my soul after thee, O God.
2 My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God: When shall I come to appear before the presence of God?
3 My tears have been my meat day and night: while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

4 Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God;

5 In the voice of praise and thanksgiving: among such as keep holy-day.

6 Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

7 Put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

8 My God, my soul is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9 One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes: all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

10 The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time: and in the night season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11 I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me: why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

12 My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword: while mine enemies that trouble me, cast me in the teeth;
13 Namely, while they say daily unto me: Where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

15 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm XLIII. Judica me, Deus.

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people: O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from thee: and why go I so heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness: and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heavy, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

6 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.
WE have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us: what thou hast done in their time of old.

2 How thou hast driven out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword: neither was it their own arm that helped them;

4 But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance: because thou hadst a favour unto them.

5 Thou art my King, O God: send help unto Jacob.

6 Through thee will we overthrow our enemies: and in thy name will we tread them under, that rise up against us.

7 For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sword that shall help me;

8 But it is thou that savest us from our enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate us.

9 We make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.
But now thou art far off, and puttest us to confusion: and goest not forth with our armies.

Thou makest us to turn our backs upon our enemies: so that they which hate us, spoil our goods.

Thou lettest us be eaten up like sheep: and hast scattered us among the heathen.

Thou sellest thy people for nought: and takest no money for them.

Thou makest us to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to scorn, and had in derision of them that are round about us.

Thou makest us to be a bye-word among the heathen: and that the people shake their heads at us.

My confusion is daily before me: and the shame of my face hath covered me;

For the voice of the slanderer and blasphemer: for the enemy and avenger.

And though all this be come upon us, yet do we not forget thee: nor behave ourselves frowardly in thy covenant.

Our heart is not turned back: neither our steps gone out of thy way;

No, not when thou hast smitten us into the place of dragons: and covered us with the shadow of death.

If we have forgotten the Name of our God, and holden up our hands to any strange god:
shall not God search it out? for he knoweth the very secrets of the heart.

22 For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: and are counted as sheep appointed to be slain.

23 Up, Lord, why sleepest thou: awake, and be not absent from us for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our misery and trouble?

25 For our soul is brought low, even unto the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the ground.

26 Arise, and help us: and deliver us for thy mercies’ sake.

Psalm XLV. Erucclavit cor meum.

My heart is inditing of a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made unto the King.

2 My tongue is the pen: of a ready writer.

3 Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever.

4 Gird thee with thy sword upon thy thigh, O thou most mighty: according to thy worship and renown.

5 Good luck have thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the word of truth, of meekness, and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharp, and the people shall be subdued unto thee: even in the midst among the king’s enemies.
7 Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.
8 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
9 All thy garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia: out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.
10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in a vesture of gold, wrought about with divers colours.
11 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, incline thine ear: forget also thine own people, and thy father's house.
12 So shall the King have pleasure in thy beauty: for he is thy Lord God, and worship thou him.
13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.
14 The King's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.
15 She shall be brought unto the King in raiment of needle-work: the virgins that be her fellows, shall bear her company, and shall be brought unto thee.
16 With joy and gladness shall they be brought: and shall enter into the King's palace.
17 Instead of thy fathers thou shalt have children: whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation to another: therefore shall the people give thanks unto thee, world without end.

Psalm XLVI. Deus nostri refugium.

GOD is our hope and strength: a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the most Highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved: but God hath shewed his voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8 O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.
9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.
10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.
11 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM XLVII. Omnes gentes, plaudite.
O Clap your hands together, all ye people: O
sing unto God with the voice of melody.
2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: he is the great King upon all the earth.
3 He shall subdue the people under us: and the nations under our feet.
4 He shall choose out an heritage for us: even the worship of Jacob, whom he loved.
5 God is gone up with a merry noise: and the Lord with the sound of the trump.*
6 O sing praises, sing praises unto our God: O
sing praises, sing praises unto our King.
7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.
8 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon his holy seat.

* And he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. Luke xxiv. 51.
The princes of the people are joined unto the people of the God of Abraham: for God, which is very high exalted, doth defend the earth, as it were with a shield.

Psalm XLVIII. Magnus Dominus.

GREAT is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a fair place, and the joy of the whole earth: upon the north side lieth the city of the great King, God is well known in her palaces, as a sure refuge.

3 For lo, the kings of the earth: are gathered, and gone by together.

4 They marvelled to see such things: they were astonished, and suddenly cast down.

5 Fear came there upon them, and sorrow: as upon a woman in her travail.

6 Thou shalt break the ships of the sea: through the east-wind.

7 Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts; in the city of our God: God upholdeth the same for ever.

8 We wait for thy loving-kindness, O God: in the midst of thy temple.

9 O God, according to thy name, so is thy praise unto the world's end: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Sion rejoice, and the daughter of Judah be glad: because of thy judgements.
Walk about Sion, and go round about her: and tell the towers thereof.

Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses: that ye may tell them that come after.

For this God is our God for ever and ever: he shall be our guide unto death.

Audite hæc, omnes. O HEAR ye this, all ye people: ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world;

High and low, rich and poor: one with another.

My mouth shall speak of wisdom: and my heart shall muse of understanding.

I will incline mine ear to the parable: and shew my dark speech upon the harp.

Wherefore should I fear in the days of wickedness: and when the wickedness of my heels compasseth me round about?

There be some that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.

But no man may deliver his brother: nor make agreement unto God for him;

For it cost more to redeem their souls: so that he must let that alone for ever;

Yea, though he live long: and see not the grave.

For he seeth that wise men also die, and perish together: as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leave their riches for other.

11 And yet they think that their houses shall continue for ever: and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another; and call the lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour: seeing he may be compared unto the beasts that perish, this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishness: and their posterity praise their saying.

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth upon them, and the righteous shall have domination over them in the morning: their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

15 But God hath delivered my soul from the place of hell: for he shall receive me.

16 Be not thou afraid, though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased;

17 For he shall carry nothing away with him when he dieth: neither shall his pomp follow him.

18 For while he lived, he counted himself an happy man: and so long as thou dost well unto thyself, men will speak good of thee.

19 He shall follow the generation of his fathers: and shall never see light.

20 Man being in honour, hath no understanding: but is compared unto the beasts that perish.
Psalm L. Deus deorum.

The Lord, even the most mighty God, hath spoken: and called the world, from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: there shall go before him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.

4 He shall call the heaven from above: and the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is Judge himself.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak: I myself will testify against thee, O Israel; for I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt-offerings: because they were not alway before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thine house: nor he-goat out of thy folds.

10 For all the beasts of the forest are mine: and so are the cattle upon a thousand hills.
11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are in my sight.

12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee: for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls flesh: and drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving: and pay thy vows unto the most Highest.

15 And call upon me in the time of trouble: so will I hear thee, and thou shalt praise me.

16 But unto the ungodly said God: Why dost thou preach my laws, and takest my covenant in thy mouth;

17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed: and hast cast my words behind thee?

18 When thou sawest a thief, thou consentedst unto him: and hast been partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wickedness: and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.

20 Thou sattest, and spakest against thy brother: yea, and hast slandered thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly, that I am even such a one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set before thee the things that thou hast done.
Psalm LII. Miserere mei, Deus.

Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness: and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee only have I sinned,* and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear, when thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

6 But lo, thou requir'st truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness: that the bones, which thou hast broken, may rejoice.

9 Turn thy face from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.

* See 2 Samuel xii. 13.
10 Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

12 O give me the comfort of thy help again: and establish me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Psalm LII. Quid gloriaris?

WHY boasteft thou thyself, thou tyrant: that thou canst do mischief;
2 Whereas the goodness of God: endureth yet daily?
3 Thy tongue imagineth wickedness: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp razor.
4 Thou hast loved unrighteousness more than goodness: and to talk of lies more than righteousness.
5 Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt: O thou false tongue.
6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever: he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the living.
7 The righteous also shall see this, and fear: and shall laugh him to scorn.
8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength: but trusted unto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.
9 As for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for ever and ever.
10 I will always give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy name; for thy saints like it well.
EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm LIII. Dixit insipiens.

The foolish body hath said in his heart: There is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickedness: there is none that doeth good.

3 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men: to see if there were any, that would understand, and seek after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without understanding, that work wickedness: eating up my people as if they would eat bread? they have not called upon God.

6 They were afraid where no fear was: for God hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee; thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 Oh, that the salvation were given unto Israel out of Sion: Oh, that the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity!

8 Then should Jacob rejoice: and Israel should be right glad.

Psalm LIV. Deus, in nomine.

SAVE me, O God, for thy Name's sake: and avenge me in thy strength.
2 Hear my prayer, O God: and hearken unto the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen up against me: and tyrians, which have not God before their eyes;
seek after my soul.

4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies:
destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name, O Lord: because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Psalm LV. Exaudi, Deus.

HEAR my prayer, O God: and hide not thy-sel£ from my petition.

2 Take heed unto me, and hear me: how I mourn in my prayer, and am vexed.

3 The enemy crieth so, and the ungodly cometh on so fast: for they are minded to do me some mischief; so maliciously are they set against me.

4 My heart is disquieted within me: and the fear of death is fallen upon me.

5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me:
and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.
6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.
7 Lo, then would I get me away far off: and remain in the wilderness.
8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormy wind and tempest.
9 Destroy their tongues, O Lord, and divide them: for I have spied unrighteousness and strife in the city.
10 Day and night they go about within the walls thereof: mischief also, and sorrow are in the midst of it.
11 Wickedness is therein: deceit and guile go not out of their streets.
12 For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could have borne it.
13 Neither was it mine adversary, that did magnify himself against me: for then peradventure I would have hid myself from him.
14 But it was even thou, my companion: my guide, and mine own familiar friend.
15 We took sweet counsel together: and walked in the house of God as friends.
16 Let death come hastily upon them, and let them go down quick into hell*: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
17 As for me, I will call upon God: and the Lord shall save me.

* The word rendered hell, may signify no more than the grave. Dr. Randolph.
18 In the evening, and morning, and at noon-day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shall hear my voice.

19 It is he that hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

20 Yea, even God, that endureth for ever, shall hear me, and bring them down: for they will not turn, nor fear God.

21 He laid his hands upon such as be at peace with him: and he brake his covenant.

22 The words of his mouth were softer than butter, having war in his heart: his words were smoother than oil, and yet be they very swords.

23 O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for ever.

24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

25 The blood-thirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days: nevertheless, my trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm LVI. Miserere mei, Deus.

BE merciful unto me, O God, for man goeth about to devour me: he is daily fighting, and troubling me.
2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most Higheft.

3 Nevertheless, though I am sometime afraid: yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise God, because of his word: I have put my trust in God, and will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 They daily mistake my words: all that they imagine is to do me evil.

6 They hold all together, and keep themselves close: and mark my steps, when they lay wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape for their wickedness: thou, O God, in thy displeasure shalt cast them down.

8 Thou tellest my flittings; put my tears into thy bottle: are not these things noted in thy book?

9 Whencesoever I call upon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight: this I know; for God is on my side.

10 In God's word will I rejoice: in the Lord's word will I comfort me.

11 Yea, in God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Unto thee, O God, will I pay my vows: unto thee will I give thanks.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling: that I may walk before God in the light of the living.
Psalm LVII. Miserere mei, Deus.

BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me, for my soul trusteth in thee: and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until this tyranny be overpast.

2 I will call unto the most high God: even unto the God, that shall perform the cause which I have in hand.

3 He shall send from heaven: and save me from the reproof of him that would eat me up.

4 God shall send forth his mercy and truth: my soul is among lions.

5 And I lie even among the children of men, that are set on fire: whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

6 Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

7 They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed down my soul: they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the midst of it themselves.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing, and give praise.

9 Awake up, my glory; awake, lute and harp: I myself will awake right early.

10 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing unto thee among the nations.

11 For the greatness of thy mercy, reacheth unto the heavens: and thy truth unto the clouds.
12 Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

Psalm L VIII. Si vere utique.

Are your minds set upon righteousness, O ye congregation: and do ye judge the thing that is right, O ye sons of men?

2 Yea, ye imagine mischief in your heart upon the earth: and your hands deal with wickedness.

3 The ungodly are froward, even from their mother's womb: as soon as they are born, they go astray, and speak lies.

4 They are as venomous as the poison of a serpent: even like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ears;

5 Which refuseth to hear the voice of the charmer: charm he never so wisely.

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouths; smite the jaw-bones of the lions, O Lord: let them fall away like water that runneth apace; and when they shoot their arrows, let them be rooted out.

7 Let them consume away like a snail, and be like the untimely fruit of a woman: and let them not see the sun.

8 Or ever your pots be made hot with thorns: so let indignation vex him, even as a thing that is raw.

9 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his footsteps in the blood of the ungodly.
So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: doubtless, there is a God that judgeth the earth.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm LIX. Eripe me de inimicis.

DELIVER me from mine enemies, O God: defend me from them that rise up against me.

2 O deliver me from the wicked doers: and save me from the blood-thirsty men.

3 For lo, they lie waiting for my soul: the mighty men are gathered against me without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: arise thou therefore to help me, and behold.

5 Stand up, O Lord God of hosts, thou God of Israel, to visit all the heathen: and be not merciful unto them that offend of malicious wickedness.

6 They go to and fro in the evening: they grin like a dog, and run about through the city.

7 Behold, they speak with their mouth, and swords are in their lips: for who doth hear?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt have them in derision: and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorn.

9 My strength will I ascribe unto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.
10 God sheweth me his goodness plenteously: and God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget it: but scatter them abroad among the people, and put them down, O Lord, our defence.

12 For the sin of their mouth, and for the words of their lips, they shall be taken in their pride: and why? their preaching is of cursing and lies.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish: and know that it is God, that ruleth in Jacob, and unto the ends of the world.

14 And in the evening they will return: grin like a dog, and will go about the city.

15 They will run here and there for meat: and grudge if they be not satisﬁed.

16 As for me, I will sing of thy power, and will praise thy mercy betimes in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my merciful God.

Psalm LX. Deus, repulisti nos.

O GOD, thou hast cast us out, and scattered us abroad: thou hast also been displeased; O turn thee unto us again.
2 Thou hast moved the land, and divided it: heal the fores thereof; for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people heavy things: thou hast given us a drink of deadly wine.

4 Thou hast given a token for such as fear thee: that they may triumph because of the truth.

5 Therefore were thy beloved delivered: help me with thy right hand, and hear me.

6 God hath spoken in his holiness, I will rejoice and divide Sichem: and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head; Judah is my law-giver;

8 Moab is my wash-pot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, be thou glad of me.

9 Who will lead me into the strong city: who will bring me into Edom:

10 Hast not thou cast us out, O God: wilt not thou, O God, go out with our hosts?

11 O be thou our help in trouble: for vain is the help of man.

12 Through God will we do great acts: for it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Psalm LXI. Exaudi, Deus.

Hear my crying, O God: give ear unto my prayer.

2 From the ends of the earth will I call upon thee: when my heart is in heaviness.
3 O set me up upon the rock that is higher than I: for thou hast been my hope, and a strong tower for me against the enemy.

4 I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever: and my trust shall be under the covering of thy wings.

5 For thou, O Lord, hast heard my desires: and hast given an heritage unto those that fear thy Name.

6 Thou shalt grant the King a long life: that his years may endure throughout all generations.

7 He shall dwell before God for ever: O prepare thy loving mercy and faithfulness, that they may preserve him.

8 So will I always sing praise unto thy Name: that I may daily perform my vows.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM LXII. Nonne Deo?

MY soul truly waiteth still upon God: for of him cometh my salvation.

2 He verily is my strength and my salvation: he is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against every man: ye shall be slain all the sort of you: yea, as a tottering wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their device is only how to put him out whom God will exalt: their delight is in lies;
they give good words with their mouth, but curse with their heart.

5 Nevertheless, my soul, wait thou still upon God: for my hope is in him.

6 He truly is my strength and my salvation: he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory: the rock of my might, and in God is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him alway, ye people: pour out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vanity: the children of men are deceitful upon the weights, they are altogether lighter than vanity itself.

10 O trust not in wrong and robbery, give not yourselves unto vanity: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God spake once, and twice I have also heard the same: That power belongeth unto God;

12 And that thou, Lord, art merciful: for thou rewardest every man according to his work.

Psalm LXIII. Deus, Deus meus.

O GOD, thou art my God: early will I seek thee.

2 My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and dry land where no water is.
3 Thus have I looked for thee in holiness: that I might behold thy power and glory.
4 For thy loving-kindness is better than the life itself: my lips shall praise thee.
5 As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner: and lift up my hands in thy Name.
6 My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness: when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.
7 Have I not remembered thee in my bed: and thought upon thee when I was waking?
8 Because thou hast been my helper: therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
9 My soul hangeth upon thee: thy right hand hath upholden me.
10 These also, that seek the hurt of my soul: they shall go under the earth.
11 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword*: that they may be a portion for foxes.
12 But the King shall rejoice in God; all they also that swear by him, shall be commended: for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Psalm LXIV. Exaudi, Deus.

Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the gathering together of the froward: and from the insurrection of wicked doers;

* This is not a wish, but a prophecy. Dr. H. Arnold.
3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword: and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words;
4 That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect: suddenly do they hit him, and fear not.
5 They encourage themselves in mischief: and commune among themselves, how they may lay snares, and say, That no man shall see them.
6 They imagine wickedness, and practice it: that they keep secret among themselves, every man in the deep of his heart.
7 But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow: that they shall be wounded.
8 Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall: insomuch that whoso seeth them, shall laugh them to scorn.
9 And all men that see it, shall say, This hath God done: for they shall perceive that it is his work.
10 The righteous shall rejoice in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart, shall be glad.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM LXV. Te decet hymnus.
THOU, O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.
2 Thou that hearest the prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 My misdeeds prevail against me: O be thou merciful unto our sins.

4 Blessed is the man, whom thou choosest and receivest unto thee: he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 Thou shalt shew us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our salvation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

6 Who in his strength setteth fast the mountains: and is girded about with power.

7 Who stilleth the raging of the sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madness of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth, shall be afraid at thy tokens: thou that makest the out-goings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it: thou makest it very plenteous.

10 The river of God is full of water: thou preparest their corn, for so thou providest for the earth.

11 Thou waterest her furrows, thou sendest rain into the little vallies thereof: thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.
12 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness: and thy clouds drop fatness.

13 They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness: and the little hills shall rejoice on every side.

14 The folds shall be full of sheep: the vallies also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing.

Psalm LXVI. Jubilate Deo.

O BE joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.

2 Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works: through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars unto thee.

3 For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

4 O come hither, and behold the works of God: how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men!

5 He turned the sea into dry land: so that they went through the water on foot; there did we rejoice thereof.

6 He ruleth with his power for ever; his eyes behold the people: and such as will not believe, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 O praise our God, ye people: and make the voice of his praise to be heard;
8 Who holdeth our soul in life: and suffereth not our feet to slip.
9 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.
10 Thou broughtest us into the snare: and laideft trouble upon our loins.
11 Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.
12 I will go into thine house with burnt-offerings: and will pay thee my vows, which I promised with my lips, and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.
13 I will offer unto thee fat burnt-sacrifices, with the incense of rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.
14 O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.
15 I called unto him with my mouth: and gave him praises with my tongue.
16 If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart: the Lord will not hear me.
17 But God hath heard me: and considered the voice of my prayer.
18 Praised be God who hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me.
PSALMS. DAY XII.

PSALM LXVII. Deus misereatur.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;

2 That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

7 God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM LXVIII. Exurgat Deus.

LET God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; let them also that hate him, flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away: and like as wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.
3 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God: let them also be merry and joyful.

4 O sing unto God, and sing praises unto his Name: magnify him that rideth upon the heavens, as it were upon an horse; praise him in his Name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 He is a father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows: even God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity: but leteth the runagates continue in scarceness.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wilderness,

8 The earth shook, and the heavens dropped at the presence of God: even as Sinai also was moved at the presence of God, who is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious rain upon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodness prepared for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of the preachers.
12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: and they of the household divided the spoil.

13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove: that is covered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings for their fake: then were they as white as snow in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Bafan, so is God's hill: even an high hill, as the hill of Bafan.

16 Why hop ye so, ye high hills? this is God's hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell:
yea, the Lord will abide in it for ever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone up on high, thou haft led captivity captive, and received gifts for men: yea, even for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Praised be the Lord daily: even the God who helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

20 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation: God is the Lord, by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies:
and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickedness.
22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people again, as I did from Bafan: mine own will I bring again, as I did sometime from the deep of the sea.

23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

24 It is well seen, O God, how thou goest: how thou, my God and King, goest in the sanctuary.

25 The fingers go before, the minstrels follow after: in the midst are the damsels playing with the timbrels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Judah their council: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: establish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us,

29 For thy temple's sake at Jerusalem: so shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 When the company of the spear-men, and multitude of the mighty are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people, so that they humbly bring pieces of silver: and when he hath scattered the people that delight in war;
31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians land shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, O ye kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises unto the Lord;

33 Who sitteth in the heavens over all from the beginning: lo, he doth send out his voice, yea, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe ye the power to God over Israel: his worship and strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places: even the God of Israel; he will give strength and power unto his people; blessed be God.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM LXIX. Salvum me fac.

SAVE me, O God: for the waters are come in, even unto my soul.

2 I stick fast in the deep mire, where no ground is: I am come into deep waters, so that the floods run over me.

3 I am weary of crying; my throat is dry: my fight faileth me for waiting so long upon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are more than the hairs of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltless, are mighty.
5 I paid them the things that I never took: God, thou knowest my simplicity*, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O Lord, God of Israel.

7 And why? for thy sake have I suffered reproof: shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren: even an alien unto my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath even eaten me: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen upon me.

10 I wept, and chastened myself with fasting: and that was turned to my reproof.

11 I put on sackcloth also: and they jeested upon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me: and the drunkards make songs upon me.

13 But, Lord, I make my prayer unto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Hear me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy: even in the truth of thy salvation.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sink not: O let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

16 Let not the water-flood drown me, nei-

* See the present Bishop of London's ingenious discourse at Cambridge in 1761.
ther let the deep swallow me up: and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

17 Hear me, O Lord, for thy loving-kindness is comfortable: turn thee unto me according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I am in trouble: O haste thee, and hear me.

19 Draw nigh unto my soul, and save it; O deliver me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproach, my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all in thy fight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart; I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal: and let the things that should have been for their wealth, be unto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded, that they see not: and ever bow thou down their backs.

25 Pour out thine indignation upon them: and let thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void: and no man to dwell in their tents.
27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talk how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickedness to another: and not come into thy righteousness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poor and in heaviness: thy help, O God, shall lift me up.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnify it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall please the Lord: better than a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

33 The humble shall consider this, and be glad: seek ye after God, and your soul shall live.

34 For the Lord heareth the poor: and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heaven and earth praise him: the sea, and all that moveth therein.

36 For God will save Sion, and build the cities of Judah: that men may dwell there, and have it in possession.

37 The posterity also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his Name shall dwell therein.

Psalm LXX. Deus, in adjutorium.

HASTE thee, O God, to deliver me: make haste to help me, O Lord.
2 Let them be ashamed and confounded, that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward and put to confusion, that wish me evil.

3 Let them for their reward be soon brought to shame: that cry over me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seek thee, be joyful and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy salvation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poor and in misery: haste thee unto me, O God.

6 Thou art my helper, and my Redeemer: O Lord, make no long tarrying.

M O R N I N G P R A Y E R.

P S A L M LXXI. In te, Domine, speravi. IN thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliver me in thy righteousness; incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to help me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the ungodly: out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, even from my youth.
5 Through thee have I been holden up ever since I was born: thou art he that took me out of my mother’s womb; my praise shall be always of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster unto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing of thy glory and honour all the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies speak against me, and they that lay wait for my soul, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

10 Go not far from me, O God: my God, haste thee to help me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my soul: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seek to do me evil.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speak of thy righteousness and salvation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.
15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

16 Forfake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am grey-headed: until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done; O God, who is like unto thee?

18 O what great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed me! and yet didst thou turn and refresh me: yea, and broughtest me from the deep of the earth again.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on every side.

20 Therefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulness, O God, playing upon an instrument of musick: unto thee will I sing upon the harp, O thou holy One of Israel.

21 My lips will be fain when I sing unto thee: and so will my soul whom thou hast delivered.

22 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded and brought unto shame, that seek to do me evil.

Psalm LXXII. Deus, judicium.

Give the King thy judgements, O God: and thy righteousness unto the King's son.
Then shall he judge thy people according unto right: and defend the poor.

The mountains also shall bring peace: and the little hills righteousness unto the people.

He shall keep the simple folk by their right: defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong doer.

They shall fear thee, as long as the sun and moon endureth: from one generation to another.

He shall come down like the rain into a fleece of wool: even as the drops that water the earth.

In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood unto the world's end.

They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneel before him: his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

All kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall do him service.

For he shall deliver the poor when he crieth: the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

He shall be favourable to the simple and needy: and shall preserve the souls of the poor.
14 He shall deliver their souls from falsehood and wrong: and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shall live, and unto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made ever unto him, and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an heap of corn in the earth, high upon the hills: his fruit shall shake like Lebanon, and shall be green in the city, like grass upon the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for ever; his Name shall remain under the sun among the posterities; which shall be blessed through him; and all the heathen shall praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel: which only doeth wondrous things;

19 And blessed be the Name of his Majesty for ever: and all the earth shall be filled with his Majesty. Amen, Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM LXXIII. Quam bonus Israel!

TRULY God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart.

2 Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well-nigh slipped.
3 And why? I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no peril of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folk: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so holden with pride: and overwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatness: and they do even what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speak of wicked blasphemy: their talking is against the most High.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth unto the heaven: and their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the people unto them: and thereout suck they no small advantage.

11 Turn, say they, how should God perceive it: is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Lo, these are the ungodly, these prosper in the world, and these have riches in possession: and I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain, and washed mine hands in innocency*.

13 All the day long have I been punished: and chastened every morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said even as they: but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of thy children.

*This subject is ingeniously illustrated by the late Rev. Mr. Garnons. Serm. vol. II. p. 31.
15 Then thought I to understand this: but it was too hard for me,
16 Until I went into the sanctuary of God: then understood I the end of these men;
17 Namely, how thou dost set them in slippery places: and castest them down, and destroyest them.
18 Oh, how suddenly do they consume: perish, and come to a fearful end!
19 Yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the city.
20 Thus my heart was grieved: and it went even through my reins.
21 So foolish was I, and ignorant: even as it were a beast before thee.
22 Nevertheless, I am alway by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.
23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel: and after that receive me with glory.
24 Whom have I in heaven but thee: and there is none upon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.
25 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.
26 For lo, they that forsake thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.
27 But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speak of all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

Psalm LXXIV. Ut quid, Deus?

O GOD, wherefore art thou absent from us so long: why is thy wrath so hot against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 O think upon thy congregation: whom thou hast purchased, and redeemed of old.

3 Think upon the tribe of thine inheritance: and mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destroy every enemy: which hath done evil in thy sanctuary.

5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy congregations: and set up their banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed timber afore out of the thick trees: was known to bring it to an excellent work.

7 But now they break down all the carved work thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They have set fire upon thy holy places: and have defiled the dwelling-place of thy Name, even unto the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let us make havock of them altogether: thus have they burnt up all the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one prophet more: no, not one is there among us, that understandeth any more.
11 O God, how long shall the adversary do this dishonour: how long shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name, for ever?
12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand: why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom to consume the enemy?
13 For God is my King of old: the help that is done upon earth he doeth it himself.
14 Thou didst divide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.
15 Thou smoteft the heads of Leviathan in pieces: and gavest him to be meat for the people in the wilderness.
16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters out of the hard rocks: thou driedst up mighty waters.
17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.
18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.
19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked: and how the foolish people hath blasphemed thy Name.
20 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the congregation of the poor for ever.
21 Look upon the covenant: for all the earth is full of darkness and cruel habitations.
22 O let not the simple go away ashamed: but let the poor and needy give praise unto thy Name.
23 Arise, O God, maintain thine own cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.
24 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee increaseth ever more and more.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM LXXV. Confitebimur tibi.

UNTO thee, O God, do we give thanks: yea, unto thee do we give thanks.
2 Thy Name also is so nigh: and that do thy wondrous works declare.
3 When I receive the congregation: I shall judge according unto right.
4 The earth is weak, and all the inhabitants thereof: I bear up the pillars of it.
5 I said unto the fools, Deal not so madly: and to the ungodly, Set not up your horn.
6 Set not up your horn on high: and speak not with a stiff neck.
7 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west: nor yet from the south.
8 And why? God is the Judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.
For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixed, and he poureth out of the same.

As for the dregs thereof: all the ungodly of the earth shall drink them, and suck them out.

But I will talk of the God of Jacob: and praise him for ever.

All the horns of the ungodly also will I break: and the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Psalm LXXVI. Notus in Judæa.

IN Jury is God known: his Name is great in Israel.

At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

There brake he the arrows of the bow: the shield, the sword, and the battle.

Thou art of more honour and might: than the hills of the robbers.

The proud are robbed, they have flept their sleep: and all the men, whose hands were mighty, have found nothing.

At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob: both the chariot and horse are fallen.

Thou, even thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy fight when thou art angry?

Thou didst cause thy judgement to be heard from heaven: the earth trembled, and was still,
9 When God arose to judgement: and to help all the meek upon earth.

10 The fierceness of man shall turn to thy praise: and the fierceness of them shall thou refrain.

11 Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it, all ye that are round about him: bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall refrain the spirit of princes: and is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

Psalm LXXVII. Voce mea ad Dominum.

I WILL cry unto God with my voice: even unto God will I cry with my voice, and he shall hearken unto me.

2 In the time of my trouble I fought the Lord: my sore ran, and ceased not in the night-season; my soul refused comfort.

3 When I am in heaviness, I will think upon God: when my heart is vexed, I will complain.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble, that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old: and the years that are past.

6 I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine own heart, and search out my spirits.

7 Will the Lord absent himself for ever: and will he be no more intreated?
8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever: and is his promise come utterly to an end for evermore?

9. Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut up his loving-kindness in displeasure?

10. And I said, It is mine own infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most Higheft.

11. I will remember the works of the Lord: and call to mind thy wonders of old time.

12. I will think also of all thy works: and my talking shall be of thy doings.

13. Thy way, O God, is holy: who is so great a God as our God?

14. Thou art the God that doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people.

15. Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

16. The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee, and were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17. The clouds poured out water, the air thundered: and thine arrows went abroad.

18. The voice of thy thunder was heard round about: the lightnings shone upon the ground; the earth was moved, and shook withal.

19. Thy way is in the sea, and thy paths in the great waters: and thy footsteps are not known.

20. Thou leddest thy people like sheep: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.
Psalm LXXVIII. Attendite, popule.

Hear my law, O my people: incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old;

3 Which we have heard and known: and such as our fathers have told us;

4 That we should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done.

5 He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children;

6 That their posterity might know it: and the children which were yet unborn;

7 To the intent that when they came up: they might shew their children the fame;

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the works of God, but to keep his commandments;

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaveth not stedfastly unto God;
10 Like as the children of Ephraim: who being harnessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves back in the day of battle.
11 They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walk in his law;
12 But forgot what he had done: and the wonderful works that he had shewed for them.
13 Marvellous things did he in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt: even in the field of Zoan.
14 He divided the sea, and let them go through: he made the waters to stand on an heap.
15 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire.
16 He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness: and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth.
17 He brought waters out of the stony rock: so that it gushed out like the rivers.
18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and provoked the most Higheft in the wilderness.
19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their luft.
20 They spake against God also, saying: Shall God prepare a table in the wilderness?
21 He smote the stony rock indeed, that the waters gushed out, and the streams flowed withal:
but can he give bread also, or provide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy displeasure against Israel;
23 Because they believed not in God: and put not their trust in his help.
24 So he commanded the clouds above: and opened the doors of heaven.
25 He rained down Manna also upon them for to eat: and gave them food from heaven.
26 So man did eat angels food: for he sent them meat enough.
27 He caused the east-wind to blow under heaven: and through his power he brought in the south-west-wind.
28 He rained flesh upon them as thick as dust: and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea.
29 He let it fall among their tents: even round about their habitation.
30 So they did eat, and were well filled; for he gave them their own desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.
31 But while the meat was yet in their mouths, the heavy wrath of God came upon them, and flew the wealthiest of them: yea, and smote down the chosen men that were in Israel.
32 But for all this they sinned yet more: and believed not his wondrous works.
33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity: and their years in trouble.
34 When he flew them, they fought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.
35 And they remembered that God was their strength: and that the high God was their Redeemer.
36 Nevertheless, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.
37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they steadfast in his covenant.
38 But he was so merciful, that he forgave their misdeeds: and destroyed them not.
39 Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.
40 For he considered that they were but flesh: and that they were even a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.
41 Many a time did they provoke him in the wilderness: and grieved him in the desert.
42 They turned back, and tempted God: and moved the Holy One in Israel.
43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he delivered them from the hand of the enemy.
44 How he had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.
45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drink of the rivers.
46 He sent lice among them, and devoured them up: and frogs to destroy them.
47 He gave their fruit unto the caterpiller: and their labour unto the grasshopper.
48 He destroyed their vines with hailstones: and their mulberry-trees with the frost.
49 He smote their cattle also with hailstones: and their flocks with hot thunder-bolts.
50 He cast upon them the furiousness of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble: and sent evil angels* among them.
51 He made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soul from death: but gave their life over to the pestilence;
52 And smote all the first-born in Egypt: the most principal and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.
53 But as for his own people, he led them forth like sheep: and carried them in the wilderness like a flock.
54 He brought them out safely, that they should not fear: and overwhelmed their enemies with the sea;
55 And brought them within the borders of his sanctuary: even to his mountain, which he purchased with his right hand.
56 He cast out the heathen also before them: caused their land to be divided among them for

* Hebrew. Messengers, or angels of evil.
an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

57 So they tempted, and displeased the most high God: and kept not his testimonies;

58 But turned their backs, and fell away like their fore-fathers: starting aside like a broken bow.

59 For they grieved him with their hill-altars: and provoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth: and took fore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forsook the tabernacle in Silo: even the tent that he had pitched among men.

62 He delivered their power into captivity: and their beauty into the enemies hand.

63 He gave his people over also unto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.

65 Their priests were slain with the sword: and there were no widows to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleep: and like a giant refreshed with wine.

67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;

69 But chose the tribe of Judah: even the hill of Sion which he loved.
70 And there he built his temple on high: and laid the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.

71 He chose David also his servant: and took him away from the sheep-folds.

72 As he was following the ewes great with young ones, he took him: that he might feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithful and true heart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm LXXIX. Deus, venerunt.

O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance: thy holy temple have they defiled, and made Jerusalem an heap of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the air: and the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the land.

3 Their blood have they shed like water on every side of Jerusalem: and there was no man to bury them.

4 We are become an open shame to our enemies: a very scorn and derision unto them that are round about us.

5 Lord, how long wilt thou be angry: shall thy jealousy burn like fire for ever?
6 Pour out thine indignation upon the heathen that have not known thee: and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy Name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob: and laid waste his dwelling-place.

8 O remember not our old sins; but have mercy upon us, and that soon: for we are come to great misery.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins for thy Name's sake.

10 Wherefore do the heathen say: Where is now their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy servants' blood that is shed: be openly shewed upon the heathen in our sight.

12 O let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemy, wherewith our neighbours have blasphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lord, seven-fold into their bosom.

14 So we that are thy people, and sheep of thy pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever: and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation.
PSALM LXXX. Qui regis Israël.

HEAR, O thou Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep: shew thyself also, thou that sittest upon the Cherubims.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh: stir up thy strength, and come, and help us.

3 Turn us again, O God: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

4 O Lord God of hosts: how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears: and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.

6 Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

7 Turn us again, thou God of hosts: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou madest room for it: and when it had taken root, it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it: and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedar trees.

11 She stretched out her branches unto the sea: and her boughs unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedge: that all they that go by pluck off her grapes?

13 The wild boar out of the wood doth root it up: and the wild beasts of the field devour it.
14 Turn thee again, thou God of hosts, look down from heaven: behold, and visit this vine;
15 And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest so strong for thyself.
16 It is burnt with fire, and cut down: and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.
17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand: and upon the son of man, whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.
18 And so will not we go back from thee: O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name.
19 Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Psalm LXXXI. Exultate Deo.

Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob.
2 Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret: the merry harp with the lute.
3 Blow up the trumpet in the new-moon: even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast-day.
4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Jacob.
5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony: when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.
6 I eased his shoulder from the burden: and his hands were delivered from making the pots.
7 Thou calledst upon me in troubles, and I delivered thee: and heard thee what time as the storm fell upon thee.
8 I proved thee also: at the waters of strife.
9 Hear, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: if thou wilt hearken unto me,
10 There shall no strange god be in thee: neither shalt thou worship any other god.
11 I am the Lord thy God; who brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.
12 But my people would not hear my voice: and Israel would not obey me.
13 So I gave them up unto their own hearts lusts: and let them follow their own imaginations.
14 O that my people would have hearkened unto me: for if Israel had walked in my ways, 15 I should soon have put down their enemies: and turned my hand against their adversaries.
16 The haters of the Lord should have been found liars: but their time should have endured for ever.
17 He should have fed them also with the finest wheat-flour: and with honey out of the stony rock should I have satisfied thee.
PSALMS. DAY XVI. 521
EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM LXXXII. Deus flletit.
GOD standeth in the congregation of princes:
he is a judge among gods.
2 How long will ye give wrong judgement:
and accept the persons of the ungodly?
3 Defend the poor and fatherless:
see that such as are in need and necessity have right.
4 Deliver the out-cast and poor:
save them from the hand of the ungodly.
5 They will not be learned nor understand,
but walk on still in darkness:
all the foundations of the earth are out of course.
6 I have said, Ye are gods:
and ye are all the children of the most Highest.
7 But ye shall die like men:
and fall like one of the princes.
8 Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth:
for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

PSALM LXXXIII. Deus, quis similis.
HOLD not thy tongue, O God, keep not still silence:
refrain not thyself, O God.
2 For lo, thine enemies make a murmuring:
and they that hate thee have lift up their head.
3 They have imagined craftily against thy people:
and taken counsel against thy secret ones.
4 They have said, Come, and let us root them out, that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
5 For they have cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee;
6 The tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ishmaelites: the Moabites, and Hagarens;
7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalech: the Philistines, with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 Assur also is joined with them: and have holpen the children of Lot.
9 But do thou to them as unto the Madianites: unto Sisera, and unto Jabin at the brook of Kison;
10 Who perished at Endor: and became as the dung of the earth.
11 Make them and their princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their princes like as Zeba and Salmana;
12 Who say, Let us take to ourselves: the houses of God in possession.
13 O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.
14 Like as the fire that burneth up the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountains.
15 Persecute them even so with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storm.*
16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seek thy Name.

Psalms.  Day XVI.  523

17 Let them be confounded and vexed ever more and more: let them be put to shame, and perish.

18 And they shall know, that thou whose Name is Jehovah: art only the most Higheft over all the earth.

Psalm LXXXIV. Quam dilecta!

O HOW amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hosts!

2 My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man, whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy ways.

6 Who going through the vale of misery, use it for a well: and the pools are filled with water.

7 They will go from strength to strength: and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Sion.

8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: hearken, O God of Jacob.

9 Behold, O God our defender: and look upon the face of thine Anointed.
10 For one day in thy courts: is better than a thousand.

11 I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God: than to dwell in the tents of ungodlines.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall he with-hold from them that live a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hosts: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Psalm LXXXV. Benedixisti, Domine.

LORD, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people: and covered all their sins.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation.

4 Turn us then, O God our Saviour: and let thine anger cease from us.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at us for ever: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turn again, and quicken us: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.
8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me: for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints, that they turn not again.

9 For his salvation is nigh them that fear him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth: and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

12 Yea, the Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him: and he shall direct his going in the way.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm LXXXVI. Inclina, Domine.

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me: for I am poor, and in misery.

2 Preserve thou my soul, for I am holy: my God, save thy servant that putteth his trust in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I will call daily upon thee.

4 Comfort the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, Lord, art good and gracious: and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.
6 Give ear, Lord, unto my prayer: and ponder the voice of my humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou hearest me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord: there is not one that can do as thou doest.

9 All nations whom thou hast made, shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorify thy Name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth: O knit my heart unto thee, that I may fear thy Name.

12 I will thank thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praise thy Name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the nethermost hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against me: and the congregations of naughty men have fought after my soul, and have not set thee before their eyes.

15 But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy: long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

16 O turn thee then unto me, and have mercy upon me: give thy strength unto thy servant, and help the son of thine handmaid.
17 Shew some token upon me for good; that they who hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, Lord, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Psalm LXXXVII. Fundamenta ejus.

Her foundations are upon the holy hills: the Lord loveth the gates of Sion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

2 Very excellent things are spoken of thee: thou city of God.

3 I will think upon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.

4 Behold ye the Philistines also: and they of Tyre, with the Morians; lo, there was he born.

5 And of Sion it shall be reported, that he was born in her: and the most High shall establish her.

6 The Lord shall rehearse it, when he writeth up the people: that he was born there.

7 The fingers also and trumpeters shall he rehearse: all my fresh springs shall be in thee.

Psalm LXXXVIII. Domine Deus.

O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine ear unto my calling.

2 For my soul is full of trouble: and my life draweth nigh unto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go down into the pit: and I have been even as a man that hath no strength.
4 Free among the dead, like unto them that are wounded, and lie in the grave: who are out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit: in a place of darkness, and in the deep.

6 Thine indignation lieth hard upon me: and thou hast vexed me with all thy storms.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.

8 I am so fast in prison: that I cannot get forth.

9 My sight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched forth my hands unto thee.

10 Doft thou shew wonders among the dead: or shall the dead rise up again, and praise thee?

11 Shall thy loving-kindness be shewed in the grave: or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wondrous works be known in the dark: and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

13 Unto thee have I cried, O Lord: and early shall my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soul: and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to die: even from my youth up thy terrors have I suffered with a troubled mind.

16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth over me: and the fear of thee hath undone me.
They came round about me daily like water: and compassed me together on every side.

My lovers and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

Evening Prayer.

Psalm LXXXIX. Misericordias Domini.

My song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be shewing thy truth from one generation to another.

For I have said, Mercy shall be set up for ever: thy truth shalt thou establish in the heavens.

I have made a covenant with my chosen: I have sworn unto David my servant;

Thy seed will I establish for ever: and set up thy throne from one generation to another.

O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works: and thy truth in the congregation of the saints.

For who is he among the clouds: that shall be compared unto the Lord?

And what is he among the gods: that shall be like unto the Lord?

God is very greatly to be feared in the council of the saints: and to be had in reverence of all them that are round about him.
9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like unto thee: thy truth, most mighty Lord, is on every side.

10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillst the waves thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enemies abroad with thy mighty arm.

12 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou hast made the north and the south: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy Name.

14 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteousness and equity are the habitation of thy seat: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

16 Blessed is the people, O Lord, that can rejoice in thee: they shall walk in the light of thy countenance.

17 Their delight shall be daily in thy Name: and in thy righteousness shall they make their boast.

18 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy loving-kindness thou shalt lift up our horns.*

19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy One of Israel is our King.

20 Thou spakest sometimes in visions unto thy saints, and saidst: I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

*Horns, emblematically denoted power, strength, confidence, and dominion.

21 I have found David my servant: with my holy oil have I anointed him.

22 My hand shall hold him fast: and my arm shall strengthen him.

23 The enemy shall not be able to do him violence: the son of wickedness shall not hurt him.

24 I will smite down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My truth also and my mercy shall be with him: and in my Name shall his horn be exalted.

26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.

27 He shall call me, Thou art my father: my God, and my strong salvation.

28 And I will make him my first-born: higher than the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy will I keep for him for ever more: and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

30 His seed also will I make to endure for ever: and his throne as the days of heaven.

31 But if his children forsake my law: and walk not in my judgments;

32 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments: I will visit their offences with the rod, and their sin with scourges.

33 Nevertheless, my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him: nor suffer my truth to fail.
My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I have sworn once by my holiness, that I will not fail David.

His seed shall endure for ever: and his seat is like as the sun before me.

He shall stand fast for evermore as the moon: and as the faithful witness in heaven.

But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine Anointed: and art displeased at him.

Thou hast broken the covenant of thy servant: and cast his crown to the ground.

Thou hast overthrown all his hedges: and broken down his strong holds.

All they that go by, spoil him: and he is become a reproach to his neighbours.

Thou hast set up the right hand of his enemies: and made all his adversaries to rejoice.

Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword: and givest him not victory in the battle.

Thou hast put out his glory: and cast his throne down to the ground.

The days of his youth hast thou shortened: and covered him with dishonour.

Lord, how long wilt thou hide thyself, for ever: and shall thy wrath burn like fire?

O remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men for nought?
47 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death: and shall he deliver his soul from the hand of hell?
48 Lord, where are thy old loving-kindnesses: which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?
49 Remember, Lord, the rebuke that thy servants have: and how I do bear in my bosom the rebukes of many people;
50 Wherewith thine enemies have blasphemed thee, and flandered the footsteps of thine Anointed: praised be the Lord for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm XC. Domine, refugium.

LORD, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.
1 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.
2 Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.
3 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.
4 As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly, like the grass.
6 In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The days of our age are three-score years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 So teach us to number our days: that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious unto thy servants.

14 O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon: so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

15 Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast plagued us: and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.
16 Shew thy servants thy work: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us: prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handy-work.

Psalm XCl. Qui habitat.

WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right-hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the ungodly.

9 For thou, Lord, art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.
There shall no evil happen unto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour.

With long life will I satisfy him: and shew him my salvation.

Psalm XCII. Bonum est confiteri.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most Highest;

To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night-season;

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute: upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of thy hands.
5 O Lord, how glorious are thy works: thy thoughts are very deep!
6 An unwise man doth not well consider this: and a fool doth not understand it.
7 When the ungodly are green as the grass, and when all the workers of wickedness do flourish: then shall they be destroyed for ever; but thou, Lord, art the most Highest for evermore.
8 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, lo, thine enemies shall perish: and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroyed.
9 But mine horn shall be exalted like the horn* of an unicorn: for I am anointed with fresh oil.
10 Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies: and mine ear shall hear his desire of the wicked that arise up against me.
11 The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus.
12 Such as are planted in the house of the Lord: shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God.
13 They also shall bring forth more fruit in their age: and shall be fat and well liking.
14 That they may shew how true the Lord my strength is: and that there is no unrighteousness in him.

* Compare Ps. lxxv. 5, 10. Deut. xxxiii. 17. Job xvi. 15. and Dan. vii. 8, &c.
Psalm XCIII. Dominus regnavit.

THE Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

2 He hath made the round world so sure: that it cannot be moved.

3 Ever since the world began hath thy seat been prepared: thou art from everlasting.

4 The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice: the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly: but yet the Lord, who dwelleth on high, is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lord, are very sure: holiness becometh thine house for ever.

Psalm XCIV. Deus ultionum.

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

2 Arise, thou Judge of the world: and reward the proud after their deserving.

3 Lord, how long shall the ungodly: how long shall the ungodly triumph?

4 How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully: and make such proud boasting?
5 They smite down thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widow, and the stranger: and put the fatherless to death.

7 And yet they say, Tush, the Lord shall not see: neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

8 Take heed, ye unwise among the people: O ye fools, when will ye understand?

9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear: or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

10 Or he that nurtureth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he punish?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vain.

12 Blessed is the man whom thou chasteneest, O Lord: and teachest him in thy law;

13 That thou mayest give him patience in time of adversity: until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

14 For the Lord will not fail his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance;

15 Until righteousness turn again unto judgement: all such as are true in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up with me against the wicked: or who will take my part against the evil-doers?

17 If the Lord had not helped me: it had not failed but my soul had been put to silence.
18 But when I said, My foot hath flipped: thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.
19 In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart: thy comforts have refreshed my soul.
20 Wilt thou have any thing to do with the fool of wickedness: which imagineth mischief as a law?
21 They gather them together against the soul of the righteous: and condemn the innocent blood.
22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.
23 He shall recompense them their wickedness, and destroy them in their own malice: yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm XCV. Venite, exultemus.

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord: let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shew ourselves glad in him with psalms.
3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.
4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and fall down: and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7 For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

8 To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me: proved me, and saw my works.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said: It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways.

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Psalm XCVI. Cantate Domino.

O SING unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the whole earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord, and praise his Name: be telling of his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour unto the heathen: and his wonders unto all people.

4 For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praised: he is more to be feared than all gods.
5 As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

6 Glory and worship are before him: power and honour are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people: ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name: bring presents, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lord is King: and that it is he who hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved; and how that he shall judge the people righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord.

13 For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: and with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

Psalm XCVII. Dominus regnavit.

THE Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof.
2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgement are the habitation of his feet.

3 There shall go a fire before him: and burn up his enemies on every side.

4 His lightnings gave shine unto the world: the earth saw it, and was afraid.

5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heavens have declared his righteousness: and all the people have seen his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that worship carved images, and that delight in vain gods: worship him, all ye gods.

8 Sion heard of it, and rejoiced: and the daughters of Judah were glad, because of thy judgements, O Lord.

9 For thou, Lord, art higher than all that are in the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 O ye that love the Lord, see that ye hate the thing which is evil: the Lord preserveth the souls of his saints; he shall deliver them from the hand of the ungodly.

11 There is sprung up a light for the righteous: and joyful gladness for such as are true-hearted.

12 Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous: and give thanks for a remembrance of his holiness.
PSALMS. DAY XIX.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM XCVIII. Cantate Domino.

O SING unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.

2 With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory.

3 The Lord declared his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

4 He hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our God.

5 Shew yourselves joyful unto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, rejoice, and give thanks.

6 Praise the Lord upon the harp: sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

7 With trumpets also, and shawms: O shew yourselves joyful before the Lord the King.

8 Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the Lord: for he is come to judge the earth.

10 With righteousness shall he judge the world: and the people with equity.
PSALM XCIX. Dominus regnavit.

THE Lord is King, be the people never so impatient: he sitteth between the Cherubims, be the earth never so unquiet.

2 The Lord is great in Sion: and high above all people.

3 They shall give thanks unto thy Name: which is great, wonderful, and holy.

4 The king's power loveth judgement; thou hast prepared equity: thou hast executed judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

5 O magnify the Lord our God: and fall down before his footstool, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among such as call upon his Name: these called upon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He spake unto them out of the cloudy pillar: for they kept his testimonies, and the law that he gave them.

8 Thou hearest them, O Lord our God: thou forgavest them, O God, and punishedst their own inventions.

9 O magnify the Lord our God, and worship him upon his holy hill: for the Lord our God is holy.

PSALM C. Jubilate Deo.

O BE joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
2 Be ye sure, that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

3 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Psalm CII. Misericordiam et judicium.

MY song shall be of mercy and judgement: unto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 O let me have understanding: in the way of godliness.

3 When wilt thou come unto me: I will walk in my house with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand; I hate the sins of unfaithfulness: there shall no such cleave unto me.

5 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

6 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour: him will I destroy.

7 Whoso hath also a proud look and high stomach: I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes look upon such as are faithful in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Whoso leadeth a godly life: he shall be my servant.
There shall no deceitful person dwell in my house: he that telleth lies, shall not tarry in my sight.

I shall soon destroy all the ungodly that are in the land: that I may root out all wicked doers from the city of the Lord.

MORNING PRAYER.

Psalm CII. Domine, exaudi.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: incline thine ear unto me when I call; O hear me, and that right soon.

3 For my days are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

4 My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voice of my groaning: my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

6 I am become like a pelican in the wilderness; and like an owl that is in the desert.

7 I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone upon the house-top.

8 Mine enemies revile me all the day long: and they that are mad upon me, are sworn togetherness against me.
9 For I have eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drink with weeping;
10 And that because of thine indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.
11 My days are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grass.
12 But thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.
13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion: for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.
14 And why? thy servants think upon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.
15 The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty;
16 When the Lord shall build up Sion: and when his glory shall appear;
17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor defitute: and despiseth not their desire.
18 This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.
19 For he hath looked down from his sanctuary: out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth;
20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are in captivity: and deliver the children appointed unto death;
21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion; and his worship at Jerusalem;
22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord.
23 He brought down my strength in my journey: and shortened my days.
24 But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age: as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.
25 Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.
26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.*
28 The children of thy servants shall continue: and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

Psalm CIII. Benedic, anima mea.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me praise his holy Name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits;
3 Who forgiveth all thy sin: and healeth all thine infirmities;
4 Who saveth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness;

See the Epistle to the Hebrews, chap. i. v. 10, 11, 12.
5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee young and lufy as an eagle.

6 The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment: for all them that are oppressed with wrong:

7 He shewed his ways unto Moses: his works unto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy: long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our wickednesse.

11 For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercy also toward them that fear him!

12 Look how wide also the east is from the west: so far hath he set our sins from us.

13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth whereof we are made: he remembereth that we are but dust.

15 The days of man are but as grass: for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.
17 But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him: and his righteousness upon children's children;
18 Even upon such as keep his covenant: and think upon his commandments to do them.
19 The Lord hath prepared his seat in heaven: and his kingdom ruleth over all.
20 O praise the Lord, ye angels of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words.
21 O praise the Lord, all ye his host: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.
22 O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM CIV. Benedict, anima mea.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious; thou art clothed with majesty and honour.
2 Thou deckest thyself with light as it were with a garment: and spreadest out the heavens like a curtain.
3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the wings of the wind.
4 He maketh his angels spirits: and his ministers a flaming fire.
5 He laid the foundations of the earth: that it never should move at any time.
6 Thou coverest it with the deep like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hills.
7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voice of thy thunder they are afraid.
8 They go up as high as the hills, and down to the vallies beneath: even unto the place which thou hast appointed for them.
9 Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not pass: neither turn again to cover the earth.
10 He sendeth the springs into the rivers: which run among the hills.
11 All beasts of the field drink thereof: and the wild asses quench their thirst.
12 Beside them shall the fowls of the air have their habitation: and sing among the branches.
13 He watereth the hills from above: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.
14 He bringeth forth grass for the cattle: and green herb for the service of men;
15 That he may bring food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oil to make him a cheerful countenance, and bread to strengthen man's heart.
16 The trees of the Lord* also are full of sap: even the cedars of Libanus which he hath planted;
17 Wherein the birds make their nests: and the fir-trees are a dwelling for the stork.
18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats: and so are the stony rocks for the conies.
19 He appointed the moon for certain seasons: and the sun knoweth his going down.
20 Thou makest darkness that it may be night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do move.
21 The lions roaring after their prey: do seek their meat from God.
22 The sun ariseth, and they get them away together: and lay them down in their dens.
23 Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour: until the evening.
24 O Lord, how manifold are thy works: in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches!
25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.
26 There go the ships, and there is that Leviathan: whom thou hast made to take his pastime therein.
27 These wait all upon thee: that thou mayest give them meat in due season.

*When the Jews represented any thing great, they said it was of or from the Lord.
28 When thou givest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.

29 When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they die, and are turned again to their dust.

30 When thou leavest thy breath go forth, they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

31 The glorious Majesty of the Lord shall endure for ever: the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

32 The earth shall tremble at the look of him: if he do but touch the hills, they shall smoke.

33 I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God, while I have my being.

34 And so shall my words please him: my joy shall be in the Lord.

35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the ungodly shall come to an end: praise thou the Lord, O my soul, praise the Lord.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CV. Confitemini Domino:

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name: tell the people what things he hath done.

2 O let your songs be of him, and praise him: and let your talking be of all his wondrous works.
3 Rejoice in his holy Name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.
4 Seek the Lord and his strength: seek his face evermore.
5 Remember the marvellous works that he hath done: his wonders, and the judgements of his mouth;
6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant: ye children of Jacob his chosen.
7 He is the Lord our God: his judgements are in all the world.
8 He hath been alway mindful of his covenant and promise: that he made to a thousand generations;
9 Even the covenant that he made with Abraham: and the oath that he sware unto Isaac;
10 And appointed the same unto Jacob for a law: and to Israel for an everlasting testament;
11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan: the lot of your inheritance;
12 When they were yet but a few of them: and they strangers in the land;
13 What time as they went from one nation to another: from one kingdom to another people;
14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: but reproved even kings for their fakes;
15 Touch not mine Anointed: and do my prophets no harm.
Moreover, he called for a dearth upon the land: and destroyed all the provision of bread.

But he had sent a man before them: even Joseph, who was sold to be a bond servant;

Whose feet they hurt in the flocks: the iron entered into his soul;

Until the time came that his cause was known: the word of the Lord tried him.

The king sent, and delivered him: the prince of the people let him go free.

He made him lord also of his house: and ruler of all his substance;

That he might inform his princes after his will: and teach his senators wisdom.

Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

And he increased his people exceedingely: and made them stronger than their enemies;

Whose heart turned so, that they hated his people: and dealt untruly with his servants.

Then sent he Moses his servant: and Aaron whom he had chosen;

And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

He sent darkness, and it was dark: and they were not obedient unto his word.

He turned their waters into blood: and slew their fish.
30 Their land brought forth frogs: yea, even in their kings' chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came all manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gave them hail-stones for rain: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and fig-trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, and the grasshoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable: and did eat up all the grass in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote all the first-born in their land: even the chief of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a covering: and fire to give light in the night-season.

39 At their desire he brought quails: and he filled them with the bread of heaven.

40 He opened the rock of stone, and the waters flowed out: so that rivers ran in the dry places.

41 For why? he remembered his holy promise; and Abraham his servant.
42 And he brought forth his people with joy: and his chosen with gladness;

43 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they took the labours of the people in possession;

44 That they might keep his statutes: and observe his laws.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM CVI. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that alway keep judgement: and do righteousness.

4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the felicity of thy chosen: and rejoice in the gladness of thy people, and give thanks with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned with our fathers: we have done amiss, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodness in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea, even at the Red-sea.

8 Nevertheless, he helped them for his Name's sake: that he might make his power to be known.

9 He rebuked the Red-sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the deep, as through a wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the adversary's hand: and delivered them from the hand of the enemy.

11 As for those that troubled them, the waters overwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.

12 Then believed they his words: and sang praise unto him.

13 But within a while they forgot his works: and would not abide his counsel.

14 But lust came upon them in the wilderness: and they tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their desire: and sent leanness withal into their soul.

16 They angered Moses also in the tents: and Aaron the saint of the Lord.

17 So the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt up the ungodly.

19 They made a calf in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.
20 Thus they turned their glory: into the multitude of a calf that eateth hay.
21 And they forgot God their Saviour: who had done so great things in Egypt;
22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham: and fearful things by the Red-sea.
23 So he said, he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap: to turn away his wrathful indignation, left he should destroy them.
24 Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land: and gave no credence unto his word;
25 But murmured in their tents: and hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord.
26 Then lift he up his hand against them: to overthrow them in the wilderness;
27 To cast out their seed among the nations: and to scatter them in the lands.
28 They joined themselves unto Baal-peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.
29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their own inventions: and the plague was great among them.
30 Then stood up Phinees, and prayed: and so the plague ceased.
31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness: among all posterities for evermore.
32 They angered him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes;
33 Because they provoked his spirit: so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.
34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.
35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their works.
36 Infomuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their own decay: yea, they offered their sons and their daughters unto devils;
37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters: whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan; and the land was defiled with blood.
38 Thus were they stained with their own works: and went a whoring with their own inventions.
39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: infomuch that he abhorrred his own inheritance.
40 And he gave them over into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them, were lords over them.
41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subjection.
42 Many a time did he deliver them: but they rebelled against him with their own inventions, and were brought down in their wickedness.
43 Nevertheless, when he saw their adversity: he heard their complaint.
44 He thought upon his covenant, and pitied them, according unto the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that led them away captive to pity them.

45 Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen: that we may give thanks unto thy holy Name, and make our boast of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CVII. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let them give thanks, whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east and from the west: from the north and from the south.

4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no city to dwell in;

5 Hungry and thirsty: their soul fainted in them.
6 So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: and he delivered them from their distress.
7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the city where they dwelt.
8 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!
9 For he satisfieth the empty soul: and filleth the hungry soul with goodness;
10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: being fast bound in misery and iron.
11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counsel of the most Higheft;
12 He also brought down their heart through heaviness: they fell down, and there was none to help them.
13 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress;
14 For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bonds in sunder.
15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!
16 For he hath broken the gates of brass: and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.
17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickedness.
18 Their soul abhorred all manner of meat: and they were even hard at death's door.
19 So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.
20 He sent his word, and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction.
21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!
22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladness!
23 They that go down to the sea in ships: and occupy their business in great waters;
24 These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deep.
25 For at his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waves thereof.
26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep: their soul melteth away because of the trouble.
27 They reel to and fro, and flagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.
28 So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivereth them out of their distress.
29 For he maketh the storm to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.
30 Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!

32 That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people: and praise him in the feast of the elders!

33 Who turneth the floods into a wilderness: and drieth up the water-springs.

34 A fruitful land maketh he barren: for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing water: and water-springs of a dry ground.

36 And there he setteth the hungry: that they may build them a city to dwell in;

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards: to yield them fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39 And again, when they are minished, and brought low: through oppression, through any plague, or trouble;

40 Though he suffer them to be evil-intreated through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness;
41 Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery: and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.
42 The righteous will consider this, and rejoice: and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.
43 Whoso is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall understand the loving-kindness of the Lord.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM CVIII. Paratum cor meum.

O GOD, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing, and give praise with the best member that I have.
2 Awake, thou lute and harp: I myself will awake right early.
3 I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
4 For thy mercy is greater than the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.
5 Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.
6 That thy beloved may be delivered: let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.
7 God hath spoken in his holiness: I will rejoice therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead is mine, and Manassés is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

9 Judah is my law-giver, Moab is my wash-pot: over Edom will I cast out my shoe; upon Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will lead me into the strong city: and who will bring me into Edom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken us, O God: and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 O help us against the enemy: for vain is the help of man.

13 Through God we shall do great acts: and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Psalm CIX. Deus laudum.

HOLD not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the ungodly, yea, the mouth of the deceitful is opened upon me.

2 And they have spoken against me with false tongues: they compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

3 For the love that I had unto them, lo, they now take my contrary part: but I give myself unto prayer.

4 Thus have they rewarded me evil for good: and hatred for my good will.

5 Set thou an ungodly man to be ruler over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.
6 When sentence is given upon him, let him, be condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sin.
7 Let his days be few: and let another take his office.
8 Let his children be fatherless: and his wife a widow.
9 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg their bread: let them seek it also out of desolate places.
10 Let the extortioner consume all that he hath: and let the stranger spoil his labour.
11 Let there be no man to pity him: nor to have compassion upon his fatherless children.
12 Let his posterity be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be clean put out.
13 Let the wickedness of his father be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: and let not the sin of his mother be done away.*
14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may root out the memorial of them from off
the earth;
15 And that, because his mind was not to do good: but persecuted the poor helpless man, that he might slay him that was vexed at the heart.
16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen unto him: He loved not blessing, therefore shall it be far from him.

* See an illustration of these verses in Dr. Arnold's Sermon, p. 4 and 5.
17 He clothed himself with cursing, like as with a raiment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

18 Let it be unto him as the cloak that he hath upon him: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withal.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord unto mine enemies: and to those that speak evil against my soul.

20 But deal thou with me, O Lord God, according unto thy Name: for sweet is thy mercy.

21 O deliver me, for I am helpless and poor: and my heart is wounded within me.

22 I go hence like the shadow that departeth: and am driven away as the grasshopper.

23 My knees are weak through fasting: my flesh is dried up for want of fatness.

24 I became also a reproach unto them: they that looked upon me, shaked their heads.

25 Help me, O Lord my God: O save me according to thy mercy.

26 And they shall know, how that this is thy hand: and that thou, Lord, hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet bless thou: and let them be confounded that rise up against me; but let thy servant rejoice.

28 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame: and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a cloak.
29 As for me, I will give great thanks unto the Lord with my mouth: and praise him among the multitude;

30 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor: to save his soul from unrighteous judges.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CX. Dixit Dominus.

THE Lord said unto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Sion: be thou ruler, even in the midst among thine enemies.

3 In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will-offerings with an holy worship: the dew of thy birth is of the womb of the morning.

4 The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedech.

5 The Lord upon thy right hand: shall wound even kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen; he shall fill the places with the dead bodies: and smite in sunder the heads over divers countries.
Psalms. Day XXIII.

7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up his head.

Psalm CXI. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithful, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he shall ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works: that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment: all his commandments are true.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever; holy and reverend is his Name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do thereafter; the praise of it endureth for ever.
PSALM CXII. Beatus vir.

BLESSED is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his commandments.

2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness: he is merciful, loving, and righteous.

5 A good man is merciful, and lendeth: and will guide his words with discretion.

6 For he shall never be moved: and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings: for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.

8 His heart is established, and will not shrink: until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor: and his righteousness remaineth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him: he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away; the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM CXIII. Laudate, pueri.

PRAISE the Lord, ye servants: O praise the Name of the Lord.

2 Blessed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.
The Lord’s Name is praised: from the rising up of the sun, unto the going down of the same.

The Lord is high above all heathen: and his glory above the heavens.

Who is like unto the Lord our God, that hath his dwelling so high: and yet humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and earth?

He taketh up the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poor out of the mire;

That he may set him with the princes: even with the princes of his people.

He maketh the barren woman to keep house: and to be a joyful mother of children.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm CXIV. In exitu Israel.

WHEN Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people;

Judah was his sanctuary: and Israel his dominion.

The sea saw that, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

The mountains skipped like rams: and the little hills like young sheep.

What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?
6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams: and ye little hills, like young sheep?
7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Jacob;
8 Who turned the hard rock into a standing water: and the flint-stone into a springing well.

Psalm CXV. Non nobis, Domine.

NOT unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name give the praise: for thy loving mercy, and for thy truth's fake.

2 Wherefore shall the heathen say: Where is now their God?
3 As for our God, he is in heaven: he hath done whatsoever pleased him.
4 Their idols are silver and gold: even the work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, and speak not: eyes have they, and see not.
6 They have ears, and hear not: noses have they, and smell not.
7 They have hands, and handle not; feet have they, and walk not: neither speak they through their throat.
8 They that make them are like unto them: and so are all such, as put their trust in them.
9 But thou, house of Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their succour and defence.
10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.
11 Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lord hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us: even he shall bless the house of Israel, he shall bless the house of Aaron.

13 He shall bless them that fear the Lord: both small and great.

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more: you and your children.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord: who made heaven and earth.

16 All the whole heavens are the Lord's: the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 The dead praise not thee, O Lord: neither all they that go down into silence.

18 But we will praise the Lord: from this time forth for evermore. Praise the Lord.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CXVI. Dilexi, quoniam.

I AM well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voice of my prayer;

2 That he hath inclined his ear unto me: therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the pains of hell gat hold upon me.
4 I shall find trouble and heaviness; and I will call upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous: yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple: I was in misery, and he helped me.

7 Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? thou hast delivered my soul from death: mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before the Lord: in the land of the living.

10 I believed, and therefore will I speak; but I was sore troubled: I said in my haste, All men are liars.*

11 What reward shall I give unto the Lord: for all the benefits that he hath done unto me?

12 I will receive the cup of salvation: and call upon the Name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vows now in the presence of all his people: right dear in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

14 Behold, O Lord, how that I am thy servant: I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid; thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

* A sword is upon the liars; and they shall be dismayed. Jer. 1. 36.
16 I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in thelight of all his people: in the courts of the Lord's house, even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
Praise the Lord.

Psalm CXVII. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord, all ye heathen: praise him, all ye nations.
2 For his merciful kindness is ever more and more towards us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord.

Psalm CXVIII. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let Israel now confess, that he is gracious:
and that his mercy endureth for ever.
3 Let the house of Aaron now confess: that his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Yea, let them now that fear the Lord confess: that his mercy endureth for ever.
5 I called upon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard me at large.
6 The Lord is on my side: I will not fear
what man doeth unto me.
7 The Lord taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon mine
enemies.
8 It is better to trust in the Lord: than to put any confidence in man.
9 It is better to trust in the Lord: than to put any confidence in princes.
10 All nations compassed me round about: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.
11 They kept me in on every side, they kept me in, I say, on every side: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.
12 They came about me like bees, and are extinct even as the fire among the thorns: for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.
13 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the Lord was my help.
14 The Lord is my strength, and my song: and is become my salvation.
15 The voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.
16 The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass.
17 I shall not die, but live: and declare the works of the Lord.
18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected me: but he hath not given me over unto death.
19 Open me the gates of righteousness: that I may go into them, and give thanks unto the Lord.
20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.
21 I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my salvation.

22 The same stone which the builders refused: is become the head-stone in the corner.*

23 This is the Lord's doing: and it is marvelous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Help me now, O Lord: O Lord, send us now prosperity.

26 Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord: we have wished you good luck, ye that are of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord, who hath shewed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will thank thee: thou art my God, and I will praise thee.

29 O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM CXIX. Beati immaculati. BLESSED are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies: and seek him with their whole heart.

* See 1 Pet. ii. 7.
3 For they who do no wickedness: walk in his ways.
4 Thou hast charged: that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.
5 O that my ways were made so direct: that I might keep thy statutes!
6 So shall I not be confounded: while I have respect unto all thy commandments.
7 I will thank thee with an unseigned heart: when I shall have learned the judgements of thy righteousness.
8 I will keep thy ceremonies: O forsake me not utterly.

In quo corriget?

WHEREWITH THAL shall a young man cleanse his way: even by ruling himself after thy word.

2 With my whole heart have I fought thee: O let me not go wrong out of thy commandments.

3 Thy words have I hid within my heart: that I should not sin against thee.

4 Blessed art thou, O Lord: O teach me thy statutes.

5 With my lips have I been telling: of all the judgments of thy mouth.

6 I have had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies: as in all manner of riches.

7 I will talk of thy commandments: and have respect unto thy ways.
8 My delight shall be in thy statutes: and I will not forget thy word.

Retribue servo tuo.

O DO well unto thy servant: that I may live, and keep thy word.

2 Open thou mine eyes: that I may see the wondrous things of thy law.

3 I am a stranger upon earth: O hide not thy commandments from me.

4 My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire: that it hath alway unto thy judgements.

5 Thou hast rebuked the proud: and cursed are they that do err from thy commandments.

6 O turn from me shame and rebuke: for I have kept thy testimonies.

7 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.

8 For thy testimonies are my delight: and my counsellors.

Adhaesit pavimento.

MY soul cleaveth to the dust: O quicken thou me according to thy word.

2 I have acknowledged my ways, and thou hearest me: O teach me thy statutes.

3 Make me to understand the way of thy commandments: and so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

4 My soul melteth away for very heaviness: comfort thou me according unto thy word.
5 Take from me the way of lying: and cause thou me to make much of thy law.
6 I have chosen the way of truth: and thy judgements have I laid before me.
7 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O Lord, confound me not.
8 I will run the way of thy commandments: when thou hast set my heart at liberty.

MORNING PRAYER.

Legem pone.

TEACH me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keep it unto the end.
2 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law: yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.
3 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.
4 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies: and not to covetousness.
5 O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.
6 O establish thy word in thy servant: that I may fear thee.
7 Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of: for thy judgements are good.
8 Behold, my delight is in thy commandments: O quicken me in thy righteousness.
LET thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord: even thy salvation, according unto thy word.

2 So shall I make answer unto my blasphemers: for my trust is in thy word.

3 O take not the word of thy truth utterly out of my mouth: for my hope is in thy judgements.

4 So shall I alway keep thy law: yea, for ever and ever.

5 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy commandments.

6 I will speak of thy testimonies also, even before kings: and will not be ashamed.

7 And my delight shall be in thy commandments: which I have loved.

8 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved: and my study shall be in thy statutes.

Memor esto servi tui.

O THINK upon thy servant, as concerning thy word: wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust.

2 The same is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickened me.

3 The proud have had me exceedingly in derision: yet have I not shrunked from thy law;

4 For I remembered thine everlasting judgements, O Lord: and received comfort.
5 I am horribly afraid: for the ungodly that forfake thy law.
6 Thy statutes have been my songs: in the house of my pilgrimage.
7 I have thought upon thy Name, O Lord, in the night-season: and have kept thy law.
8 This I had: because I kept thy commandments.

Portio mea, Domine.

THOU art my portion, O Lord: I have promised to keep thy law.
2 I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart: O be merciful unto me according to thy word.
3 I called mine own ways to remembrance: and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.
4 I made haste, and prolonged not the time: to keep thy commandments.
5 The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.
6 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee: because of thy righteous judgements.
7 I am a companion of all them that fear thee: and keep thy commandments.
8 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecisti.

O LORD, thou hast dealt graciously with thy servant: according unto thy word.
2 O learn me true understanding and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

3 Before I was troubled, I went wrong: but now have I kept thy word.

4 Thou art good and gracious: O teach me thy statutes.

5 The proud have imagined a lie against me: but I will keep thy commandments with my whole heart.

6 Their heart is as fat as brawn: but my delight hath been in thy law.

7 It is good for me that I have been in trouble: that I may learn thy statutes.

8 The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me: than thousands of gold and silver.

EVENING PRAYER.

Manus tuæ fecerunt me.

THY hands have made me and fashioned me: O give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

2 They that fear thee, will be glad when they see me: because I have put my trust in thy word.

3 I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are right: and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.
4 O let thy merciful kindnefs be my comfort: according to thy word unto thy fervant.
5 O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.
6 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandments.
7 Let such as fear thee, and have known thy testimonies: be turned unto me.
8 O let my heart be found in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Defecit anima mea.
MY soul hath longed for thy salvation: and I have a good hope because of thy word.
2 Mine eyes long for thy word: saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?
3 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes.
4 How many are the days of thy fervant: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me?
5 The proud have digged pits for me: which are not after thy law.
6 All thy commandments are true: they persecute me falsely; O be thou my help.
7 They had almost made an end of me upon earth: but I forsook not thy commandments.
8 O quicken me after thy loving-kindness: and so shall I keep the testimonies of thy mouth.
In aeternum, Domine.

O LORD, thy word: endureth for ever in heaven.

2 Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another: thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.

3 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things serve thee.

4 If my delight had not been in thy law: I should have perished in my trouble.

5 I will never forget thy commandments: for with them thou hast quickened me.

6 I am thine, O save me: for I have fought thy commandments.

7 The ungodly laid wait for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

8 I see that all things come to an end: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi!

LORD, what love have I unto thy law: all the day long is my study in it.

2 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

3 I have more understanding than my teachers: for thy testimonies are my study.

4 I am wiser than the aged: because I keep thy commandments.
5 I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.
6 I have not shrunk from thy judgements: for thou teachest me.
7 O how sweet are thy words unto my throat: yea, sweeter than honey unto my mouth!
8 Through thy commandments I get understanding: therefore I hate all evil ways.

MORNING PRAYER.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

THY word is a lantern unto my feet: and a light unto my paths.

2 I have sworn, and am steadfastly purposed: to keep thy righteous judgements.

3 I am troubled above measure: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy word.

4 Let the free-will-offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teach me thy judgements.

5 My soul is alway in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.

6 The ungodly have laid a snare for me: but yet I swerved not from thy commandments.

7 Thy testimonies have I claimed as mine heritage for ever: and why? they are the very joy of my heart.
8 I have applied my heart to fulfil thy statutes alway: even unto the end.

Iniquos odio habui.

I HATE them that imagine evil things: but thy law do I love.

2 Thou art my defence and shield: and my trust is in thy word.

3 Away from me, ye wicked: I will keep the commandments of my God.

4 O establish me according to thy word, that I may live: and let me not be disappointed of my hope.

5 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be ever in thy statutes.

6 Thou hast trodden down all them that depart from thy statutes: for they imagine but deceit.

7 Thou puttest away all the ungodly of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

8 My flesh trembleth* for fear of thee: and I am afraid of thy judgements.

Feci judicium.

I DEAL with the thing that is lawful and right: O give me not over unto mine oppressors.

2 Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good: that the proud do me no wrong.

3 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health: and for the word of thy righteousness.

* To this man will I look, that trembleth at my word. Isaiah lxvi. 2.
Psalms. Day XXVI.

4 O deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy: and teach me thy statutes.

5 I am thy servant, O grant me understanding: that I may know thy testimonies.

6 It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they have destroyed thy law.

7 For I love thy commandments: above gold and precious stone.

8 Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments: and all false ways I utterly abhor.

Mirabilia.

THY testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

2 When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and understanding unto the simple.

3 I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy commandments.

4 O look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me: as thou usest to do unto those that love thy Name.

5 Order my steps in thy word: and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.

6 O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men: and so shall I keep thy commandments.

7 Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy servant: and teach me thy statutes.

8 Mine eyes gush out with water: because men keep not thy law.
Jūtus es, Domine.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O Lord: and true is thy judgement.

2 The testimonies that thou hast commanded: are exceeding righteous and true.

3 My zeal hath even consumed me: because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

4 Thy word is tried to the uttermost: and thy servant loveth it.

5 I am small, and of no reputation: yet do I not forget thy commandments.

6 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness: and thy law is the truth.

7 Trouble and heaviness have taken hold upon me: yet is my delight in thy commandments.

8 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: O grant me understanding, and I shall live.

EVENING PRAYER.

Clamavi in toto corde meo.

I CALL with my whole heart: hear me, O Lord, I will keep thy statutes;

2 Yea, even unto thee do I call: help me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.

3 Early in the morning do I cry unto thee: for in thy word is my trust.
4 Mine eyes prevent the night watches: that I might be occupied in thy words.
5 Hear my voice, O Lord, according unto thy loving-kindness: quicken me according as thou art wont.
6 They draw nigh that of malice persecute me: and are far from thy law.
7 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy commandments are true.
8 As concerning thy testimonies, I have known long since: that thou hast grounded them for ever.

Vide humilitatem.

O CONSIDER mine adversity, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.
2 Avenge thou my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.
3 Health is far from the ungodly: for they regard not thy statutes.
4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken me as thou art wont.
5 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet I do not swerve from thy testimonies.
6 It grieveth me when I see the transgressors: because they keep not thy law.
7 Consider, O Lord, how I love thy commandments: O quicken me according to thy loving-kindness.
8 Thy word is true from everlasting: all the judgments of thy righteousness endure for evermore.
Psalms. Day XXVI.

Principes persecuti sunt.

PRINCES have perfecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

2 I am as glad of thy word: as one that findeth great spoils.

3 As for lies, I hate and abhor them: but thy law do I love.

4 Seven times a day do I praise thee: because of thy righteous judgements.

5 Great is the peace that they have, who love thy law: and they are not offended at it.

6 Lord, I have looked for thy saving health: and done after thy commandments.

7 My soul hath kept thy testimonies: and loved them exceedingly.

8 I have kept thy commandments and testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

LET my complaint come before thee, O Lord: give me understanding according to thy word.

2 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

3 My lips shall speak of thy praise: when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

4 Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteous.

5 Let thine hand help me: for I have chosen thy commandments.
6 I have longed for thy saving health, O Lord: and in thy law is my delight.

7 O let my soul live, and it shall praise thee: and thy judgements shall help me.

8 I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost: O seek thy servant, for I do not forget thy commandments.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CXX. Ad Dominum.

WHEN I was in trouble, I called upon the Lord: and he heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

3 What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false tongue: even mighty and sharp arrows, with hot burning coals.

4 Woe is me, that I am constrained to dwell with Mezech: and to have my habitation among the tents of Kedar!

5 My soul hath long dwelt among them: that are enemies unto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speak unto them thereof: they make them ready to battle.

PSALM CXXI. Levavi oculos.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help.
My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved, and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord himself is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth for evermore.

Psalm CXXII. Lætatus sum.

I was glad when they said unto me: We will go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates: O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.

For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord: to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

For there is the seat of judgement: even the seat of the house of David.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.*

* See the late Rev. and Ingenious Mr. Roberts's admired Sermon on this Passage.
7 Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions sake: I will wish thee prosperity.
9 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seek to do thee good.

Psalm CXXIII. Ad te levavi oculos meos.
UNTO thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
2 Behold, even as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us.
3 Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us: for we are utterly despised,
4 Our soul is filled with the scornful reproof of the wealthy: and with the despitefulness of the proud.

Psalm CXXIV, Nisi quia Dominus.
IF the Lord himself had not been on our side, now may Israel say: if the Lord himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against us;
2 They had swallowed us up quick: when they were so wrathfully displeased at us;
3 Yea, the waters had drowned us: and the stream had gone over our soul.
4 The deep waters of the proud: had gone even over our soul.
5 But praised be the Lord: who hath not given us over for a prey unto their teeth.
6 Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken, and we are delivered.
7 Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

Psalm CXXV. Qui confidunt.

THEY that put their trust in the Lord, shall be even as the mount Sion: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.
2 The hills stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.
3 For the rod of the ungodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous: left the righteous put their hand unto wickedness.
4 Do well, O Lord: unto those that are good and true of heart.
5 As for such as turn back unto their own wickedness: the Lord shall lead them forth with the evil-doers; but peace shall be upon Israel.

Evening Prayer.

Psalm CXXVI. In convertendo.

WHEN the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion: then were we like unto them that dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with joy.

Then said they among the heathen: The Lord hath done great things for them.

Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already: whereof we rejoice.

Turn our captivity, O Lord: as the rivers in the south.

They that sow in tears: shall reap in joy.

He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed: shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Psalm CXXVII. nisi Dominus.

Except the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

Except the Lord keep the city: the watchman waketh but in vain.

It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise up early, and so late take rest, and eat the bread of carefulness: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Lo, children and the fruit of the womb: are an heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord.

Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant: even so are the young children.

Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.
PSALM CXXVIII. Beati omnes.

BLESSED are all they that fear the Lord: and walk in his ways.

1 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

2 Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine: upon the walls of thine house.

3 Thy children like the olive-branches: round about thy table.

4 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed: that fear-eth the Lord.

5 The Lord from out of Sion shall so bless thee: that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long;

6 Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children: and peace upon Israel.

PSALM CXXIX. Sæpe expugnaverunt.

MANY a time have they fought against me from my youth up: may Israel now say;

1 Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up: but they have not prevailed against me.

2 The plowers plowed upon my back: and made long furrows.

3 But the righteous Lord: hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

4 Let them be confounded and turned backward: as many as have evil will at Sion.
6 Let them be even as the grass growing upon the house-tops: which withereth afore it be pluck-ed up;

7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand: neither he that bindeth up the sheaves, his bosom.

8 So that they who go by, say not so much as, The Lord prosper you: we wish you good luck in the Name of the Lord.

Psalm CXXX. De profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

2 O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint.

3 If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

5 I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him: in his word is my trust.

6 My soul fleeth unto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel, trust in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous re-demption.

8 And he shall redeem Israel: from all his sins.

Psalm CXXXI. Domine, non est.

LORD, I am not high minded: I have no proud looks.
2 I do not exercise myself in great matters: which are too high for me.

3 But I restrain my soul, and keep it low, like as a child that is weaned from his mother: yea, my soul is even as a weaned child.

4 O Israel, trust in the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CXXXII. Memento, Domine.

LORD, remember David: and all his trouble;

2 How he sware unto the Lord: and vowed a vow unto the Almighty God of Jacob;

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house: nor climb up into my bed;

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eye-lids to slumber: neither the temples of my head to take any rest;

5 Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord: an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata:* and found it in the wood.

7 We will go into his tabernacle: and fall low on our knees before his footstool:

* Out of Ephrata shall he come forth that is to be Ruler in Israel. Mic. v. 2.
8 Arise, O Lord, into thy resting-place: thou, and the ark of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness: and let thy saints sing with joyfulness.
10 For thy servant David's sake: turn not away the presence of thine Anointed.
11 The Lord hath made a faithful oath unto David: and he shall not shrink from it;
12 Of the fruit of thy body: shall I set upon thy seat.
13 If thy children will keep my covenant, and my testimonies that I shall learn them: their children also shall sit upon thy seat for evermore.
14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for himself: he hath longed for her.
15 This shall be my rest for ever: here will I dwell, for I have a delight therein.
16 I will bless her viuitals with increase: and will satisfy her poor with bread.
17 I will deck her priests with health: and her saints shall rejoice and sing.
18 There shall I make the horn of David to flourish: I have ordained a lantern for mine Anointed.
19 As for his enemies, I shall clothe them with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.
2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard: even unto Aaron's beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell upon the hill of Sion.

4 For there the Lord promised his blessing: and life for evermore.

Psalm CXXXIV. Ecce nunc.

Behold now, praise the Lord: all ye servants of the Lord;

2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord: even in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary: and praise the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heaven and earth: give thee blessing out of Sion.

Psalm CXXXV. Laudate Nomen.

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord: praise it, O ye servants of the Lord;

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord: in the courts of the house of our God.

3 O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O sing praises unto his Name, for it is lovely.

4 For why? the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself: and Israel for his own possession.

5 For I know that the Lord is great: and that our Lord is above all gods.
6 Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth: in the sea, and in all deep places.

7 He bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world: and sendeth forth lightnings with the rain, bringing the winds out of his treasures.

8 He smote the first-born of Egypt: both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O thou land of Egypt: upon Pharaoh and all his servants.

10 He smote divers nations: and slew mighty kings;

11 Sehon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Bashan: and all the kingdoms of Canaan;

12 And gave their land to be an heritage: even an heritage unto Israel his people.

13 Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever: so doth thy memorial, O Lord, from one generation to another.

14 For the Lord will avenge his people: and be gracious unto his servants.

15 As for the images of the heathen, they are but silver and gold: the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, and speak not: eyes have they, but they see not.

17 They have ears, and yet they hear not: neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18 They that make them are like unto them: and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord, ye house of Israel: praise the Lord, ye house of Aaron.

20 Praise the Lord, ye house of Levi: ye that fear the Lord, praise the Lord.

21 Praised be the Lord out of Sion: who dwelleth at Jerusalem.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm CXXXVI. Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

2 O give thanks unto the God of all gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.

3 O thank the Lord of all lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Who only doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.

5 Who by his excellent wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

6 Who laid out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

7 Who hath made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever;

8 The sun to rule the day: for his mercy endureth for ever;
9. The moon and the stars to govern the night: for his mercy endureth for ever.
10. Who smote Egypt with their first-born: for his mercy endureth for ever;
11. And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever;
12. With a mighty hand and stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever:
13. Who divided the Red sea in two parts: for his mercy endureth for ever;
14. And made Israel to go through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever.
15. But as for Pharaoh and his host, he overthrew them in the Red sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.
16. Who led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever.
17. Who smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever;
18. Yea, and slew mighty kings: for his mercy endureth for ever;
19. Sehon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever;
20. And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever;
21. And gave away their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever;
22. Even for an heritage unto Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.
23 Who remembered us when we were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for ever;
24 And hath delivered us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.
25 Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever.
26 O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.
27 O give thanks unto the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

Psalm CXXXVII. Super flumina.

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept: when we remembered thee, O Sion.
2 As for our harps, we hanged them up: upon the trees that are therein.
3 For they that led us away captive, required of us then a song, and melody in our heaviness: Sing us one of the songs of Sion.
4 How shall we sing the Lord's song: in a strange land?
5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.
6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth: yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth.
7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem: how they said, Down with it, down with it, even to the ground.
8 O daughter of Babylon, wafted with misery: yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

9 Blessed shall he be, that taketh thy children: and throweth them against the stones.

Psalm CXXXVIII. Confitebor tibi.
I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth: for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy word above all things.

3 When I called upon thee, thou hearest me: and enduedst my soul with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they have heard the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The Lord shall make good his loving-kindness toward me: yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever; despise not then the works of thine own hands.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CXXXIX. Domine, probasti.

O LORD, thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine up-rising; thou understandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my ways.

3 For lo, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before: and laid thine hand upon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me: I cannot attain unto it.

6 Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit: or whither shall I go then from thy presence?

7 If I climb up into heaven, thou art there: if I go down to hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea;

9 Even there also shall thy hand lead me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me: then shall my night be turned to day.
11 Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day: the darkness and light to thee are both alike.

12 For my reins are thine: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

13 I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect: and in thy book were all my members written;

16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How dear are thy counsels unto me, O God: O how great is the sum of them!

18 If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand: when I wake up, I am present with thee.

19 Wilt thou not slay the wicked, O God: depart from me, ye blood-thirsty men;

20 For they speak unrighteously against thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved with those, that rise up against thee?
22 Yea, I hate them right fore: even as though they were mine enemies.

23 Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart: prove me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me: and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalm CXL. Eripe me, Domine.

DELIVER me, O Lord, from the evil man: and preserve me from the wicked man.

2 Who imagine mischief in their hearts: and stir up strife all the day long.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adders poison is under their lips.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ungodly: preserve me from the wicked men, who are purposed to overthrow my goings.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a net abroad with cords: yea, and set traps in my way.

6 I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Let not the ungodly have his desire, O Lord: let not his mischievous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them: that compass me about.
10 Let hot burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they never rise up again.

11 A man full of words shall not prosper upon the earth: evil shall hunt the wicked person to overthrow him.

12 Sure I am, that the Lord will avenge the poor: and maintain the cause of the helpless.

13 The righteous also shall give thanks unto thy Name: and the just shall continue in thy sight.

Psalm CXLII. Domine, clamavi.

LORD, I call upon thee, haste thee unto me: and consider my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth: and keep the door of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing: let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balms break my head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickedness.

7 Let their judges be overthrown in stony places: that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.
8 Our bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.

9 But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul.

10 Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together: and let me ever escape them.

EVENING PRAYER.

PSALM CXLII. Voce mea ad Dominum.

I CRIED unto the Lord with my voice: yea, even unto the Lord did I make my supprication.

2 I poured out my complaints before him: and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heaviness thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also upon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee unto: and no man cared for my soul.

6 I cried unto thee, O Lord, and said: Thou art my hope, and my portion in the land of the living.
Psalm CXLIII. Domine, exaudi.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken unto me for thy truth and righteousness sake;

And enter not into judgement with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.*

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darkness, as the men that have been long dead.

Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.

Yet do I remember the time past; I muse upon all thy works: yea, I exercise myself in the works of thy hands.

I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul gaspeth unto thee as a thirsty land.

Hear me, O Lord, and that soon, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

* See Epistle to the Romans, iii. 20.
8 O let me hear thy loving-kindness betimes in the morning; for in thee is my trust: shew thou me the way that I should walk in; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

9 Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee unto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee; for thou art my God: let thy loving Spirit lead me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Name's sake: and for thy righteousness sake bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodness slay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vex my soul; for I am thy servant.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSALM CXLIV. Benedictus Dominus.

BLESSED be the Lord my strength: who teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight;

2 My hope and my fortress; my castle and deliverer; my defender in whom I trust: who subdueth my people that is under me.

3 Lord, what is man, that thou haft such respect unto him: or the son of man, that thou so regardest him?
4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow.
5 Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6 Cast forth thy lightning, and tear them: shoot out thine arrows, and consume them.
7 Send down thine hand from above: deliver me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children;
8 Whose mouth talketh of vanity: and their right hand is a right hand of wickedness.
9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: and sing praises unto thee upon a ten-stringed lute.
10 Thou hast given victory unto kings: and hast delivered David thy servant from the peril of the sword.
11 Save me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children: whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.
12 That our sons may grow up as the young plants: and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple.
13 That our garners may be full and plenteous with all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets.
14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay: no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.
15 Happy are the people that are in such a case: yea, blessed are the people who have the Lord for their God.

Psalm CXLV. Exaltabo te, Deus.

1 I WILL magnify thee, O God, my King: and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I give thanks unto thee: and praise thy Name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and marvellous, worthy to be praised: there is no end of his greatness.

4 One generation shall praise thy works unto another: and declare thy power.

5 As for me, I will be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy praise and wondrous works;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvellous acts: and I will also tell of thy greatness.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed: and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, and merciful: long-suffering, and of great goodness.

9 The Lord is loving unto every man: and his mercy is over all his works.

10 All thy works praise thee, O Lord: and thy faints give thanks unto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy kingdom: and talk of thy power;

3 x
12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness of thy kingdom: might be known unto men.
13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom: and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.
14 The Lord upholdeth all such as fall: and lifteth up all those that are down.
15 The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season.
16 Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.
17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways: and holy in all his works.
18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: yea, all such as call upon him faithfully.
19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will help them.
20 The Lord preserveth all them that love him: but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.
21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name for ever and ever.

Psalm CXLVI. Lauda, anima mea.
PRAISE the Lord, O my soul; while I live will I praise the Lord: yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God.
2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man: for there is no help in them.
For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turn again to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish.

Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help: and whose hope is in the Lord his God;

Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: who keepeth his promise for ever;

Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: who feedeth the hungry.

The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giveth sight to the blind.

The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous.

The Lord careth for the strangers; he defendeth the fatherless and widow: as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down.

The Lord thy God, O Sion, shall be King for evermore: and throughout all generations.

EVENING PRAYER.

Psalm CXLVII. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord; for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God: yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.
2 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem: and gather together the out-cafts of Israel.
3 He healeth those that are broken in heart: and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.
4 He telleth the number of the stars: and calleth them all by their names.
5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wisdom is infinite.
6 The Lord setteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.
7 O sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving: sing praises upon the harp unto our God;
8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth: and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.
9 Who giveth fodder unto the cattle: and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.
10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neither delighteth he in any man's legs.
11 But the Lord's delight is in them that fear him: and put their trust in his mercy.
12 Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem: praise thy God, O Sion;
13 For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates: and hath blessed thy children within thee.
14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.
15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: and his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giveth snow like wool: and scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who is able to abide his frost?

18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob: his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.

Psalm CXLVIII. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE the Lord of heaven: praise him in the height.

2 Praise him, all ye angels of his: praise him, all his host.

3 Praise him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars and light.

4 Praise him, all ye heavens: and ye waters that are above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the Lord: for he spake the word, and they were made; he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for ever and ever: he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.
7 Praise the Lord upon earth: ye dragons, and all deeps;
8 Fire and hail, snow and vapours: wind and storm, fulfilling his word;
9 Mountains and all hills: fruitful trees and all cedars;
10 Beasts and all cattle: worms and feathered fowls;
11 Kings of the earth and all people: princes and all judges of the world;
12 Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord: for his Name only is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.
13 He shall exalt the horn* of his people; all his faints shall praise him: even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him.

Psalm CXLIX. Cantate Domino.

O SING unto the Lord a new song: let the congregation of faints praise him.
2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be joyful in their King.
3 Let them praise his Name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with tabret and harp.
4 For the Lord hath pleasure in his people: and helpeth the meek-hearted.
5 Let the faints be joyful with glory: let them rejoice in their beds.

* See Dr. Willan's History of Christ, note in page 6.
6 Let the praises of God be in their mouth: and a two-edged sword in their hands;
7 To be avenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people;
8 To bind their kings in chains: and their nobles with links of iron.
9 That they may be avenged of them, as it is written: Such honour have all his faints.

Psalm CL. Laudate Dominum.

O PRAISE God in his holiness: praise him in the firmament of his power.
2 Praise him in his noble acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.
3 Praise him in the sound of the trumpet: praise him upon the lute and harp.
4 Praise him in the cymbals and dances: praise him upon the strings and pipe.
5 Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals: praise him upon the loud cymbals.
6 Let every thing that hath breath: praise the Lord.
PRAYERS AT SEA.
FORMS OF PRAYER
TO BE USED AT SEA.

I The Morning and Evening Service to be used daily at Sea, shall be the same which is appointed in the Book of Common Prayer.

II These two following Prayers are to be also used in his Majesty's Navy every Day.

O ETERNAL Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens, and rulest the raging of the Sea; who hast compassed the waters with bounds, until day and night come to an end; Be pleased to receive into thy almighty and most gracious Protection the persons of us thy servants, and the fleet in which we serve. Preserve us from the dangers of the Sea, and from the violence of the Enemy; that we may be a safeguard unto our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE and his Kingdoms, and a security for such as pass on the Seas upon their lawful occasions; that the inhabitants of our island may in peace and quietness serve thee our God; and that we may return in safety to enjoy the blessings of the land, with the fruits of our labours; and with a thankful remembrance of thy mercies to praise and glorify thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect.

PREVENT us, O Lord, in all our doings,

with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers to be Used in Storms at Sea.

O MOST powerful and glorious Lord God,

at whose command the winds blow, and lift up the waves of the Sea, and who stillest the rage thereof; We thy creatures, but miserable sinners, do in this our great distress cry unto thee for help; Save, Lord, or else we perish. We confess, when we have been safe, and seen all things quiet about us, we have forgot thee our God, and refused to hearken to the still voice of thy Word, and to obey thy Commandments: But now we see how terrible thou art in all thy works of wonder; the great God to be feared above all; and therefore we adore thy Divine Majesty, acknowledging thy power, and imploring thy goodnefs. Help, Lord, and save us for thy mercies sake in Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

Or this:

O MOST glorious and gracious Lord God, who dwellest in heaven, but beholdest all things below; Look down, we beseech thee, and hear us, calling out of the depth of misery, and out of the jaws of this death, which is ready now to swallow us up: Save, Lord, or else we perish. The living, the living shall praise thee. O send thy word of command to rebuke the raging Winds, and the roaring Sea; that we being delivered from this distress, may live to serve thee, and to glorify thy Name all the days of our life. Hear, Lord, and save us, for the infinite merits of our blessed Saviour, thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Prayer to be said before a Fight at Sea against an Enemy.

O MOST powerful and glorious Lord God, the Lord of hosts, that rulest and commandest all things; Thou sittest in the Throne judging right; and therefore we make our Address to thy Divine Majesty in this our necessity; that thou wouldest take the cause into thine own hand and judge between us and our Enemies. Stir up thy strength, O Lord, and come and help us; for thou givest not alway the battle to the strong, but canst save by many or by few. O let not our sins now cry against us for vengeance; but hear us thy poor servants, begging mercy, and imploring thy help, and that thou wouldest be a defence unto us against the face of the Enemy. Make it appear that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Short Prayers for single Persons, that cannot meet to join in Prayer with others, by reason of the Fight, or Storm.

GENERAL PRAYERS.

LORD, be merciful to us sinners, and save us for thy mercies sake.
Thou art the great God, that hast made and rulest all things: O deliver us for thy Name's sake.
Thou art the great God to be feared above all: O save us, that we may praise thee.

Special Prayers with respect to the Enemy.

THOU, O Lord, art just and powerful: O defend our cause against the face of the Enemy.
O God, thou art a strong tower of defence to all that flee unto thee: O save us from the violence of the Enemy.
O Lord of hosts, fight for us; that we may glorify thee.
O suffer us not to sink under the weight of our sins, or the violence of the enemy.
O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Name's sake.
FORMS OF PRAYER TO BE USED AT SEA. 629

Short Prayers in respect of a Storm.

THOU, O Lord, that stillest the raging of the Sea; hear, hear us, and save us, that we perish not.

O blessed Saviour, that didst save thy disciples ready to perish in a Storm;* hear us, and save us, we beseech thee.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
O Lord, hear us.
O Christ, hear us.

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, have mercy upon us, save us now and evermore. Amen.

OUR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done in Earth, As it is in Heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

* When there shall be imminent Danger, as many as can be spared from necessary Service in the Ship shall be called together, and make an humble Confession of their Sins to God: in which every one ought seriously to reflect upon those particular Sins, of which his Conscience shall accuse him; saying as followeth.

THE CONFESSION.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we from time to time most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And be heartily sorry for these our mis-doings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name, Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I Then shall the Priest, if there be any in the Ship, pronounce this Absolution.

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them which with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring THANKSGIVING AFTER A STORM.

Psalm lxvi. Jubilate Deo.
O be joyful in God, all ye lands, &c.
   Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and
to the Holy Ghost;
   As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever
shall be: world without end. Amen.

Psalm cvii. Confitemini Domino.
O give thanks unto the Lord, &c.
   Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and
to the Holy Ghost;
   As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever
shall be: world without end. Amen.

Collects of Thanksgiving.

O MOST blessed and glorious Lord God, who art of infinite goodness and mercy; We thy poor creatures, whom thou hast made and preserved, holding our souls in life, and now rescuing us out of the jaws of death, humbly present ourselves again before thy Divine Majesty, to offer a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving for that thou heard-est us when we called in our trouble, and didst not cast out our prayer, which we made before thee in our great distress: even when we gave all for lost, our Ship, our Goods, our Lives, then didst thou mercifully look upon us, and wonderfully command a deliverance; for which we, now being in safety, do give all praise and glory to thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Or this:

O MOST mighty and gracious good God, thy mercy is over all thy works, but in special manner hath been extended towards us, whom thou hast so powerfully and wonderfully defended. Thou hast shewed us terrible things, and wonders in the deep, that we might see how powerful and gracious a God thou art; how able and ready to help them that trust in thee. Thou hast shewed us how both Winds and Seas obey thy command; that we may learn even from them, hereafter to obey thy voice, and to do thy will. We therefore bless and glorify thy Name for this thy mercy in saving us, when we were ready to perish. And we beseech thee, make us as truly sensible now of thy mercy, as we were then of the danger: and give us hearts always ready to express our thankfulness, not only by words, but also by our lives, in being more obedient to thy holy commandments. Continue, we beseech thee, this thy goodness to us; that we, whom thou hast saved, may serve thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.
An Hymn of Praise and Thanksgiving after a dangerous Tempest.

O COME, let us give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; let the redeemed of the Lord say so: whom he hath delivered from the merciless rage of the sea.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion: slow to anger, and of great mercy.

He hath not dealt with us according to our sins: neither rewarded us according to our iniquities.

But as the heaven is high above the earth: so great hath been his mercy towards us.

We found trouble: and heaviness: we were even at death's door.

The waters of the sea had well-nigh covered us: the proud waters had well-nigh gone over our soul.

The sea roared: and the stormy wind lifted up the waves thereof.

We were carried up as it were to heaven, and then down again into the deep: our soul melted within us, because of trouble;

Then cried we unto thee, O Lord: and thou didst deliver us out of our distress.

Blessed be thy Name, who didst not despise the prayer of thy servants: but didst hear our cry, and hast saved us.
Thou didst send forth thy commandment: and the windy storm ceased, and was turned into a calm.

O let us therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he hath done, and still doeth for the children of men!

Praised be the Lord daily: even the Lord that helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation: God is the Lord by whom we have escaped death.

Thou, Lord, hast made us glad through the operation of thy hands: and we will triumph in thy praise.

Blessed be the Lord God: even the Lord God, who only doeth wondrous things;

And blessed be the Name of his Majesty for ever: and let every one of us say, Amen, Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
AFTER VICTORY OR DELIVERANCE FROM AN ENEMY.

A Psalm or Hymn of Praise and Thanksgiving after Victory.

If the Lord had not been our side, now may we say: if the Lord himself had not been on our side, when men rose up against us;

They had swallowed us up quick: when they were so wrathfully displeased at us;

Yea, the waters had drowned us, and the stream had gone over our soul: the deep waters of the proud had gone over our soul.

But praised be the Lord: who hath not given us over as a prey unto them.

The Lord hath wrought: a mighty salvation for us.

We gat not this by our own sword, neither was it our own arm that saved us: but thy right hand and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto us.

The Lord hath appeared for us: the Lord hath covered our heads, and made us to stand in the day of battle.

The Lord hath appeared for us: the Lord hath overthrown our enemies, and dashed in pieces those that rose up against us.
Therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us: but unto thy Name be given the glory.

The Lord hath done great things for us: the Lord hath done great things for us, for which we rejoice.

Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.

Blessed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

† After this Hymn may be sung the Te Deum.
† Then this Collect.

O ALMIGHTY God, the Sovereign Commander of all the world, in whose hand is power and might,* which none is able to withstand; We bless and magnify thy great and glorious Name for this happy victory, the whole glory whereof we do ascribe to thee, who art the only giver of Victory. And, we beseech thee, give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy Gospel, the honour of our Sovereign, and, as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And we beseech thee, give us such a sense of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulnes, such as may appear in our lives, by an humble, holy, and obedient walk-- ing before thee all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, so in particular for this victory and deliverance, be all glory and honour, world without end. Amen.

* In thine hand is power and might. 1 Chron. xix. 12.

2 Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

AT THE BURIAL OF THEIR DEAD AT SEA.

1 The Office in the Common Prayer-Book may be used; only instead of these words ["We therefore commit his body to the ground, Earth to Earth, &c."] say,

WE therefore commit his Body to the Deep, to be turned into corruption, looking for the resurrection of the Body (when the sea shall give up her Dead) and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ; who at his coming shall change our vile Body, that it may be like his glorious Body, according to the mighty working, whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.
A FORM OF PRAYER WITH THANKSGIVING, TO BE USED YEARLY ON THE FIFTH DAY OF NOVEMBER,

For the happy Deliverance of King James I. and the Three Estates of England, from the most traiterous and bloody intended Massacre by Gunpowder: and also for the happy Arrival of his Majesty King WILLIAM on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and Nation.

The Minister of every Parish shall give Warning to his Parishioners publickly in the Church at Morning Prayer, the Sunday before, for the due Observation of the said Day; And after Morning Prayer, or Preaching upon the said Fifth Day of November, shall read publickly, distinctly, and plainly, the Act of Parliament, made in the Third Year of King James the First, for the Observation of it.

The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-days in all Things; except where it is hereafter otherwise appointed.

If this Day shall happen to be Sunday, only the Collect proper for that Sunday shall be added to this Office in its Place.

Morning Prayer shall begin with these Sentences.

THE Lord is full of compassion and mercy: long-suffering, and of great goodness. Psal. ciii. 8.
He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever. Ver. 9.

He hath not dealt with us after our fins: nor rewarded us according to our wickednesses. Ver. 10.

1 Instead of Venite exultemus, shall this Hymn following be used; one Verse by the Priest, and another by the Clerk and People.

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Psal. cvii. 1.

Let them give thanks, whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy. Ver. 2.

Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up: may Israel now say. Psal. cxxix. 1.

Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up: but they have not prevailed against me. Ver. 2.

They have privily laid their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, even without a cause have they made a pit for my soul. Psal. xxxv. 7.

They have laid a net for my feet, and pressed down my soul: they have digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the midst of it themselves. Psal. Ivii. 7.

Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wisdom is infinite. Psal. cxlvii. 5.

The Lord setteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground. Ver. 6.
Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right-hand: and upon the son of man whom thou madest so strong for thine own self. Psal. lxxx. 17.

And so will not we go back from thee: O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name. Ver. 18.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

† Proper Psalms. lxiv, cxxiv, cxxv.

† Proper Lessons.

The First. 2 Sam. xxii. Te Deum.

† In the Suffrages after the Creed, these shall be inserted, and used for the King.

Priest. O Lord, save the King;

People. Who putteth his trust in thee.

Priest. Send him help from thy holy place.

People. And evermore mightily defend him.

Priest. Let his enemies have no advantage against him.

People. Let not the wicked approach to hurt him.

† Instead of the first Collect at Morning Prayer, shall these two be used.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast in all ages shewed thy power and mercy, in the miraculous and gracious deliverances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious Kings and States professing thy holy and eternal truth, from the wicked conspiracies, and malicious practices of all the enemies thereof: We yield thee our unfeigned thanks and praise, for the wonderful and mighty deliverance of our gracious Sovereign King James the First, the Queen, the Prince, and all the Royal Branches, with the Nobility, Clergy, and Commons of England, then assembled in Parliament, by Popish treachery appointed as sheep to the slaughter, in a most barbarous and savage manner, beyond the examples of former ages. From this unnatural Conspiracy, not our merit, but thy mercy; not our foresight, but thy providence delivered us: And therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name* be ascribed all honour and glory, in all Churches of the saints, from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ACCEPT also, most gracious God, of our unfeigned thanks, for filling our hearts again with joy and gladness, after the time that thou hadst afflicted us, and putting a new song into our mouths, by bringing His Majesty King William, upon this Day, for the deliverance of our Church and Nation from Popish Tyranny and arbitrary power. We adore the wisdom and justice of thy providence, which so timely interposed in our extreme danger, and disappointed all the designs of our enemies. We beseech thee, give us such a lively and lasting Sense of what thou didst then, and hast since that time done for us, that we may not grow secure and careless in our obedience, by presuming upon thy great and undeserved goodness; but that it may lead us to repentance, and move us to be the more diligent and zealous in all the duties of our Religion, which thou hast in a marvellous manner preserved to us. Let truth and justice, brotherly kindness and charity, devotion and piety, concord and unity, with all other virtues, so flourish among us, that they may be the stability of our times, and make this Church a praise in the Earth. All which we humbly beg for the sake of our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

I In the End of the Litany (which shall always this Day be used) after the Collect [“We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.”] shall this be said which followeth.

ALMIGHTY God and heavenly Father, who of thy gracious providence, and tender mercy towards us, didst prevent the malice and imaginations of our enemies, by discovering and confounding their horrible and wicked enterprize, plotted and intended this Day to have been executed against the King, and the whole State of England, for the Subversion of the Government and Religion established among us; and didst likewise upon this Day wonderfully conduct thy Servant King William, and bring him safely into England, to preserve us from the attempts of our enemies to bereave us of our Religion and Laws: We most humbly praise and magnify thy most glorious Name, for thy unspeakable goodness towards us, expressed in both these Acts of thy mercy. We confess it has been of thy mercy alone, that we are not consumed: for our sins have cried to heaven against us; and our iniquities justly called for vengeance upon us. But thou hast not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us after our iniquities; nor given us over, as we deserved, to be a prey to our enemies; but hast in mercy delivered us from their malice, and preserved us from death and destruction. Let the consideration of this thy repeated goodness, O Lord, work in us true repentance, that iniquity may not be our ruin. And increase in us more and more a lively faith and love, fruitful in all holy obedience; that thou mayest still continue thy favour, with the light of thy Gospel, to us and our posterity for evermore; and that for thy dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.
Instead of the Prayer ["In Time of War and Tumults"] shall be used this Prayer following.

O LORD, who didst this Day discover the snares of death that were laid for us, and didst wonderfully deliver us from the same; Be thou still our mighty Protector, and scatter our enemies that delight in blood: Infatuate and defeat their counsels, abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their devices. Strengthen the hands of our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, and all that are put in authority under him, with judgement and justice to cut off all such workers of iniquity, as turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction; that they may never prevail against us, or triumph in the ruin of thy Church among us: But that our gracious Sovereign and his Realms, being preserved in thy true Religion, and by thy merciful goodness protected in the same, we may all duly serve thee, and give thee thanks in thy holy Congregation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Communion Service, instead of the Collect for the Day, shall this which followeth be used.

ETERNAL God, and our most mighty Protector, we thy unworthy servants do humbly present ourselves before thy Majesty, acknowledging thy Power, Wisdom, and Goodness, in preserving the King and the Three Estates of the Realm of England assembled in Parliament, from the De-frustration this Day intended against them. Make us, we beseech thee, truly thankful for this, and for all other thy great mercies towards us; particularly for making this Day again memorable, by a fresh instance of thy loving-kindness towards us. We bless thee for giving his late Majesty King William a safe arrival here, and for making all opposition fall before him, till he became our King and Governor. We beseech thee to protect and defend our Sovereign King GEORGE, and all the Royal Family, from all Treasons and Conspiracies; preserve him in thy Faith, Fear, and Love; Prosper his Reign with long Happiness here on Earth, and crown him with everlasting Glory hereafter, through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xiii. 1.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers; for there is no power but of God: the powers that be, are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resifteth the power, resifteth the ordinance of God; and they that resift shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid;
for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For, for this cause pay ye tribute also; for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour.

AND it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face; and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him: And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and confume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of: For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.
1 After the Creed, if there be no Sermon, shall be read one of the six Homilies against Rebellion.

1 This sentence is to be read at the Offertory.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets. St. Matthew vii. 12.

1 After the Prayer for the Church Militant, this following Prayer is to be used.

O GOD, whose Name is excellent in all the earth, and thy glory above the heavens; who on this Day didst miraculously preserve our Church and State from the secret contrivance and hellish malice of Popish Conspirators; and on this Day also didst begin to give us a mighty deliverance from the open Tyranny and Oppression of the same cruel and blood-thirsty enemies: We bless and adore thy glorious Majesty, as for the former, so for this thy late marvellous loving-kindness to our Church and Nation, in the preservation of our Religion and Liberties. And we humbly pray, that the devout sense of this thy repeated Mercy may renew and increase in us a spirit of love and thankfulness to thee its only Author; a spirit of peaceable submission and obedience to our gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE; and a spirit of fervent zeal for our holy Religion which thou hast so wonderfully rescued, and established a blessing to us and our posterity. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

A FORM OF

PRAYER WITH FASTING,

TO BE USED YEARLY ON THE

THIRTIETH of JANUARY,

Being the Day of the Martyrdom of the Blessed King CHARLES I.

To implore the Mercy of God, that neither the Guilt of that sacred and innocent Blood, nor those other Sins, by which God was provoked to deliver both us and our King into the Hands of cruel and unreasonable Men, may at any Time hereafter be visited upon us, or our Posterity.

If this Day shall happen to be Sunday, this Form of Prayer shall be used, and the Fast kept the next Day following. And upon the Lord's Day next before the Day to be kept, at Morning Prayer, immediately after the Nicene Creed, Notice shall be given for the due Observation of the said Day.

The Service of the Day shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-days in all Things; except where it is in this Office otherwise appointed.
THE ORDER FOR MORNING PRAYER.

He that ministereth shall begin with one or more of these Sentences.

TO the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws which he set before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10.

Correct us, O Lord, but with judgement: not in thine anger, lest thou bring us to nothing. Jer. x. 24.

Enter not into judgement with thy servants, O Lord: for in thy fight shall no man living be justified. Psal. cxliii. 2.

Instead of Venite exultemus, the Hymn following shall be said or sung: one Verse by the Priest, another by the Clerk and People.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O Lord: and just are thy judgements! Psal. cxix. 137.

Thou art just, O Lord, in all that is brought upon us: for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly. Neh. ix. 33.

Nevertheless, our feet were almoft gone: our treadings had well-nigh slipped. Psal. lxxiii. 2.

For why? we were grieved at the wicked; we did also see the ungodly in such prosperity. Ver. 3.
The people flood up, and the rulers took counsel together: against the Lord, and against his Anointed. Psal. ii. 2.

They cast their heads together with one consent: and were confederate against him. Psal. lxxxiii. 5.

He heard the blasphemy of the multitude, and fear was on every side: while they conspired together against him, to take away his life. Psal. xxxi. 15.

They spoke against him with false tongues, and compassed him about with words of hatred: and fought against him without a cause. Psal. cix. 2.

The First, 2 Sam. i.

The Second, St. Matth. xxvii.
Instead of the first Collect at Morning Prayer, shall these two, which next follow be used.

O MOST mighty God, terrible in thy judgments, and wonderful in thy doings toward the children of men; who in thy heavy displeasure didst suffer the life of our gracious Sovereign King Charles the First, to be (as this Day) taken away by the hands of cruel and bloody men: We thy sinful creatures here assembled before thee, do, in the behalf of all the people of this land, humbly confess that they were the crying sins of this Nation, which brought down this heavy judgement upon us. But, O gracious God, when thou makest inquisition for blood, lay not the guilt of this innocent blood (the shedding whereof nothing but the blood of thy Son can expiate) lay it not to the charge of the people of this land; nor let it ever be required of us, or our posterity. Be merciful, O Lord, be merciful unto thy people, whom thou hast redeemed; and be not angry with us for ever: But pardon us for thy mercies' sake, through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSED Lord, in whose sight the death of thy saints* is precious; We magnify thy Name for thine abundant grace bestowed upon our martyred Sovereign; by which he was enabled so cheerfully to follow the steps of his blessed Master and Saviour, in a constant meek suffering of all barbarous indignities, and at last resisting unto blood; and even then, according to the same pattern, praying for his murderers. Let his memory, O Lord, be ever blessed among us; that we may follow the example of his courage and constancy, his meekness and patience, and great charity. And grant, that this our land may be freed from the vengeance of his righteous blood, and thy mercy glorified in the forgiveness of our sins: and all for Jesus Christ his face, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

In the end of the Litany (which shall always on this Day be used) immediately after the Collect ["We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c."] the three Collects next following are to be read.

O LORD, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee; that they, whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O MOST mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made; who wouldst not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin, and be saved: Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; Receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins.
Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgement with thy servants, who are vile earth and miserable sinners: but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vilenesfs, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TURN thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, Full of Compassion, Long-suffering, And of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, And let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great; And after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, Through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Communion Service, after the Prayer for the King ["Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting, &c."] instead of the Collect for the Day, shall these two be used.

O most mighty God, &c. As in the Morning
Blessed Lord, in whose, &c.
SUBMIT yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the King as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently; this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called; because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps; who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth.

THERE was a certain housholder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

After the Nicene Creed, shall be read, instead of the Sermon for that Day, the first and second Parts of the Homily against Disobedience and wilful Rebellion, set forth by Authority; or the Minister, who officiates, shall preach a Sermon of his own composing upon the same Argument.

In the Offertory shall this Sentence be read.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them; for this is the law and the prophets. St. Mat. vii. 12,
After the Prayer ['"For the whole State of Christ's Church, &c."'] these two Collects following shall be used:

O LORD, our heavenly Father, who didst not punish us as our sins have deserved, but hast in the midst of judgement remembered mercy; We acknowledge it thine especial favour, that though for our many and great provocations, thou didst suffer thine Anointed, blessed King Charles the First, (as on this Day) to fall into the hands of violent and blood-thirsty men, and barbarously to be murdered by them; yet thou didst not leave us for ever, as sheep without a shepherd; but by thy gracious providence didst miraculously preserve the undoubted Heir of his Crowns, our then gracious Sovereign King Charles the Second, from his bloody enemies, hiding him under the shadow of thy wings, until their Tyranny was overpast; and didst bring him back, in thy good appointed time, to sit upon the throne of his Father; and together with the Royal Family, didst restore to us our ancient Government in Church and State. For these thy great and unspeakable mercies we render to thee our most humble and unfeigned thanks; beseeching thee still to continue thy gracious protection over the whole Royal Family; and to grant to our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, a long and happy reign over us: So we that are thy people, will give thee thanks for ever, and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

AND grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy Governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ORDER FOR

EVENING PRAYER.

I The Hymn appointed to be used at Morning Prayer, instead of Venite exultemus, shall here also be used before the proper Psalms.

Righteous art thou, O Lord, &c.

I Proper Psalms, lxxix, xciv, lxxxv.

I Proper Lessons.

The First, Jer. xii. or Dan. ix. to ver. 22.

The Second, Heb. xi. ver. 32. and xii. to ver. 7.

I Instead of the first Collect at Evening Prayer, shall these two which next follow be used.

O ALMIGHTY Lord God, who by thy wisdom not only guidest, and orderest all things most suitably to thine own justice; but also performest thy pleasure in such a manner, that we cannot but acknowledge thee to be righteous in all thy ways, and holy in all thy works: We thy sinful people do here fall down before thee, confessing that thy judgements were right, in permitting cruel men, sons of Belial as on this Day, to imbrue their hands in the blood of thine Anointed; we having drawn down the same upon ourselves, by the great and long provocations of our sins against thee. For which we do therefore here humble ourselves before thee; beseeching thee to deliver this nation from blood-guiltiness (that of this day especially) and to turn from us and our posterity all those judgements, which we by our sins have worthily deserved: Grant this for the all-sufficient merits of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

BLESSED God, just and powerful, who didst permit thy dear Servant, our dread Sovereign King Charles the First, to be (as upon this Day) given up to the violent outrages of wicked men, to be despitefully used, and at the last murdered by them; Though we cannot reflect upon so foul an act, but with horror and astonishment; yet do we most gratefully commemorate the glories of thy grace, which then shined forth in thine Anointed; whom thou wast pleased, even at the hour of death, to endue with an eminent measure of exemplary patience, meekness, and charity, before the face of his cruel enemies. And albeit thou didst suffer them to proceed to such an height of violence, as to kill him, and to take possession of his Throne; yet didst thou in great mercy preserve his Son, whose right it was; and at length by a wonderful providence bring him back, and set him thereon, to restore thy true Religion, and to settle peace amongst us: for these thy great Mercies we glorify thy Name, through Jesus Christ our blessed Saviour. Amen.

Immediately after the Collect ["Lighten our darkness, &c."] shall these three next following be used.

O Lord, we beseech thee, &c.
O most mighty God, &c.
Turn thou us, O good Lord,
and so, &c.

Immediately before the Prayer of St. Chrysostom, shall this Collect, which next followeth, be used.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, whose righteousness is like the strong mountains, and thy judgements like the great deep;* and who, by that barbarous murder (as on this Day) committed upon the sacred Person of thine Anointed, hast taught us, that neither the greatest of Kings, nor the best of men, are more secure from violence than from natural death: Teach us also hereby so to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. And grant, that neither the splendor of any thing that is great, nor the conceit of any thing that is good in us, may withdraw our eyes from looking upon ourselves as sinful dust and ashes; but that, according to the example of this thy blessed Martyr, we may press forward to the prize of the high calling that is before us, in faith and patience, humility and meekness, mortification and self-denial, charity and constant perseverance unto the end: and all this for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ his sake; To whom with thee and the Holy Ghost be all honour and Glory, world without end. Amen.

A FORM OF

PRAYER WITH THANKSGIVING,

TO ALMIGHTY GOD,

For having put an End to the Great Rebellion, by the Restitution of the King and Royal Family, and the Restoration of the Government after many Years Interruption; Which unspeakable Mercies were wonderfully completed upon the Twenty-ninth of May, in the Year 1660. And in Memory thereof that Day in every Year is by Act of Parliament appointed to be for ever kept holy.

The Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth and confirmed in the Thirteenth Year of King Charles the Second, for the Observation of the Twenty-ninth Day of May yearly, as a Day of Publick Thanksgiv- ing, is to be read publickly in all Churches at Morning Prayer, immediately after the Nicene Creed on the Lord's day next before every such Twenty-ninth of May, and Notice to be given for the due Observation of the said Day.

The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-days; except where it is in this Office other- wise appointed.

If this Day shall happen to be Ascension Day, or Whitsunday, the Collects of this Office are to be added to the Offices of those Festivals in their proper Places: If it be Monday or Tuesday in Whit- sun week, or Trinity-Sunday, the proper Psalms appointed for this Day, instead of those of ordinary Course, shall be also used, and the Collects added as before; and in all these Cases the rest of this Office shall be omitted: but if it shall happen to be any other Sunday, this whole Office shall be used, as it followeth, entirely. And what Festival soever shall happen to fall upon this solemn Day of Thanksgiv- ing, the following Hymn, appointed instead of Venite exultemus, shall be constantly used.

Morning Prayer shall begin with these Sentences.

TO the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him: neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws which he set before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10.

It is of the Lord's mercies that we were not consumed: because his compassions fail not. Lam. iii. 22.

Instead of Venite exultemus, shall be sung or said this Hymn following: one Verse by the Priest, and another by the Clerk and People.

MY song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be shewing forth his truth, from one generation to another. Psal. lxxxix. 1.

The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance. Psal. cxi. 4.

Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? Psal. cvi. 2.

The works of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. Psal. cxi. 2.

The Lord setteth up the meek: and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground. Psal. cxlvii. 6.

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgement: for all them that are oppressed with wrong. Psal. ciii. 6.

For he will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever. Ver. 9.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedness. Ver. 10.
For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. Ver. 11.

Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him. Ver. 13.

Thou, O God, hast proved us: thou also hast tried us, even as silver is tried. Psal. lxvi. 9.

Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads, we went through fire and water: but thou hast brought us out into a wealthy place. Ver. 11.

Oh, how great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed us! and yet didst thou turn and refresh us: yea, and broughtest us from the deep of the earth again. Psal. lxxi. 18.

Thou didst remember us in our lowest estate, and redeem us from our enemies: for thy mercy endureth for ever. Psal. cxxxvi. 23, 24.

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Psal. lxxxv. 1.

God hath shewed us his goodness plenteously: and God hath let us see our desire upon our enemies. Psal. llix. 10.

They are brought down, and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. Psal. xx. 8.

There are they fallen, all that work wickedness: they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand. Psal. xxxvi. 12.
The Lord hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us: even he shall bless the house of Israel, he shall bless the house of Aaron. Psal. cxv. 12.

He shall bless them that fear the Lord: both small and great. Ver. 13.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men! Psal. cvii. 21.

That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladness! Ver. 22.

And not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done. Psal. lixviii. 4.

That our posterity may also know them, and the children that are yet unborn: and not be as their fore-fathers, a faithless and stubborn generation. Ver. 6, 9.

Give thanks, O Israel, unto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart. Psal. lxviii. 26.

Praised be the Lord daily: even the God who helpeth us, and poureth his benefits upon us. Ver. 19.

O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end: but establish thou the righteous. Psal. vii. 9.

Let all those that seek thee, be joyful and glad in thee: and let all such as love thy salvation, say alway, The Lord be praised. Psal. xl. 19.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

Instead of the first Collect at Morning Prayer, shall these two which follow be used.

O ALMIGHTY God, who art a strong tower* of defence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield thee praise and thanksgiving for the wonderful Deliverance of these Kingdoms from THE GREAT REBELLION, and all the Miseries and Oppressions consequent thereupon, under which they had so long groaned. We acknowledge it thy goodness, that we were not utterly delivered over as a prey unto them; Beseeching thee still to continue such thy Mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour, and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O LORD God of our salvation, who hast been exceedingly gracious unto this land, and by thy miraculous Providence, didst deliver us out of our miserable Confusions, by restoring to us, and to his own just and undoubted Rights, our then most gracious Sovereign Lord King Charles the Second, notwithstanding all the power and malice of his enemies; and by placing him on the Throne of these Kingdoms, didst restore also unto us the publick and free Profession of thy true Religion and Worship, together with our former Peace and Prosperity, to the great Comfort and joy of our hearts: We are here now before thee, with all due thankfulness, to acknowledge thine unspeakable goodness herein, as upon this Day shewed unto us, and to offer unto thee our sacrifice of praise for the same; humbly beseeching thee to accept this our unfeigned, though unworthy Oblation of ourselves; vowing all holy obedience in thought, word and work, unto thy Divine Majesty; and promising all loyal and dutiful Allegiance to thine Anointed Servant now set over us, and to his Heirs after him; Whom we beseech thee to bless with all increase of Grace, Honour and Happiness, in this World, and to crown him with Immortality and Glory in the World to come, for Jesus Christ his sake, our only Lord and Saviour. Amen.

In the End of the Litany (which shall always this Day be used) after the Collect, ["We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c."] shall this be said which next followeth.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast in all ages shewed forth thy power and mercy in the miraculous and gracious deliverances of thy Church, and in the Protection of righteous and religious Kings and States, professing thy holy and eternal truth, from the malicious Conspiracies and wicked Practices of all their enemies; We yield unto thee our unfeigned thanks and praise, as for thy many other great and publick mercies, so especially for that signal and wonderful Deliverance, by thy wise and good Providence, as upon this Day, completed, and vouchsafed to our then most gracious Sovereign King Charles the Second, and all the Royal Family; and in them, to this whole Church and State, and all Orders and Degrees of men in both; from the unnatural Rebellion, Usurpation, and Tyranny of ungodly and cruel men, and from the sad Confusions and Ruin thereupon ensuing. From all these, O gracious and merciful Lord God, not our merit, but thy Mercy; not our foresight, but thy Providence; not our own arm, but thy Right Hand, and thine Arm, did rescue and deliver us. And therefore, not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy Name be ascribed all Honour, and Glory, and Praise, with most humble and hearty thanks, in all Churches of the Saints: Even so blessed be the Lord our God, who alone doeth wondrous things; and blessed be the Name of his Majesty for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

In the Communion-Service, immediately before the Reading of the Epistle, shall these two Collects be used, instead of the Collect for the King and the Collect of the Day.

O Almighty God, &c.
O Lord God of our salvation, &c.

as before at Morning Prayer.
DEARLY beloved, I befeech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the King, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

AND they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man; for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he faith unto them,
Whose is this image and supercription? They say unto him, Cesar's. Then faith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cesar's; and unto God, the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

In the Offertory shall this Sentence be read.

Not every one that faith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. St. Matth. vii. 21.

After the Prayer ["For the whole State of Christ's Church, &c."] this Collect following shall be used.

ALMIGHTY God and heavenly Father, who of thine infinite and unspeakable goodness towards us, didst in a most extraordinary and wonderful manner disappoint and overthrow the wicked designs of those traiterous, heady, and high-minded men, who under the pretence of Religion and thy most holy Name, had contrived, and well-nigh effected, the utter destruction of this Church and Kingdom: As we do this Day most heartily and devoutly adore and magnify thy glorious Name for this thine infinite goodness already vouchsafed to us; so do we most humbly beseech thee to continue thy grace and favour towards us; that no such dismal calamity may ever again fall upon us. Infatuate and defeat all the secret counsels of deceitful and wicked men against us: Abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confound their devices. Strengthen the hands of our gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, and all that are put in Authority under him, with judgement and justice to cut off all such workers of iniquity, as turn Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction; that they may never again prevail against us, nor triumph in the ruin of the Monarchy and thy Church among us. Protect and defend our Sovereign Lord the King, with the whole Royal Family, from all Treason and Conspiracies. Be unto him an Helmet of Salvation, and a strong Tower of Defence against the face of all his enemies; Clothe them with shame and confusion, but upon himself and his Posterity let the crown for ever flourish. So we thy people, and the sheep of thy pasture, will give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer; to whom, with thee, O Father, and the Holy Ghost, be glory in the Church throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

A FORM OF PRAYER WITH THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD;
To be used in all Churches and Chapels within this Realm every Year, on the Twenty-fifth Day of October; being the Day on which his Majesty began his happy Reign.
The Service shall be the same with the usual Office for Holy-Days in all Things, except where it is in this Office otherwise appointed.

If this Day shall happen to be Sunday, this whole Office shall be used, as it followeth, entirely.

Morning Prayer shall begin with these Sentences.

I EXHORT that first of all, Supplications, Prayers, Intercessions, and giving of Thanks, be made for all men; for Kings, and for all that are in Authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, in all godliness and honesty: for this is good and acceptable unto God our Saviour. 1 Tim. ii. 1, 2, 3.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us; But if we confess our sins, he his faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 St. John i. 8, 9.

The Suffrages next after the Creed shall stand thus.

Priest. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
Answer. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord, save the King;
Answer. Who putteth his trust in thee.

Priest. Send him help from thy holy place.
Answer. And evermore mightily defend him.

Priest. Let his enemies have no advantage against him.
Answer. Let not the wicked approach to hurt him.

Priest. Endue thy Ministers with righteousness;
Answer. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord save thy people;
Answer. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord:
Answer. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. Be unto us, O Lord, a strong tower,
Answer. From the face of our enemies.

Priest. O Lord, hear our prayer;
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee.

Instead of the first Collect at Morning Prayer, shall be used this following Collect of Thanksgiving for his Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

ALMIGHTY God, who rulest over all the Kingdoms of the world, and dispo... cording to thy good pleasure; We yield thee unfeigned thanks, for that thou wast pleased, as on this Day, to place thy Servant our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE upon the Throne of these Realms.
Let thy wisdom be his guide, and let thine arm strengthen him; let justice, truth, and holiness, let peace and love, and all those virtues that adorn the Christian Profession, flourish in his days; Direct all his Counsels and Endeavours to thy glory, and the Welfare of his People; and give us grace to obey him cheerfully and willingly for Conscience sake, that neither our sinful Passions, nor our private Interests, may disappoint his Cares for the publick Good; let him always possess the Hearts of his People, that they may never be wanting in Honour to his Person, and dutiful submission to his Authority; let his Reign be long and properous, and crown him with Immortality in the Life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

In the End of the Litany (which shall always be used upon this Day) after the Collect ["We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c."] shall the following Prayer, for the King and Royal Family, be used.

O LORD our God, who upholdest and governest all things in heaven and earth; receive our humble prayers, with our hearty Thanksgivings for our Sovereign Lord GEORGE, as on this Day, set over us by thy Grace and Providence, to be our King;
and so, together with him, bless our gracious Queen Charlotte, his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that they all ever trusting in thy goodness, protected by thy power, and crowned with thy gracious and endless favour, may continue before thee in health, peace, joy, and honour, and may live long and happy lives upon earth, and after death obtain everlasting life and glory in the Kingdom of Heaven, by the Merits and Mediation of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Then shall follow this Collect, for God's Protection of the King against all his Enemies.

MOST gracious God, who hast set thy Servant GEORGE our King upon the throne of his Ancestors, We most humbly beseech thee to protect him on the same from all the dangers to which he may be exposed; hide him from the gathering together of the froward, and from the insurrection of wicked doers: Do thou weaken the hands, blast the designs, and defeat the enterprizes of all his Enemies, that no secret Conspiracies, nor open Violences, may disquiet his Reign; but that being safely kept under the shadow of thy wing, and supported by thy Power, he may triumph over all Opposition, that so the world may acknowledge Thee to be his Defender and mighty Deliverer in all Difficulties and Adversities, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Prayer for the high Court of Parliament, (if fitting.)

In the Communion Service, immediately before the reading of the Epistle, instead of the Collect for the King, and that of the Day, shall be used this Prayer for the King, as Supreme Governor of this Church.

BLESSED Lord, who hast called Christian Princes to the Defence of thy Faith, and hast made it their Duty to promote the Spiritual Welfare, together with the Temporal Interest of their People; We acknowledge with humble and thankful hearts thy great goodness to us, in setting thy Servant our most gracious King over this Church and Nation, Give him, we beseech thee, all those heavenly graces that are requisite for so high a Trust; Let the work of thee his God prosper in his hand; Let his Eyes behold the Success of his Designs for the Service of thy true Religion established amongst us; And make him a blessed Instrument of protecting and advancing thy Truth, where-ever it is persecuted and oppressed; Let Hypocrisy and Profaneness, Superstition and Idolatry; fly before his Face; Let not Heresies and false Doctrines disturb the Peace of the Church, nor Schisms and causeless Divisions weaken it; but grant us to be of one heart and one mind in serving thee our God, and obeying him according to thy Will: And that these blessings may be continued to after-ages, let there never be One wanting in his House to succeed him in the Government of these Kingdoms, that our Posterity may see his Children's Children and Peace upon Israel.* So we that are thy People, and Sheep of thy Pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth thy Praise from generation to generation. Amen.

The Epistle: 1 St. Pet. ii. 11.

DEARLY beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the King, as supreme; or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the King.

* Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children: and peace upon Israel. Psal. cxviii. 7.
AND they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the Person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he said unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Cesar's. Then said he unto them, Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cesar's; and unto God, the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

1 After the Nicene Creed, shall follow the Sermon.

1 In the Offertory shall this Sentence be read:

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. St. Matth. v. 16.

1 After the Prayer ["For the whole State of Christ's Church, &c."] these Colleets following shall be used.

1 A Prayer for Unity.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly Union and Concord: That as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our calling: one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one Heart, and of one Soul, united in one holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy Governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praise of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking: We beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities; and those things, which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us for the worthines of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.
"OUR Will and Pleasure is, That these Four Forms of Prayer and Service made for the Fifth of November, the Thirtieth of January, the Twenty-ninth of May, and the Twenty-fifth of October, be forthwith printed and published, and annexed to the Book of Common Prayer and Liturgy of the Church of England; to be used yearly on the said Days, in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chapels, in all Chapels of Colleges and Halls within both our Universities, and of our Colleges of Eaton and Winchester, and in all Parish Churches and Chapels within that Part of our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

"Given at our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of October, 1761, in the First Year of Our Reign.

All Psalms of this Version in the common measure of eights and fixes, that is, where the first and third lines of the single ftanza confift of eight syllables each, the second and fourth lines of fix syllables each, may be fung to any of the moft usual tunes, namely, York Tune, Windfor Tunes, St. David's, Litchfield, Canterbury, Martyr's, St. Mary's, alias Hackney, St. Anne's Tune, &c.

As the Old 25th Psalm, may befung the New 25, 31, 51, 67, 130, 142.
As the Old 113, the 37, 46, 50, 63, 76, 91, 110, 113, 120.
As the Old 134, the 136, 148.
As the Old 104, the 149.

The Psalms in this Version of four lines in a single ftanza, and eight syllables in each line (if Psalms of praiue or cheerfulnefs) may properly be fung as the Old 100 Psalm, or to the tune of the Old 125 Psalm, second metre.

The Penetential, or Mournful Psalms, in the fame measure, may be fung as the Old 51st Psalm; which tunes, with all the fore-mentioned, are printed in the Supplement to this New Version.
A NEW VERSION
DAVID.

PSALM I.

1 How blest is he who ne'er consents by ill advice to walk, where men profanely talk!
   Nor stands in sinners ways, nor sits
2 But makes the perfect law of God his business and delight;
   Devoutly reads therein by day, and meditates by night.
3 Like some fair tree, which, fed by streams, with timely fruit does bend,
   He still shall flourish, and succeed;
4 Ungodly men, and their attempts, no lasting root shall find;
   Untimely blighted, and dispers'd like chaff before the wind.
5 Their guilt shall strike the wicked dumb before their judge's face:
   No formal hypocrite shall have place.
6 For God approves the just man's ways; to happiness they tend:
   But sinners, and the paths they tread, shall both in ruin end.

PSALM II.

1 WITH restless and ungovern'd rage, why do the heathen storm?
   Why in such rash attempts engage,
2 The great in counsel and in might as they can ne'er perform?
   Against the Lord they all unite, their various forces bring;
3 " Must we submit to their commands?" and his anointed king.
   " No, let us break their flavius bands,
4 But God, who sits enthron'd on high, and mocks their vain design.
   Does their conspiring strength defy,
5 Thick clouds of wrath divine shall break
   And thus will he in thunder speak on his rebellious foes;
6 " Though madly you dispute my will,
   " Whole throne is fix'd on Sion's hill, to all that dare oppose:
      " Whose throne is fix'd on Sion's hill, shall there securely reign."
PSALM. III.

7 Attend, O earth, whilst I declare God's uncontrol'd decree:
Thou art my Son, this day, my heir,
have I begotten thee.
"Thou art my Son, this day, my heir,
Thine shall the heathen be;
As my Son, I shall rescue him.
Thine shall be possett by thee.

8 Ask, and receive thy full demands;
and crush them ev'ry where:
The outmost limits of the lands
the potter's brittle ware."
"The outmost limits of the lands
Shall ye judges of the earth.
Thou giv'st me the bounds of the rejoice with awful mirth.
lands; ye judges of the earth.
Worship the Lord with holy fear;
your timely homage pay;
Worship the Lord with holy fear;
incen.'l by your delay.
Thy Son, O Lord, with due respect who can endure the flame?
Left he revenge the bold neglect, on his most holy name.

If but in part his anger rife,

Then blest'sd are they whose hope relies on the troubles of my peace!
the troubles of my peace!

PSALM IV.

1 O Lord, that art my righteous judge,
Thou still redeem'st me from distress;
to my complaint give ear:
Thou still redeem'st me from distress;
Thou still redeem'st me from distress;
Thou still redeem'st me from distress;
I'll lay my head,
Heed shall be possett by thee.
Heed shall be possett by thee.
Heed shall be possett by thee.

2 How long will ye, O sons of men,
How long will ye, O sons of men,
How long will ye, O sons of men,
Heed shall be possett by thee.
Heed shall be possett by thee.
Heed shall be possett by thee.

3 Consider that the righteous man
And, when to him I make my prayer,
And, when to him I make my prayer,
And, when to him I make my prayer,
And, when to him I make my prayer,
And, when to him I make my prayer,

4 Then stand in awe of his commands,
Commune in private with your hearts,
Commune in private with your hearts,
Commune in private with your hearts,
Commune in private with your hearts,
Commune in private with your hearts,

5 The place of other sacrifice
And let your hope, securely fix'd,
And let your hope, securely fix'd,
And let your hope, securely fix'd,
And let your hope, securely fix'd,
And let your hope, securely fix'd,

6 While worldly minds impatient grow
Still let the glories of thy face
More prof'rous times to see;
much, Lord, on me.
More prof'rous times to see;
More prof'rous times to see;

7 So shall my heart o'erflow with joy,
Than theirs, who store's of corn and wine shine brightly, Lord, on me.
shine brightly, Lord, on me.
shine brightly, Lord, on me.

8 Then down in peace I'll lay my head,
No other guard, O Lord, I crave,
and take my needful rest:
of thy defence possett'sd.
PSALM V.

1 LORD, hear the voice of my complaint;
2 To thee alone, my King, my God,
3 Thou in the morn my voice shalt hear,
   To thee devoutly I'll look up,
4 For thou the wrongs that I sustaine
   Who from thy sacred dwelling-place
5 Not long shall stubborn fools remain
   All such as act unrighteous things
6 The fland'ring tongue, O God of truth,
   Who hat'ld alike the man in blood
7 But when thy boundless grace shall me
   On thee I'll fix my longing eyes,
8 Conduct me by thy righteous laws;
   Therefore, O Lord, make plain the way,
9 Their mouth vents nothing but deceit;
   Their throat is a devouring grave;
10 By their own counsels let them fall,
   For they against thy righteous laws
11 But let all those that trust in thee,
   Let them rejoice whom thou preferv'st,
12 To righteous men the righteous Lord
   And with his favour all his saints, accept my secret pray'r.

will I for help repair.
and with the dawning day
to thee devoutly pray.
can't never, Lord, approve,
all evil doft remove.
unpunish'd in thy view;
thy vengeance shall pursue.
by thee shall be destroy'd;
and in deceit employ'd.
to thy lov'd courts restore,
and humbly there adore.
for watchful is my foe:
wherin I ought to go.
their heart is set on wrong;
they flatter with their tongue:
oppress'd with loads of sin;
have harden'd rebels been.
with shouts their joy proclaim;
and all that love thy name.
his blessing will extend;
as with a shield, defend.

PSALM VI.

1 THY dreadful anger, Lord, restrain,
   Correct me not in thy fierce wrath,
2 Have mercy, Lord, for I grow faint,
   The anguish of my aching bones,
3 My tortur'd flesh disfrafts my mind,
   But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay
4 Thy wonted goodness, Lord, repeat,
   For thy wond'rous mercy's sake,
5 For after death no more can I
   No pris'ner of the silent grave
6 Quite tir'd with pain, with groaning faint,
   The night, that quiets common griefs,
7 My beauty fades, my light grows dim,
   Old-age o'ertakes me, whilst I think
8 Depart, ye wicked; in my wrongs
   For God, I find, accepts my tears,
9, 10 He hears, and grants my humble pray'r;
   Shall blush and rage to see that God and spare a wretch forlorn;

too heavy to be borne.
unable to endure
which thou alone canst cure.
and fills my soul with grief:
to grant me thy relief?
and eafe my troubled soul:
vouchsafe to make me whole.
thy glorious acts proclaim:
can magnify thy name.
no hope of eafe I see:
is spent in tears by me.
my eyes with weaknefs close;
on my insulting foes.
ye shall no more rejoice;
and liftens to my voice.
ye shall no more rejoice;
and they that with my fall,
protects me from them all.
PSALM VII.

1 O LORD, my God, since I have plac'd
   From all my persecutor's rage
2 To save me from my threatening foe, Left, like a savage lion, he 3 If I am guilty, or did e'er
   Nay, if I have not spar'd his life,
4 Let them to perfecuting foes
   Let them to earth tread down my life,
5 Arise, and let thine anger, Lord,
   Exalt thyself above my foes
6 So to thy throne adoring crowds
   Let then to perfecuting foes
7 Oh! therefore, for their fakes resume
8 Impartial judge of all the world,
9 Let wicked arts, and wicked men,
   But guard the just, thou God, to whom 10 God me protect; not only me,
   And daily lays up wrath for those 11 If they perfift, he whets his sword,
12 Ev'n now, with swift destruction wing'd,
13 The plots are fruitless which my foe,
14 The pit he digg'd for me has prov'd
15 On his own head his spite returns,
16 Therefore will I the righteous ways
   I'll sing the praise of God most high,

PSALM VIII.

1 O THOU, to whom all creatures bow,
   Through all the world how great art thou!
   In heaven thy wondrous acts are fung,
   And yet thou mak'st the infant tongue
   Through thee the weak confound the strong,
   And so thou quell'st the wicked throng
3 When heav'n, thy beauteous work on high,
   The moon, that nightly rules the sky,
4 What's man, say I, that, Lord, thou lov'st
   Or what his offspring, that thou prov'st
5 Him next in pow'r thou didn't create 6 Ordain'd with dignity and state,
   within this earthly frame:
   how glorious is thy name!
   nor fully reckon'd there;
   thy boundless praise declare.
   to keep him in thy mind?
   to them so wondrous kind?
   to thy celestial train;
   o'er all thy works to reign.
They jointly own his pow'rlful sway,
The bird that wings its airy way;
O thou, to whom all creatures bow
Through all the world how great art thou!

I will my heart prepare;
the beasts that prey, or graze;
the fiath that cuts the feas.
within this earthly frame,
how glorious is thy name!

To celebrate thy praise, O Lord,
To all the lift'ning world thy works,
The thought of them shall to my foul
Whilst to thy name, O thou most high,
Against insulting foes advanc'd,
My right aliening from thy throne,
The insolence of heathen pride
Their wicked offspring quite destroy'd,
Miftaken foes, your haughty threats
Our city flands, which you design'd
The Lord for ever lives, who has Impartial justice to dispence,
As troubles rife, his needful aids
All those who have his goodnefs prov'd
Whose mercy ne'er forsook the man
Sing praiifes therefore to the Lord,
Proclaim his deeds, till all the world

When he enquiry makes for blood,
The injur'd humble man's complaint
Take pity on my troubles, Lord,
Thou that haft refcu'd me fo oft
In Sion then I'll sing thy praise
And with loud ftiouts of grateful joy
Deep in the pit they digg'd for me
Their guilty feet to their own fnare
Thus, by the juft returns he makes,
While wicked men, by their own plots,
No fingle finner shall escape,
Nor nation, from his juft revenge,
His fuft'ring faints, when moft diftrefs'd,
Their expectations fhall be crown'd,
Arife, O Lord, affert thy pow'r, Defcend to judgment, and pronounce Strike terror through the nations round,
They, to each other and themselves,
PSALM X.

1 THY presence why withdraw'ft thou, Lord? When difmal times of deep diftrefs
2 The wicked, fwell'd with lawlefs pride, O let them fall by thofe designs
3 For ftraight they triumph, if fucces And fordid wretches, whom God hates, To own a pow'r above themselves, And therefore in their ftrubborn mind
4 Oppreflve methods they pursue, Because thy judgments, unobferv'd, They fondly think their profp'rous state And therefore in their fubborn mind
5 Vain and deceitful is their speech, By which the mishief of their heart Near public roads they lie conceal'd, The innocent and poor at once
6 Not lions, couching in their dens, With greater cunning, or exprfs Sometimes they aet the harmlefs man, That, fo deceived, the poor may left
7 Sometimes they aet the harmlefs man, That, fo deceived, the poor may left

PART II.

11 For God, they think, no notice takes He never minds the fuff'ring poor, 12 But thou, O Lord, at length arise, And, by the greatnefs of thy pow'r, 13 No longer let the wicked vaunt, “Tufh, God regards not what we do; But fure thou feest, and all their deeds The orphan therefore, and the poor,
15 Defencelefs let the wicked fall, Confound, O God, their dark designs, Thou, who the heathen didft expel 17 Thou hear'ft the humble supplicants, Thou firft prepar'ft their hearts to pray, 18 Thou, in thy righteous judgments,weigh'ft That fo the tyrants of the earth

PSALM XI.

1 SINCE I have plac'd my truft in God, Why fhould I, like a tim'rous bird, Behold, the wicked bend their bow, Lurking in ambufh to deftroy.

a refuge always nigh,
al ready fix their dart, the man of upright heart.
PSALM XII. XIII. XIV.

PSALM XII.

1 SINCE godly men decay, O Lord,
For scarce these wretched times afford
One neighbour now can scarce believe
With flattering lips they all deceive,
2 But lips that with deceit abound
God's righteous vengeance will confound
In vain those foolish boasters say,
"With doubtful words we will betray,
3 For God, who hears the suff'ring poor,
Will soon arise, and give them rest,
6 The word of God shall still abide,
As is the silver fev'n times try'd,
7 The promise of his aiding grace
His servants from his faithles's race
8 Then shall the wicked be perplex'd,
When those whom they despis'd, and vex'd, shall be advanc'd on high.

PSALM XIII.

1 HOW long wilt thou forget me, Lord?
How long wilt thou withdraw from me?
2 How long shall anxious thoughts my soul,
How long my enemies infult,
3 Oh! hear, and to my longing eyes
And suddenly, or I shall sleep
4 Restore me, lest they proudly boast Permit not them that vex my soul,
5 Since I have always plac'd my trust
Thy saving health will come, and then 6 Then shall my song, with praise inspir'd,
Who to thy servant in diffres must I for ever mourn?
Oh! never to return?
and grief my heart oppres ?
and I have no redrefs ?
restore thy wondred light ;
in everlafting night.
'twas their own strength o'ercame,
to triumph in my flame.
beneath thy mercy's wing,
my heart with joy shall spring,
to thee, my God, afcend,
fuch bounty didt extend.

PSALM XIV.

1 SURE, wicked fools must needs suppose Corrupt and lewd their practice grows,
2 The Lord look'd down from heav'n's high
To fee if any own'd his pow'r, that God is nothing but a name,
no breafh is warm'd with holy flame,
and all the fons of men did view,
if any truth or justice knew.
3 But all, he saw, were gone aside,
None took religion for their guide,
4 But can these workers of deceit
That they, like bread, my people eat,
5 How will they tremble then for fear,
For to the righteous God is near,
6 Ill men in vain with scorn expose Since God a refuge is for those 7 Would he his saving pow'r remploy,
Then shouts of universal joy

all were degenerate grown, and base;
not one of all the sinful race.
be all so dull and senile, grown,
and God's almighty pow'r disown?
when his just wrath shall them o'ertake?
and never will their caufe for fake.
those methods which the good pursue;
whom his just eyes with favour view.
to break his people's servile band;
shall loudly echo through the land.

PSALM XV.

1 LORD, who's the happy man that may
Not, stranger-like, to visit them,
2 'Tis he, whose ev'ry thought and deed
Whose generous tongue dishonors to speak
3 Who never did a slander forge,
Nor hearken to a false report,
4 Who vice, in all its pomp and pow'r,
And piety, tho' cloath'd in rags,
Who to his plighted vows and trust
And tho' he promise to his loss,
5 Whose soul in usury dishonors
Whom no rewards can ever bribe
The man, who by this steady course
When earth's foundation shakes, shall stand, by providence secure'd.

PSALM XVI.

1 PROTECT me from my cruel foes,
Because my trust I still repose
2 My soul all help but thine does flìght,
Yet can no deeds of mine requite
3 But those that strictly virtuous are,
To favour always, and prefer,
4 How shall their forrows be increas'd
Their bloody off'ring I detest,
5 My lot is fall'n in that blest land
He fills my cup with b'ral hand,
6 In nature's most delightful scene
The place of my appointed reign
7 Therefore my soul shall bless the Lord,
And private counsel still afford,
8 I strive each action to approve
No danger shall my hopes remove,
9 Therefore my heart all grief defies,
My lieth shall reft, in hopes to rife,
10 Thou, Lord, when I reign my breath,
Nor let thy holy one in death and shield me, Lord, from harm, on thy almighty arm.

all gods but thee disown;
the goodness thou haft shown.
and love the thing that's right,
shall be my chief delight.
who other gods adore!
their very names abhor.
where God is truly known:
'tis he supports, my throne.
my happy portion lies;
all other lands outvies.
whose precepts give me light,
in forrow's dismal night.
to his all-seeing eye:
because he still is nigh.
my glory does rejoice:
wak'd by his pow'rful voice.
my soul from hell shalt free;
the least corruption see.
Thou shalt the paths of life display,
Where pleasures dwell without allay,
which to thy presence lead;
and joys that never fade.

PSALM XVII.

1 TO my just plea and sad complaint
   And to my pray'r, as 'tis unfeign'd,
   Attend, O righteous Lord;
2 As in thy fight I am approv'd,
   And with impartial eyes, O Lord,
   A gracious ear afford.
3 For thou hast search'd my heart by day,
   And, on the strictest trial, found
   So let my sentence be;
   Nor shall thy justice, Lord, alone
   Their safety to maintain;
   For I have purpos'd that my tongue
   Their secret motions right;
   I know what wicked men would do,
   My innocence secure,
   But me they just and mild commands
   And make my footsteps sure.
4 That I may still, in spite of wrongs,
   O guide me in thy righteous ways,
   Their paths encomps'd round;
   I know what wicked men would do,
   Since, heretofore, I ne'er in vain
   From bloody paths restrain,
   O! now, my God, incline thine ear
   Their swelling rage control;
   The wonders of thy truth and love
   To thee my pray'r address'd;
   Thou, whose right hand preserves thy saints
   This my just request.
   But I, in uprightness, thy face
   In my defence engage;
   And waking, shall its image find
   From their oppressors rage.

PSALM XVIII.

1, 2 NO change of times shall ever shock
   my firm affection, Lord, to thee
   For thou hast always been a rock,
   a fortress and defence to me.
   Thou my deliverer, art, my God;
   my trust is in thy mighty pow'r:
   Thou art my shield from foes abroad,
   at home my safeguard and my tow'r.
   To thee I will address my pray'r,
   (to whom all praise we justly owe;)
   So shall I, by thy watchful care, be guarded from my treach'rous foe.
   By floods of wicked men distrefs'd, with deadly forrows comphs'd round
   With dire infernal pangs opprest, in death's unwieldy fetters bound:
6 To hea'vn I made my mournful pray'r,
Who graciously inclin'd his ear,
to God address'd my humble moan;
and heard me from his lofty throne.

PART II.

7 When God arose to take my part,
From their firm posts the hills did start,
the conscious earth did quake for fear;
nor could his dreadful fury bear.
8 Thick clouds of smoke dispers'd abroad,
Devouring fire around him glow'd, ensigns of wrath before him came;
that coals were kindled at its flame.
9 He left the beauteous realms of light, Beneath his feet substantial night
whil'st heav'n bow'd down its awful head;
was, like a fable carpet, spread.
10 The chariot of the King of kings,
On a strong tempest's rapid wings,
which active troops of angels drew,
with most amazing swiftness flew.
11, 12 black wat'ry mists and clouds con-
But at his brightness soon retir'd, spir'd, with thickest shades his face to veil;
and fell in thaw's of fire and hail.
13 Thro' heaven's wide arch a thund'ring [peal,
and flakes of fire, was cover'd o'er;
which made his scatter'd foes retreat:
and quickly finith'd their defeat.
14 His sharpen'd arrows round he threw,
Like darts his nimble light'ning flew,
the world's foundations scatter'd,
which fiercely rag'd that dreadful day.
15 The deep its secret flores difclos'd,
By his avenging wrath expos'd,
the world's foundations scatter'd,
which fiercely rag'd that dreadful day.

PART III.

16 The Lord did on my fide engage;
And snatch'd me from the furious rage from hea'vn his throne my cause upheld, of threatening waves that proudly swell'd.
17 God his resiftless pow'r employ'd
Who else with ease had soon destroy'd my strongest waves that proudly swell'd.
my strongest foes attempts to break,
18 Their subtle rage had near prevail'd,
But ftil', when others succours fail'd,
the weak defence that I could make.
the weak defence that I could make.
19 From dangers that enclos'd me round,
For some just cause his goodness found when I distress'd and friendless lay;
God was my firm support and stay.
20 Because in me no guilt remains,
My hands are free from bloody stains,
God does his gracious help extend;
therefore the Lord is still my friend.
21, 22 For I his judgments keep in fight,
I never did his statutes flight,
in his just paths have always trod;
nor loosely wander'd from my God.
23, 24 But still my foul, sincere and pure,
His favours therefore yet endure,
did ev'n from darling sins refrain;
because my heart and hands are clean.

PART IV.

25, 26 Thou sult't, O Lord, thy righteous
They who for mercy merit praise, ways, to various paths of human kind.
with thee shall wondrous mercy find.
27, 28 That he the humble soul will save,
In me the Lord an inftance gave,
the pure thy purity shall fee:
shall meet with due returns from thee.
29 On his firm succour I rely'd,
Nor fear'd whilst he was on my fide,
and crush the haughty's boastful might;
whose darkness he has turn'd to light.

and did o'er num'rous foes prevail;
the best defended walls to scale.
For God's designs shall still succeed:
He's a strong shield to all that need,

Who then deserves to be ador'd,
Or who, except the mighty Lord,

his word will bear the utmost test:
and on his sure protection rest.

but God, on whom my hopes depend?
can with resiftless pow'r defend?

PART V.

'Tis God that girds my armour on,
Thro' him my feet can swiftly run,

Lessons of war from him I take,
Strong bows of steel with ease I break,

The buckler of his saving health
His hand sustains me still; my wealth

My goings he enlarg'd abroad,
And when in slipp'ry ways I trod,

Thro' him I num'rous hoists defeat,
Nor from my fierce pursuit retreat,

Cover'd with wounds, in vain they try
Spite of their boasted strength, they lie

God, when fresh armies take the field,
He makes my strong opposers yield,

Thro' him the necks of prostrate foes Aided by him I root out those

With loud complaints all friends they try'd;
At length to God for help they cry'd;
Like flying dust, which winds pursue,
Their slaughter'd bodies forth I threw,

but none was able to defend:
but God would no assistance lend.

Their broken troops I scatter'd round;
like loathsome dirt that clogstheground.

Our factious tribes, at strife till now,
The heathen to my sceptre bow,

Remotest realms their homage send,
Strangers for my commands attend,

All to my summons tamely yield,
For stronger holds they quit the field,

Let the eternal Lord be prais'd,
O'er highest heav'n's his name be rais'd,

'Tis God that still supports my right,
'Tis he that, with resiftless might,

My universal safeguard he!
He made me great, and set me free

Therefore, to celebrate his fame,
And nations, strangers to his name,

"God to his king deliverance sends,
His mercy evermore extends by God's appointment me obey;

and foreign nations own my sway.
when my successful name they hear;
charm'd with respect or aw'd by fear.
or soon in battle are dismay'd:
and still in strongest holds afraid.
the rock on whole defence I rest!
who me with his salvation blest.

his just revenge my foes pursues;
fierce nations to my yoke subdues.
from whom my lafiting honours flow,
from my resiftless bloody foe.

my grateful voice to heav'n I'll raise;
shall thus be taught to sing his praise;
shews his anointed signal grace:
to David and his promis'd race."
PSALM XIX.

1 THE heav'n's declare thy glory, Lord,
   The firmament and stars express
2 The dawn of day, by stars expres'd,
   From darkest night's successive rounds
3 Their pow'rful language to no realm
   'Tis nature's voice, and understood
4 Their doctrine does its sacred sense
   Whose bright contents the circling sun
5 No bridegroom, for his nuptials drest'sd,
   No giant does like him rejoice
6 From east to west from west to east,
   And, thro' his progress, cheerful light

7 God's perfect law converts the soul;
   With sacred wisdom his sure word
8 The statutes of the Lord are just,
   His pure commands in search of truth
9 His perfect worship here is fix'd,
   His equal laws are in the scales
10 Of more effeminence than golden mines,
   More sweet than honey, or the drops 11 My trusty counsellors they are,
   Divine rewards attend on those 12 But what frail man observes how oft O cleanse me from my secret faults,
13 Let no presumptuous sin, O Lord,
   That, by thy grace preserv'd, I may 14 So shall my pray'r and praises be
   And I secure on thy defence, which that alone can fill;

their great creator's skill.
fresh beams of knowledge brings;
divine infiruation springs.
or region is confin'd;
aliest by all mankind.
thro' earth's extent display:
does round the world convey.
has such a cheerful face:
to run his glorious race.
his resolute course he goes;
and vital warmth beflows.

PSALM XX.

1 THE Lord to thy request attend,
   The name of Jacob's God defend,
2 To aid thee from on high repair,
   Remember all thy off'ring there,
3 To compass thy own heart's desire
   Make kindly all events conspire
4 To thy salvation, Lord, for aid
   With banners in thy name display'd;
5 Our hopes are fix'd, that now the Lord
   From heav'n reftless aid afford,
6 Some tryst in steeds for war design'd;
   Against them all we'll call to mind
7 But from their steeds and chariots thrown, Diforder'd, broke, and trampled down,

and hear thee in distress;
and grant thy arms success;
and strength from Sion give;
thy sacrifice receive.
thy counsels still direct;
to bring them to effect.
we cheerfully repair,
" the Lord accept thy pray'r;"
our fav'ring will defend;
and to his prayer attend.
on chariots some rely:
the pow'r of God most high.
behold them thro' the plain,
whilst firm our troops remain.
PSALM XXI. XXII.

9 Still save us, Lord, and still proceed Hear, King of heav'n, in times of need, our rightful cause to bless:
the pray'rs that we address.

PSALM XXI.

1 THE king, O Lord, with songs of praise,
With thy salvation crown'd, shall raise shall in thy strength rejoice;
to heav'n his cheerful voice.

2 For thou, what'er his lips request,
But half, with thy acceptance, blest not only dost impart;
the wishes of his heart.

3 Thy goodness and thy tender care
A crown of gold thou mad'st him wear, have all his hopes outgone;
and set't it firmly on.

4 He pray'd for life; and thou, O Lord,
And graciously to him afford didst his short span extend,
a life that ne'er shall end.

5 Thy sure defence thro' nations round
And his successful actions crown'd has spread his glorious name;
with majesty and fame.

6 Eternal blessings thou bestow'lt,
Whilst thou to him unclouded shew'lt and mak'lt his joys increase;
the brightness of thy face.

PART II.

7 Because the king on God alone
His mercy still supports his throne, for timely aid relieves;
and all his wants supplies.

8 But, righteous Lord, thy stubborn foes Thy vengeful arm shall find out those shall feel thy heavy hand;
that hate thy mild supplies.

9 When thou against them dost engage,
Shall, like a glowing oven's rage,
thy just but dreadful doom their hopes and them consume.

10 Nor shall thy furious anger cease,
But root out all their guilty race,
or with their ruin end;
and to their seed extend.

11 For all their thoughts were set on ill,
But thou with watchful care didst still their hearts on malice bent;
the ill effects prevent.

12 In vain by shameful flight they'll try While thy swift darts shall faster fly, to 'scape thy dreadful might,
and gall them in their flight.

13 Thus, Lord, thy wondrous strength discomphe, and thus exalt thy fame;
to thy almighty name.

PSALM XXII.

1 MY God, my God, why leav'lt thou me
O! why so far from me remot'd, when I with anguish faint?
and from my loud complaint?

2 All day, but all the day unheard,
With cries implore relief all night,
but cry all night in vain.

3 Yet thou art still my righteous Judge And therefore Israel's praisers are of innocence oppress'd;
of right to thee address'd.

4, 5 On thee our ancestors rely'd,
With pious confidence they pray'd,
and thy deliverance found;
and with successes were crown'd.

6 But I am treat'd like a worm;
Not only by the great revil'd,
like none of human birth:
but made the rabble's mirth.

7 With laughter all the gazing crowd
They shoot the lip, they shake the head,
my agonies survey;
and thus deriding say:

8 "In God he trusted, boasting oft
"Let God come down to save him now, that he was heav'n's delight:
and own his favourite."

PSALM XXII.

PART II.

9 Thou mad'st my teeming mother's womb
When but a suckling at the breast, I wrongs 10 Thou, guardian-like, didst shield from
And since hast been my God and guide
11 Withdraw not then so far from me,
O! send me help, thy help, on which 12 High-pamper'd bulls, a frowning herd,
With strength proportion'd to their rage,
13 They gape on me, and ev'ry mouth
The defart lion's savage roar

PART III.

14 My blood like water spill'd, my joints
My heart dissolves within my breast,
15 My strength, like potter's earth, is parch'd;
And to the silent shades of death 16 Like blood-hounds, to surround me, they
They pierc'd my inoffensive hands;
17 My body's rack'd, till all my bones
Yet such a spectacle of woe
18 As spoil, my garments they divide,
19 Therefore approach, O Lord, my strength,
20 From their sharp sword protect thou me;
Nor let my darling in the pow'r
21 To save me from the lion's jaws,
As once, from going unicorns,
22 Then to my brethren I'll declare
In presence of assembled saints 23 "Ye worshippers of Jacob's God,
"O praise the Lord, and to your praise
24 'He ne'er disdain'd on low distress
"Nor turn'd from poverty his face,

PART IV.

25 Thus in thy sacred courts will I
In presence of thy saints perform
26 The meek companions of my grief
And all that seek the Lord shall be 27 Then shall the glad converted world
And scatter'd nations of the earth
28 'Tis his supreme prerogative
'Tis just that he should rule the world,
29 The rich, who are with plenty fed,
The sons of want, by him relief'd,

a living offspring bear;
I was thy early care.
my helpless infant days;
through life's bewilderd ways.
when trouble is so nigh:
I only can rely.
from Bafan's forest met,
have me around beset.
a yawning grave appears:
lefs dreadful is than theirs.
are rack'd and out of frame;
like wax before the flame.
my tongue cleaves to my jaws:
my fainting soul withdraws.
in pack'd assemblies meet:
they pierc'd my harmless feet.
distinctly may be told;
as paftime they behold.
lots for my vesture cast:
and to my succour haste.
of all but life bereft!
of cruel dogs be left.
thy present succour send.
thou didst my life defend.
the triumphs of thy name:
thy glory thus proclaim:
all you of Israel's line,
sincere obedience join.
to caft a gracious eye:
but hears its humble cry.'
With humble worship to his throne
That pow'r, which first their beings gave,
Then shall a chosen spotless race,
To their admiring heirs his truth,
they all for aid refort:
can only them support.
devoted to his name,
and glorious acts proclaim.

THE Lord himself, the mighty Lord,
The shepherd, by whose constant care
In tender grafs he makes me feed, Then leads me to cool shades, and where vouchsafes to be my guide;
my wants are all supply'd.
and gently there repofe;
refreshing water flows.
and, to his endless praise,
in his most righteous ways.
from fear and danger free;
defend and comfort me.
he does my table spread:
with oil anoints my head.
thro' all my life extend,
and in his temple spend.

This spacious earth is all the Lord's;
The world and they that dwell therein,
He fram'd and fix'd it on the feas;
Upon inconstant floods hath made the Lord's her fulness is:
by sovereign right are his.
and his almighty hand,
the stable fabric stand.
one chosen seat design'd.
deferv'd admission find!
whose thoughts from pride are free;
to gainful perjury.
shall show'r his blessings down;
with righteousnes to crown.
the sacred courts are trod;
the face of Jacob's God.
unfold, to entertain
with his celestial train.
The Lord for strength renown'd;
eternal victor crown'd.
in flate to entertain with all his shining train.
The Lord of hosts renown'd;
who is with glory crown'd.

TO God, in whom I trust,
O! let me not be put to shame,
Those who on thee rely
Be that the shamefull lot of such
I lift my heart and voice:
nor let my foes rejoice.
let no disgrace attend:
as wilfully offend.
4. To me thy truth impart,
   For thou art he that brings me help;
  Thy mercies and thy love
   And graciously continue still,
  Let all my youthful crimes
   And for thy wondrous goodness sake,
His mercy and his truth,
   In bringing wand’ring sinners home,
  He those in justice guides;
   And in his secret paths shall lead
Through all the ways of God
   To such as with religious hearts and lead me in thy way:
  on thee I wait all day.

O Lord, recall to mind;
  as thou wert ever, kind.
be blotted out by thee;
  in mercy think on me.
the righteous Lord displays,
  and teaching them his ways.
who his direction seek;
  the humble and the meek.
both truth and mercy shine,
  to his blest will incline.

PART II.

11 Since mercy is the grace
   Forgive my heinous sin, O Lord,
12 Whoe’er with humble fear,
   Shall find the Lord a faithful guide,
His quiet soul with peace
   And by his numerous race the land
For God to all his saints
   And does his gracious covenant write
To him I lift my eyes
   Who breaks the strong and treach’rous snare
O! turn, and all my griefs
   For I am compas’d round with woes,
The sorrows of my heart
   O! from this dark and dismal state
Do thou, with tender eyes,
   Acquit me, Lord, and from my guilt
Consider, Lord, my foes
   What lawless force and rage they use,
Protest, and let my soul
   Nor let me be afham’d, who place
Let all my righteous acts
   Because my firm and constant hope
To Israel’s chosen race
   And, in the midst of all their wants,
that most exalts thy fame;
  to God his duty pays,
and advance thy name.
  in all his righteous ways.
shall be for ever blest’d;
  succesively posses’d.
his secret will imparts,
  in their obedient hearts.
and wait his timely aid,
  which for my feet was laid.
in mercy, Lord, redres’d;
  and plung’d in deep distress.
to mighty sums increas’d;
  my troubled soul releas’d.
my sad affliction cease;
  entirely set me free.
how vast their numbers grow!
  what boundless hate they show!
from their fierce malice free;
  my fledgling trust in thee.
to full perfection rise;
  on thee alone relies.
continue ever kind;
  let them thy succour find.

PSALM XXVI.

1 JUDGE me, O Lord, for I the paths
   I cannot fail, who all my trust
2, 3 Search, prove my heart, whose innocence
   For I have kept thy grace in view, 4 I never for companions took
No hypocrite, with all his arts,
  I hate the busy plotting crew,
  And shun their wicked company,
  of righteousness have trod:
  repose on thee, my God.
will shine the more ‘tis try’d;
  and made thy truth my guide.
the idle or profane;
  could e’er my friendship gain.
who make distracted times;
  as I avoid their crimes.
PSALM XXVII.

6 I'll wash my hands in innocence,
That, when thy altar I approach,
and bring a heart so pure,
my welcome shall secure.

7 My thanks I'll publish there, and tell That feat affords me most delight
how thy renown excels:
in which thy honour dwells.

8 Paft not on me the sinner's doom,
Who others rights, by secret bribes,
who murder make their trade;
or open force, invade.

9 But I will walk in paths of truth, Protect me, therefore, and to me
and innocence pursue:
thy mercies, Lord, renew.

10 In spite of all assaulting foes,
And shall survive among thy saints,
I still maintain my ground;
thy praises to refund.

PSALM XXVIII.

1 WHOM should I fear, since God to me
Since strongly he my life supports, is saving health and light?
what can my soul affright?

2 With fierce intent my flesh to tear,
They stumbled, and their haughty crefts
when foes befet me round,
were made to strike the ground.

3 Thro' him my heart, undaunted, dares Thro' him, in doubtful straits of war with num'rous hofs to cope:
for good success I hope.

4 Henceforth, within his house to dwell
His wondrous beauty there to view,
I earnestly desire;
and his blest will enquire.

5 For there I may with comfort rest,
And safe, as on a rock, abide in times of deep distress;
in that secure recess:

6 Whill God o'er all my haughty foes
And I my joyful off'ring bring,
my lofty head shall raise;
and sing glad songs of praise.

PART II.

7 Continue, Lord, to hear my voice,
In mercy all my pray'rs receive,
whene'er to thee I cry;
nor my request deny.

8 When us to seek thy glorious face
"Thy glorious face I'll always seek," thou kindly doft advise;
my grateful heart replies.

9 Then hide not thou thy face, O Lord,
My God, and Saviour, leave not him
nor me in wrath reject:
thou didft fo oft protest.

10 Tho' all my friends, and nearest kin,
Yet thou, whose love excels them all,
their helpless charge forfake;
wilt care and pity take.

11 Instruft me in thy paths, O Lord; Left envious men, who watch my steps,
my ways directly guide;
should see me tread aside.

12 Lord, disappoint my cruel foes;
Whole lying lips, and bloody hands,
defeat their ill desire,
against my peace confpire.

13 I trusted that my future life
Or else my fainting soul had funk, should with thy love be crown'd;
with sorrow compas'd round.

14 God's time with patient faith expect,
With inward strength: do thou thy part,
and he'll inspire thy breast and leave him to the rest.

PSALM XXVIII.

1 O L ORD, my rock, to thee I cry, O! anfwerv or I shall become in fights consume my breath;
like those that sleep in death.

2 Regard my supplication, Lord,
With weeping eyes, and lifted hands,
the cries that I repeat,
before thy mercy-seat.
PSALM XXIX.

1 Ye princes that in might excel,
   God's glorious actions loudly tell,
2 To his great name freh altars raise;
   Him in his holy temple praise,
3 'Tis he that with amazing noise
   The ocean trembles at his voice,
4, 5 How full of pow'r his voice appears!
   Which from the roots tall cedars tears,
6 They, and the hills on which they grow, are sometimes hurry'd far away;
   And leap like hinds that bounding go,
7, 8 When God in thunder loudly speaks, and scatter'd flames of lightning sends,
   The forest nods, the desart quakes,
9 He makes the hinds to call their young;
   While those that to his courts belong,
10, 11 God rules the angry floods on high;
   His boundless sway shall never cease;
   His people he'll with strength supply,
   And blest his own with constant peace.

PSALM XXX.

1 I'll celebrate thy praises, Lord,
   To raise my drooping head, and check
2, 3 In my diffrets I cry'd to thee,
   And from the grave's expecting jaws
4 Thus to his courts, ye faints of his,
   With me commemorate his truth,
5 His wrath has but a moment's reign,
   Your night of grief is recompens'd
6 But I, in prosperous days, presum'd;
   Whilft in my lunshine of success
7 But soon I found thy favour, Lord,
   For, when thou hid'st thy face, I saw
who make a trade of ill;
   Whoft blood they mean to spill.
   Let justice have its course;
   Have fin'd without remorse.
   Nor will his grace adore;
   And build them up no more.
   His prai'ses will refund,
   A gracious answer found.
   In God, my strength and shield;
   Triumphant from the field:
   'Tis just that I should raise
   And thus refund his prai'se:
   That my just cause maintain;
   Thine heritage to blest:
   In battle, with success.
   Your grateful sacrifice prepare;
   His wondrous pow'r to all declare.
   Devoutly due respect afford;
   Where he's with solemn flate ador'd.
   The wat'ry clouds in funder breaks;
   When he from heav'n in thunder speaks.
   With what majestic crown'd!
   And strews their scatter'd branches round.

2, 3 Thee, and the hills on which they grow, are sometimes hurry'd far away;
   And leap like hinds that bounding go,
   Or unicorns in youthful play.
   Nor will his grace adore;
   And build them up no more.
   His prai'ses will refund,
   A gracious answer found.
   In God, my strength and shield;
   Triumphant from the field:
   'Tis just that I should raise
   And thus refund his prai'se:
   That my just cause maintain;
   Thine heritage to blest:
   In battle, with success.
   Your grateful sacrifice prepare;
   His wondrous pow'r to all declare.
   Devoutly due respect afford;
   Where he's with solemn flate ador'd.
   The wat'ry clouds in funder breaks;
   When he from heav'n in thunder speaks.
   With what majestic crown'd!
   And strews their scatter'd branches round.

1 I'll celebrate thy praises, Lord,
   To raise my drooping head, and check
who didst thy pow'r employ
   My foes insulting joy.
   Who kindly didst relieve
   My hopeless life retrieve.
   With fongs of prai'se repair;
   And providential care.
   His favour no decay;
   With joy's returning day.
   No sudden change I fear'd;
   No low'ring cloud appear'd.
   My empire's only trust;
   My honour laid in dust.
8 Then, as I vainly had presum'd,
And thus, with supplicating voice,
9 " What profit is there in my blood,
" Can silent ashes speak thy praise,
10 " Hear me, O Lord; in mercy hear;
" Do thou send help, on whom alone
11 'Tis done! Thou hast my mournful scene
Inverted me in robes of state,
12 Exalted thus, I'll gladly sing
And, as thy favours endless are,

my error I confess'd;
thy mercy's throne address'd;
conceal'd by death's cold night?
thy wondrous truth recite?
thy wonted aid extend:
I can for help depend.
to songs and dances turn'd;
who late in sackcloth mourn'd.
thy praise in grateful verse;
thy endless praise rehearse.

PSALM XXXI.

1 DEFEND me, Lord, from shame;
As just and righteous is thy name,
2 Bow down thy gracious ear,
Do thou my strength appear,
3 Since thou, when foes opprefs,
To guide me forth from this distress,
4 Release me from the snare
Since I, O God, my strength, repair
5 To thee, the God of truth,
(For thou preserv'dst me from my youth,)
6 All vain designs I hate
And still my soul, in ev'ry state,

I'll cheerfully express;
my soul in deep distress.
did all my strength enclose,
to shun my watchful foes.
and hear my just complaint;
with grief and hunger faint.
my years are spent in groans;
ev'n confirm'd my bones.
my neighbours did upbraid;
and fled, as men dismay'd.
as dead, and out of mind;
whose parts can ne'er be join'd.
and seem my pow'r to dread;
my guiltless blood to shed.
i on thy help repose:
my soul with comfort knows.

PART II.

7 Those mercies thou hast shown,
For thou hast seen my straits, and known
8 When Keilah's treach'rous race
Thou gav'st my feet a larger space,
9 Thy mercy, Lord, display,
For both my soul and flesh decay,
10 Sad thoughts my life oppress;
My fins have made my strength decrease,
11 My foes my ruth'ring mock'd;
My friends, at sight of me, were shock'd
12 Forsook by all am I,
And like a flatter'd vessel lie,
13 Yet fland'rous words they speak,
Whilst they together counsel take,
14 But still my head's fall trust That thou, my God, art good and just for still I trust in thee:

from danger set me free.
and speedy succour send:
to shelter and defend.
my rock and fortress art,
thy wonted help impart,
which they have closely laid;
to thee alone for aid.
my life, and all that's mine,
I willingly resign.
of those that trust in lies;
to God, for succour, flies.

PART III.

15 Whate'er events betide,
Then, Lord, thy servant safely hide
16 The brightness of thy face
And as thy mercies still increase,
PSALM XXXII. XXXIII.

17 Me from dishonour save,
Let that and silence in the grave,
18 Do thou their tongues refrain,
Who false reports, with proud disdain,
19 How great thy mercies are
Which thou, for those that trust thy care, 20 Thou keep'lt them in thy sight,
From tongues that do in strife delight,
21 With glory and renown
Whose love, in Keilah's well-fenced town,
22 I said, in hasty flight,
Yet still thou keep'lt me in thy sight,
23 O! all ye saints, the Lord
Who to the just will help afford, 24 Ye that on God rely,
For he will still your hearts supply who still have call'd on thee;
the sinner's portion be,
whose breath in lies is spent;
against the righteous vent.
to such as fear thy name,
doft to the world proclaim!
from proud oppressors free:
they are prefer'd by thee.
God's name be ever blest:
was wondrously express'd!
"I'm banish'd from thy eyes!"
and heard'lt my earnest cries.
with eager love pursu'd:
and give the proud their due.
courageously proceed:
with strength, in time of need.

PSALM XXXII.

1 HE's blest whose sins have pardon no more in judgment to appear;
gain'd,
and whose repentance is sincere.
2 While guilt remission has obtain'd, and whose bones consum'd without relief:
3 All day did I with anguish roar;
but no complaints assuaged my grief.
4 Heavy on me thy hand remain'd,
by day and night alike distress'd;
'Til quite of vital moisture drain'd,
like land with summer's drought oppress'd.
5 No sooner I my wound disclos'd, the guilt that tortur'd me within,
But thy forgivenes interpos'd, and mercy's healing balm pour'd in.
6 True penitents shall thus succeed, who seek thee whilst thou may'lt be found:
They, from the common deluge freed, shall see remorseless sinners drown'd.
7 Thy favour, Lord, in all diffrets, my tower of refuge I must own:
Thou shalt my haughty foes suppress,
and me with songs of triumph crown.
8 In my instruction then confide,
you that would truth's safe path descry:
Your progress I'll securely guide,
and keep you in my watchful eye.
9 Submit yourselves to wisdom's rule,
like men that reason have attain'd:
Nor like thy ungodly horse and mule,
whose fury must be curb'd and rein'd.
10 Sorrows on forrows multiply'd,
the harden'd sinner shall confound:
But them who in his truth confide, blessings of mercy shall surround.
11 His faints, that have perform'd his laws, their life in triumph shall employ:
Let them (as they alone have cause)
in grateful raptures shout for joy.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 LET all the just to God with joy,
their cheerful voices raise;
For well the righteous it becomes to sing glad songs of praise, 2, 3 Let harps, and psalteries, and lutes
in joyful concert meet;
And new-made songs of loud applauze
the harmony complete,
PSALM XXXIV

4.5 For faithful is the word of God; his works with truth abound; He justice loves; and all the earth is with his goodness crown'd.1 By his almighty word, at first, the heav'nly arch was rear'd; And all the beauteous hofts of light at his command appear'd. The dwelling floods, together roll'd, he makes in heaps to lie; And lays, as in a florehouse safe, the wat'ry treaures by, 8, 9 Let earth, and all that dwell therein, before him trembling stand; For, when he spake the word, 'twas made; 'twas fix'd at his command. He, when the heathen closely plot, their counsels undermines: His wisdom inefficual makes the people's rash designs. The crown'd, and beauteous: shall stand for ever sure; were; counsel's around and God therein, to ages shall endure. 11 Whate'er the mighty Lord decrees, to the Lord for God is known! The settled purpose of his heart the Lord has cho'en for his own. and knowledge, are, as his throne survey'd! the good man for ever sure. no work, in his heart's desire. the truth which is sure. 12 How happy then are they, to whom the Lord for God is known! Whom he, from all the world besides, has cho'en for his own. 13, 14, 15 He all the nations of the earth, from heav'n, his throne survey'd! He law their works, and view'd their thoughts, by him their hearts were made. 16, 17 No king is safe by num'rous hofts; their strength the strong deceives; No manag'd horse, by force or speed, his warlike rider faves. 18, 19 'Tis God, who those that trust in him, beholds with gracious eyes: He frees their soul from death; their want, in time of dearth, supplies. 20, 21 Our soul on God with patience waits; our help and shield is he; Then Lord, let still our hearts rejoice, because we trust in thee. 22 The riches of thy mercy, Lord, do thou to us extend; Since we, for all we want or wish, on thee alone depend. PSALM XXXIV. 1 THROUGH all the changing scenes of life, in trouble and in joy, The praifes of my God shall still my heart and tongue employ. The prai'ses of my God shall still till all that are distref't, The prai'ses of my God shall still, and charm their griefs to rest. The prai'ses of my God shall still, with me exalt his name: the prai'ses of my God shall still, he to my rescue came. 2 Of his deliv'rance I will boast, who look'd to him for aid; From my example comfort take, a cheerful air display'd. O magnify the Lord with me, whom providence reliev'd; 3 When in distress to him I call'd, whom providence reliev'd; 4 Their drooping hearts were soon refresh'd, so wondrously retriev'd! 5 Deliv'rance he affords to all the dwellings of the just: 6 Behold, (say they,) behold the man who on his succour truft. 6 ' Behold, (say they,) behold the man experience will decide who in his truth confide. 7 The hofts of God encamp around So dang'rously with woes beset, the dwellings of the just: who on his succour truft. Deliv'rance he affords to all 8 ! make but trial of his love; experience will decide who in his truth confide. How blest they are, and only they have nothing else to fear: 9 Fear him, ye faints; and you will then your wants shall be his care. Make you his service your delight; the Lord will food provide 10 While hungry lions lack their prey, and see their needs supply'd. For such as put their trust in him, the Lord will food provide and see their needs supply'd.
PSALM XXXV.

PART II.

11 Approach, ye piously dispos'd,
I'll teach you the true discipline
12 Let him who length of life defires,
From fland'ring language keep his tongue,
13 The crooked paths of vice decline,
Establish peace where 'tis begun;
14 The Lord from heav'n beholds the just
And, when distress'd, his gracious ear
15 But turns his wrathful look on thofe
To cut them off, and from the earth
16 Deliv'rance to his faints he gives,
He's nigh to heal the broken heart,
17 The wicked oft, but till in vain,
For under their affliction's weight,
18 The wicked from their wicked arts
Whill righteous men, whom they deteft,
19 For God prefers the foul's of thofe
To them and their posterity,

and my instruction hear:
of his religious fear,
and propf'rous days would see,
his lips from falsehood free.
and virtue's ways purfue:
and where 'tis loft, renew.

PSALM XXXV.

1 AGAINST all thofe that strive with me,
With fuch as war unjustly wage,
2 Thy buckler take and bind thy shield
Stand up, O God, in my defence
3 Bring forth thy fpear; and ftop their course, Say to my foul, "I am thy health,

And when the great assembly meets,

thy name with praifes blefs.
who me unjuftly hate,
to mock my fad estate.
induſtriously devife,
to forge malicious lies,
 aloud they vent their pftime;
he did it in our fight.''
with righteous eyes furvey, and keep not far away.
to judgment, Lord, awake;
to thy decision take.
let me thy juſtice find;
that triumph they defign'd.

for fham'e their faces hide;
that proudly me defy'd.
who my juft caufe befriend;
profes his faints attend.
inpir'd with grateful joy;
fhall all my days employ.

PSALM XXXVI.

1. MY crafty foe, with fatt'ring art,
Butreafon whispers to my heart,
2. He fhoths himfelf, retir'd from fight;
'Til his dark plots, expos'd to light,
3. In deeds he is my foe confeft,
True wiſdom's banifh'd from his breaft,
4. His wakeful malice spends the night
His obfinate, ungen'rous fpite

Thy sacred truth's unmeafur'd fpire

his wicked purpofe would difguife;
no fear of God's before his eyes.
secure he thinks his treach'rous game:

whilst with his tongue he speaks me
and vice his foile dominion there. [fair:
in forging his accurf'd defigns,
no executable means declines.
the highest orb of heav'n tranefends;
beyond the spreading sky extends.
PSALM XXXVII.

6 Thy justice like the hills remains;
    Thy providence the world sustains;
7 Since of thy goodness all partake,
    Thy brilliant wings their refuge make,
8 Such guests shall to thy courts be led,
    And drink, as from a fountain's head,
9 With thee the springs of life remain;
10 O! let thy fants thy favour gain.
11 Whilst pride's insulting foot would Unfathom'd depths thy judgments are;
    With what assurance should the just
    And fants to thy protection truft?
    To banquet on thy love's repart;
    Of joys that shall for ever latt.
    Thy presence is eternal day:
    To upright hearts thy truth display.
    And wicked hands my life surprife;
12 Their mischiefs on themselves return; down, down they're fall'n, no more to

PSALM XXXVII.

1 THOUGH wicked men grow rich or great,
Yet let not their successful state,
    Thy anger or thy envy raise:
2 For they, cut down like tender grass,
    Or like young flow'r's, away shall pass,
    Whose blooming beauty soon decays.
3 Depend on God, and him obey:
    So thou within the land shalt play,
    Secure from danger and from want.
4 Make his command thy chief delight:
    And he, thy duty to requite,
    Shall all thy earnest wishes grant.
5 In all thy ways trust thou the Lord,
    And he will needful help afford,
    To perfect ev'ry just design:
6 He'll make, like light, serene and clear,
    Thy clouded innocence appear,
    And as a mid-day sun to shine.
7 With quiet mind on God depend,
    And patiently for him attend;
    Nor let thy anger fondly rise,
    Tho' wicked men with wealth abound,
    And with success the plots are crown'd,
    Which they maliciously devise.
8 From anger cease, and wrath forfake;
    Let no ungovern'd passion make
    Thy wav'ring heart expoufe their crime:
9 For God shall sinful men destroy;
    Whilft only they the land enjoy,
    Who truft on him, and wait his time.
10 How soon shall wicked men decay!
    Their place shall vanish quite away,
    Nor by the strictest search be found;
11 Whilft humble souls possess the earth,
    Rejoicing still with godly mirth,
    With peace and plenty always crown'd.

PART II.

12 Whilft sinful crowds, with false design,
    Against the righteous few combine,
    And gnash their teeth, and threaten stand;
13 God shall their empty plots deride,
    And laugh at their defeated pride:
    He sees their ruin near at hand.
14 They draw the sword and bend the bow,
    The poor and needy o'erthrow,
    And men of upright lives to flay:
15 But their strong bow shall soon be broke;
    Their sharpen'd weapons mortal stroke
    Thro' their own hearts shall force its way.
16 A little with God's favour blest,
    That's by one righteous man posseffed,
    The wealth of many bad excels:
17 For God supports the just man's cause;
    But as for hope that break his laws,
    Their unsuccessful pow'r he quells.
His constant care the upright guides,
And over all their life presides;
their portion shall for ever last:
They, when distress o'erwhelms the earth,
Shall be unmoved, and even in death
the happy fruits of plenty taste.

Not so the wicked man, and those Who proudly dare God's will oppose:
destruction is their hapless share:
Like fat of lambs, their hopes and they Shall in an instant melt away,
and vanish into smoke and air.

PART III.

Whilst sinners brought to sad decay,
Still borrow on and never pay;
The just have will and power to give:
For such as God vouchsafes to bless,
Shall peaceably the earth possess;
and those he curseth shall not live.

Because compassion fill'd his heart,
And he did cheerfully impart,
God made his offspring's wealth increase.

With caution shun each wicked deed,
In virtue's ways with zeal proceed,
and so prolong your happy days;

For God, who judgment loves, does still Preserve his saints secure from ill;
while soon the wicked race decays.

The good man's way is God's delight;
He orders all the steps aright of him that moves by his command:
Tho' he sometimes may be distressed,
Yet shall he never be quite oppressed;
for God upholds him with his hand.

The upright shall possess the land:
His portion shall for ages stand;
his mouth with wisdom is supply'd;
Histongue by rules of judgment moves:
His heart the law of God approves:
therefore his footsteps never slide.

In wait the watchful sinner lies,
In vain the righteous to surprise:
in vain his ruin does decree;
God will not him defenceless leave,
To his revenge expos'd, but safe;
and when he's sentenced let him free.

In wait the watchful sinner lies,
In vain the righteous to surprise:
in vain his ruin does decree;

Observe the perfect man with care,
And mark all such as upright are:
their rougher days in peace shall end:
While on the latter end of those Who dare God's sacred will oppose,
a common ruin shall attend.

God to the just will aid afford;
Their only safeguard is the Lord:
their strength in time of need is he.
Because on him they still depend,
The Lord will timely succour send,
and from the wicked set them free.
PSALM XXXVIII.

1 THY chast'ning wrath, O Lord, restrain,
   Nor let at once on me the storm
2 In ev'ry wretched part of me
   Thy heavy hand's afflicting weight
3 My flesh is one continu'd wound,
   Betwixt my punishment and guilt,
4 My fins, that to a deluge swell,
   And for my feeble strength to bear
5 Stench and corruption fill my wounds;
6 With trouble I am warp'd and bow'd,
7 A loath'd disease afflicts my loins,
8 With sickness worn, I groan and roar
   tho' I deserve it all;
   of thy displeasure fall.
   thy arrows deep remain;
   I can no more fulfil.
   thy wrath so fiercely glows;
   my bones have no repose.
   my sinking head overflow,
   too vast a burden grow,
   my folly's just return:
   and all day long I mourn.
   th'o' I deserve it all;
   of thy displeasure fall,
   thy arrows deep remain;
   I can no more fulfil.

PART II.

9 But, Lord, before thy searching eyes
   And, sure, my groans have been too loud,
10 My heart's oppress'd, my strength decay'd,
11 Friends, lovers, kinsmen, gaze aloof
12 Mean while, the foes that seek my life,
13 But I, as if both deaf and dumb,
14 Quite deaf and dumb, like one whose tongue
15 For, Lord, to thee I do appeal,
   Affur'd that thou, the righteous God,
16 "Hear me, said I, left my proud foes
   "Insulting, if they see my foot
17 And, with continual grief oppress'd,
18 To thee, O Lord, I will confess,
19 But, whilst I languish, my proud foes
   And they that hate me without cause 20 Ev'n they whom I oblig'd, return
   And are my enemies, because 21 Forsake me not, O Lord, my God,
22 Make haste to my relief, O thou

PSALM XXXIX.

1 RESOLV'D to watch o'er all my ways,
   I curb'd my hasty words, when I
2 Like one that's dumb, I silent stood,
   From good discourse; but that restraint
3 My heart did glow with working thoughts,
   'Til strong reflection fann'd the fire,
4 Lord, let me know my term of days,
   The num'rous train of ills disclose,
   all my desires appear;
   not to have reach'd thine ear.
   my eyes depriv'd of light:
   on such a dismal sight.
   their snares to take me fet;
   to forge some new deceit.
   nor heard, nor once reply'd;
   with conscious guilt is ty'd.
   my innocence to clear;
   my injur'd cause wilt hear.
   a spiteful joy display;
   but once to go aftray.
   to sink I now begin:
   to thee bewail my fin.
   their strength and vigor boaft;
   are grown a dreadful hoft.
   my kindness with despite;
   I chuse the path that's right.
   nor far from me depart;
   who my salvation art.

I kept my tongue in awe;
   the wicked prof'rous saw.
   and did my tongue refrain increas'd my inward pain.
   and no repose could take;
   and thus at length I spake:
   how soon my life will end:
   which this frail skate attend.
PSALM XL.

1 I WAITED meekly for the Lord,
Who did his gracious ear afford,
2 He took me from the dismal pit,
On solid ground he plac'd my feet,
3 The wonders he for me has wrought
And others to his worship brought,
4 For blessings shall that man reward,
Who treats the proud with disregard,
5 Who can the wondrous works recount,
The treasures of thy love surmount,

6 I've learnt, that thou hast not defir'd
Nor blood of guiltless beasts requir'd,
7 I therefore come—come to fulfil
'Tis my delight to do thy will;

8 'Til he vouchsaf'd a kind reply;
And heard from heav'n my humble cry,
When founder'd deep in miry clay;
And suffer'd not my steps to stray.

9 In full assemblies I have told Nor, did, thou know'lt, my lips with-10 Nor kept within my breast confin'd
But preach'd thy love, for all design'd,
11 Then let those mercies I declar'd
Thy loving kindness my reward,
12 For I with troubles am distress'd,
Nor less with loads of guilt oppress'd,

As soon, alas! may I recount
My vanquish'd courage they surmount,

My life, thou know'lt is but a span;
And ev'ry man, in best estate,
Man, like a shadow, vainly walks,
He heaps up wealth, but cannot tell
Why then should I on worthles toys,
On thee alone my steadfast hope
Forgive my sins; nor let me scorn'd
For I was dumb, and murmur'd not,
The dreadful burden of thy wrath
Left my frail flesh too weak to bear
For when thou charg'nest man for sin,
(So vain a thing is he!) like cloth
Lord, hear my cry, accept my tears,
Who Jojourn like a stranger here,
O! spare me yet a little time;
Before I vanish quite from hence,

The oracles thy books impart:
Thy law is written in my heart.

PART II.

27

Thy truth and righteousness at large:
From uttering what thou gav'lt in charge:
Thy faithfulness and favour grace:
That all might that and truth embrace.

To others, Lord, extend to me:
Thy truth my safe protection be.
Too vast and numberless to bear:
The hairs on this afflicted head:

And fill my drooping soul with dread.
PART III.

13 But, Lord, to my relief draw near;
In my deliv'rance, Lord, appear;
Confusion on their heads return,
Let them, defeated, blush and mourn,
Their doom let defolation be,
Who mock'd my confidence in thee,
While those who humbly seek thy face,
And all who prize thy saving grace,
Thus, wretched tho' I am, and poor,
Thou, God, who only canst restore,
for never was more pressling need;
and add to that deliv'rance speed.
who to destroy my soul combine;
ensnared in their own vile design.
with shame their malice be repaid,
and sport of my affliction made:
to joyful triumphs shall be rais'd:
with me refound, The Lord be prais'd, of me th' almighty Lord takes care:
to my relief with speed repair.

PSALM XLI.

1 HAPPY the man, whose tender care
When troubles compafs him around,
The Lord his life, with blessings crown'd,
And dispair the will of those
If he in languishing estate,
The Lord will easy make his bed,
Secure of this, to thee, my God,
"Lord, for thy mercy, heal my soul,
My cruel foes, with fland'rous words,
"When shall he die, say they, and men
Suppose they formal vifts make,
They gather mischief in their hearts,
With private whifpers, fuch as these,
"A fore difeafe aflicts him now,
My own familiar bofom-friend,
Has me, whose daily gueft he was,
But thou, my sad and wretched state,
And raise me up that all their crimes
By this, I know, thy gracious ear
Because thou fuffer'ft not my foes
Thy tender care fecures my life
And thou vouchfaft'ft to fet me still Let therefore Irael's Lord and God
And all the people's glad applause relieves the poor diftrefs'd
the Lord fhall give him reft.
in safety fhall prolong;
that fearch to do him wrong.
oppress'd with ficknefs, lie;
and inward strength supply.
I thus my pray'r addrefs'd;
tho' I have much tranfrefs'd.
attempt to wound my fame;
forget his very name?'
'tis all but empty show;
and vent it where they go.
to hurt me they devife.
his fall'n no more to rise;'
on whom I moft rely'd,
with open scorn defy'd.
in mercy Lord, regard;
may meet their juft reward.
is open when I call:
to triumph in my fall.
from danger and disgrace;
before thy glorious face.
from age to age be blefs'd;
with loud amens express'd.

PSALM XLII.

1 AS pants the hart for cooling streams,
So longs my foul, O God, for thee,
For thee, my God, the living God,
O! when shall I behold thy face,
Tears are my constant food, while thus "Deluded wretch! where's now thy God?
when heated in the chace;
and thy refreshing grace.
my thirsty foul doth pine;
thou Mafia! divine?
infulting foes upbraid:
and where his promis'd aid?"
PSALM XLIII. XLIV.

4 I sigh whene'er my musing thoughts
When I with troops of pious friends
When I advanc'd with songs of praise
And led the joyful sacred throng

5 Why reflefs, why cast down, my soul?
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
My soul's cast down, O God; but thinks From Jordan's bank, from Herman's heights, and Miffar's humbler hill.

7 One trouble calls another on;
Fall spouting down, 'till round my soul
But when thy presence, Lord of life,
To thee I'll midnight anthems sing, has once dispell'd this storm,
and all my vows perform.

9 God of my strength, how long shall I,
Forlorn, forfaken, and expos'd
God of my strength, how long shall I,
In fight engage
like one forgotten mour'n,
to my oppressor's scorn?

10 My heart is pierc'd as with a sword,
"Vain boast'rs, where is now thy God?"
My heart is pierc'd as with a sword,
Of thine impiety, wouldst thou thus while thus my foes upbraid;
and where his promis'd aid?"

11 Why reflefs, why cast down, my soul?
The praise of him who is thy God,
Why reflefs, why cast down, my soul?
Now do I in heaven abode hope still! and thou shalt fing thy help's eternal spring.

PSALM XLIII.

1 JUST Judge of heav'n, against my foes,
do thou affer't my injur'd right;
O! let me free, my God, from thosc'
that in deceit and wrong delight.

2 Since thou art still my only stay,
why leav'ft thou me in deep distress?
Why go I mourning all the day
whilst I insulting foes oppres's?

3 Let me with light and truth be bless'd:
be these my guides to lead the way,
Til on thy holy hill I rest and in thy sacred temple pray.

4 Then will I there fresh altars raise,
to God, who is my only joy;
And well-tun'd harps, with songs of praise,
shall all my grateful hours employ.

5 Why then cast down, my soul? and why so much oppres'sd with anxious care?
On God, thy God, for aid rely who will thy ruin'd state repair.

PSALM XLIV.

1 O Lord, our fathers oft have told,
Thy wonders in their days perform'd,
How thou, to plant them here, didst drive Dispeopled by repeated strokes
in our attentive ears,

2 How not their courage, nor their sword,
Nor strength, that from unequal force
But thy right-hand, and pow'rful arm,
Thy presence with the cho'en race,
and elder times than theirs;
of thy avenging hand.

3 For not their courage, nor their sword,
Nor strength, that from unequal force
But thy right-hand, and pow'rful arm,
Thy presence with the cho'en race,
to them possession gave;
their fainting troops could save:

4 As thee their God our fathers own'd,
O! therefore, as thou didst to them,
Who thy great name ador'd.

5 Thro' thy victorious name our arms
And crush't them with repeated strokes, thou art our sovereign King:
to us deliv'rance bring.

6 I'll neither trust my bow and sword,
Nor thee, who hast our foes subdued,
when I in fight engage!

7 But thee, who haft our foes subdued,
To thee the triumph we acribe,
and shan't their spiteful rage.

8 In God we will rejoice all day,
In God we will rejoice all day,
from whom the conquest came;
and ever blest his name.
9 But thou hast cast us off; and now
For thou no more vouchfaff'lt to lead
most shamefully we yield;
10 Since when, to ev'ry upstart foe
And with our spoil their malice feast;
we turn our backs in fight;
11 To slaughter doom'd, we fall like sheep
Or (what's more wretched yet) sur vive, into their butcher'ring hands;
12 Thy people thou hast sold for slaves,
That not thy treasure, by the tale,
and set their price so low,
13, 14 Reproach'd by all the nations round, Whose fcorn of us is both in speech
the heathen's by-word grown; 15 Confusion strikes me blind; my face
in conscious shame I hide, 16 While we are fcoff'd, and God blaphem'd,
by their licentious pride,

PART II.
17 On us this heap of woe is fall'n;
Yet have not, Lord, renounc'd thy name,
all this we have endur'd:
18 But in thy righteous paths have kept Tho' thou haft broken all our strength, or faith to thee abjur'd;
19 Could we, forgetting thy great name,
And not the searcher of all hearts,
and we almost despair.
20 Thou feest what fuff'ring for thy fake,
All slaughter'd, or reserv'd like sheep
on other gods rely,
21 Awake, arife; let seeming sleep
Nor let us, Lord, who fue to thee,
the treach'rous crime decry?
22 Thou see'st what fuff'ring for thy fake,
All slaughter'd, or reserv'd like sheep
we ev'ry day suf'fert;
23 What souls and bodies sink to earth,
Advanc'd thy lofty head.
appointed to be slain.
24 O! wherefore hide'st thou thy face
No longer thee detain;
25 Whose fouls and bodies sink to earth,
With grief's oppressive weight?
for ever fue in vain.
26 Arife, O Lord, and timely hafe Redeem us, Lord:—if not for our,
to our deliv'rance make;
yet for thy mercy's, fake.

PART III.
1 WHILE I the King's loud praiife rehearfe,
My tongue is like the pen of him
indited by my heart,
2 How matchless is thy form, O King!
Becaufe fresh blessings, God, on thee that writeth with ready art.
3 Gird on thy sword, most mighty prince:
With glorious ornaments of pow'r,
thy mouth with grace o'erflows;
4 Ride on in state, and still protect Whilft thy right-hand, with fwidt revenge, eternally beflows.
5 How sharp thy weapons are to them Down, down they fall, while thro' their heart,
and, clad in rich array,
6 But thy firm throne, O God, is fix'd, Thy sceptre's fway shall always laft,
the meek, the just, and true;
7 Because thy heart, by justice led,
And hated still the crooked paths,
does all thy foes pursuie.
8 Therefore did God, thy God, on thee
And has, above thy fellows round, that dare thy pow'r despiše!
9 But thy arm, which sav'd the people,
And kept the Lord's reproach from them,
for ever to endure:
10 We turned our back to fight in their pride
Thy pow'r, Lord, is fwell'd, and fix'd against their foe; by righteous laws secure.
11 To whom we were a nation and a name,
And made them to be asfd to a flayy
did upright ways approve,
12 To the heathen, the treach'rous foe,
And in their yearn'd for the land of their own;
where wand'ring finners rove;
13 Wherefore hear the word of the Lord,
And all his people, who are in heart;
the oil of gladnefs fhed;
14 And fend the treach'rous foe away;
And God's right-hand to defend his people.
advanc'd thy lofty head.
PSALM XLVI. XLVII.

8 With caffia, aloes, and myrrh, Which, from the stately wardrobe brought, Among the honourable train The queen was plac’d at thy right-hand, thy royal robes abound; spread grateful odours round.
9 did princely virgins wait; in golden robes of state.

PART II.

10 But thou, O royal bride, give ear, and to my words attend;
   Forget thy native country now, and ev’ry former friend.
11 So shall thy beauty charm the King; nor shall his love decay;
   For he is now become thy Lord; to him due reverence pay.
12 The Tyrian matrons, rich and proud, shall humble presents make;
   And all the wealthy nations fue thy favour to partake.
13 'The king’s fair daughter’s fairer foul all inward graces fill:
   Her raiment is of pureft gold, adorn’d with costly skill.
14 She, in her nuptial garments dreft, with needles richly wrought, Attended by her virgin train, to the king be brought.
15 With all the state of solemn joy the triumph moves along,
   Til, with wide gates, the royal court receives the pompous throng.
16 Thou, in thy royal father’s room, muft princely sons expeft;
   Whom thou to differ’nt realms may’st defend, to govern and protect:
17 Whilst this my fong to future times transmits thy glorious name; and to my words attend;
   And makes the world, with one consent, thy laffing praise proclaim.

PSALM XLVI.

1 GOD is our refuge in distress; The Lord of hofts conduces our arms,
   A present help when dangers press; Our tow’r of refuge in alarms,
2 3 Tho’ earth were from her center toft, our father’s guardian God and ours.
   And mountains in the ocean loft, as to our fathers in distress.
   Our tow’r of refuge in alarms, the pride of Jacob, his delight.
2, 3 Tho’ earth were from her center toft, And mountains in the ocean loft, Torn piecemeal by the roaring tide.
4 A gentler stream with gladness fill The city of our Lord shall fill,
   The royal feat of God moft high. the royal feat of God shall fill,
5 God dwells in Sion, whose high tow’r Shall mock th’ affaults of earthly pow’rs, into devouring flames were hurl’d.
   Shall mock th’ affaults of earthly pow’rs, while his almighty aid is nigh.
6 In tumults wehn the heathen rag’d, And kingdoms war againft us wag’d, 10 Submit to God’s almighty fway;
   Lie thunder’d, and dispers’d their pow’rs. For him the heathen shall obey,
   The city of our Lord shall fill, and earth her Sov’reign Lord con-7 The Lord of hofts conduces our arms, fefs. shall the king be brought.
   Our tow’r of refuge in alarms, the triumph moves along,
8 Come, see the wonders he hath won, muft to the king be brought.
   On earth what defolation brought, receives the pompous throng.
9 He broke the warlike spear and bow; the triumph moves along,
   With them their thund’ring chariots too the triumph moves along,
   Shall fix the place where we muft dwell, the pride of Jacob, his delight.

PSALM XLVII.

1, 2 O ALL ye people clap your hands, and with triumphant voices fing: O ALL ye people clap your hands, and with triumphant voices fing:
   No force the mighty pow’r withstands of God the univerfal King.
3, 4 He shall oppofing nations quell, and with fuccefs our battles fight;
   Shall fix the place where we muft dwell, the pride of Jacob, his delight.
5. 6 God is gone up, our Lord and King, with shouts of joy and trumpets sound,
To him repeated praises sing,
and let the cheerful song go round.

7. 8 Your utmost skill in praise be shown for him, who all the world commands;
Who sits upon his righteous throne,
and spreds his fway o'er heathen lands.

9 Our chiefs and tribes that far from hence to serve the God of Abra'm came,
Found him their confant, sure defence. How great and glorious is his name!

PSALM XLVIII.

1 THE Lord, the only God, is great,
In Sion, on whose happy mount
2 Her tow'rs, the joy of all the earth,
On her north fide th' almighty King's 3 God in her palaces is known:
Confed'rate kings withdrew their siege,
They view'd her walls, admir'd, and fled,
6 Like women, whom the sudden pangs
No wretched crew of mariners
When fleets from Tarhifh' wealthy coafts
In Sion we have seen perform'd
In pledge that God, for times to come,
9 Not in our fortresses and walls
But on the temple fixt our hopes,
According to thy sovereign name,
Thy pow'ful arm, as justice guides,
Let Sion's mount with joy refound;
In fongs his judgments to extol,
Compas her walls in solemn pomp;
Count all her tow'rs, and fee if there
Her forts and palaces survey;
That, with assurance, to your heirs
This God is ours, and will be ours,
Who, as he has preferv'd us now,
and greatly to be prais'd his sacred throne is rais'd.
with beauteous prospect rife;
imperial city lies.
his presence is her guard:
and of success despair'd.
with grief and terror struck;
of travail had o'ertook.
appear like them forlorn,
by eastern winds are torn.
a work that was foretold,
his city will uphold.
did we, O God, confide;
in which thou doft refide.
thy praise thro' earth extends;
challises or defends.
her daughters all be taught who this deliv'rance wrought.
your eyes quite round her caft;
you find a stone displac'd.
obferve their order well;
his wonders you may tell.
whilst we in him confide!
'til death will be our guide.

PSALM XLIX.

1, 2 LET all the lift'ning world attend,
Let high and low, and rich and poor,
My mouth, with sacred wisdom fill'd,
The found result of prudent thoughts,
To parables of weighty sense
Whilft to my tuneful harp I fing
Why should my courage fail in times
When finners, that would me supplant,
Those men, that all their hope and trust
And boast in triumph, when they see
Are yet unable from the grave
Nor can, by force of bribes, reverse
and my instruction hear:
with joint content give ear.
shall good advice impart,
digested in my heart.
I will my ear incline:
dark words of deep design.
of danger and of doubt,
have compas'sd me about?
in heaps of treasure place,
their ill-got wealth increafe,
their dearest friend to free:
th' almighty Lord's decree.
PSALM L.

8, 9 Their vain endeavours they must quit;
No sums can purchase such a grant,
10 Not wisdom can the wife exempt,
But both must perish, and, in death,
For tho' they think their flately feats
But their remembrance laft in lands,
Yet shall their fame be soon forgot,
With beasts their memory and they
the price is held too high:
that man should never die.
not fools their folly save;
their wealth to others leave.
shall ne'er to ruin fall;
which by their names they call;
how great foe'er their state:
shall share one common fate.

PART II.

13 How great their folly is, who thus
And yet their children, unreclaim'd, 14 They all, like sheep to slaughter led,
Their beauty, while the juff rejoice,
But God will yet redeem my soul;
His greater pow'r shall set me free,
Then fear not thou, when worldly men
Nor tho' their prosp'rous house increafe,
For when they're summon'd hence by death,
No shadow of their former pomp
And yet they thought their state was blest,
Who with their vanity comply'd,
In their forefathers steps they tread;
Their wretched ancestors and they
For man, how great foe'er his state,
As like a fenfual beast he lives,
absurd conclusions make!
repeat the gross mistake.
the prey of death are made;
within the grave shall fade.
and from the greedy grave
and to himself receive.
in envy'd wealth abound;
with flate and honour crown'd.
they leave all this behind;
within the grave they find:
cought in the flatt'rer's snare,
and prais'd their worldly care.
and when, like them, they die,
in endless darkness lie.
unles he's truly wife,
so like a beast he dies.

PSALM L.

1, 2 THE Lord hath spoke, the mighty God
Hath sent his summons all abroad, from dawning light, 'till day declines:
The lift'ning earth his voice hath heard,
And he from Sion hath appear'd,
where beauty in perfection shines.

3, 4 Our God shall come, and keep no more Misconstrued silence, as before;
but wafiting flames before him fend:
Around shall tempests fiercely rage,
While he does heav'n and earth engage his just tribunal to attend.

5, 6 Assemble all my faints to me,
(Thus runs the great divine decree,) that in my lafting cov'nant live;
And o'f'ring brings with constant care,
(The heav'n's his justice shall declare, for God himself shall sentence give.)
Attend my people, Israel, hear;
Thy strong accufers I'll appear;
thy God, thy only God, am I.
Thy frogs, which daily in my temple flame,
my Sacred altar did supply.

9 Will this alone atonement make?
No bullock from thy fold I'll take,
or he-goat from thy fold accept:
The forest beasts that range alone,
The cattle too are all my own,
that on a thousand hills are kept.

11 I know the fowls, that build their nests
In craggy rocks; and favage beasts, that loofely haunt the open fields:
If feiz'd with hunger I could be,
I need not seek relief from thee;
since the world's mine and all it yields.
13 Think'st thou that I have any need Onslaughter'd bulls and goats to feed, to eat their flesh and drink their blood?

14 The sacrifices I require,
Are hearts which love and zeal inspire,
and vows with strictest care made good.

15 In time of trouble call on me,
And I will set thee safe and free;
and thou returns of praise shalt make.

16 But to the wicked thus faith God,
How dar'st thou teach my laws abroad,
or in thy mouth my cov'rant take?

17 For stubborn thou, confirm'd in sin, Hast proof against infraction been,
and of my word didst lightly speak.

18 When thou a subtle thief didst see,
Thou gladly didst with him agree,
and with adult'rs didst partake.

19 Vile slander is thy chief delight;
Thy tongue, by envy mov'd and spite,
deceitful tales does hourly spread:

20 Thou dost with hateful scandals wound
Thy brother, and with lies confound the offspring of thy mother's bed.

21 These things didst thou, whom still I strove
To gain with silence, and with love;
'til thou didst wickedly furmise,
That I was such a one as thou:
But I'll 'prove and shame thee now,
and fet thy fins before thine eyes.

22 Mark this, ye wicked fools, left I Let all my bolts of vengeance fly, whilft none shall dare your cause to own:

23 Who praises me, due honour gives;
And to the man that justly lives,
my strong salvation shall be shown.

PSALM LI.

1. HAVE mercy, Lord, on me,
Let me, oppress'd with loads of guilt,

2. Wash off my foul offence,
For I confess my crime, and fee

4. Against thee, Lord, alone,
Have I transgress'd; and, tho' condemn'd,

5. In guilt each part was form'd
In guilt I was conceiv'd, and born

6. Yet thou, whose searching eye
In secret didst with wisdom's laws

7. With hyssop purge me, Lord;
I shall with snow in whiteness vie,

8. Make me to hear with joy
That fo the bones, which thou haft broke,

9. Blot out my crying sins,
Create in me a heart that's clean,

as thou wert ever kind;
thy wonted mercy find,
and cleanse me from my sin;
how great my guilt has been.
and only in thy fight,
must own thy judgment's right.
of all this sinful frame;
the heir of sin and shame;
does inward truth require,
my tender soul inspire.
and so I clean shall be:
when purify'd by thee.
thy kind forgiving voice;
may with fresh strength rejoice.
nor me in anger view;
an upright mind renew.

PART II.

11 Withdraw not thou thy help,
Nor let thy holy spirit take

12 The joy thy favour gives,
And thy free spirit's firm support

13 So I thy righteous ways
Whil'st my advice shall wicked men

14 My guilt of blood remove,
And my glad tongue shall loudly tell nor call me from thy sight;

its everlasting flight.
let me again obtain;
my fainting soul sustain.
to sinners will impart;
to thy just laws convert.
my Saviour, and my God;
thy righteous acts abroad.
PSALM LII. LIII. LIV.

15 Do thou unlock my lips,
So shall my mouth thy wondrous praise,
with sorrow clos’d, and shame;
16 Could sacrifice atone
But on such offerings thou disdain’t
all the world proclaim;
A broken spirit is
By him a broken contrite heart whose flocks and herds should die;
17 By a broken contrite heart
Of thy good-will affur’d to cast a gracious eye.
and thy own city flourish long,
18 Let Sion favour find,
And thy own city flourish long,
by lofty walls secure’d.
19 The just shall then attend,
And sacrifice of choiceft kind upon thy altar lay.

PSALM LII.

1 IN vain, O man of lawless might,
Since God, the God in whom I trust,
that God is but a name:
2 Thy wicked tongue does fland’rous tales
And, sharper than a razor fet,
since virtue all disclaim.
3 Thy thoughts are more on ill than good, Thy tongue delights in words by which
the sons of men to view,
4 Thy tongue delights in words by which Thy thoughts are more on ill than good,
it wounds with treach’rous lies.
5 God shall for ever blast thy hopes,
Nor in thy dwelling-place permit,
the guiltless are destroy’d.
6 The just, with pious fear, shall see And at thy sudden ruin laugh,
and thus thy fall deride:
7 " See there the man that haughty was," Who trusted in his wealth, and still that shade God’s temple round; 8 But I am like those olive-plants, And hope with his indulgent grace extol thy wondrous love;
9 So shall my soul with praise, O God, And on thy name with patience wait;
for this thy faints approve.

PSALM LIII.

1 THE wicked fools must sure suppose,
This gross mistake their practice shews, that God is but a name:
2 The Lord look’d down from heav’n’s high
To see if any own’d his pow’r,
since virtue all disclaim.
3 But all, he saw, were backwards gone, None for religion car’d, not one dege’n’rate grown and base;
4 But are those workers of deceit That they like bread my people eat, of all the sinful race.
5 Their causeles fear shall strangely grow; Shall soon be foil’d; his hand shall throw and they despis’d of God, their shatter’d bones abroad, 6 Would he his saving pow’r employ Loud shouts of universal joy break our servile hand, should echo thro’ the land.

PSALM LIV.

1, 2 LORD, save me, for thy glorious name;
To judge my caufe; accept my pray’r, and in thy strength appear,
To judge my caufe; accept my pray’r, and in thy strength appear,
3 Mere strangers whom I never wrong’d, And cruel men, that fear no God, to ruin me design’d; to ruin me design’d;
4, 5 But God takes part with all my friends; and he's the surest guard:
The God of truth shall give my foes their falsehood's due reward:
While I my grateful offerings bring, and sacrifice with joy;
And in his praise my time to come delightfully employ.
From dreadful danger and distress
Thro' him shall I of all my foes the Lord hath set me free:
the just destruction see.

PSALM LV.

1 GIVE ear, thou Judge of all the earth, and listen when I pray;
Nor from thy humble suppliant turn thy glorious face away.
2 Attend to this my sad complaint, and hear my grievous moans;
While I my mournful case declare, with artless sighs and groans.
3 Hark how the foe insults aloud! how fierce oppressors rage!
Whose land'rous tongues, with wrathful hate,
4, 5 My heart is rack'd with pain; my soul with horror quite opprest;
With fear and trembling compass'd round, with dread and frights distress'd;
6 How often wish'd I then, that I with horror quite opprest;
That I might take my speedy flight, with horror quite opprest;
7, 8 Then would I wander far from hence, with horror quite opprest;
'Til all this furious storm were spent, and in wild desarts stray, 9 Destroy, O Lord, their ill designs, this tempest pass'd away.
For thro' the city my grieved eyes will listen when I pray;
10 By day and night on ev'ry wall and hear my grievous moans;
And in the midst of all her strength with deadly frights distrest;
11 Whoe'er thro' ev'ry part shall roam, and in the midst of all her strength
Deceit and guile their constant posts maintain in ev'ry street.
12 For 'twas not any open foe, that false reflections made;
For then I could with ease have borne the bitter things he said:
'Twas none who hatred had profes'd, that did against me rise;
For then I had withdrawn myself from his malicious eyes.
13, 14 But 'twas not my guide, my friend,
Whose sweet advice I valued most, whom tend'rest love did join;
Whose sweet advice I valued most, whose pray'rs were mix'd with mine.
15 Sure vengeance, equal to their crimes, such traitors must surprize,
And sudden death requite those ills they wickedly devise.
16, 17 But I will call on God, who still shall in my aid appear:
At morn, and noon, and night, I'll pray; and he my voice shall hear.

PART III.

18 God has releas'd my soul from those their counsels soon divide;
And made a numerous host of friends have f'rile and rapine spy'd.
19 For he, who was my help of old, they walk their constant round;
And punish them, whose prosp'rous state are grief and michief found.
20 Whom can I trust, if faithless men such traitors must surprize,
To ruin me, their peaceful friend, that did with me contend;
And made a numerous host of friends my righteous cause defend.
And made a numerous host of friends shall now his suppliant hear;
That did with me contend; makes them no God to fear.

PART II.

9 Destroy, O Lord, their ill designs, their counsels soon divide;
For thro' the city my grieved eyes have f'rile and rapine spy'd.
10 By day and night on ev'ry wall they walk their constant round;
And in the midst of all her strength are grief and michief found.
11 Whoe'er thro' ev'ry part shall roam, will fresh disorders meet;
Deceit and guile their constant posts maintain in ev'ry street.
12 For 'twas not any open foe, that false reflections made;
For then I could with ease have borne the bitter things he said:
'Twas none who hatred had profes'd, that did against me rise;
For then I had withdrawn myself from his malicious eyes.
13, 14 But 'twas not my guide, my friend,
Whose sweet advice I valued most, whom tend'rest love did join;
Whose sweet advice I valued most, whose pray'rs were mix'd with mine.
15 Sure vengeance, equal to their crimes, such traitors must surprize,
And sudden death requite those ills they wickedly devise.
16, 17 But I will call on God, who still shall in my aid appear:
At morn, and noon, and night, I'll pray; and he my voice shall hear.

PART III.

18 God has releas'd my soul from those their counsels soon divide;
And made a numerous host of friends have f'rile and rapine spy'd.
19 For he, who was my help of old, they walk their constant round;
And punish them, whose prosp'rous state are grief and michief found.
20 Whom can I trust, if faithless men such traitors must surprize,
To ruin me, their peaceful friend, that did with me contend;
And made a numerous host of friends my righteous cause defend.
And made a numerous host of friends shall now his suppliant hear;
That did with me contend; makes them no God to fear.
PSALM LVI.

21 Tho' soft and melting are their words,
Their speeches are more smooth than oil,
Their hearts with war abound:
and yet like swords they wound.
22 Do thou, my soul, on God depend,
He aids the just, whom to supplant and he shall thee sustain:
the wicked strive in vain.
23 My foes, that trade in lies and blood,
Whilst I, for health and length of days,
shall all untimely die,
on thee my God rely.

PSALM LVI.

1 DO thou, O God, in mercy help;
To crush me with repeated wrongs,
for man my life pursues:
he daily strife renewes.
2 Continually my spiteful foes
Thou seest, who fitt'st enthron'd on high,
to ruin me combine;
what mighty numbers join.
3 But thou' sometimes surpris'd by fear,
Yet still for succour I depend (on danger's first alarm)
on thy almighty arm.
4 God's faithful promis I shall praise,
In God I trust, and, troubling him,
on which I now rely:
the arm of flesh defy.
5 They wret my words, and make them speak
Their thoughts are all, with restless spite,
a sense they never meant:
on my destruction bent.
6 In clofe assemblies they combine,
They watch my steps, and lie in wait and wicked projects lay:
to make my soul their prey.
7 Shall such injustice still escape?
Let thy just wrath (too long provok'd)
O righteous God, arise;
this impious race chaftise.
8 Thou num'breft all my wand'ring steps,
My very tears are treasur'd up,
since first compell'd to flee:
and regist'red by thee.
9 When therefore I invoke thy aid,
For I am well assur'd, that God my foes shall be o'erthrown;
my righteous cause will own,
10, 11 I'll trust God's word, and so despise
Thou hast retriev'd my soul from death;
the force that man can raife;
to thee I'll render praise.
12 To thee, O God, my vows are due;
The life thou hast so oft preferv'd,
and thou wilt still secure
and make my footsteps sure:
13 Thou hast retriev'd my soul from death;
The life thou hast so oft preferv'd,
I may this light enjoy;
my lengthen'd days employ.
14 That thus protected by thy pow'r,
And in the service of my God your mercy, Lord, to me extend:
On thy protection I depend.
1 Thy mercy, Lord, to me extend:
On thy protection I depend;
To thy tribunal, Lord, I fly,
Who wonders hath for me begun,
From heav'n protect me by thine arm,
And shame all those that seek my harm;
4 For I with savage men converse,
Like hungry lions wild and fierce;
With men whose teeth are spears,
Envenom'd darts and two-edg'd swords.
2 And to thy wing for shelter haft,
'Til this outrageous storm is past.
2 To thy tribunal, Lord, I fly,
Who wonders hath for me begun,
And wilt not leave thy work undone.
3 From heav'n protect me by thine arm,
And shame all those that seek my harm;
'Til thou art here, as there, obey'd.
To take me they their net prepar'd,
But fell themselves, by just decree,
Into the pit they made for me.
PSALM LVIII. LIX.

7 O God, my heart is fixt, 'tis bent
Its thankful tribute to present;
And with my heart my voice I'll raife
To thee, my God, in songs of praife.

8 Awake, my glory; harp and lute,
No longer let your strings be mute:
And I, my tuneful part to take,
Will with the early dawn awake.

PSALM LVIII.

1 SPEAK, O ye judges of the earth,
Or muft not innocence appeal
2 Your wicked hearts and judgments are Your gripping hands, by weighty bribes,
3 To virtue strangers from the womb,
They prattled slander, and in lies 4 No serpent of parch'd Afric's breed
the drowfy adder will as soon
5 Unmov'd by good advice, and deaf
From whom the skilful charmer's voice
6 Defeat, O God, their threat'ning rage,
Disarm these growling lions jaws,
7 Let now their insolence, at height,
Their shiver'd darts deceive their aim,
8 Like fnails let them difsolve to flame;
Unworthy to behold the fun,
9 Ere thorns can make the flesh-pots boil,
From God, and snatch them hence alive
10 The righteous shall rejoice to fee
And saints in perfecutor's blood
11 Transgreffors then with grief shall fee
And own a God, whose justice will

PSALM LIX.

1 DELIVER me, O Lord, my God,
In my defence oppofe thy pow'r,
2 Preferve me from a wicked race,
Protect me from remorfelefs men,
3 They lie in wait, and mighty pow'r's
Implacable; yet, Lord, thou know'ft,
4 In haufe they run about, and watch
Look down, O Lord, on my diftrefs,
5 Thou Lord of hofts, and Israel's God,
Relentlefs vengeance take on tho'fe
6 At ev'ning, to befet mine house,
While others thro' the city range,
7 Their thoughts envenom'd flander breathe;
"Who hears (lay they) or, hearing, dares
9 Thy praises, Lord, I will refund
To all the lift'ning nations round.
10 Thy mercy highest heaven tranfends,
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.
11 Be thou, O God, exalted high;
And as thy glory fills the sky,
'So let it be on earth display'd,
'Til thou art here, as there, obey'd.
PSALM LX.

8 But from thy throne thou shalt, O Lord, And soon to scorn and shame expose their baffled plots deride, their boast'd heathen pride.
For succour I depend; who only canst defend,
From danger set me free, my haughty foes to me.
Restrain thy vengeful blow: forget their overthrow.

9 On thee I wait: 'tis on thy strength I'll avenging pow'r:
'Tis thou, O God, art my defence, by thy avenging pow'r: O Lord, our shield and tow'r.
Thou shalt, O Lord, art my defence, our shield and tow'r.
Their arrogance chastise: their arrogance chastise: like growling dogs to meet;
Thine anger, Lord, suppress; and traverse ev'ry street.
May Israel's God confefs; for hunger let them stray;
Like growing dogs to meet; defeated of their prey.
Their arrogance chastise: like growling dogs to meet;
May Israel's God confefs; my refuge in distress.
O God, my strength, I'll sing:

PSALM LX.

1 O GOD, who haft our troops dispers'd,
Forsaking those who left thee first; Manasseh, Gilead, both subscribe,
As we thy just displeasure mourn, To my commands with Ephraim's tribe:
To us in mercy, Lord, return. Ephraim by arms supports my cause, And Judah by religious laws.

2 Our strength, that firm as earth did stand,
Is rent by thy avenging hand: Moab my slave and drudge shall be,
O heal the breaches thou haft made! Nor Edom from my yoke get free; We shake, we fall, without thy aid!
Proud Palestine's imperious state Shall humbly on our triumph wait.

3 Our folly's sad effects we feel! But who shall quell these mighty pow'rs,
For drunk with discord's cup we reel; And clear my way to Edom's tow'r's?
But now, for them who thee rever'd, Or thro' her gaarded frontiers tread Thou haft thy truth's bright banner The path that does to conquest lead?
rear'd. Tho' whom thou didst in wrath for-

5 Let thy right hand thy foes protect: fake, Aton'd, thou wilt victorious make.
Lord, hear the pray'rs that we direct.

6 The holy God has spoke; and I, 11 Do thou our fainting cause sustain;
O'erjoy'd, on his firm word rely. For human succours are but vain.
To thee in portions I'll divide Freeth strength and courage God be-Fair Sichem's spoil, Samaria's pride: flows:
To Sichem Succoth next I'll join, 'Tis he treads down our proudest foes.
And measure out her vale by line.
PSALM LXI.

1 LORD hear my cry, regard my pray'r, which I, oppres'd with grief, to thee for kind relief.
2 From earth's remotef parts addrefs of percuting pow'r.
O! lodge me safe beyond the reach haft been my heft'ring tow'r.
3 Thou who fo oft from spiteful foes secure from danger lie;
So shall I in thy sacred courts all future forms defy.
Beneath the covert of thy wings, I o'er thy chofen reign:
5 In sign my vows are heard, once more I o'er thy chofen reign:
6 O blefs with long and prosp'rous life the king thou didst ordain.
7 Confirm his throne, and make his reign accepted in thy fight;
And let thy truth and mercy both in his defence unite.
8 So small I ever fing thy praife, thy name for ever blefs;
Devote my prosp'rous days to pay the vows of my distrefs.

PSALM LXII.

1, 2 MY soul for help on God relies; from him alone my safety flows:
My rock, my health, that strength supplies, to bear the shock of all my foes.
3 How long will ye contrive my fall, which will but haften on your own?
You'll totter like a bending wall, or fence of uncemented stone.
4 To make my envy'd honours les, they strive with lies, their chief delight;
For they, tho' with their mouths they in private curse with inward spite.
5, 6 But thou, my soul, on God rely; on him alone thy trust repose:
My rock and health will strength supply, to bear the shock of all my foes.
7 God does his saving health dispence, and flowing blefsings daily fend:
He is my fortrefs and defence; on him my soul shall still depend.
8 In him, ye people, always trust; before his throne pour out your hearts;
For God, the merciful and just, his timely aid to us imparts.
9 The vulgar fickle are and frail; the great dissemble and betray;
And laid in truth's impartial fcale, the lightest things will both outweigh.
10 Then truft not in oppressive ways; by spoil and rapine grow not vain;
Nor let your hearts, if wealth increase, be fet too much upon your gain.
11 For God has oft his will expref'sd, and I this truth have fully known;
To be of boundles pow'r poiff'ed, belongs, of right, to God alone.
12 Tho' mercy is his darling grace, in which he chiefly takes delight;
Yet will he all the human race according to their works require.

PSALM LXIII.

1 O GOD, my gracious God, to thee My morning pray'rs shall offer'd be; O! to my longing eyes, once more,
My morning pray'rs shall offer'd be; for thee my thirsty soul does pant:
My fainting flesh implores thy grace That view of glorious pow'r restore,
Within this dry and barren place, which thy majeftic house displays:
where I refreshing waters want.
3 Because to me thy wondrous love. Than life itself does dearer prove.
My lips shall always speak thy praife.
PSALM LXIV.
4 My life, while I that life enjoy,
   In blessing God I will employ;
   with lifted hands adore his name:
5 My soul's content shall be as great
   As theirs who choosest dainties eat, while I with joy his praise proclaim.

6 When down I lie, sweet sleep to find,
   Thou, Lord, art present to my mind;
   and when I wake in dead of night,
7 Because thou still dost succour bring,
   Beneath the shadow of thy wing
   I rest with safety and delight.

PSALM LXIV.
1 LORD, hear the voice of my complaint;
   Preserve my life from cruel foes,
2 O! hide me with thy tenderest care,
   From sinners that against me rise;
3 See how, intent to work my harm,
   And bend their bows to shoot, like darts,
4 Lurking in private, at the just
   And suddenly at them they shoot,
5 To carry on their ill designs
   They speak of laying private snares,
6 With utmost diligence and care
   The deep designs of all their hearts
7 But God, to anger jutly mov'd,
   And on his flying arrow's point
8 Those snares, which their mouths did vent,
   Their crimes, disclos'd, shall make them be despis'd and shunn'd by all.
9 The world shall then God's power confess;
   And nations trembling stand,
   Convinc'd that 'tis the mighty work
10 Whil'st righteous men, whom God secures,
   And all the lifting'ng earth shall hear,

PSALM LXV.
1 FOR thee, O God, our constant praise
   Our promis'd altars there we'll raise,
2 O thou, who to my humble pray'r
   To thee shall all mankind repair,
3 Our sins, tho' numberless, in vain
   Whilst thou o'erlook'ft the guilty stain,
4 Blest is the man who, near thee plac'd,
   Whil'st we, at humbler distance, taste
5 By wondrous acts, O God, most just,
   In thee remotest nations trust,

8 My soul, when foes would me devour, Cleave fast to thee, whose matchless pow'r in her support is daily shown:
9 But those the righteous Lord shall slay,
   That my destruction with; and they that seek my life, shall lose their own.
10, 11 They by untimely ends shall die,
   Their flesh a prey to foxes lie;
   but God shall fill the king with joy:
   Who swears by thee shall still rejoice:
   Whil'st the false tongue and lying voice,
   thou, Lord, shal' silence and destroy.

in Sion waits, thy chosen fe'at:
   and all our zealous vows complete.
   didst always bend thy lifting ear,
   and at thy gracious throne appear.
   to stop thy flowing mercy try;
   and wash'ed out the crimson dye.
   within thy sacred dwelling lives!
   the vast delights thy temple gives.
   have we thy gracious answer found;
   and those whom stormy waves surround,
PSALM LXVI.

6, 7 God by his strength sets fast the hills, and does his matchless pow'r engage; With which the seas loud waves he stills, and angry clouds tumultuous rage.

PART II.

8 Thou, Lord, dost barb'rous lands dis.

With joy they see the night and day
9 From out thy unexhausted store
Makes lands, that barren were before, 10 On rising ridges down it pours,
Thou mak'ft them soft with gentle show'rs,
11 Thy goodness does the circling year
And where thy glorious paths appear,
12 They drop on barren forests, chang'd
The hills about in order rang'd,
13 Large flocks with fleecy wool adorn
A plenteous crop of full-ear'd corn,

PSALM LXVI.

1, 2 LET all the lands, with shouts of joy,
Sing psalms, in honour of his name,
3 And let them say, How dreadful, Lord,
To thy great pow'r thy stubborn foes
4 Thro' all the earth the nations round
And, with glad hymns, their awful dread
5 O! come, behold the works of God;
That he to all the sons of men
6 He made the sea become dry land, Whilft to each other of his might 7 He, by his pow'r, for ever rules;
Let no presumptuous man rebel to God their voices raise;

and spread his glorious praise.
in all thy works, art thou!
shall all be forc'd to bow.
shall thee their God confess:
of thy great name express.
and then with me you'll own,
has wondrous judgments shown,
thro' which our fathers walk'd;
with joy his people talk'd;
his eyes the world survey:
against his fov'reign sway.

8, 9 O! all ye nations, blest our God,
Who keeps our souls alive, and still 10 For thou haft try'd us, Lord, as fire 11 Thou brought'ft us into straits, where we 12 Injolting foes did us, their flaves,
But yet, at last, thou brought'ft us forth
13 Burnt-off'ring's to thy house I'll bring,
14 Which I with solemn zeal did make 15 Then shall the richest incense smoke,
The choicest goats from out the fold,
16 O! come, all ye that fear the Lord;
Whilst I what God for me has done
17, 18 As I before his aid implor'd,
Who, if my heart had harbour'd sin,

and loudly speak his praise;
confirms our steadfast ways.
does try the precious ore;
oppressing burdens bore.
thro' fire and water chafe;
into a wealthy place.
and there my vows I'll pay;
in trouble's dismal day.
the fatter's rams shall fall,
and bullocks from the stall.
attend with heedful care,
with grateful joy declare.
so now I praise his name;
would all my pray'rs disclaim.
PSALM LXVII.

19 But God to me, whene’er I cry’d,
   And to the voice of my request
Then blest for ever be my God,
   Withholds his mercy from my soul,
   his gracious ear did bend,
   with constant love attend.
   who never, when I pray,
   nor turns his face away!

PSALM LXVII.

1 TO blest thy chosen race,
   And cause the brightness of thy face
2 That so thy wondrous way
   While distant lands their tribute pay,
3 Let diff’ring nations join
   Let all the world, O Lord, combine
4 O let them shout and sing,
   For thou, the righteous judge and King,
5 Let diff’ring nations join
   Let all the world, O Lord, combine
6 Then shall the teeming ground
   And we with plenty shall be crown’d,
7 Then God upon our land
   And all the world in awe shall stand
PART II.

11 Thou gav'ft the word, we sally'd forth, and in that pow'rfull word o'ercame;
Whilft virgin troops with songs of mirth, in state our conquest did proclaim.
12 Valiant armies, by such gen'rais led,
For look their camp with sudden dread, 13 Tho' Egypt's drudges you have been,
As doves in golden sunshine seen,
14 'Twas so, when God's almighty hand
Our troops, drawn upon Jordan's strand,
15 From hence to Jordan's farther coast,
No more her height shall Bashan boast,
16 But wherefore, tho' the honour's great,
For Sion is his chosen seat,
17 His chariots numberless; his pow'rs His presence now fills Sion's tow'rs, 18 Ascending high, in triumph thou And on thy people didst beloow
Ev'n rebels shall partake thy grace,
To worship at thy dwelling-place,
19 For benefits, each day beloow'd,
Who is our Saviour and our God,
20 But justice for his harden'd foes To wound the hoary head of those 21 The Lord hath thus in thunder spoke:
"Once more I'll break my people's 22 Their fleet shall with a crimson flood
"Nor earth receive such impious blood, 23 "Their fleet shall with a crimson flood
"Nor earth receive such impious
24 When marching to thy blest's abode,
The pompous flate of thee, our God,
25 Sweet-finging Levites led the van,
Between both troops a virgin train 26 This was the burden of their song:
"All who to Israel's tribes belong,
27 Nor little Benjamin alone,
Nor only Judah's nearer throne
But Zebulon's remoter seat,
The grand procession to complete,
28 Thus God to strength and union
This work which thou, O God, haft confirm with fresh recruits of pow'rt.
PSALM LXIX.

29 To visit Salem, Lord, descend,
Where kings with presents shall attend, 30 Break down the spearmen’s ranks, who
Their silver armour’d chiefs defeat,
31 Egypt shall then to God stretch forth
The scatter’d kingdoms of the earth
32 Who, mounted on the loftiest sphere
From whence his dreadful voice we [hear,
33 Ascribe ye pow’r to God most High:
Whose strength from out the dufty sky
34 How dreadful are the sacred courts,
His strength his feeble saints supports.

PSALM LXIX.

1 SAVE me, O God, from waves that roll,
And prefs to overwhelm my soul.
2 With painful steps in mire I tread,
And deluges o’erflow my head.
3 With restless cries, my spirits faint;
My voice is hoarfe with long complaint;
My sight decays with tedious pain,
Whilst for my God I wait in vain.
4 My hairs, tho’ num’rous, are but few,
Compar’d with foes that me pursuie,
With groundless hate grown now of might,
To execute their lawless spite;
They force me, guiltles, to resign,
As rapine, what by right was mine.
5 Thou, Lord, my innocence doft see,
Nor are my fins conceal’d from thee.
6 Lord God of hosts, take timely care,
Left, for my sake, thy saints despair:
7 Since I have suffer’d for thy name
Reproach, and hid my face in shame;
8 A stranger to my country grown,
Nor to my nearest kindred known;
A foreigner, expos’d to scorn
By brethren of my mother born.
9 For zeal to thy lov’d house and name
Confumes me like devouring flame:
Concern’d at their affronts to thee,
More than at flanders caus’d on me.
10 My very tears and abstinence
They contrue in a spiteful fene.
and Sion thy terrestrial throne;
and thee with offer’d crowns atone.
like pamper’d herds of savage might:
who in destructive war delight.
hers hands, and Afric homage bring:
their common fav’rign’s praises ring;
of ancient heav’n, sublime rides;
like that of warring winds and tides.
of humble Israel he takes care;
darts shining terrors thro’ the air.
where God has fix’d his earthly throne!
To God give praife, and him alone.

11 When cloth’d with fackcloth, for their sake.
They meet their common proverb make.
12 Their judges make my wrongs their jeft,
Thofe wrongs they ought to have re-dreft.
How fhould I then expeft to be
From libels of lewd drunkards free?
13 But, Lord, to thee I will repair
For help, with humble timely pray’r;
Relieve me from thy mercy’s flore:
Display thy truth’s preferving pow’r.
14 From threat’ning dangers me relieve,
And from the mire my feet retrieve;
From spiteful foes in safety keep,
And snatch me from the raging deep.
15 Control the deluge ere it spread,
And roll its waves above my head!
Nor deep destruction’s yawning pit
To clofe her jaws on me permit.
16 Lord, hear the humble pray’r I make,
For thy transcending goodnefs fake;
Relieve thy fupplicant once more
From thy abounding mercy’s flore.
17 Nor from thy fervant hide thy face:
Make hafte; for desp’t rate is my cafe!
18 Thy timely succour interpofe,
And shield me from remorsefles foes.
19 Thou know’st what infamy and scorn
I from my enemies have borne;
Nor can their close-difsembled spite,
Or darkest plots, escape thy fight.
1 O LORD, to my relief draw near;
For my deliverance, Lord, appear,
2 Confusion on their heads return,
Let them, defeated, blush and mourn;
3 Their doom let desolation be;
Who mock'd my confidence in thee,
4 While those who humbly seek thy face,
And all who prize thy saving grace,
5 Thus, wretched tho' I am, and poor,
Thou, God, who only canst restore,

20 Reproach and grief have broke my heart;
I look'd for some to take my part,
To pity or relieve my pain;
But look'd, alas! for both in vain!
21 With hunger pin'd, for food I call;
In stead of food they give me gall:
22 And when with thirst my spirits sink,
They give me vinegar to drink,
Their table therefore to their health,
Shall prove a snare, a trap their wealth;
23 Perpetual darknesse feize their eyes;
And suddn blasts their hopes surprize.
24 On them thou shalt thy fury pour,
'Til thy fierce wrath their race devour;
25 And make their house a dismal cell,
Where none will e'er vouchsafe to dwell.
26 For new afflictions they procur'd,
For him who had thy stripes endur'd;
And made the wounds thy scourge had torn
To bleed afresh with sharper feorn.
27 Sin shall to sin their steps betray,
'Til they to truth have lost the way.
28 From life thou shalt exclude their soul,
Nor with the just their names enrol.
29 But me, howe'er distress'd and poor,
Thy strong salvation shall restore:
30 Thy pow'r with songs I'll then proclaim,
And celebrate with thanks thy name.
31 Our God shall this more highly prize,
Than herds or flocks in sacrifice;
32 Which humble saints with joy shall see,
And hope for like redrefs with me.
33 For God regards the poor's complaint;
Sets pris'ners free from close restraint.
34 Let heav'n, earth, sea, their voices raise,
And all the world refund his praise.
35 For God will Sion's walls erect;
Fair Judah's cities he'll protect;
'Til all her scatter'd fons repair
To undisturb'd possession there.
36 This blessing they shall, at their death,
To their religious heirs bequeath:
And they to endless ages more,
Of such as his blest name adore.

PSALM LXX.

1, 2 In thee I put my steadfast trust;
Incline thine ear, and save my soul;
3 Be thou my strong abiding-place,
'Tis thy decree that keeps me safe;
4, 5 From cruel and ungodly men
For, from my earliest youth 'til now,
defend me, Lord, from shame:
for righteous is thy name:
to which I may resort:
thou art my rock and fort.
protect and set me free;
my hope has been in thee.
PSALM LXXII.

6 Thy constant care did safely guard
Thou took'st me from my mother's womb;
7, 8 While some on me with wonder gaze,
Thy honour, therefore, and thy praise,
9 Refuse not then thy servant, Lord,
Forbear me not when, worn with years,
10 My foes against my fame and me
Against my soul they lay their snares;
11 "His God, say they, forfares him now,
"Pursue and take him, whilst no hope 12 But thou, my God, withdraw not far:
13 To shame and ruin bring my foes,
14 But as for me, my fledg'd hope
And I in grateful songs of praise my tender infant days;
thy hand supports me still:
my mouth shall always fill,
when I with age decay:
my vigor fades away.
with crafty malice speak;
and mutual counsel take.
on whom he did rely:
of timely aid is nigh.''
for speedy help I call:
that seek to work my fall.
shall on thy pow'r depend;
my time to come will spend.

PART II.

15 Thy righteous acts, and saving health,
Unable yet to count them all,
16 While God vouchsafes me his support,
All other righteous disclaim,
17 Thou, Lord, hast taught me from my youth
And, ever since, thy wondrous works 18 Then now forswear me not, when I
'Til I to these and future times
19 How high thy justice soars, O God!
The mighty works which thou hast done!
20 Me, whom thy hand has forelty pres'd,
And, from the lowest depth of woe,
21 Thro' thee, my time to come shall be
And me, who dismal years have pass'd,
22 Therefore, with palsy and hap,
To thee, the God of Jacob's race,
23 Then joy shall fill my mouth, and songs
My grateful soul, by thee redeem'd,
24 My tongue thy just and righteous acts
Because thou didst confound my foes, my mouth shall still declare;
arth' fam'd with utmost care.
I'll in his strength go on;
and mention his alone.
to praise thy glorious name:
have been my constant theme.
ry strength and pow'r have shown:
how great and wondrous are who may with thee compare!
thy grace shall yet relieve;
with tender care retrieve.
with pow'r and greatness crown'd;
thy comforts shall surround;
thy truth, O Lord, I'll praise;
my voice in anthems raile.
employ my cheerful voice;
shall in thy strength rejoice.
shall all the day proclaim;
and brought it them all to shame.

PSALM LXXII.

1 LORD, let thy just decrees the king
And let his son, throughout his reign,
2 So shall he still thy people judge
Whil'st all the helpless poor shall him
3 Then hills and mountains shall bring forth
Which all the world shall own to be 4 Whil'st he the poor and needy race
And from their humble necks shall take 5 In ev'ry heart thy awful fear
As long as sun and moon endure, in all his ways direct,
thy righteous laws respect.
with pure and upright mind,
their just protector find.
the happy fruits of peace;
the work of righteousness:
shall rule with gentle sway,
oppressive yokes away.
shall then be rooted fast,
or time itself shall last.
6 He shall descend like rain, that cheers
   Or like warm show'rs, whose gentle drops
the meadows second birth;
   shall be with favour crown'd;
   refresh the thirsty earth.
   with endless peace abound.
7 In his blest days the just and good
   The happy land shall ev'ry where shall be with favour crown'd;
   shall bow their servile heads:
   the theme mem'ry wishes,
   where he his conquest spreads.
8 His uncontrol'd dominion shall Begin at proud Euphrates' streams, from sea to sea extend;
   shall costly presents bring;
   and God's fav'ring hand;
   and wealthy Saba's king.
9 To him the savage nations round
   His vanquish'd foes shall lick the dust,
   his humble homage pay;
   his name shall be confess'd.
   the theme mem'ry wishes,
   to own his righteous sway.
   when they sue for succour cry;
   and all their wants supply.
10 The kings of Tarshih, and the isles,
   From spicy Sheba gifts shall come;
   to many years extend;
   an humble homage pay;
   and his dominion shall afford
   to many years extend;
   His just dominion shall afford
   a lasting theme of praise.
11 To him shall ev'ry king on earth
   And, diff'ring nations gladly join
   his humble homage pay;
   his name shall be confess'd.
   For he shall set the needy free,
   to own his righteous sway.
   when they sue for succour cry;
   and all their wants supply.
   Shall save the helpless, and the poor, they're beyond their wishes, great.

PART II.

13 His providence for needy souls
   And over their defenceless lives shall due supplies prepare;
   shall watch with tender care.
   And, in his fight their, guilty's blood
   from fraud and rapine free;
   His just dominion shall afford
   of mighty price shall be.
14 He shall preserve and keep their souls
   And, in his fight their, guilty's blood
   to many years extend;
   and golden presents fend.
   And, in his fight their, guilty's blood
   thro' all his prosperous days:
   His just dominion shall afford
   a lasting theme of praise.
15 Therefore shall God his life and reign
   While eastern princes tribute pay,
   thro' all his prosperous days:
   a lasting theme of praise.
   For him shall constant pray'rs be made,
   A lasting theme of praise.
   Tho' all his prosperous days:
   for plenty with the field.
16 Of useful grain, thro' all the land,
   A handful sown on mountain tops
   Tho' endless years shall run:
   A mighty crop shall bear:
   It's fruits like cedars shhook by winds,
   A rattling noise shall yield;
   The city too shall thrive and vie
   for plenty with the field.
17 The mem'ry of his glorious name
   His spotless fame shall shine as bright
   Tho' endless years shall run:
   the God whom Israel fears;
   In him the nations of the world
   And his unbounded happiness shall be completely blest'd, beyond compare, appears.
18 Then blest be God, the mighty Lord,
   Who only wondrous in his works,
   for ever blest his name;
   their glad assent proclaim.
19 Let earth be with his glory fill'd;
   Whilst to his praise the list'ning world
   their glad assent proclaim.
   their glad assent proclaim.

PSALM LXXXIII.

1 AT length, by certain proofs 'tis plain,
   that God will to his saints be kind,
   That all, whose hearts are pure and shall his protecting favour find.
   [clean;
2, 3 'Til this sustaining truth I knew,
   my flagging feet had almost fail'd:
   I grieved the sinner's wealth to view,
   and envy'd when the fool's prevail'd.
4, 5 They to the grave in peace descend, and, whilst they live, are hale and strong;
   No plagues or troubles them offend,
   which oft' to other men belong.
6, 7 With pride, as with a chain, they're and rapine seems their robe of state;
   Their eyes stand out with fatness swell'd; they grow, beyond their wishes, great.
PSALM LXXIV.

8, 9 With hearts corrupt, and lofty talk,
Their tongue thro' all the earth does walk,
10 And yet admiring crowds are found,
Because with plenty they abound,
11 Their fond opinions these pursue,
"How should the Lord our actions view,
Behold the wicked! these are they
And yet their wealth's increas'd each day,
and all their actions meet success."
13, 14 "Then have I cleans'd my heart, and wash'd my hands from guilt in vain;
If all the day oppress'd I lie,
and ev'ry morning suffer pain."
Thus did I once to speak intend:
Thy children, Lord, I must offend,

PART II.

16, 17 To fathom this my thoughts I bent;
'Til to the house of God I went;
18 How high foes'er advanc'd, they all
Trench into ruin headlong fall,
19, 20 How dreadful and how quick their fate!
As waking men with scorn do treat
21, 22 Thus was my heart with grief op[preht,
So stupid was I, like a beast,
23, 24 Yet still thy presence I supply'd,
Thou first shalt with thy counsel guide,
25 Whom then in heav'n but thee alone
Throughout the spacious earth there's none
26 My trembling flesh and aching heart
But God shall inward strength impart, 27 For they that far from thee remove
If after other gods they rove, 28 But as for me, 'tis good and just,
In him I always put my trust,

PSALM LXXIV.

1 Why hast thou cast us off, O God?
O!, why against thy chosen flock
2 Think on thy ancient purchase, Lord,
By thee redeem'd; and Sion's mount,
3 O! come and view our ruin'd state!
See how the foe, with wicked rage,
4 Thy foes blaspheme thy name: where late
The heathen there, with haughty pomp,
5, 6 Those curious carvings, which did once
With axe and hammer they destroy, wilt thou no more return?
does thy fierce anger burn?
the land that is thy own,
where once thy glory shone.
how long our troubles last!
has laid thy temple wafte!
thy zealous servants pray'd,
their banners have display'd.
advance the artist's fame,
like works of vulgar frame.

H
7 Thy holy temple they have burn'd;
    Has been profan'd, and quite defac'd,
8 Thy worship wholly to destroy
    And all the sacred places burn'd,
9 Yet of thy presence thou vouchsaft'st
We have no prophet now, that knows and what escap'd the flame tho' sacred to thy name.

PART II.

10 But, Lord, how long wilt thou permit
    'Tis all the honour of thy name
11 Why holdest thou back thy strong right-hand, and on thy patient breast,
    When vengeance calls to stretch it forth,
12 Thou heretofore, with kingly pow'r,
    For us, throughout the wond'ring world,
13 'Twas thou, O God, that didst the sea
    Thou brak'ft the wat'ry monsters head:
14 The greatest, fiercest of them all,
    Was by thy pow'r destroy'd, and made 15 Thou clav'st the solid rock, and mad'st
    Again, thou mad'st thro' parting streams
16 Thine is the cheerful day, and thine
    Thou haft prepar'd the glorious fun,
17 By thee the borders of the earth
    The summer's warmth and winter's cold
    th' insulting foe to boast?
    for evermore be loft?
    in our defence haft fought;
    haft great salvation wrought.
    by thy own strength divide;
    the waves o'erwhelm'd their pride.
    that seem'd the deep to sware,
    to savage beats a prey.
    the waters largely flow;
    thy wond'ring people go.
    the black return of night;
    and ev'ry feebler light.
    in perfect order stand:
    attend on thy command.

PART III.

18 Remember, Lord, how scornful foes
    And how the foolish people have 19 O! free thy mourning turtle-dove,
    Nor the assembly of thy poor
20 Thy ancient cov'nant, Lord, regard,
    For now each corner of the land
21 O! let not the oppress'd return
    But let the helplefs and the poor
22 Arife, O Lord, in our behalf;
    Remember how insulting fools
23 Make thou the boastings of thy foes Whose insolence, if unchastis'd, have daily urg'd our shame;
    blasphem'd thy holy name.
    by sinful crowds befet;
    for evermore forget.
    and make thy promise good;
    is fill'd with men of blood.
    with forrow cloath'd, and shame:
    for ever praise thy name.
    thy caufe and ours maintain:
    each day thy name profane.
    for ever, Lord, to cease;
    will more and more increafe.

PSALM LXXV.

1 TO thee, O God, we render praise,
    For, that thy name to us is nigh,
2 In Israel when my throne is fix'd,
3 The land with discord shakes; but I
4 Deluded wretches I advis'd
    And warn'd bold sinners, that they should 5 Bear not yourselves so high, as if Submit your stubborn necks, and learn to thee with thanks repair;
    thy wond'rous works declare.
    with me shall justice reign,
    the sinking frame sustain.
    their errors to redrefs;
    their swelling pride suppress,
    no pow'r could yours refrain:
    to speak with lefs disdain.
6 For that promotion, which to gain
   From neither eaft nor weft, nor yet 7 For God the great disposer is,
   Who cafts the proud to earth, and lifts
8 His hand holds forth a dreadful cup;
   The deadly mixture, which his wrath
Of this his faints fometimes may tafte;
   The bitter dregs, and be condemn'd
9 His prophet, I, to all the world
   The justice then of Jacob's God 10 The wicked's pride I will reduce,
Exalt the juft, and feat him high:

PSALM LXXVI.

1 IN Judah the Almighty's known;
   (Almighty there,by wonders fown:) his name in Jacob does excel:
2 His fanftu'ry in Salem stands:
The majefty that heav'n commands in Sion condefcends to dwell.
3 He brake the bow and arrows there,
The shield, the temper'd fword, and spear;
   there flain the mighty army lay:
4 Whence Sion's fame thro' earth is fpread,
   Of greater glory, greater dread,
than hills where robbers lodge their prey.
5 Their valiant chiefs, who came for spoil, Themfelves met their a flameful foil:
   securely down to fleep they lay;
   But wak'd no more; their flouftef band
Ne'er lifted one refifting hand
   'gainft his that did their legions flay.
6 When Jacob's God began to frown, Both horfe and charioteers, o'er-thrown,
together flept in endless night.
7 When thou, whom heav'n and earth revere, Doft once with wrathful look appear,
   what mortal pow'r can fland thy fight?
8 Pronounc'd from heav'n, earth heard its doom;
   Grew hufh'd with fear when thou didft come,
9 the meek with juftice to refole.
10 The wrath of man fhall yield thee praife:
   Its laft attempts but feve to raife
   the triumphs of almighty pow'r.
11 Vow to the Lord, ye nations, bring Vow'd prefents to th' eternal King;
   thus to his name due rev'rence pay;
12 Who proudeft potentates can quell,
   To earthly kings more terrible,
   than to their trembling subjects they.

PSALM LXXVII.

1 TO God I cry'd, who to my help
   did graciously repair:
2 In trouble's difmal day I fought
   my God with humble pray'r,
All night my felt'ring wounds did run;
   no med'cine gave relief;
My foul no comfort would admit;
   my foul indulg'd her grief.
3 I thought on God, and favours paft;
   but that increas'd my pain;
I found my fpirits more opprefs'd,
   the more I did complain.
4 Thro' ev'ry watch of tedious night,
   thou keep'ft my eyes awake;
   My grief is swell'd to that excels,
PSALM LXXVIII.

I call'd to mind the days of old,
Those famous years, of ancient times,
By night I recollected my songs,
Then search, consult, and ask my heart,
Has God for ever call'd us off?
Are both his mercy and his truth
Can his long-practis'd love forget
Has he in wrath shut up and seal'd?
I said, my weakness hints these fears;
I'll yet remember the Most High,
I'll call to mind his works of old,
On them my heart shall meditate,
Safe lodg'd from human search on high,
Who is so great a god as ours?
Long since a God of wonders thee
Long since haft thou thy chosen feed
When thou, O God, the waters faw,
The troubled depths themselves, for fear,
The clouds pour'd down, while rending skies
Thy arrows all abroad were sent,
Heav'n with thy thunder's voice was torn,
With lightnings blaze'd; earth shook and seem'd
Thro' rolling streams thou find'dst thy way,
Thy wondrous passage, where no fight
Thou led'st thy people like a flock,
By Mofes their meek skilful guide,

PSALM LXXVIII.

Hear, O my people, to my law
Let the instruction of my mouth
My tongue by inspiration taught,
Dark oracles, but underlood,
Which we from sacred regiters
And our forefathers pious care
We will not hide them from our sons;
The praises of the Lord, whose strength
For Jacob he this law ordain'd,
With charge, to be from age to age,
That generations yet to come
Religiously transmit the fame,
To teach them that in God alone
That they should ne'er his works forget Left, like their fathers, they may prove Fals-heart'd, fickle to their God,
Such were revolting Ephraim's sons
And skilful archers, arm'd with bows;
They falfify'd their league with God,
Forgot his works and miracles,
with signal mercy crown'd;
for miracles renown'd.
on former triumphs made;
where's now thy wondrous aid?
withdrawn his favour quite?
retir'd to endless night?
its wonted aids to bring?
his mercy's healing spring?
but I'll my fears difband?
and years of his right hand.
the wonders of his might?
my tongue shall them recite.
O God, thy counsels are!
who can with him compare?
thy rescue'd people found:
with strong deliv'rance crown'd.
the frighted billows shrunk;
beneath their channels funk.
did with their noife confpire:
w'd with avenging fire.
safe thro' the defart land,
and Aaron's sacred hand.

devout attention lend;
deep in your hearts defcend.
shall parables unfold,
and own'd for truths of old:
of ancient times have known,
to us has handed down.
our offspring shall be taught has works of wonder wrought.
this league with Israel made;
from race to race, convey'd.
should to their unborn heirs and they again to theirs.
their hope securely flands;
but keep his just commands.
a stiff rebellious race,
unfedfaft in his grace.
who tho' no warfare bred,
from field ignobly fled.
his orders difobey'd,
before their eyes display'd.
PSALM LXXVIII.

12 Nor wonders, which their father's saw, did they in mind retain;
Prodigious things in Egypt done, and Zaan's fertile plain.
13 He cut the feas to let them pafs, refrain'd the pressing flood:
While pil'd in heaps on either fide, the solid waters flood.
14 A wondrous pillar led them on, compos'd of shade and light:
A sheit'ring cloud it prov'd by day,[stream] a leading fire by night.
15 When drought oppres'd them, where no the wildernefs supply'd,
He eleft the rock, whose flinty breath diffolv'd into a tide.
Streams from the solid rock he brought, which down in rivers fell,
That, trav'ling with their camp, each day renew'd the miracle.
16 Yet there they finn'd againft him more, provoking the Moft High,
In that fame defart, where he did their fainting souls supply.
17 They fin'd incens'd him in their hearts, that did his pow'r diſtrust,
And long'd for meat, not urg'd by want, but to indulge their luft.
18 They yeſt incens'd him in their hearts, Can God (fay they) prepare
And long'd for meat, not urg'd by want, fiſt out with various fare ?
19 Then utter'd their blafpheming doubts and gushing streams enfu'd;
" A table in the wildernefs, for such a multitude ?"
20 " He fmoſte the flinty rock, 'tis true, from heav'n avenging flame
" But can he corn and fleſh provide on thanklesſ Israel came :
21 The Lord with indignation heard ; in God would not confide,
On Jacob fell, confuming wrath their wants fo oft supply'd.
22 Because their unbelieving hearts provisions down in how'rs:
Nor true his care, who had from heav'n from his celestial flores.
23 Tho' he had made his clouds difcharge their hunger to relieve,
And when earth fail'd, reliev'd their needs fulfilling corn receive.
24 Tho' tafteful manna was rain'd down, ungrateful man, was fed:
Tho' from the flores of heav'n they did a plenteous table spread.
25 Thus man with angels facred food, that did the south command,
Not fparringly, for fill'd they found like feas unnumer'd fand:
26 From heav'n he made an eaf't wind blow, the lufciouſ easy prey,
27 To rain down fleſh like duſt, and fowls the ready booty lay.
28 Within their trenches he let fall their appetites to feal;
And all around their spreading camp nor with their hunger ceas'd;
29 They fed, were fill'd ; he gave them leave they did their dainties chew,
But whilst in their luxurious mouths and Israel's chosen flew.
The wrath of God fmoſte down the chiefs

PART II.

30, 31 Yet fill'd their wanton luft crav'd on, his miracles belief;
But whilst in their luxurious mouths consum'd their lives in grief.
32 Yet fill'd they finn'd, nor would afford to God with early cry !
33 Therefore thro' fruitleſs travels he their Saviour, God moft high.
34 When fome were flain, the reft return'd their heart their tongue bel'y'd;
35 Own'd him the rock of their defence, firm in his league abide.
36 But this was feign'd submiſsion all ! nor did with death chalſe;
37 Their heart was fill'd pervers'e, nor would or would not let it rife.
38 Yet, full of mercy, he forgave, that could not long remain;
But turn'd his kindled wrath afide, and ne'er returns again.
39 For he remember'd they were fleſh,
How oft did they provoke him there,
In that same desert where he did
They tempted him by turning back,
When Israel's God refus'd to be
Nor call'd to mind the hand and day
His signs in Egypt, wondrous works
He turn'd their rivers into blood,
And rather chose to die for thirst
He sent devouring swarms of flies;
Locusts and caterpillars reap'd
There vines with battering hail were broke;
Light'ning and hail made flocks and herds
He turn'd his anger loose, and set
And, with th' plagues, ill angels sent
He clear'd a passage for his wrath
The murra in on their firlflng feiz'd
The deadly pest from beat to man,
It flew their heirs, their eldest hopes,
But his own tribe, like folded sheep,
And them conducted like a flock,
He led them on, and in their way
But march'd securely thro' those deeps,
Nor ceas'd his care, 'til them he brought,
And to his holy mount, the prize
To them the outcast heathen's land,
And in their foes abandon'd tents

Yet still they tempted, still provok'd
Nor would to praife his commands
But in their faithlesfs fathers steps
They turn'd aside, like arrows shot
For him to fury they provok'd
And with their graven images
When God heard this, on Israel's tribes
He quitted Shiloh, and the tents
To vile captivity his ark,
His people to the sword he gave,
Destructive war their ableft youth
No virgin was to th' altar led,
In fight the sacrificer fell,
And widows, who their death should mourn,
Then, as a giant rous'd from sleep,
Shouts out aloud; the Lord awak'd,
He smote their hoft, that from the field
With wounds imprinted on their backs
With conquest crown'd, he Joseph's tents
But Judah chose, and Sion's mount

how oft his patience grieve, their fainting souls relieve.
and wickedly repin'd,
by their desires confin'd.
that their redemption brought;
in Zoan's valley wrought.
that man and beast forbore,
thannk the putrid gore.
hoarfe frogs annoy'd their foil;
the harvest of their toil.
with frost the fig-tree dies!
one general sacrifice.
no time for it to cease;
their torments to increase.
to ravage uncontrol'd;
in ev'ry field and fold.
from field to city came;
thro' all the tents of Ham.
he brought from their diftress;
throughout the wildernefs.
no cause of fear they found;
in which their foes were drown'd, safe to his promis'd land,
of his victorious hand.
he did by lot divide;
made Israel's tribes reside.

PART III.

Yet still they tempted, still provok'd
Nor would to praife his commands
But in their faithlesfs fathers steps
They turn'd aside, like arrows shot
For him to fury they provok'd
And with their graven images
When God heard this, on Israel's tribes
He quitted Shiloh, and the tents
To vile captivity his ark,
His people to the sword he gave,
Destructive war their ableft youth
No virgin was to th' altar led,
In fight the sacrificer fell,
And widows, who their death should mourn
Then, as a giant rous'd from sleep,
Shouts out aloud; the Lord awak'd,
He smote their hoft, that from the field
With wounds imprinted on their backs
With conquest crown'd, he Joseph's tents
But Judah chose, and Sion's mount

the wrath of God most high;
their stubborn hearts apply:
perversely chose to go:
from some deceitful bow.
with altars set on high:
inflam'd his jealousy.
his wrath and hatred fell:
where once he chose to dwell.
his glory to disdain,
nor would his wrath restrain.
untimely did confound:
with nuptial garlands crown'd.
the priest a victim bled:
themselves of grief were dead.
whom wine had thoroughly warm'd,
and his proud foe alarm'd.
a scatter'd remnant came,
of everlasting flame.
and Ephraim's tribe forsook:
for his lov'd dwelling took.
PSALM LXXIX. LXXX.

69 His temple he erected there,
While deep, and fix'd, as those of earth,
70 His faithful servant David too
And from the shepawolds him advanc'd
71 From tending on the teeming ewes,
His own inheritance, the tribes
72 Exalted thus the monarch prov'd
He fed them with an upright heart, with spires exalted high:

the strong foundations lie:
he for his choice did own,
to sit on Judah's throne.
he brought him forth to feed of Israel's chosen seed.
a faithful shepherd still;
and guided them with skill.

PSALM LXXIX.

1 BEHOLD, O God, how heathen howls
Thy sacred house they have defil'd,
2 The mangled bodies of thy saints
Their flesh expos'd to savage beasts,
3 Quite thro' Jerusalem was their blood
And none were left alive to pay
4 The neigh'ring lands our small remains
And we a laughing-flock are made 5 How long wilt thou be angry, Lord?
Shall thy devouring jealous rage,
6 On foreign lands, that know not thee,
Those sinful kingdoms let it crush,
7 For their devouring jaws have prey'd
And to a barren defart turn'd
8 O think not on our former sins,
The utter ruin of thy saints,
9 Thou God of our salvation, help,
So shall our pardon and defence
10 Let infidels, that scoffing say,
In vengeance for thy slaughters saints,
11 Lord, hear the sighing pris'ner's moans,
Preferve the wretches doom'd to die,
12 On them who us opprest, let all Make their confusion seven times more 13 So we, thy people and thy flock,
And with glad hearts our grateful thanks have thy possession seiz'd!

thy holy city raz'd!
abroad unbury'd lay;
and rav'nous birds of prey.
like common water shed,
lalt duties to the dead.
with loud reproaches wound;
to all the nations round.
must we for ever mourn?
like fire, 'for ever burn?
thy heavy vengeance how'r;
that have not own'd thy pow'r.
on Jacob's chosen race;
their fruitful dwelling-place.
but speedily prevent almost with forrow spent.
and free our souls from blame;
exalt thy glorious name.
"Where is the God they boast?"
perceive thee to their cost.
thyaving pow'r extend;
from that untimely end.
our suff'ring's be repaid;
than what on us they laid.
shall ever praise thy name;
from age to age proclaim.

PSALM LXXX.

1 O ISRAEL's shepherd, Joseph's our pray'rs to thee vouchsafe to hear:
[guide,
Thou that dost on the cherubs ride,
Behold how Benjamin expects,
In our deliv'rance, the effects
3 Do thou convert us, Lord, do thou
And all the ills we suffer now,
4 O thou, whom heav'nly hosts obey,
How long thy suff'ring people pray.

again in solemn state appear.
with Ephraim and Manasseh join'd, of thy refill'ds strength to find.
the luftre of thy face display;
like scatter'd clouds shall pass away.
how long shall thy fierce anger burn?
and to their pray'rs have no return?
5 When hungry, we are forc'd to drench our scanty food in floods of woe; when dry, our raging thirst we quench with streams of tears that largely flow.

6 For us the Heathen nations round, Our foes with spiteful joy abound,

7 Do thou convert us, Lord, do thou And all the ills we suffer now, our scanty food in floods of woe; as for a common prey, contests:

and at our lost condition jeft.
the lustre of thy face display; like scatter'd clouds shall pass away.

PART II.

8 Thou brought'ft a vine from Egypt's land; Didst plant it with thy own right hand, and firmly fix'd it in their place;

9 Before it thou prepar'dst the way, Which, blest with thy indulgent ray, and mad'lt it take a lasting root;

10 Our foes with spiteful joy abound, and at our lost condition jeft.

11 The hills were cover'd with its goodly boughs did cedars seem: its goodly boughs did cedars seem:

12 Whilst all its grapes, defenceless grown, are pluck'd by those that pass along.

13 See how the bristling forest-boar with dreadful fury lays it waste:

PART III.

14 To thee, O God of hosts, we pray; From heav'n, thy throne, this vine furnish'd, and reach'd to proud Euphrates' stream, thy wonted goodness, Lord, renew; and and, casting out the Heathen race, which thou had'st made so firm and 15 Behold the vineyard made by thee, And keep that branch from danger free, with proud Euphrates' stream, made strong?

16 To wafting flames 'tis made a prey, At thy rebuke they soon decay, and all its spreading boughs cut down: and perish at thy dreadful frown.

17 Crown thou the king with good success, by thy right hand secur'd from wrong:

18 So small we still continue free And if once more reviv'd by thee, whom for thyself thou mad'st so strong.
Do thou convert us, Lord, do thou from whatsoe'er deserves thy blame;
And all the ills we suffer now, will always praise thy holy name.
For this a statute was of old, the lustre of thy face display;
To be with pious care observ'd like scatter'd clouds, shall pass away.

PSALM LXXXI.

1 TO God, our never-failing strength, with loud applauses sing:
And jointly make a cheerful noise to Jacob's awful King.
And pious care observ'd by Israel's chosen seed.

2 Compose an hymn of praise, and touch your instruments of joy!
Let psalteries and pheasant harps your grateful skill employ.

3 Let trumpets at the great new moon their joyful voices raise, the solemn day of praise.
To celebrate th' appointed time, which Jacob's God decreed,

4 For this a statute was of old, by Israel's chosen seed.
To be with pious care observ'd.
This he for a memorial fix'd,
Strange nations barb'rous speech we heard,
Your burden'd shoulders I reliev'd,
Your servile hands by me were freed
Your ancestors, with wrongs oppress'd,
With pity I their sufferings saw,
They fought for me, and from the cloud
At Meribah's contentious stream when freed from Egypt's land;
but could not understand.
(ths feems our God to say;)
from lab'ring in the clay.
to me for aid did call:
and set them free from all.
in thunder I reply'd;
their faith and duty try'd.

PART II.

While I my solemn will declare,
If thou, O Israel, to my words
Then shall no God besides myself
Nor shalt thou worship any god
The Lord thy God am I, who thee
'Tis I that all thy just desires
But, my chosen race, refus'd
Nor would rebellious Israel's sons
So I, provok'd, resign'd them up
And in their own perverfe designs
O that my people wisely would
And Israel in my righteous ways
Then should my heavy judgments fall
And my avenging hand be turn'd
Their enemies and mine should all
But as for them, their happy state
All parts with plenty should abound
The barren rocks, to please their taste,

my chosen people, hear:
wilt lend thy lift'ning ear.
within thy coasts be found;
of all the nations round.
brought forth from Egypt's land:
suply with lib'ral hand.
to hearken to my voice;
make me their happy choice.
to ev'ry lust a prey;
permitted them to stray.
my just commandments heed!
with pious care proceed!
on all that them oppose,
against their num'rous foes,
before my footstool bend:
should never know an end.
with finest wheat their field:
should richest honey yield.

PSALM LXXXII.

GOD in the great assembly stands,
In state surveys the earthly gods,
How dare ye then unjustly judge,
Defend the orphans and the poor:
Protec't the humble, helplefs man,
And let not him become a prey
They neither know, nor will they learn,
Justice and Truth, the world's supports,
Well then may God, in anger, say,
"I've said, Ye're gods, the sons and heirs
But nevertheless your unjust deeds
You all shall die like common men,
Arife, and thy just judgments, Lord,
And all the nations of the world where his impartial eye and does their judgments try.
or be to sinners kind?
let fuch your justice find.
reduc'd to deep diffrets,
to fuch as would opprefs.
but blindly rove and stray:
 thro' all the land decay.
" I've call'd you by my name:
to the moft high in fame:
to strict account I'll call:
like other tyrants fall."
throughout the earth difplay;
shall own thy righteous fway.
PSALM LXXXIII.

1 HOLD not thy peace, O Lord our God,
Nor with concurring quiet looks
2 For lo! the tumults of thy foes
And those, who hate thy saints and thee,
3 Against thy zealous people, Lord,
And to destroy thy chosen saints 4 "Come, let us cut them off, (say they)
"That no remembrance may remain
5 Thus they against thy people's peace
And differing nations, jointly leagued,
6 The Ish'm'elites that dwell in tents,
And Moab's sons our ruin vow,
7 Proud Ammon's offspring, Gebal too,
The lords of Palestine, and all
8 All these the strong Assyrian king
Who with a powerful army aids

PART II.

9 But let such vengeance come to them,
To Jabin and proud Sisera,
10 When thy right-hand their num'rous hosts
And left their carcasses for dung
11 Let all their mighty men the fate
As Zeba and Zalmunna, so 12 Who, with the same design inspir'd,
"In firm possession for ourselves
13 To ruin let them haste, like wheels
Like chaff before the wind, let all 14, 15 As flames consume dry wood, or heath
So let thy fierce-pursuing wrath
16, 17 Lord, shroud their faces with disgrace,
Or them confound, whose harden'd hearts
18 So shall the wondrous world confes,
Jehovah's name, o'er all the earth,

PSALM LXXXIV.

1 O GOD of hosts, the mighty Lord,
Where thou, enthron'd in glory, shew'st
2 My longing soul faints with desire
My panting heart and flesh cry out
3 The birds, more happy far than I,
Securely there they build, and there
4 O Lord of hosts, my King and God,
Who in thy temple always dwell,

as once to Midian came;
at Kishon's fatal stream.
ear Endor did confound,
to feed the hungry ground.
of Zeb and Oreb share:
thus vainly boasting they, make which downwards swiftly move:
that on parch'd mountains grows,
with terrors strike thy foes.
that they may own thy name:
thy gentler means disclaim.
that thou, who claim'st alone
haft rais'd thy lofty throne.
PSALM LXXXV.

5 Thrice happy they, whose choice has thee
   Who long to tread the sacred ways
6 Who pass thro' Baca's thirsty vale,
   Their pools are fill'd with rain, which thou 7 Thus they proceed from strength to strength,
   'Til all on Sion's holy mount 8 O Lord, the mighty God of hosts,
   Thou God of Jacob, let my prayer
9 Behold, O God, for thou alone
   On thy anointed servant look,
10 For in thy courts one single day
   Than, Lord, in any place besides Much rather in God's house will I
   Than in the wealthy tents of sin.
11 For God, who is our fun and shield,
   And no good thing will he withhold 12 Thou God, whom heav'nly hosts obey,
   Whose hope and trust, securely plac'd,
   Their sure protection made;
   That to thy dwelling lead!
   Yet no refreshment want:
   At their request doth grant.
   And still approach more near,
   Before their God appear.
   My just request regard:
   Be still with favour heard.
   Canst timely aid diffuse:
   Be thou his strong defence.
   'Tis timely aid diffuse:
   Be thou his strong defence.
   How highly blest is he,
   Is still repos'd on thee.

PSALM LXXXVI.

1 LORD, thou hast granted to thy land
   And faithful Jacob's captive race
2, 3 Thy people's sins thou hast forgiv'n,
   Thou hast not let thy wrath flame on,
4 O God our Saviour, all our hearts
   That, quench'd with our repenting tears,
5, 6 For why shouldst thou be angry still,
   Revive us, Lord, and let thy saints
   Thy gracious favour, Lord, display,
   And, for thy wondrous mercy's fake,
   God's answer patiently I'll wait;
   (If they no more to folly turn,)
9 To all that fear his holy name
   And in his former happy state
10 For mercy now with truth is join'd,
   Like kind companions, absent long, 11, 12 Truth from the earth shall spring whilst
   Ye. streams of justice pour;
   And God, from whom all goodness flows,
   Shall endless plenty show'r.
13 Before him righteousness shall march,
   Whilst we his holy fleps pursue
14, 15 Bless'd is the man whose flag is fixed
   On God's right hand, and on his head.
16 What is not his, to his own he adds.
   His choice and name is blest.
   To my complaint, O Lord my God,
   Hear me, distress'd and desolate.
2 Do thou, O God, preferve my soul,
   Thy servant keep, and him whose trust
   Thy gracious ear incline;
   Of all relief but thine.
   That does thy name adore:
   Relies on thee, restore.
PSALM LXXXVII.

1 God's temple crowns the holy mount;
The Lord there condescends to dwell.
2 His Sion's gates, in his account,
   Our Israel's fairest tents excel.
3 Fame glorious things of thee shall sing,
   O city of th' almighty King!
4 I'll mention Rahab with due praise,
   In Babylon's applauses join;
The fame of Ethiopia raise,
   With that of Tyre and Palestine;
   And grant, that some amongst them
   Their age and country did adorn.[born,

5 But still of Sion I'll aver,
   That many such from her proceed;
   Th' Almighty shall establish her.
6 His general list shall shew, when read,
   That such a person there was born,
   And such did such an age adorn,

PSALM LXXXVIII.

1 To thee, my God and Saviour, I
By day and night address my cry;
2 Vouchsafe my mournful voice to hear,
   To my distress incline thine ear.
PSALM LXXXIX.

3 For seas of trouble me invade,
   My soul draws nigh to death’s cold shade.
4 Like one whose strength and hopes are fled,
   They number me amongst the dead.
5 Like those, who shrouded in the grave,
   From thee no more remembrance have;
6 Call off from thy sustaining care,
   Down to the confines of despair:
7 Thy wrath has hard upon me lain,
   Afflicting me with restless pain:
   Me all thy mountain-waves have prefix,
   Too weak, alas! to bear the leaf.
8 Remov’d from friends, I fly alone,
   In a loath’d dungeon laid, where none
   A visit will vouchsafe to me,
   Confin’d, past hopes of liberty.
9 My eyes from weeping never cease;
   They walle, but still my griefs increas’d:
   Yet daily, Lord, to thee I’ve pray’d;
   With outstretched hand’s invok’d thy aid.
10 Wilt thou by miracles revive
   The dead, whom thou forsook’st alive?

From death restore, thy praise to sing,
   Whom thou from prison wouldst not bring?
11 Shall the mute grave thy love confess?
   A mould’ring tomb thy faithfulness?
12 Thy truth and pow’r renown obtain,
   Where darknes and oblivion reign?
13 To thee, O Lord, I cry, forlorn,
   My pray’r prevents the early morn.
14 Why hal’st thou, Lord, my soul forsook,
   Nor once vouch’d a gracious look?
15 Prevailing sorrows bear me down,
   Which from my youth with me have grown;
   Thy terrors past distract my mind,
   And fears of blacker days behind.
16 Thy wrath hath burst upon my head,
   Thy terrors fill my soul with dread;
17 Environ’d, as with waves combin’d,
   And for a gen’ral deluge join’d.
18 My lovers, friends, families, all Remov’d from sight, and out of call;
   To dark oblivion all retir’d,
   Dead, or at least to me expired.

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 THY mercies, Lord, shall be my song;
   To ages yet unborn my tongue
2 I have affirm’d, and still maintain,
   Thy truth, that does the heav’n sustain,
3 Thus pack’st thou by thy prophet’s voice;
   “To him, my servant, and my choice,
4 “While earth, and seas, and skies en [dure,
   “To them thy throne I will influe;
5 For such stupendous truth and love,
   By choirs of angels sung above,
6 What seraph of celestial birth
   Or who among the gods of earth
7 With reverence and religious dread
   His fear thro’ all their hearts should [spread,
8 Lord God of armies, who can boast
   Of such a num’rous faithful host,

my song on them shall ever dwell;
   Thy never-failing truth shall tell.
   Thy mercy shall for ever last;
   Like them shall I stand for ever fast.
   “With David I a league have made;
   By solemn oath this grant convey’d:
   Thy seed shall in my sight remain;
   They shall to endless ages reign.”
   Both heav’n and earth just praises owe,
   And by assembled saints below;
   To vie with Israel’s God shall dare?
   With our almighty Lord compare?
   His saints should to his temple pres;
   Who his almighty name confes.
   Of strength or pow’r like thine re-
   as that which does thy throne surroun
9 Thou dost the lawless sea control,
Theun mak'st the rolling billows sleep.
10 Thou brak'st in pieces Rahab's pride,
Thy scatter'd foes have dearly try'd
11 In thee the fav' reign right remains
The world and all that it contains,
12 The poles on which the globe doth rest,
Tabor and Hermon, east and west,
13 Thy arm is mighty, strong thy hand,
Possess'd of absolute command,
14 Happy, thrice happy they, who hear
Who may at festivals appear,

Psalm LXXXIX.

9 Thou dost the lawless sea control,
Theun mak'st the rolling billows sleep;
and change the prospect of the deep;
Thou mak'st the rolling billows sleep, and did'st oppressing pow'r disfavor:
the force of thy relentless arm.

PSALM CX.

38 Such was thy gracious promise, Lord; Thy own anointed hast abhorrd;
Thou seemedst to have render'd void
Thou haft his dignity destroy'd;
Of strong holds thou haft him bereft,
His frontier-coats defencelesfs left,
His ruin does glad triumphs yield
Thou haft his conq'ring sword un[feel'd,
His glory is to darkness fled,
His youth to wretched bondage led,

39 of race,

38 Such was thy gracious promise, Lord; Thy own anointed hast abhorrd;
Thou seemedst to have render'd void
Thou haft his dignity destroy'd;
Of strong holds thou haft him bereft,
His frontier-coats defencelesfs left,
His ruin does glad triumphs yield
Thou haft his conq'ring sword un-
[feel'd,
His glory is to darkness fled,
His youth to wretched bondage led,

39 Thou seemest to have render'd ... that quickly end.
an age that few surrveive:
to eighty we arrive,
to forrow turn'd and pain :
and we no more remain.

40 thou haft now our tribes forsook,
and turn'd on him thy wrathful look.
the cov'nant with thy servant made :
and in the dust his honour laid.
and brought his bulwarks to decay ;
a public fcorn, and common prey.
to foes advanc'd by thee to might ;
his valour turn'd to shameful flight.

41 his throne is levell'd with the ground ;
with shame o'erwhelm'd and forrow [drown'd.

42 How long shall we thy absence mourn ?
Shall thy consuming anger burn,
Consider, Lord, how short a space
No method to prolong the race,
What man is he that can control
Or rescue from the grave his foul,
Lord, where's thy love, thy boundlesfs
[grace,
Confign'd to David and his race,

43 See how thy servants treated are
Which in my silent brest I bear
How they, reproaching thy great [peal ?
the grant which time should ne'er re-with infamy, reproach, and spite;
from nations of licentious might.
have made thy servant's hope their jefl:

44 Yet thy just praises we'll proclaim,
and ever sing, "The Lord be blest."
Amen, Amen.

PSALM XC.

1 O LORD, the favour and defence
From age to age, thou still haft been Before thou brought'lt the mountains forth,
Thou always wert the mighty God,

2 Thou turnest man, O Lord, to dust,
And when thou speakest the word, return,
For in thy sight a thousand years
Or like a watch in dead of night,

3 Thou sweepest us off as with a flood,
At first we grow like grasfs, that feels
But howsoever fresh and fair
'Tis all cut down and wither'd quite;

4 We by thine anger are consum'd,
Our public crimes and secret sins
Beneath thy anger's sad effects
Our unregarded years break off,

5 Our term of time is seventy years,
But if, with more than common strength,
Yet then our boasted strength decays,
So soon the flender thread is cut,

6 but thou haft now our tribes forsook,
and turn'd on him thy wrathful look.
the cov'nant with thy servant made :
and in the dust his honour laid.
and brought his bulwarks to decay ;
a public scorn, and common prey.
to foes advanc'd by thee to might ;
his valour turn'd to shameful flight.

7 of us thy chosen race,
orr surc abiding place.
or th' earth and world didst frame,
and ever art the fame.
of which he first was made :
'tis instantly obey'd.
are like a day that's past,
whose hours unmindfd waste.
we vanish hence like dreams ;
the sun's reviving beams ;
its morning beauty shows ;
before the evening close.

8 and by thy wrath dismay'd ;
before thy sight are laid.
our drooping days we spend:
like tales that quickly end.
an age that few survive :
to eighty we arrive,
to forrow turn'd and pain :
and we no more remain.
PART II.

11 But who thy anger's dread effects
And yet thy wrath does fall or rise,
12 So teach us, Lord, th' uncertain fum
That to true wisdom all our hearts
13 O to thy servants, Lord, return,
As we forfaké our sins, do thou 14 To satisfy and cheer our fouls,
That we may all our days to come 15 Let happy times with large amends
Or equal at the leaft the term 16 To all thy servants, Lord, let this
And to our offpring yet unborn
17 Let thy bright rays upon us shine,
The glorious work we have in hand does as he ought revere?
as more or les we revere,
of our short days to fear,
may ever be inclin'd,
and speedily relent!
revoke our punishment.
thy early mercy fend;
in joy and comfort spend.
dry up our former tears,
of our afflicted years, thy wondrous work be known,
thy glorious pow'r be shewn.
give thou our work success;
do thou vouchsafe to blest.

PSALM XCI.

1 HE that has God his guardian made Shall under the Almighty's shade, secure and undisturb'd abide.
2 Thus to my soul of him I'll fay
He is my fortrefs and my flay,
my God, in whom I will confide.
3 His tender love and watchful care Shall free thee from the fowler's snare, and from the noifome pestilence :
4 He over thee his wings fhall spread,
And cover thy unguarded head,
his truth fhall be thy strong defence.

5 No terrors that surprife by night,
Shall thy undaunted courage fright,
nor deadly shafts that fly by day ;
6 Nor plague, of unknown rife, that kills
In darkness, nor infectious ills that in the hottest feaflon flay.
7 A thousand at thy fide fhall die,
At thy right hand ten thoufand lie,
whilst thy firm health untouched re- mains :
8 Thou only fhalt look on and fee
The wicked's delfmal tragedy, and count the finner's mournful gains.

PSALM XCII.

1 HOW good and pleafant muft it be
And with repeated hymns of praife to thank the Lord moft high;
his name to magnify!
PSALM XCIII. XCIV.

2 With ev'ry morning's early dawn
   And of his constant truth, each night,
3 To ten-string'd instruments we'll sing,
   And to the harp, with solemn sounds,
4 For thro' thy wondrous works, O Lord,
   The thoughts of them shall make me glad,
5, 6 How wondrous are thy works, O Lord!
   Whose winding tracks, in secret laid,
7 He little thinks, when wicked men,
   How soon their short-lived splendor must 8, 9 But thou, my God, art still most high;
   Who thought they might securely sin,
10 Whilst thou exalt'st my sovereign pow'r,
   And with refreshing oil anoint'st
11 I soon shall see my stubborn foes
   And hear the dismal end of those 12 But righteous men, like fruitful palms,
   As cedars, that, on Lebanon,
13, 14 These planted in the house of God,
   Their vigor and their lustre both 15 Thus will the Lord his justice show; Shall due rewards to all the world his goodness to relate;
   the glad effects repeat!
   with tuneful psalms join'd;
   for sacred use design'd.
   thou mak'st my heart rejoice;
   and shout with cheerful voice.
   how deep are thy decrees!
   no stupid sinner sees.
   like graz, look fresh and gay,
   for ever pass away.
   and all thy lofty foes,
   shall be o'erwhelm'd with woes.
   and mak'st it largely spread;
   my consecrated head.
   to utter ruin brought;
   who have against me fought,
   shall make a glorious show;
   in lately order grow.
   within his courts shall thrive;
   shall in old age revive.
   and God, my strong defence,
   impartially dispense.

PSALM XCIII.

1 WITH glory clad, with strength array'd, the Lord, that o'er all nature reigns,
   The world's foundation strongly laid,
   and the vast fabric still sustains,
2 How surely 'tis built is thy throne! For thou, O Lord, and thou alone, which shall no change or period see;
   art God from all eternity.
3, 4 The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice, and toss the troubled waves on high;
   But God above can still their noise,
   and make the angry sea comply.
5 Thy promise, Lord, is ever sure;
   That happy flotation to secure,
   and they that in thy house would dwell,
   must still in holiness excel.

PSALM XCIV.

1, 2 O God, to whom revenge belongs,
   Arise, thou Judge of all the earth
3, 4 How long, O Lord, shall sinful men
   How long their wicked actions boast, their solemn triumphs make?
   and insolently speak?
5, 6 Not only they thy saints oppress,
   The widow's and the stranger's blood, but, unprovok'd, they spill and helplessly orphans kill.
7 "And yet the Lord shall ne'er perceive,
   "Nor any notice of our deeds (profanely thus they speak)
   the God of Jacob take."
8 At length, ye stupid fools, your wants
   In folly will you still proceed, endeavour to discern;
   and wisdom never learn?
9, 10 Can he be deaf who form'd the ear?
   Shall earth's great Judge not punish those,
   or blind who fram'd the eye?
   who his known will defy?
11 He fathoms all the thoughts of men;
   His eye surveys them all, and sees to him their hearts lie bare;
   how vain their counsels are.
PART II.

12 Blefs'd is the man whom thou, O Lord, And by thy facred rules to walk 13 This man fhall reft and safety find Whilst God prepares a pit for those 14 For God will never from his saints His own poffeʃion and his lot 15 The world fhall then confess thee juʃt And thoʃe that chufe thy upright ways, 16 Who will appear in my behalf, Or who, when finners would oppreff, 17, 18, 19 Long since had I in silence slept, To flay me when I flipt; when fad, 20 Will thou, who art a God moʃt juʃt, Who make the law a fair pretence
21 Against the lives of righteous men And blood of innocence to spill, 22 But my defense is firmly plac'd He is my rock, to which I may 23. The Lord fhall caufe their ill designs He in their fins fhall cut them off;
in kindness doʃt caʃtife,
doʃt lovingly advise.
in feaʃons of diftrefs, that ftubbornly tranfgrefs.
his favour wholly take: he will not quite forfake.
in all that thou haʃt done; fhall in thoʃe paths go on.
when wicked men invade? my righteous caufe fhall plead?
but that the Lord was near, my troubled heart to cheer.
their finful throne fuffain, their wicked ends to gain?
they form their close deſign; in folemn league combine.
in God, the Lord moʃt high: for refuge always fly.
on their own heads to fall: our God fhall flay them all.

PSALM XCV.

1 O COME, loud anthems let us fing, Loud thanks to our almighty King:
For we our voices high fhould raife, When our falvation's Rock we praife.
2 Into his preſence let us haʃfe, To thank him for his favours past;
To him addrefs, in joyful fongs, The praife that to his name belongs.
3 For God, the Lord, enthron'd in state, Is, with unrivall'd glory, great;
A king superior far to all, Whom gods the Heathen falsely call.
4 The depths of earth are in his hand, Her secret wealth at his command:
The strength wealth that threat the skies, Subjected to his empire lies.
5 The rolling ocean's vaʃt abyʃs By the fame for' reign right is his:
'Tis mov'd by his almighty hand, That form'd and fix'd the solid land.
6 O let us to his courts repair, And bow with adoration there!
Down on our knees devoutly all Before the Lord, our maker, fall.
7 For he's our God, our shepherd he; His flock and paffure fheep are we.
If then you'll, like his flock, draw near, To-day, if ye his voice will hear;
8 Let not your harden'd hearts renew Your father's crimes and judgments too;
Nor here provoke my wrath, as they In défert plains of Meribah;
9 Whenthro' the wilderneʃ heft themov'd, And me with frefh temptations prov'd:
They still, thro' unbelief, rebell'd, While they my wondrous works beheld.
10, 11 They forty years my patience griev'd, Tho' daily I their wants reliev'd;
Then—'tis a faithlesʃ race, I faid, Whofe heart from me has always ftray'd:
They ne'er will tread my righteous path:
Therefore to them, inifted wrath, Since they defpis'd my reft, I fware,
That they fhould never enter there.
PSALM XCVI.

1 SING to the Lord a new-made song; Let earth in one assembly throng, her common patron's praise re-found.
2 Sing to the Lord, and blest his name; From day to day his praise proclaim, who us has with salvation crown'd.
3 To Heathen lands his fame rehearse, His wonders to the universe.
4 He's great, and greatly to be prais'd; In majesty and glory rais'd above all other deities.
5 For pageantry and idols all Are they whom gods the Heathen call: he only rules who made the skies.
6 With majesty and honour crown'd, Beauty and strength his throne surround.
7 Be therefore both to him restor'd, By you who have false gods ador'd; ascribe due honour to his name.

8 Peace-off'rings on his altar lay, Before his throne your homage pay, which he, and he alone, can claim.
9 To worship at his sacred court, Let all the trembling world retire.
10 Proclaim aloud, JEHovah reigns, Whose pow'r the universe sustains, and banish'd justice will restore.
11 Let therefore heav'n new joys confess, And heav'nly mirth let earth express, its loud applause the ocean roar; Its mute inhabitants rejoice, And for this triumph find a voice.
12 For joy let fertile valleys sing, The cheerful groves their tribute bring; the tuneful choir of birds awake, 13 The Lord's approach to celebrate, Who now fets out with awful state, his circuit thro' the earth to take. From heav'n to judge the world he's come, With justice to reward and doom.

PSALM XCVII.

1 JEHovah reigns, let all the earth Let all the isles with sacred mirth
2 Darknefs and clouds of awful shade Justice and truth his guards are made,
3 Devouring fire before his face
4 His lightnings let the world on blaze;
5 The proudest hills his presence felt, The proudest hills like wax did melt
6 The heav'n's, his righteousness to show, And all the trembling world below
7 Confounded be their impious host, All who of pageant idols boast,
8 Glad Sion of thy triumph heard, Because thy righteous judgments, Lord, 9 For thou, O God, art leaved high, Thou, Lord, unrivall'd in the sky, 10 You, who to serve this Lord aspire, He'll keep his servants souls entire, 11 For seeds are fown of glorious light, And gladness for the heart that's right, in his just government rejoice; in his applause unite their voice.

his dazzling glory shrou'd in state; and, fix'd by his pavilion, wait, his foes around with vengeance struck; earth saw it, and with terror shook.
their height nor strength could help af[ford; in presence of th' almighty Lord.
with storms of fire our foes purfu'd; have his descending glory view'd.
who make the gods to whom they pray; to him, ye gods, your worship pay.
and Judah's daughters were o' erjoy'd; have pagan pride and pow'r destry'd.
above earth's potentates enthron'd; supreme by all the gods art own'd.
abhor what's ill, and truth esteem:
and them from wicked hands redeem.
a future harvest for the just; to recompence, its pious trul.
Rejoice, ye righteous, in the Lord; memorials of his holiness
Deep in your faithful breasts record, and with your thankful tongues confess.

PSALM XCVIII.

1 SING to the Lord a new-made song,
With his right hand and holy arm
Who wondrous things has done;
the conquest he has won.
2 The Lord has thro' th' astomnh'd world
And made his righteous acts appear Display'd his saving might,
in all the Heathen's fight.
3 Of Israel's house his love and truth
Wide earth's remotest parts the pow'r Have ever mindful been;
of Israel's God have seen.
4 Let therefore earth's inhabitants
And all, with universal joy,
Their cheerful voices raise;
join comfort with the main.
5 With harp and hymn's soft melody,
The trumpet and shrill cornet's found,
Into the confort bring;
before th' almighty King.
6 The Lord has thro' astomnh'd world
And made his righteous acts appear
Into the confort bring;
with all that seas contain:
7 Let the loud ocean roar her joy,
The earth, and her inhabitants
To spreading torrents they;
refound their Maker's praise.
8 With joy let riv'lets swell to streams,
And echoing vales, from hill to hill,
As the cloudly pillar mov'd;
who does with justice come,
9 To welcome down the world's great judge,
And, with impartial equity,
The people for their sake;
did fad examples make.
10 Therefore exalt the Lord our God;
And, with his unrefus'd might,
Exalt our God and Lord;
alone should be ador'd.
11 JEHOVAH reigns; let therefore all
On cherubs wings he fits enthron'd,
The guilty nations quake:
let earth's foundations shake.
12 On Sion's hill he keeps his court,
Yet thence his sovereign ty extends
His name is great and dreadful name,
his great and dreadful name.
13 Let therefore all with praise address
And, with his unrefus'd might,
of strength and pow'r take place;
dispens'd to Jacob's race.
14 For truth and justice, in his reign,
His judgments are with righteousness
His holiness extol,
among his priests ador'd.
15 Therefore exalt the Lord our God;
And with his unrefus'd might,
Who ne'er their suit deny'd;
his sacred name implor'd.
16 Moses and Aaron thus, of old,
Amongst his prophets Samuel thus
He graciously reply'd.
who, as with reverence they implor'd;
17 For with their camp, to guide their march,
They keep his laws, and to his will
The cloudy pillar mov'd;
obedient servants prov'd.
18 He answer'd them, forgiving oft
And those who rashly them oppos'd
His people for their sake;
did fad examples make.
19 With worship at his sacred courts
For he, who only holy is,
Exalt our God and Lord;
alone should be ador'd.

PSALM XCIX.

1 JEHOVAH reigns; let therefore all
On cherubs wings he sits enthron'd,
The guilty nations quake:
let earth's foundations shake.
2 On Sion's hill he keeps his court,
Yet thence his sovereignty extends
His name is great and dreadful name,
his great and dreadful name.
3 Let therefore all with praise address
And, with his unrefus'd might,
of strength and pow'r take place;
dispens'd to Jacob's race.
4 For truth and justice, in his reign,
His judgments are with righteousness
His holiness extol,
among his priests ador'd.
5 Therefore exalt the Lord our God;
And with his unrefus'd might,
Who ne'er their suit deny'd;
his sacred name implor'd.
6 Moses and Aaron thus, of old,
Amongst his prophets Samuel thus
He graciously reply'd.
who, as with reverence they implor'd;
7 For with their camp, to guide their march,
They keep his laws, and to his will
The cloudy pillar mov'd;
obedient servants prov'd.
8 He answer'd them, forgiving oft
And those who rashly them oppos'd
His people for their sake;
did fad examples make.
9 With worship at his sacred courts
For he, who only holy is,
Exalt our God and Lord;
alone should be ador'd.

PSALM C.

1, 2 WITH one consent let all the earth to God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay with awful mirth, and sing before him songs of praise.
PSALM CI. CII.

3 Convinc'd that he is God alone,
   We, whom he chufes for his own,
4 O ! enter then his temple-gate,
   And fill your grateful hymns repeat,
5 For he's the Lord supremely good,
   His truth, which always firmly stood,

from whom both we and all proceed;
the flock which he vouchfafes to feed.

thence to his court devoutly press,
and fill his name with praifes blefs.
his mercy is for ever fure;
to endles ages shall endure.

PSALM CI.

1 OF mercy's never-failing spring,
   And ftedfaft judgment I will fing;
   And since they both to thee belong,
To thee, O Lord, addrefs my fong.
2 When, Lord, thou fhalt with mereside,
   Wife discipline my reign fhall guide;
   With blamelesf life myfelf I'll make
A pattern for my court to take.
3 No ill design will I pursue,
   Nor thofe my fav'rites make that do.
4 Who to reproof has no regard,
   Him will I totally difcard.
5 The private flanderer fhall be
   In public justice doom'd by me:

From haughty looks I'll turn afide,
And mortify the heart of pride.

6 But honeftly, call'd from her cell,
In splendor at my court fhall dwell:
Who virtue's practice make their care,
Shall have the firft preferments there.

7 No politics fhall recommend
   His country's foe to be my friend:
None e'er fhall to my favour ride
By flatt'ring or malicious lies.

8 All thofe who wicked courfes take An early Sacrifice I'll make;
Cut off, deftroy, 'til none remain,
God's holy city to profane.

PSALM CII.

1 WHEN I pour out my foul in pray'r,
   To thy eternal throne of grace
2 O hide not thou thy glorious face,
   Incline thine ear, and, when I call,
3 Each cloudy portion of my life,
   My thrivell'd bones are like a hearth,
4 My heart, like grafs that feels the blast
   Does languifh fo with grief, that scarce
5 By reafon of my fad eflate
   My flesh is worn away, my skin
6 I'm like a pelican become,
   Or like an owl, that fits all day
7 In watchings, or in refleff dreams,
   As by thofe solitary birds,
8 All day by railing foes I'm made
   Who all, poffefs'd with furious rage,
9 When grov'ling on the ground I lie,
   My bread is ftreu'd with ashes o'er,
10 Becaufe on me with double weight
   For thou, to make my fall more great,
11 My days, juft haft'ning to their end,
   My beauty does, like wither'd grafs,
12 But thy eternal flate, O Lord,
   The mem'ry of thy wondrous works,
do thou, O Lord, attend;
let my fad cry ascend,
in times of deep diftreff.

like fccatter'd smoke expires;
parch'd with continual fires.
of fome infectious wind,
my needful food I mind.

I fpend my breath in groans:
sccarse hides my fccarling bones.
that does in deferts fccorn:
on barren trees forforn.

the night by me is fpent,
that lonefome roofs frequent.
the fubjed of their fcorn;
have my deftruction fccorn.

oppref'd with grief and fears,
my drink is mix'd with tears.
thy heavy wrath doth lie:
didn't lift me up on high.

are like an ev'n'ning shade:
with waning luftre fade.
no length of time fhall waste:
from age to age fhall laft.
13 Thou shalt arise, and Sion view
   For now her time is come, thy own 14 Her scatter'd ruins, by thy saints,
   They grieve to see her lofty spires
15, 16 The name and glory of the Lord
   When he shall Sion build again,
17, 18 When he regards the poor's request,
   Our sons, for their recorded grace,
19 For God, from his abode on high,
   The Lord, from heavy, his lofty throne,
20 He listen'd to the captive's moans,
   And freed, by his restless pow'r,
21 That they in Sion, where he dwells,
   And thru' the holy city sing
22 When all the tribes assembling there,
   And neighbouring lands, with glad consent
23 But e'er my race is run, my strength
   He has, when all my wishes bloom'd,
24 Lord, end not thou my life, said I,
   Thy years, from worldly changes free,
25 The strong foundations of the earth
   Thy hands the beauteous arch of heav'n
26, 27 Whilft thou for ever shalt endure,
   And, like a garment often worn,
   Like that, when thou ordain'lt their change,
   But thou continu'lt still the same,
28 Thou to the children of thy saints
   Whose happy race, securely fix'd,

PSALM CIII.

1, 2 MY soul, inspir'd with sacred love,
   Of all his favours mindful prove,
3, 4 'Tis he that all thy sins forgives,
   From danger he thy life retrieves,
5, 6 He with good things thy mouth supplies,
   He, when the guiltles'f suffer'rs cries,
7 God made of old his righteous ways
   His works, to his eternal praise,
8 The Lord abounds with tender love,
   His waken'd wrath does slowly move,
9, 10 God will not always harshly chide,
   And loves his punishments to guide,
11 As high as heav'n its arch extends
   So much his boundless love transcends 12, 13 As far as 'tis from east to west,
   Who with a father's tender breast,
   with an unclouded face:
   appointed day of grace.
   with pity are survey'd:
   in dust and rubbish laid.
all Heathen kings shall fear;
   and in full stage appear.
   nor flights their earnest pray'r;
   shall his just praise declare.
   his gracious beams display'd:
   hath all the earth survey'd:
   he heard their mournful cry,
   the wretches doom'd to die:
might celebrate his fame,
   loud praises to his name;
   their solemn vows address;
   the Lord their God confess thro' his fierce wrath decays;
   cut short my hopeful days.
   when half is scarcely past:
   to endless ages last.
of old by thee were laid:
   with wondrous skill have made.
   they soon shall pass away,
   shall tarnish and decay.
   to thy command they bend:
   nor have thy years an end.
   shall lasting quiet give;
   shall in thy presence live.

PSALM CIII.

God's holy name for ever blesses:
and still thy grateful thanks express.
and after sickness makes thee found;
by him with grace and mercy crown'd.
thy vigor, eagle-like, renews:
his foe with just revenge pursues.
to Moses and our fathers known:
were to the sons of Jacob shown.
and unexampled acts of grace;
his willing mercy flies apace.
but with his anger quickly part;
more by his love than our defeat.
above this little spot of clay;
the small respects that we can pay.
so far has he our sins remov'd,
has such as fear him always loved.
14, 15 For God, who all our frame surveys,
How fresh soe'er we seem, our days
16, 17 Whilfe they are nipt with sudden [blasts,
God's faithful mercy ever lafts,
18 This thall attend on such as still
And who not only know his will,
19, 20 The Lord, the universal King,
To him, ye angels, praifes sing,
21 Ye that his just commands obey,
Ye hosts of his, this tribute pay,
22 Let ev'ry creature jointly blefs
With grateful joy thy thanks exprefs,
With cluster'd grapes he crowns the vine, and corn that wafted strength repairs,

Gives oil that makes his face to shine, or art of man, with sap are fed;

or art of man, with sap are fed; as those in royal gardens bred.

The wand'rs of the air may rest; the wand'rs of the air may rest;

protests the flork, her pious guest. protects the flork, her pious guest.

its tow'ring heights their fortrefs make, where feeble creatures refuge take.

where feeble creatures refuge take. thy appointed seasons of the year;

its hours to rife and disappear. when forest beasts securely stray;

to providence, that sends them prey. to providence, that sends them prey.

'til summon'd by the rising morn. 'till summon'd by the rising morn.

the conscious ravagers return. the husbandman securely goes,

the husbandman securely goes, with him returns to his repose.

for which thy wisdom we adore! for which thy wisdom we adore!

PSALM CV.

1 O RENDER thanks, and blest the Lord; Acquaint the nations with his deeds,
2 Sing to his praise, in lofty hymns, Make them in the theme of your discourse,
3 Rejoice in his almighty name, And let their hearts o'erflow with joy, 4 Seek ye the Lord, his saving strength And, where he's ever present, seek 5 The wonders that his hands have wrought The righteous statutes of his mouth,
6 Know ye his servant, Abr'am's seed, He's still our God, his judgments fill 7 His cov'nant he hath kept in mind, Which yet for thousand ages more,
8 His covenant he hath kept in mind, Which yet for thousand ages more,
9 First sign'd to Abr'am, next, by oath,
10 To Jacob and his heirs at law
11 That Canaan's land should be their lot,
12 But few in number, and those few
13 In pilgrimage, from realm to realm,
14 While proudest monarchs, for their fakes,
15 "These mine anointed are, (said he) "Nor treat the poorest prophet ill, 16 A death at last, by his command, 'Til corn, the chief support of life,
17 But his indulgent providence Sold into Egypt, but their death
18 His feet with heavy chains were crush'd,
19 'Til God's appointed time and word
20 The king his sovereign order sent, Whom private malice had confin'd, 21 His court, revenues, realms, were all 22 His greatest princes to control,

PART II.

23 To Egypt then, invited guests, And Jacob held, by royal grant, 24 Th' Almighty there with such increase "'Til with their proud oppressors they 25 Their vast increase th' Egyptians hearts "'Til they his servants to destray 26 His servant Moses then he sent;
27 Empower'd with signs and miracles, 28 He call'd for darkness, darkness came,

his matchless deeds proclaim:
his wondrous works rehearse;

fruit-taining corn did fail.
had pious Joseph sent,
who fold him to prevent.
with calumny his fame;
to his deliverance came.
and rescu'd him with speed;
The people's ruler freed.
subjected to his will; and teach his statesmen skill.

half-famish'd Israel came;
the fertile soil of Ham.
his people multiply'd,
in strength and number vy'd.
with jealous anger fird,
by treach'rous arts conspir'd.
his chosen Aaron too;
to prove their mission true.
nature his summons knew;
the wand'ring fifies flew.
the peff of frogs was bred;
at Pharaoh's board and bed.
PSALM CVI.

31 He gave the sign, and swarms of flies
Whil'st earth's enliven'd dust below,
32 He sent them batt'ring hail for rain,
33 He smote their vines and forest plants,
34 He spake the word, and locusts came,
They prey'd upon the poor remains 35 From trees to herbage they descend,
But, like the naked fallow field,
36 From fields to villages and towns,
One fatal stroke their eldest hopes 37 He brought his servants forth, enrich'd
And, what transcends all treaures else,
38 Egypt rejoic'd in hopes to find Taught dearly now to fear worse ills
39 Their throning canopy, by day,
A fiery pillar all the night
40 They long'd for flesh; with ev'ning quails
From heav'n's high granary, each morn,
41 He smote the rock, whose flinty break
Whose flowing stream where'er they march'd,
42 For still he did on Ab'ram's faith
43 He brought his people forth with joy,
44 Quite rooting out their heathen foes
To them in cheap poiffion gave 45 That they his statutes might observe,
For benefits fo vaft, let us came down in cloudy hofts,

and fire for cooling dew,
and garden's pride o'erthrew.
and caterpillars join'd;
the storm had left behind.
no verdant thing they spare;
leave all the patures bare.
commission'd vengeance flew;
and strength of Egypt flew.
with Egypt's borrow'd wealth;
enrich'd with vig'rous health.
her plagues with them remov'd;
by those already prov'd.
a journeying cloud was spread:
their defert marches led.
he furnifh'd ev'ry tent:
the bread of angels sent.
pour'd forth a guishting tide;
the defert's drought supply'd.
and ancient league reflect:
with triumph his elec't.
from Canaan's fertile foil,
the fruit of others toil:
his sacred laws obey,
our songs of praiie repay.

PSALM CVI.

1 O RENDER thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love;
Whose mercy firm thro' ages past
Has flood, and shall for ever laft.
2 Who can his mighty deeds express,
Not only vaft, but numberless?
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praiie!
3 Happy are they, and only they,
Who from thy judgments never stray:
Who know what's right; nor only so,
But always practice what they know.
4 Extend to me that favour, Lord,
Thou to thy chosen didst afford:
When thou return'st to set them free,
Let thy salvation visit me.
5 O may I worthy prove to fee
Thy fraught in full prosperity;
That I the joyful choir may join,
And count thy people's triumph mine.
6 But, ah! can we expeft such grace,
Of parents vile the viler race;
Who their middeeds have ac'ted o'er,
And with new crimes increas'd the score?
7 Ungrateful, they no longer thought
On all his works in Egypt wrought:
The Red Sea they no looner view'd,
But they their base disfrift renew'd.
8 Yet he, to vindicate his name,
Once more to their deliv'rance came,
To make his fav' reign pow'r be known,
That he is God, and he alone.
9 To right and left, at his command,
The parting deep diselos'd her land;
Where firm and dry the paffage lay,
As thro' some parch'd and defert way.
10 Thus recu'd from their foes they were,
Who closely pref'd upon their rear;
11 Whose rage pursu'd 'em to those waves,
That prov'd the rash pursuers graves.

12 The wat'ry mountains sudden fall
O'erwhelm'd proud Pharaoh, hoft, and
This proof did stupid Israel move [all.
To own God's truth, and praise his love.

PART II.

13 But soon these wonders they forgot,
And for his counsel waited not;
14 But, lust'ning in the wildernefs,
Did him with fresh temptations pres.'s.
15 Strong food, at their request, he sent;
But made their sin their punishment.
16 Yet still his saints they did oppofe,
The'priest and prophet whom he choofe.
17 But earth, the quarrel to decide,
Her vengeful jaws extended wide,
Rah Dathan to her centre drew,
And proud Abiram's factious crew.
18 The rest of those who did confpire
To kindle wild fedition's fire,
With all their impious train, became
A prey to heav'n's devouring flame.
19 Near Horeb's mount a calf they made,
And to the molten image prayer'd;
20 Adoring what their hands did frame,
They chang'd their glory to their shame.

PART III.

21 Their God and Saviour they forgot,
And all his works in Egypt wrought;
22 His signs in Ham's astonish'd coaft,
And where proud Pharaoh's troops were loft.
23 Thus urg'd, his vengeful hand he rear'd;
But Mofes in the breach appear'd;
The faint did for the rebels pray,
And turn'd heav'n's kindled wrath away.
24 Yet they his pleafant land deispis'd,
Nor his repeated promise priz'd;
25 Nor did th' Almighty's voice obey;
But when God laid, Goup, wouldfly.
26 This feal'd their doom, without re-
To perifh in the wildernefs; [dres,
27 Or else to be by Heathens hands
O'erthrown, and scatter'd thro' the lands.

28 Yet, unclaim'd, this flubborn race
Baal-peor's worship did embrace;
Became his impious guefs, and fed
On sacrifices to the dead.
29 Thus they perfifled to provoke God's vengeance to the final stroke,
'Tis come:—the deadly peft is come,
To execute their gen'ral doom.
30 But Phineas, fir'd with holy rage,
Th' Almighty's vengeance to afluage,
Did, by two bold offenders fall,
Th' atonement make that ransom'd all.
31 As him a heav'nly zeal had mov'd,
So heav'n the zealous act approv'd;
To him confirming, and his race,
The priesthood he fo well did grace.
32 At Meribah God's wrath they mov'd,
Who Mofes for their fakes reprov'd,

33 Whose patient foul they did provoke,
'Til rafhly the meek prophet fpoke.
34 Nor, when poiffe'd of Canaan's land,
Did they perform their Lord's command,
Nor his commiffion'd fword employ;
The guilty nations to deftroy?
35 Nor only fpar'd the Pagan crew,
But, mingling, learn'd their vices too,
36 And worship to thofe idols paid,
Which them to fatal fnares betray'd.
37, 38 To devils they did sacrifce
Their children with relentlefs eyes:
Approach'd their altars thro' a flood
Of their own fons and daughters blood.
No cheaper victims would appeafe
Canaan's remorselefs deities:
No blood her idols reconcile,
But that which did the land defile.
39 Nor did these savage cruelties
The harden'd reprobates suffice:
For after their hearts lust they went,
And daily did new crimes invent.

40 But sins of such infernal hue,
God's wrath against his people drew;
'Til he, their once indulgent Lord,
His own inheritance abhor'd.

41 He them, defenceless, did expose
To their insulting heathen foes;
And made them on the triumph wait
Of those who bore them greatest hate.

42 Nor thus his indignation ceas'd;
Their lift of tyrants still increas'd:
'Til they, who God's mild sway
Wander'd from north and south, and west and east.

43 Yet, when distress'd, they did repent,
His anger did as oft relent;
But freed, they did his wrath provoke,
Renew'd their sins, and he their yoke.

44 Nor yet implacable he prov'd,
Nor heard their wretched cries unmov'd:

45 But did to mind his promise bring,
And mercy's unexhausted spring.

46 Compassion too he did impart,
Ev'n to their foes obdurate heart,
And pity for their sufferings bred
In those who them to bondage led.

47 Still save us, Lord, and Israel's bands
Together bring from Heathen lands;
So to thy name our thanks we'll raise,
And ever triumph in thy praise.

48 Let Israel's God be ever blest,
His name eternally confess'd:
Let all his saints, with full accord,
Sing loud Amens—Praise ye the Lord!

1 TO God your grateful voices raise,
And let your never-ceasing praise who does your daily patron prove:
attend on his eternal love.

2, 3 Let those give thanks who me from
And brought them back from distant of proud oppressing foes releas'd;
lands,

4, 5 Thro' lonely desert ways they went,
'Til quite with thirst and hunger spent,
nor could a peopled city find;

6 Then soon to God's indulgent ear
Who graciously vouchsaf'd to hear,
their fainting souls within them pin'd.

7 From crooked paths he led them forth,
To wealthy towns of great resort,
and freed them from their deep distress.

8 O then that all the earth with me
And for the mighty works which he and in the certain way did guide
And for the mighty works which he

9 For he, from heav'n, the sad estate
To hungry souls, that pant for meat, where all their wants were well supply'd.

10 Some lie, with darknes compas'd round,
in death's uncomfortable shade,
And with unwieldy fetters bound,
by pressing cares more heavy made.
11, 12 Because God's counsels they de-fy'd,
   and lightly priz'd his holy word,
   they fell, and none could help afford.

13 Then soon to God's indulgent ear
   Who graciously vouchsaf'd to hear,
   and freed them from their deep distress.

14 From dismal dungeons, dark as night,
   And for the mighty works which he did their mournful cry address;

15 O then that all the earth with me,
   And for the mighty works which ho would God for this his goodness praise,

16 For he with his almighty hand
   Nor could the fluffy bars withstand, the gates of brass in pieces broke;

PART III.

17 Remorseless wretches, void of sense,
   And for their multiply'd offence,
   with bold transgressions God defy;

18 Their soul, a prey to pain and fear,
   And by faint degrees draw near oppresses'd with sore diseases lie.

19 Then straight to God's indulgent ear
   Who graciously vouchsafes to hear,
   do they their mournful cry address,

20 He all their distempers heals,
   And, when all human succour fails.
   and frees them from their deep distress.

21 O then that all the earth with me,
   And for the mighty works which he
   would God for this his goodness praise,

22 With o'erlings let his altar flame,
   And with loud joy his holy name,
   whilst they their grateful thanks express,

PART IV.

23, 24 They that in ships, with courage
   Do God's amazing works behold, and in the deep his wonders view.

25 No sooner his command is past,
   Which sweeps the sea with rapid haste,
   but forth the dreadful tempest flies,

26 Sometimes the ships, toss'd up to on tops of mountain waves appear;
   and makes the stormy billows rise,

27 They reel and stagger to and fro,
   Then down the steep abyss are driv'n,
   whilst ev'ry soul dissolves with fear.

28 Then straight to God's indulgent ear
   Who graciously vouchsafes to hear,
   like men with fumes of wine oppress'd:

29, 30 He does the raging storm appease
   With joy they see their fury cease;
   which way to steer, what course is best.

31 O then that all the earth with me
   And for the mighty works which he
   would God for this his goodness praise,
Let them, where all the tribes resort,
And in the elders' council they are crowned.

God's just revenge, if people sin,
to punish those that dwell therein.

PART V.

A fruitful land, where streams abound,
Will turn to dry and barren ground,
The parch'd and desert heath he makes
Which for his lot the hungry takes,
Nor can, whilst God his blessing grants,
his fruitful seed or flock decay;
But when his fons heav'n's wrath provoke,
He feels th' oppressor's galling yoke,
And over wild and desert lands,
where no path offers, stray alone.

The prince that flights what God commands,
And makes in time his numerous heirs
the just a decent joy shall shew;
The wife these strange events shall weigh,
and thence God's goodness fully know.

PSALM CVIII.

1 O GOD, my heart is fully bent
My tongue with cheerful fongs of praise to magnify thy name:

2 Awake, my lute; nor thou, my harp,
Whilst I with early hymns of joy shall celebrate thy fame.

3 To all the lifting tribes, O Lord,
And to those nations sing thy praise;
their Saviour may declare;

4 Because thy mercy's boundless height
And far beyond th' aspiring clouds the higheft heav'n transcends, thy faithful truth extends.

5 Be thou, O God, exalted high
And let the world with one consent,
above the starry frame:

6 That all thy chosen people thee Let thy right hand proteft me still,
confes th' glorious name.

7 Since God himself has said the word,
With joy I Sechem shall divide, whose promise cannot fail,

8 Gilead is mine, Manafeh too,
Their strength my regal pow'r supports,
and meafure Succoth's vale.

9 Moab I'll make my servile drudge,
And thro' the proud Philifline lands and Ephraim owns my caufe;

10 By whose support and aid shall I Who will my troops securely lead and Judah gives my laws.

11 Lord, wilt not thou affift our arms,
And wilt not thou of these our hosts
on vanquifh'd Edom tread;

12 Lord, wilt not thou affift our arms,
And wilt not thou of these our hosts
whofe conq'ring banners spread.

13 Lord, wilt not thou affift our arms,
And wilt not thou of these our hosts their well-fenc'd city gain?

14 Lord, wilt not thou affift our arms,
And wilt not thou of these our hosts
which late thou didft forfake?
PSALM CIX.

12 O! to thy servant in distress
For vain it is on human aid
Then valiant acts shall we perform;
For God it is, and God alone, thy speedy succour send;
for safety to depend.
if thou thy pow'r disclose;
that treads down all our foes.

PSALM CIX.

1 O GOD, whose former mercies make Hold not thy peace, but my sad state
For sinful men, with lying lips,
And with their study'd flanders seek Their reflexes hatred prompts them still
And all against my life combine,
Those whom with tend'rest love I us'd,
Whilst I, of other friends bereft,
Since mischief for the good I did,
And hatred's the return they make Their guilty leader shall be made
And, when he's try'd, his mortal foe
His guilt, when sentence is pronounced,
Whilst his rejected pray'r but serving
His, snatch'd by some untimely fate,
Another, by divine decree,
His feed shall orphans be, his wife
His vagrant children beg their bread,
His ill-got riches shall be made
The fruit of all his toil shall be None shall be found that to his wants
Or to his helpless orphan feed
A swift destruction soon shall seize
And the next age his hated name
The vengeance of his father's sons
God on his mother's crimes shall think,
"Til his fierce anger quite cuts off my constant praise thy due,
with wonted favour view,
deceitful speeches frame,
to wound my spotless fame.
malignant lies to spread;
by causeless fury led.
my chief opposers are:
refort to thee by pray'r.
their strange reward does prove,
for undissimulated love:
to some ill man a flave;
for his accuser have.
shall meet a dreadful fate,
his crimes to aggravate.
sha'n't live out half his days;
shall on his office seize.
a widow plung'd in grief;
where none can give relief.
to usurers a prey,
by strangers borne away.
their mercy will extend,
the least afflictance lend.
on his unhappy race;
shall utterly deface.
upon his head shall fall;
and punish him for all.
before the Lord shall stand,
their memory from the land.

PART II.

16 Because he never mercy shew'd,
And sought to slay the helpless man,
Therefore the curse he lov'd to vent
And blessing, which he still abhor'd,
Since he in cursing took such pride,
Thro' all his veins, and sick like oil,
This, like a poison'd robe, shall flit Or an envenom'd belt, from which but still the poor oppress'd;
with heavy woes distress'd:
shall his own portion prove;
shall far from him remove.
like water it shall spread,
with which his bones are fed.
his constant cov'ring be,
he shall be never free.
that ill to me design,
against my life combine.
do thou deliver me;
preferve and set me free.
17 And sought to slay the helpless man,
18 Therefore the curse he lov'd to vent
And blessing, which he still abhor'd,
19 Since he in cursing took such pride,
Thro' all his veins, and sick like oil,
20 Thus shall the Lord reward all those
That with malicious, false reports
21 But, for thy glorious name, O God,
And, for thy gracious mercy's sake,
PSALM CX. CXI.

22 For I, to utmost traits reduc'd,
My heart is wounded with distrefs,
I, like an ev'ning shade, decline,
Like locusts up and down I'm toss'd,

24, 25 My knees with fasting are grown weak,
All that behold me shake their heads,
26, 27 But for thy mercy's fake, O Lord,
That all may see 'tis thy own act,
28 Then let them curse, so thou but bless;
Of all that my destruction seek,
29 My foes shall with disgrace be clothed;
His own confusion, like a cloak,

30 But I to God, in grateful thanks,
And where the great assembly meets,
31 For him the poor shall always find
And he shall from unrighteous dooms am void of all relief:

and quite pierc'd thro' with grief,
which vanishes apace:
and have no certain place.

my body lank and lean;
and treat me with disdain.
do thou my foes withstand;
the work of thy right hand.

let shame the portion be while I rejoice in thee.
and, spite of all his pride,
the guilty wretch shall hide.

my cheerful voice will raise;
set forth his noble praise.
their sure and constant friend;
their guiltless souls defend.

PSALM CX.

1 THE Lord unto my Lord thus spake:
"Til I thy foes thy footstool make
"fit thou in flate at my right hand:
2 "Supreme in Sion thou shalt be,
"And all thy proud opposers see
"subjected to thy just command.

3 "Thee, in thy pow'r's triumphant day,
"The willing nations shall obey!
"and when thy rising beams they "view,
"Shall all, redeem'd from error's
"night,
"Appear as numberless and bright
"as crystal drops of morning dew."

4 The Lord hath sworn, nor sworn in vain,
That, like Melchizedech's, thy reign and priesthood shall no period know.
5 No proud competitor to fit
At thy right hand will he permit;
but in his wrath crown'd heads o'erthrow.

6 The fentenc'd Heathen he shall flay,
And ffill with carcafes his way.
'til he hath struck earth's tyrants dead:
7 But in the high-way brooks shall firft,
Like a poor pilgrim, flake his thirst,
and then in triumph raise his head.

PSALM CXI.

1 PRAISE ye the Lord; our God to praise
My foul her utmost pow'r's shall raise,
With private friends, and in the throng
Of faints, his praise shall be my song.

2 His works for greatness tho', renowned,
His wondrous works with ease are found
By those who feek for them aight,
And in the pious search delight.

3 His works are all of matchless fame,
And universal glory claim;
His truth, confirm'd thro' ages past,
Shall to eternal ages last.

4 By precept he has us enjoin'd,
To keep his wondrous works in mind;
And to posterity record,
That good and gracious is our Lord.

5 His bounty, like a flowing tide,
Has all his fervants wants supply'd;
And he will ever keep in mind
His cov'rant with our fathers sign'd.

6 At once astonish'd and o'erjoy'd,
They faw his matchless pow'r em-
ploy'd;
Whereby the heathen were suppress'd,
And we their heritage possess'd.
Juft are the dealings of his hands,
Immutable are his commands;
By truth and equity fuftain'd,
And for eternal rules ordain'd,
He fet his faints from bondage free,
And then effablifi'd his decree,
For ever to remain the fame:—
Holy and rev'rend is his name.
Who wisdom's sacred prize would win,
Muft with the fear of God begin;
Immortal praife and heav'nly ikill
Have they, who know and do his will.

THAT man is blefs'd who flands in
Of God, and loves his sacred law:
His feed on earth {hall be renoun'd,
And with fueceflive honours crown'd.
His houfe, the seat of wealth, {hall be
An unexhausted treafury;
His justice, free from all decay,
Shall blefings to his heirs convey.
The foul that's fill'd with virtue's light,
Shines brightefl in affliction's night:
To pity the diftrefs'd inclin'd,
As well as juft to all mankind.
His lib'ral favours he extends,
To some he gives, to others lends;
Yet what his charity impairs,
He faves by prudence in affairs.

YE saints and fervants of the Lord,
The triumphs of his name record;
his sacred name for ever blefs.
Where'er the circling fun displays
His rising beams or fetting rays, due praife to his great name addrefs.
God thro' the world extends his fway,
The regions of eternal day but shadows of his glory are.
To him whole majefly excels,
Who made the heav'n in which he dwells,
let no created pow'r compare.

WHEN Ifrael, by th' Almighty led,
From Egypt march'd, and Jacob's feed
JEHOVAH, for his residence,
His mansion, royal, and from thence enrich'd with their oppressors fpoil, from bondage in a foreign foil;
chofe out imperial Judah's tent,
thro' Israel's camp his orders fent.
3 The distant sea, with terror, saw,
Old Jordan's streams, surpris'd with awe,
and from th' Almighty's presence fled;
retreated to their fountain's head.
4 The taller mountains skipp'd like rams,
The hills skipp'd after them like lambs,
when danger near the fold they hear;
affrighted by their leader's fear.
5 O sea! what made your tide withdraw,
Why Jordan against nature's law,
recoil'd thou to thy fountain's head?
when danger does approach the fold?
6 Why, mountains, did ye skipp like rams,
Why after you the hills like lambs,
when they their leader's flight behold?
and naked leave your oozy bed?
7 Earth, tremble on; well may'thou fear
When Jacob's awful God draws near,
'tis time for earth and seas to flee:
confirms and cancels at his will;
8 To flee from God, who nature's law
Who springs from flinty rocks can draw, and thirly vales with water fill.

PSALM CXV.
1 LORD, not to us, we claim no share,
Give glory, for thy mercy's fake,
but to thy sacred name
and truth's eternal fame.
2 Why should the Heathen cry, Where's now Convince them that in heav'n thou art,
the God whom we adore?
and uncontrol'd thy pow'r.
3 Their gods but gold and silver are,
With speechles mouth and flightless eyes,
the works of mortal hands;
but neither hears nor smells:
4 The pageant has both ears and nose,
Its hands and feet nor feel nor move,
no life within it dwells,
can nothing like them find,
5 Such fenelefs stocks they are, that we But those who on their help rely,
and them for gods design'd,
who is your help and shield,
6 O Israel, make the Lord your trust, Priests, Levites, trust in him alone,
who only help can yield.
on him their fear rely;
7 Let all, who truly fear the Lord,
Who them in danger can defend,
and all their wants supply,
and Israel's house will blest;
8 Of us he oft has mindful been,
Priests, Levites, Profelytes, ev'n all who his great name confes.
increase of blessings bring;
9 On you, and on your heirs, he will Thrice happy you, who fav'rites are of this almighty King;
his empire's feat design'd!
10 In his highefs orb of glory he And gave this lower globe of earth a portion to mankind.
to him no praise afford;
11 They who in death and silence sleep,
12 But we will blest for evermore,
PSALM CXVI.
1 MY foul with grateful thoughts of love
Because the Lord vouchaf'd to hear entirely is posseft,
the voice of my request,
2 Since he has now his ear inclin'd
But fill in all the straits of life
I never will despair;
to him addres my pray'r.
3 With deadly forrows compas'd round,
When troubls feiz'd my aching heart,
with pains of hell oppresf'd,
and anguish rack'd my breath;
4 On God's almighty name I call'd,
"Lord, I befeceh thee, save my soul,
and thus to him I pray'd:
with forrows quite difmay'd."
PSALM CXVII. CXVIII.

5, 6 How just and merciful is God! Who saves the harmless, and to me how gracious is the Lord! does timely help afford.
7 Then, free from penitive cares, my soul, I give him my vouchsafes.
8 For God has wondrously to thee my bounteous love express'd. but let them confound, 9 When death alarm'd me, he remov'd my dangers and my fears:
10-11 Therefore my life's remaining years, falling from foes, which God to me shall lend,
12, 13 Will I in praises to his name, and in his service spend, Will I praise his name, and with glad zeal, 14, 15 I'll pay my vows amongst his saints, and in the cup of blessing take,
16 By various ties, O Lord, must I whole blood (howe'er despis'd) is always highly priz'd:
17, 18 Thy humble handmaid's son before, to thy dominion bow:
19 They in Jerusalem shall meet, and, whilst I blest thy name,
To blest thy name with one consent and, whilst I blest thy name,

PSALM CXVII.

1 WITH cheerful notes let all the earth to heav'n their voices raise:
Let all, inspir'd with godly mirth, sing solemn hymns of praise.
2 God's tender mercy knows no bound, his truth shall ne'er decay:
Then let the willing nations round their grateful tribute pay.

PSALM CXVIII.

1, 2 O PRAISE the Lord, for he is good,
That his kind favours ever last,
3, 4 Their sense of his eternal love,
And that it never fails, let all
5 To God I made my humble moan,
And he releas'd me from my straits,
6 Since therefore God does on my side,
Why should the vain attempts of men
7 Since God with those that aid my cause,
To all my foes I need not doubt
8, 9 For better 'tis to trust in God,
Than on the greatest human pow'r
10, 11 Thou many nations, closely leag'd,
Yet, by his boundles pow'r fullain'd,
12 They swarm'd like bees, and yet their rage
For whilst on God I still rely'd, 13 When all united pref'd me hard,
The Lord vouchsaf'd to take my part,
14 The honour of my strange escape
He is my favour and my strength,
PSALM CXIX.

15. Joy fills the dwelling of the just, For wondrous things are brought to pass
16. He, by his own resplendent pow'r, The saving strength of his right hand
17. God will not suffer me to fall, That by declaring all his works,
18. When God had sorely me chastis'd, His mercy from the gates of death
19. Then open wide the temple gates That I may enter in and praise,
20. Within those gates of God's abode Since thou hast heard, and set me safe,
21. That which the builders once refus'd, This is the wondrous work of God,
22. This day is God's; let all the land Lord, we beseech thee, save us now,
23. Him that approaches in God's name "We that belong to God's own house
24. God is the Lord, thro' whom we all Fast to the altar's horns with cords
25. Thou art my Lord, O God, and still Because thou only art my God,
26. O then with me give thanks to God, And let the tribute of our praise

PSALM CXIX.

1 HOW blest'd are they who always keep Who never from the sacred paths
2 Thrice blest'd! who to his righteous laws And have with fervent humble zeal
3 Such men their utmost caution use But in the path which he directs 4 Thou strickly hast enjoin'd us, Lord, And all our diligence employ
5 O then that thy most holy will And I the course of all my life
6 Then with assurance should I walk, Convinc'd, with joy, that all my ways
7 My upright heart shall my glad mouth When, by thy righteous judgments taught,
8 So to thy sacred law shall I O then forfake me not, my God,

BETH.

9 How shall the young preserve their ways From all pollution free?

whom God has fav'd from harm; By his almighty arm.
by his almighty arm.
has endless honour won;
has entered praise;
but still prolongs my days;
endless days;
by his almighty arm.
my fainting life reprieve'd,
my great deliverer there.
to which the just repair,
to which the righteous press,
thy holy name I'll bless.
endless days;
the work of God alone,
exalt their cheerful voice;
and make us still rejoice.
let all the assembly bless;
have with'd you good success;
both light and comfort find;
the chosen victim bind.
I'll praise thy holy name;
I'll celebrate thy name.
who still does gracious prove;
endless as his love.

the pure and perfect way!
of God's commandments stray!
and have still obedient been!
his favour fought to win!
to shun each wicked deed;
with constant care proceed.
to learn thy sacred will;
thy statutes to fulfil.
might o'er my ways precede!
by thy direction guide!
from all confusion free;
with thy commands agree.
with cheerful praises fill;
I shall have learnt thy will.
all due observance pay:
nor cast me quite away.

from all pollution free?
with thy commands agree.
PSALM CXIX.

10 With hearty zeal for thee I seek,
O suffer not my carelesf steps
11 Safe in my heart, and clofely hid,
To fuccour me with timely aid,
12 Secur'd by that, my grateful foul
O teach me then by thy juft laws
13 My lips, unlock'd by pious zeal,
How well the judgments of thy mouth
14 Whilft in the way of thy commands
Than had I been with vaff increafe
15 Therefore thy juft and upright laws
And thofe found rules which thou prefcrib'd
16 To keep thy ftatutes undefac'd
The ftreic remembrance of thy word to thee for fuccour pray;

from thy right paths to ftray;
thy word, my treasure, lies;
when fmaluf thoughts arife.
fhall ever blefs thy name;
my future life to frame.
to others have declar'd,
deferve our best regard.
more folid joy I found,
of envy'd riches crown'd.
fhall always fill my mind;
all due respect fhall find.
fhall be my conftant joy;
fhall all my thoughts employ.

dothou my life defend,
my time to come may fpend,
that fo I may dierenn who thy juft precepts learn.
from place to place I fray,
remove not thou away,
with earnest longing spent,
of thy juft will intent.
whom ftill thy curfe pursues;
prefumptuoufly refufe.
contempt and fhame remove;
with undifembled love.
againft thy fervant fpake;
my conftant bus'nes make.
my comfort and delight;
to guide my fteps aright.

clofe to the dust does cleave;
thy promis'd aid receive.
and thou inclin'd thy ear;
by thy juft laws to fteer.
and by their guidance walk,
fhall be my conftant talk.
pref'sd down with weighty care;
my wafled strength repair.
and lying arts remov'd!
the path by thee approv'd!
my happy choice I've made;
befo before me always laid.
with thy commands agree;
from fhame and ruin free.
32 So in the way of thy commands
And, with a heart enlarg'd with joy,
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.
shall I with pleasure run, successfully go on.

33 Instruct me in thy statutes, Lord,
And I from them, thro' all my life,
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

34 If thou true wisdom from above.
To keep thy perfect laws I will
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

35 Direct me in the sacred ways, Because my chief delight has been
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

36 Do thou to thy most just commands
Let no desire of worldly wealth
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

37 From those vain objects turn my eyes,
But give me lively power and strength
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

38 Confirm the promise which thou mad'st,
Who to transgress thy sacred laws
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

39 The soul disgrace I justly fear,
For all the judgments thou ordain'lt
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

40 Thou know'st how after thy command
Let no desire of worldly wealth
thy righteous paths display;
will never go astray.
will graciously impart,
devote my zealous heart.
to which thy precepts lead;
thy righteous paths to tread.
icline my willing heart;
from thee my thoughts divert.
which this false world displays;
to keep thy righteous ways,
and give thy servant aid,
is awfully afraid.
in mercy, Lord, remove;
are full of grace and love.
my longing heart does pant;
and promised succour grant.

41 Thy constant blessing, Lord, bestow,
To me, according to thy word,
to cheer my drooping heart;
your favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
did all my griefs control;
thy favour, Lord, extend:
thy servant's hopes depend.
53 Sometimes I stand amaz'd, like one
   To think how all my sinful foes
54 But I thy statutes and decrees
   Whilst thro' strange lands and deserts wild, 55 Thy name that cheer'd my heart by day,
   Then resolv'd by thy just laws
56 That peace of mind which has my soul
   By strict obedience to thy will

CHETH,
57 O Lord, my God, my portion thou
   Thy words I stedfastly resolve 58 With all the strength of warm desires Disclose, according to thy word,
59 With due reflection and strict care
   And so reclaim'd to thy just paths
60 I lost no time, but made great haste,
   To watch, that I might never more 61 Tho' num'rous troops of sinful men
   Yet I thy pure and righteous laws
62 In dead of night I will arise
   Convinc'd how much I always ought 63 To such as fear thy holy name
   To all who their obedient wills
64 O'er all the earth thy mercy, Lord,
   O make me then exactly learn

TETH.
65 With me thy servant thou hast dealt Repeated benefits below'd, 66 Teach me the sacred skill by which
   Who in belief of thy commands
67 Before affliction stopp'd my course,
   But I have since been disciplin'd,
68 Thou art, O Lord, supremely good,
   On me thy statutes to discern,
69 The proud have forg'd malicious lies,
   But my fix'd heart, without revere,
70 While pamper'd they, with prof'rous ills,
   My soul can relish no delight
71 'Tis good for me that I have felt That I might duly learn and keep 72 The law that from my mouth proceeds
   Than untouch'd mines, than thousand mines

JOD.
73 To me, who am the workmanship
   The heav'nly understanding give with deadly horror struck, have thy just laws forsook.

   my cheerful anthems made;
   like a pilgrim stray'd.
has fill'd my thoughts by night;
   to guide my steps aright.
in deep distress sustain'd,
   I happily obtain'd.

and sure possession art;
   to treasure in my heart.
I did thy grace implore;
   thy mercy's boundless store.
on all my ways I thought;
   my wandering steps I brought.
refolv'd, without delay;
   from thy commandments stray.
to rob me have combin'd,
   have ever kept in mind.
to sing thy solemn praise;
   to love thy righteous ways.
myself I closely join;
   to thy commands resign.
abundantly is shed;
   thy sacred paths to tread.

most graciously, O Lord;
   according to thy word.
right judgment is attain'd,
   have stedfastly remain'd.
my footsteps went astray;
   thy precepts to obey.
and all thou dost is so;
   thy saving skill below.
my spotless fame to stain;
   thy precepts shall retain.
in sensual pleasures live,
   but what thy precepts give.
affliction's chast'ning rod,
   the statutes of my God.
of more esteem I hold
   of silver and of gold.

of thy almighty hands;
   to learn thy just commands.
74. My preservation to thy saints
   To see success attend my hopes,
75. That right thy judgments are, I now
   And that in faithfulness, O Lord, 76. O let thy tender mercy now
   According to thy promise, Lord, 77. To me thy saving grace restore,
   Whole soul can relish no delight
78. Decease the proud, who, unprovok'd,
   Who only on thy sacred laws
79. Let those that fear thy name espouse
   Who have by strict and pious search 80. In thy bless'd statutes let my heart
   That guilt and shame, the sinner's lot, strong comfort will afford,

   who trusted in thy word.
   by sure experience fee;
   thou hast afflicted me.
   afford me needful aid;
   to me thy servant made.
   that I again may live;
   but what thy precepts give.
   to ruin me have sought,
   employ my harmless thought.
   my cause, and those alone,
   thy sacred precepts known.
   continue always found;
   may never me confound.

CAPHI.
81. My soul, with long expectation, faints,
   Yet still on thy unerring word
82. My very eyes consume and fail
   O! when wilt thy kind relief
83. My skin like shrivell'd parchment shows,
   Yet no affliction me can force
84. How many days must I endure
   When wilt thou judgment execute 85. The proud have digg'd a pit for me,
   But such as are averse to thee,
86. With sacred truth's eternal laws
   Men perfecute me without cause;
87. With close designs against my life
   But in obedience to thy will,
88. Thy wondert kindnefs, Lord, restore,
   That by thy righteous statutes I

   to see thy saving grace:
   my confidence I place.
   with waiting for thy word;
   and promises aid afford?
   that long in smoke is set
   thy statutes to forget.
   of sorrow and distress;
   on them who me opprefs?
   that have no other foes,
   and thy just laws oppose
   all thy commands agree;
   thou, Lord, my helper be.
   they had almost prevail'd;
   my duty never fail'd;
   my drooping heart to cheer;
   my life's whole course may steer.

LAMED.
89. For ever, and for ever, Lord,
   Thy word establish'd in the heav'n's,
90. Thro' circling ages, Lord, thy truth
   As doth the earth which thou uphold'st
91. All things the course by thee ordain'd
   They are thy faithful subjects all, 92. Unles's thy sacred law had been
   I must have fainted, and expir'd
93. Thy precepts, therefore, from my thoughts
   For thou by them hast to new life
94. As I am thine, entirely thine,
   Who have thy precepts fought to know,
95. The wicked have their ambush laid But in the midst of danger I unchang'd thou dost remain;

   does all their orbs sustain.
   inmoveable shall stand,
   by thy almighty hand.
   ev'n to this day fulfill;
   and servants of thy will.
   my comfort and delight,
   in dark affliction's night.
   shall never, Lord, depart;
   refr'd my dying heart.
   protect me, Lord, from harm,
   and carefully perform.
   my guiltless life to take;
   thy word my study make.
PSALM CXIX.

96 I've seen an end of what we call
But thy commandments, like thyself,

MEM.

97 The love that to thy laws I bear,
They with fresh wonders entertain
98 Thro' thy commands I wiser grow
For thy sure word doth me direct,
99 From me my former teachers now Because thy sacred precepts I 100 In understanding I excel
Because by thy unerring rules
101 My feet with care I have refrain'd
That to thy sacred word I might 102 I have not from thy judgments stray'd,
For, Lord, thou hast instructed me
103 How sweet are all thy words to me!
How much more grateful to my soul,
104 Taught by thy sacred precepts, I Thro' which the treach'rous ways of sin

NUN.

105 Thy word is to my feet a lamp,
A watch-light to point out the path,
106 I swear,(and from my solemn oath
That in thy righteous judgments I 107 Since I with griefs am so oppreß,
According to thy word do thou
108 Let fill my sacrifice of praise
And in thy righteous judgments, Lord, 109 Tho' ghastly dangers me surround,
Nor with continual terrors keep 110 My wicked and inveterate foes
Yet I have kept the upright path,
111 Thy testimonies I have made
For they, when other comforts fail, 112 My heart with early zeal began
And, 'till my course of life is done,

SAMECH.

113 Deceitful thoughts and practices
But to thy law affection bear 114 My hiding-place, my refuge-tow'r,
I firmly anchor all my hopes 115 Hence ye that trade in wickedness,
For firmly I resolve to keep 116 According to thy gracious word,
Nor make me of those hopes ashamed,

I utterly detest;
too great to be express'd.
and shíeld art thou, O Lord;
on thy unerring word.
approach not my abode;
the precepts of my God.
from danger set me free;
that I repose in thee.
117 Uphold me, so shall I be safe,
To thy decrees continually
118 The wicked thou hast trod to earth,
Their vile deceit the just reward
119 The wicked from thy holy land
I therefore, with such justice charm'd,
120 Yet with that love they make me dread,
When on transgressors I behold and rescu'd from distress
my just respect; address
who from thy statutes stray'd;
of their own falsehood made.
thou dost like dross remove;
thy testimonies love.
left I should so offend,
thy judgments thus descend.

O therefore, Lord, engage to my oppressors rage
and so shall this distress,
my guiltless soul oppress.
in long expectation held;
and righteous word fulfill'd.
thy wond'ring grace display,
thy statutes to obey.
thy sacred skill below,
the full extent may know.
thy vengeance to employ,
thy sacred law destroy.
but makes their value rise compar'd with them despise.
in all respects, divine:
and all false ways decline.

The wonders which thy laws contain,
Therefore to learn and practice them,
130 The very entrance to thy word
And knowledge of true happiness
131 With eager hopes I waiting flood,
That of thy wife commands I might 132 With favour, Lord, look down on me,
As thou art wont to visit those 133 Directed by thy heav'nly word
Nor wickedness of any kind 134 Releas'd, entirely set me free
That, unmolested, I may learn 135 On me, devoted to thy fear,
Thy statutes both to know and keep,
136 My eyes to weeping fountains turn,
To see mankind against thy laws
and rescu'd from distress
my just respect; address
who from thy statutes stray'd;
of their own falsehood made.
thou dost like dross remove;
thy testimonies love.
left I should so offend,
thy judgments thus descend.

no words can represent;
my zealous heart is bent.
celestial light displays;
to simplest minds conveys.
and fainted with desire.
the sacred skill acquire.
who thy relief implore;
who thy blest name adore.
let all my footsteps be;
dominion have o'er me.
from persecuting hands,
and practise thy commands.
Lord, make my face to shine:
my heart with zeal incline.
whence briny rivers flow,
in bold defiance go.

Thou art the righteous Judge, in whom
And, like thyself, thy judgments, Lord, wrong'd innocence may trust;
in all respects are just.
138 Most just and true those statutes were,
And all with faithfulness perform'd,
139 With zeal my flesh consumes away,
To see my foes contemn at once 140 Yet each neglected word of thine,
Is pure, and for eternal truth
141 Brought, for thy fake, to low estate,
Yet no affronts or wrongs can drive
142 Thy righteousness shall then endure
Thy law is truth itself, that truth
143 Thou, whose commands are righteous all,
Concerning thy divine decrees,
144 And me from bondage draw;
And me from bondagewrithe;
145 Confider my affliction, Lord,
Think on thy servant in distress,
146 Plead thou my cause; to that and me
With beams of mercy quicken me
147 My earlier pray'r the dawning day
To him, on whose engaging word
148 With zeal have I awak'd before
That I of thy mysterious word
149 Lord, hear my supplicating voice,
O quicken me, and so approve 150 My perfecuting foes advance,
What treatinent can I hope from them
151 Thou, whose commands are righteous all,
Concerning thy divine decrees,
That they were true, and shall their truth,
Which thou didnst first decree;
succeeding times shall see.
my soul with anguish frets,
thy promises and threats.
howe'er by them despis'd,
by me, thy servant, priz'd.
contempt from all I find;
thy precepts from my mind,
when time itself is past;
which shall for ever last.
to compass me unite;
thy precepts my delight.
thy testimonies give:
my soul for ever live.

KOPH.

145 With my whole heart to God I call'd,
And I thy statutes to perform
146 Again more fervently I pray'd,
Thy testimonies truly know,
147 My earlier pray'r the dawning day
To him, on whose engaging word
148 With zeal have I awak'd before
That I of thy mysterious word
149 Lord, hear my earnest cry;
will all my care apply.
O save me! that I may and steadfastly obey.
prevented, while I cry'd
my hope alone rely'd.
the midnight watch was set,
might perfect knowledge get,
and wanted favour shew;
thy judgments ever true.
and hourly nearer draw:
who violate thy law?

RESCH.

153 Consider my affliction, Lord,
Think on thy servant in distress,
154 Plead thou my cause; to that and me
With beams of mercy quicken me
155 From harden'd sinners thou remov'ft
The just thou shouldst withdraw from them, 156 Since great thy tender mercies are According to thy judgments, Lord,
157 A numerous host of spiteful foes
But all too few to force my soul
158 Those bold transgressors I beheld,
To see with what audacious pride
159 Yet while they flight, consider, Lord, O therefore quicken me with beams
and me from bondage draw;
who ne'er forgets thy law.
thy timely aid afford;
according to thy word.
salvation far away:
who from thy statutes stray.
to all who thee adore;
my fainting hopes restore.
against my life combine;
thy statutes to decline.
and was with grief oppressed,
how I thy precepts love;
of mercy from above.
160 As from the birth of time thy truth
So shall thy righteous judgments, firm, has held thro' ages past,
to endless ages last.

161 Tho' mighty tyrants, without cause,
Thy sacred word has pow'r alone
162 And yet that word my joyful breast
Nor conquest, nor the spoils of war,
163 Perfidious practices and lies
But to thy laws affection bear,
164 Sev'n times a day, with grateful voice,
Becaufe I find thy judgments all 165 Secure, substantial peace have they
No smiling mischief them can tempt, 166 For thy salvation I have hop'd,
With cheerful zeal and strictest care
167 Thy testimonies I have kept,
Becaufe the love I bore to them
168 From strict observance of thy laws
Convinc'd that my most secret ways

169 To my request and earnest cry
Inspire my heart with heav'nly skill, 170 Let my repeated pray'r at last
According to thy plighted word,
171 Then shall my grateful lips return
When thou thy counfels haft reveal'd,
172 My tongue the praires of thy word
Because thy promises are all 173 Let thy almighty arm appear,
For I the laws thou haft ordain'd,
174 My soul has waited long to see
Nor comfort knew, but what thy laws,
175 Prolong my life, that I may finge
Whofe justice from the depths of woes
176 Like fome loft sheep I've stray'd, 'till I Thou, therefore, Lord, thy fervant feek,

PSALM CXX.

1 IN deep diftrefs I oft have cry'd
To God, who never yet deny'd to rescue me, oppreff with wrongs.
2 Once more, O Lord, deliv'rance fend,
From lying lips my foul defend,
and from the rage of fland'ring tongues:

3 What little profit can accrue,
And yet what heavy wrath is due,
O thou perfidious tongue, to thee!
4 Thy fting upon thyfelf fhall turn;
Of lafting flames that fiercely burn,
the constant fuel thou fhalt be.
PSALM CXXI. CXXII. CXXIII. CXXIV.

5 But O! how wretched is my doom, Who am a sojourner become in barren Mezech's desert soil!
With Kedar's wicked tents enclos'd,
   To lawless vagabons expos'd,
   who live on nought but theft and spoil!

6 My hapless dwelling is with those Who peace and amity oppose,
   and pleasure take in others harms!

7 Sweet peace is all I court and seek;
   But when to them of peace I speak,
   they straight cry out, "To arms! to arms!"

PSALM CXXI.

1 TO Sion's hill I lift my eyes,
2 From Sion's hill and Sion's God,
3 Then thou, my soul, in safety rest,
4 His watchful care, that Israel guards,
5 Shelter'd beneath th' Almighty's wings
6 Where neither sun nor moon shall thee
7 From common accidents of life
8 From the blind strokes of chance, and foes
9 At home, abroad, in peace, in war, Conduet thee thro' life's pilgrimage from thence expecting aid;
   who heav'n and earth has made.
   thy guardian will not sleep;
   will Israel's monarch keep.
   thou shalt securely rest;
   by day or night molest.
   thy God shall thee defend;
   safe to thy journey's end.

PSALM CXXII.

1 O 'TWAS a joyful found to hear
   Up, Israel, to the temple haste,
2 At Salem's courts we must appear
3 In strong and beauteous order rang'd,
4 'Tis thither, by divine command,
5 Tribunals stand erected there,
6 Where neither sun nor moon shall thee
7 May peace within thy sacred walls
8 For my dear brethren's sake, and friends
9 But most of all I'll seek thy good For Sion and the temple's fake,
   our tribes devoutly say,
   and keep your festivals day.
   with our assembled pow'rs, like her united tow'rs.
   the tribes of God repair,
   his name with praise and pray'r.
   where equity takes place;
   of royal David's race.
   for they shall prosper be,
   who bear true love to thee.
   a conflant guest be found,
   thy palaces be crown'd.
   a conflant guest appear!
   and ever with thee well,
   where God vouchsafes to dwell.

PSALM CXXIII.

1, 2 ON thee, who dwell'st above the skies,
   For mercy wait my longing eyes,
   As servants watch their masters hands,
   And maids their mistresses commands.

3, 4 O then have mercy on us, Lord,
   Thy gracious aid to us afford;
   To us, whom cruel foes opprefs,
   Grown rich and proud, by our dif-\itres.

PSALM CXXIV.

1 HAD not the Lord (may Israel say)
2 Had he not then espous'd our cause, been pleas'd to interpose,
   when men against us rose,
3. 4, 5. Their wrath had swallow'd us alive. Their spite and pride's united floods.

6 But praise'd be our eternal Lord,
   Nor to their savage jaws gave up

7 Our soul is like a bird escap'd,
The snare is broke, their hopes are cross'd,

8 Secure in his almighty name
   Who, as he made both heav'n and earth,
   and rag'd without control:
   had quite o'erwhelm'd our soul.
   who refcu'd us that day,
   our threaten'd lives a prey.
   from out the fowler's net;
   and we at freedom set.
   our confidence remains,
   of both sole monarch reigns.

PSALM CXXV.

1 WHO place on Sion's God their trust,
   Like Sion's rock shall stand;
   by his almighty hand.

2 Look how the hills on ev'ry side
   So stands the Lord around his saints Jerusalem enclose;
   to guard them from their foes.

3 The wicked may afflict the just,
   Nor force him by despair to seek but ne'er too long opprefs, who righteous deeds affect;

4 Be good, O righteous God to those
   The heart that innocence retains,
   let innocence protect.
   the Lord shall soon destroy;

5 All those who walk in crooked paths,
   Cut off th' unjust, but crown the faints with lasting peace and joy.
   with the Lord shall soon destroy.

---

PSALM CXXVI.

1 WHEN Sion's God her sons recall'd
   It seem'd at first a pleasing dream of what we wish'd to see;

2 But soon in unaccustom'd mirth
   And sung our great Restorer's praise
   we did our voice employ;
   in thankful hymns of joy.

3 'Twas great, say they, 'twas wondrous great,
   The Lord has done great things, whereof much more should we confess;
   we reap the glad successes.

4 To us bring back the remnant, Lord,
   More welcome than refreshing show'r's of Israel's captive bands, to parch'd and thirsty lands.

5 That we, whose work commenc'd in tears
   'Til finish'd with success, to make may see our labours thrive,
   our drooping hearts revive.

6 Tho' he deponds that sow's his grain,
   To bind his full-car'd sheaves, and bring yet doubtless he shall come the joyful harvest home.

PSALM CXXVII.

1 WE build with fruitless cost, unless Unles the Lord the city keep,
   the Lord the pile sustains;

2 In vain we rise before the day,
   Allow no respite to our toil;
   the watchman wakes in vain.
   and late to rest repair,
   and eat the bread of care.

3 Children, those comforts of our life,
   He gives a numerous race of heirs,
   he on his faints bestows;
   their nights with sound repose.
   are presents from the Lord;
   as piety's reward.
As arrows in a giant's hand,
Ev'n so the sons of sprightly youth
He needs not fear to meet his foe, when marching forth to war,
their parents safeguard are.

when prevailing arms;
at law, or war's alarms.

THE man is blest that fears the Lord,
But keeps his steps confin'd with care
3 His wife, like a fair fertile vine,
4 Who fears the Lord shall prosper thus;
5 He shall live on, 'till heirs from him
6 He shall live on, 'till heirs from him
7 Which in his arms no reaper takes,
8 No traveller, that pass'd by,
2 With infant innocence thou know'ft
Compos'd to quiet, like a babe
3 Like me, let Israel hope in God,
Both now and ever trust in him,

I have myself demean'd;
that from the breast is wean'd;
his aid alone implore;
who lives for evermore.

PSALM CXXXII.

1 LET David, Lord, a constant place
Let all the sorrows he endur'd
2 Remember what a solemn oath
How to the mighty God he vow'd,
3, 4 I will not go into my house,
Nor soft repose mall close my eyes,
5 'Til for the Lord's design'd abode,
'Til I a decent place of rest for Jacob's God have found.
6 Th' appointed place, with shouts of joy,
And made the woods and neighboring fields
7 O with due reverence let us then
And, prostrate at his footstool fall'n,
8 Arise, O Lord, and now present thy constant place of rest;
Be that, not only with thy ark,
9, 10 Clothe thou thy priests with righteousness
And, for thy servant David's sake,
11 God sware to David in his truth,
One of thy offspring, after thee,
12 And if thy feed my cov'nant keep,
Their children too upon thy throne
13, 14 For Sion does, in God's esteem,
His place of everlasting rest,
15, 16 Herflores, says he, I will increase,
Her fants shall shout for joy, her priests
17 There David's pow'r shall long remain
And my anointed servant there
18 The faces of his vanquish'd foes
Whilst, with confirm'd succefs, his crown

PSALM CXXXIII.

1 HOW vast must their advantage be!
Who live like brethren, and consent
2 True love is like that precious oil,
Ran down his beard, and o'er his robes
3 'Tis like refreshing dew, which does
Or like the early drops that fall
For Sion is the chosen seat,
The promis'd blessing has ordain'd,

how great their pleasure prove!
in offices of love!
which, pour'd on Aaron's head,
its costly moisture shed.
on Hermon's top distil;
on Sion's fruitful hill.
where the almighty King and life's eternal spring.

PSALM CXXXIV.

1 BLESS God, ye servants, that attend
That in his temple, night by night,

upon his solemn state,
with humble reverence wait:
VISITING THE SICK.
POALM CXXXV.

2. 3 Within his house lift up your hands,
From Sion blest thy Israel, Lord, and blest his holy name;
who earth and heav'n didst frame.

O PRAISE the Lord with one consent,
Let all the servants of the Lord attend with constant care;
with humble zeal repair.

Praise him all ye that in his house
With those that to his utmost courts by glad experience found;
above all gods is crown'd.

For this our truest interest is,
And with loud songs to blest his name,
that earth's deep caverns fill.
which, pois'd in liquid air,

For God his own peculiar choice
And Israel's offspring for his own performs his sovereign will;
that earth's deep caverns fill.

That God is great, we often have
And seen how he with wondrous power
and he, with vengeful hand,
tho' Egypt's mourning land,

For he with unrefrined strength
In heav'n and earth, and wat'ry stores,
and he, with vengeful hand,
thro' Egypt's mourning land.

He raises vapours from the ground,
Fall down at last in showers,
which, pois'd in liquid air.
tho' Egypt's mourning land.

He dreadful signs and wonders shew'd Nor Pharaoh could his plagues escape, mord his num'rous hofs.
and all his num'rous hosts.

'Twas he that various nations smote, Sihon and Og, and all besides and mighty kings supp'rest'd;
who Canaan's land possest'd.

Their land upon his chosen race
For which his fame shall always last,
o'er all the heathen lands,
the work of human hands.

For God shall soon his people's cause Repent him of his wrath, and turn his kindled rage away,
o'er all the heathen lands,

Those idols, whose false worship spreads
Are made of silver and of gold,
not fee with polish'd eyes;
no breath their mouth supplies.

They move not their fictitious tongues,
Their counterfeited ears are deaf,
that all their skill apply
on them for aid rely.

As fenelefs as themselves are they
To make them, or in dang'rous times
that all their skill apply
on them for aid rely.

Their just returns of thanks to God
Nor let the priests of Aaron's race let grateful Israel pay;
to blest the Lord delay.

Their sense of his unbounded love
And let all those that fear the Lord let Levi's house express;
his name for ever blest.

Let all with thanks his wondrous works
Let them in Salem, where he dwells, in Sion's courts proclaim;
exalt his holy name.

PSALM CXXXVI.

1 TO God, the mighty Lord,
To him due praise afford,
for God does prove
His boundless love
your joyful thanks repeat:
as good as he is great:
our constant friend;
shall never end.
2, 3 To him whose wondrous pow'r
Whom earthly kings adore,
For God, &c.

4, 5 By his almighty hand
The heav'n, by his command,
For God, &c.

6 He spread the ocean round
And made the rising ground
For God, &c.

7, 8, 9 Thro' heav'n he did display
The sun to rule by day,
For God, &c.

10, 11, 12 He struck the first-born dead
And thence his people led
For God, &c.

13, 14 By him the raging sea,
Disclos'd a middle way,
For God, &c.

15 Where soon he overthrew
Who, daring to pursue,
For God, &c.

16, 17, 18 Thro' deserts vast and wild
And famous princes foil'd,
For God, &c.

19, 20 Sihon, whose potent hand
And Og, whose flerrn command
For God, &c.

21, 22 And of his wondrous grace,
He gave to Israel's race,
For God, &c.

23, 24 He, in our depth of woes,
And from our cruel foes
For God, &c.

25, 26 He does the food supply
To God who reigns on high,
For God will prove
His boundless love

all other Gods obey,
this grateful homage pay.

amazing works are wrought;
were to perfection brought.

about the spacious land;
above the waters fiand.

his num'rous hofts of light;
the moon and stars by night.

of Egypt's stubborn land;
with his refiels less hand.

as if in pieces rent,
thro' which his people went.

proud Pharaoh and his house,
were in the billows loft.

he led the chosen seed;
and made great monarchs bleed.

great Ammon's sceptre sway'd;
rich Bashan's land obey'd.

their lands, whom he destroy'd,
to be by them enjoy'd.

on us with favour thought,
in peace and safety brought.

on which all creatures live;
eternal praises give.
our constant friend;
shall never end.

PSALM CXXXVII.

1 WHEN we, our weary limbs to rest,
We wept, with doleful thoughts oppress,
Our harps, that, when with joy we sung,
With silent strings neglected hung.

Mean-while our foes, who all conspir'd,
Music and mirth of us requir'd,
How shall we tune our voice to sing?
Shall hymns of joy to God our King fat down by proud Euphrates stream, and Sion was our mournful theme.

were wont their tuneful parts to bear,
on willow-trees that wither'd there.
to triumph in our flaundr' wrongs,
"Come sing us one of Sion's songs."
or touch our harps with skilful hands?
be sung by slaves in foreign lands?
PSALM CXXXVIII. CXXXIX.

5 O Salem! our once happy seat,
Let then my trembling hand forget
6 If I to mention thee forbear;
Or if I sing one cheerful air,
7 Remember, Lord, how Edom's race,
Cry'd out, "Her flately walls deface,
8 Proud Babel's daughter, doom'd to be
Bles'd is the man who shall to thee
9 Thrice bles'd, who, with just rage pos-Shall snatch thy infants from thy

When I of thee forgetful prove,
The speaking strings with art to move!
Eternal silence seize my tongue;
'Til thy deliv'rance is my song.
In thy own city's fatal day,
And with the ground quite level lay."
Of grief and woe the wretched prey;
The wrongs thou laid'ft on us repay.
And deaf to all the parents moans,

[5 left,
Shall snatch thy infants from thy [5 breath,

PSALM CXXXVIII.

1 WITH my whole heart, my God and King,
Before the Gods with joy I'll sing,
2 I'll worship at thy sacred seat;
The praises of thy truth repeat,
3 Thou graciously inclin'dst thine ear,
And when my soul was pres'dd with fear,
4 Therefore shall ev'ry earthly prince Whom thefe admir'd events convince 5 They all thy wondrous ways, O Lord,
And all thy glorious acts record,
6 For God, altho' enthron'd on high,
The proud far off his scornful eye
7 Tho' I with troubles am oppress'd,
Relieve my foul when molt diffrefs'd,
8 The Lord, whose mercies ever laft,
And, mindful of his favours past,

Where, Lord, could I thy influence shun?
Or whither from thy presence run?

If up to heav'n I take my flight,
'Tis there thou dwell'st enthron'd in light;
Or dive to hell's infernal plains,
'Tis there almighty vengeance reigns.

If I the morning's wings could gain,
And fly beyond the western main,

Thy twifter hand would first arrive,
And there arrest thy fugitive.

Or should I try to shun thy sight,
Beneath the fable wings of night:
Oneglance from thee, one piercing ray,
Would kindle darkness into day.

1, 2 THOU, Lord, by strictest search,
Half known
My rising up and lying down;

And, with thy love inspir'd,
O'er all thy works admir'd.

With cheerful songs shall bles's;
Thy awful pow'r confefs,
Does thence the poor respect;
Beholds with juft neglect.
He shall my foes disfarm,
And keep me safe from harm.
Shall fix my happy state;
Shall his own works complete.

PSALM CXXXIX.

5 Surrounded by thy pow'r I stand,
On ev'ry fide I find thy hand.
6 O skill, for human reach too high!
Too dazzling bright for mortal eye!
7 O could I so perfidious be,
To think of once deferting thee,

50 Salem! our once happy seat,
Let then my trembling hand forget
6 If I to mention thee forbear;
Or if I sing one cheerful air,
7 Remember, Lord, how Edom's race,
Cry'd out, "Her flately walls deface,
8 Proud Babel's daughter, doom'd to be
Bles'd is the man who shall to thee
9 Thrice bles'd, who, with just rage pos-
Shall snatch thy infants from thy

When I of thee forgetful prove,
The speaking strings with art to move!
Eternal silence seize my tongue;
'Til thy deliv'rance is my song.
In thy own city's fatal day,
And with the ground quite level lay."
Of grief and woe the wretched prey;
The wrongs thou laid'ft on us repay.
And deaf to all the parents moans,
12 The veil of night is no disguise,
No screen from thy all-searching eyes:
Thro' midnight shades thou findst thy way,
As in the blazing noon of day.

13 Thou know'st the texture of my heart,
My reins and ev'ry vital part;
Each single thread in nature's loom,
By thee was cover'd in the womb.

14 I'll praise thee from whose hands I came,
A work of such a curious frame;
The wonders thou in me haft shewn,
My soul with grateful joy must own.

15 Thine eyes my substance did survey,
While yet a lifeless mass it lay,
In secret how exactly wrought,
Ere from its dark enclofure brought.

16 Thou didst the shapeless embryo fee,
Its parts were register'd by thee:
Thou saw'lt the dailygrowth they took,
Form'd by the model of thy book.

17 Let me acknowledge too, O God,
That since this maze of life I trod,
Thy thoughts of love to me surmount,
The pow'r of numbers to recount.

18 Far sooner could I reckon o'er
The lands upon the ocean's shore:
Each morn, revising what I've done,
I find th'account but new begun.

19 The wicked thou shalt lay, O God:
Depart from me, ye men of blood:
Whose tongues heav'n's Majesty profane,
And take th'Almighty's name in vain.

20 Who practice enmity to thee
Shall utmost hatred have from me:
Such men I utterly detest,
As if they were my foes profest.

21 Lord, hate not I their impious crew,
Who thee with enmity pursue?
And does not grief my heart opprefs,
When reprobates thy law transgress?

22 Who practice enmity to thee
Shall utmost hatred have from me:
Such men I utterly detest,
As if they were my foes profest.

23 Search, try, O God, my thoughts and heart,
If mischief lurks in any part;
Correct me where I go astray,
And guide me in thy perfect way.

PSALM CXL.

1 PRESERVE me, Lord, from crafty foes
2 And from the sons of violence,
3 Their fland'ring tongues the serpent's sting
Between their lips the gall of alps
4 Preserve me, Lord, from wicked hands,
A prey to sons of violence,
5 The proud for me have laid a snare,
With traps and gins, where'er I move
6 But thus environ'd with diftre's,
Lord, hear my supplicating voice,
7 O Lord the God, whose saving strength
And cover'd my advent'rous head
8 Permit not their unjust designs
Left they, encourag'd by success,
9 Let first their chiefs the fad effects
The blast of their envenom'd breath
10 Let them who kindled first the flame,
The pit they digg'd for me, be made 11 'Tho' flander's breath may raise a storm,
Their rage does but the torrent swell
12 God will affer the poor man's cause,
The just shall celebrate his praise,
PSALM CXLI.

1 TO thee, O Lord, my cries ascend,
   And with accustomed pity hear
2 Instead of off'ring, let my pray'r
   My lifted hands supply the place
3 From hasty language curb my tongue,
   Still keep the portal of my lips
4 Nor let me in the booty share
5 Let upright men reprove my faults,
6 When sulking in Engedi's rock,
7 But, Lord, to thee I first direct
8 To God at last I pray'd;
9 Do thou preserve me from the snares

O haste to my relief;
the accents of my grief.
like morning incense rife;
of ev'n'ning sacrifice.
and let a constant guard
with wary silence barr'd.
my heart and hands restrain;
of their unrighteous gain.
and I shall think them kind;
I their reproof shall find:
I shall for them addrefs,
like me, to fore distress.
I to their chiefs appeal,
when I had pow'r to kill.
our scatter'd ruins lie
the fever'd splinters fly.
my supplicating eyes,
whose truft on thee relies.
that wicked hands have laid;
while my escape is made.

PSALM CXLII.

1 TO God with mournful voice
2 Made him the umpire of my cause,
3 Thou didst my steps direct,
   For where I thought to walk secure
4 I look'd, but found no friend
   All refuge fail'd, no man vouchsaf'd
5 To God at last I pray'd;
6 Reduc'd to greatest straits,
7 That I may praise thy name,

in deep distress I pray'd;
my wrongs before him laid.
when my griev'd soul despair'd;
they had their traps prepar'd.
to own me in distress;
his pity or redrefs.
 Now, Lord, my refuge art,
'til life itself depart.
to see I make my moan;
for me too pow'rful grown.
my soul from prison bring;
assembled saints shall sing.

PSALM CXLIII.

1 LORD, hear my pray'r, and to my cry
   In thy accustomed faith and truth
2 Nor at thy strict tribunal bring
   For in thy fight no living man
3 The spiteful foe pursues my life,
   He drives me into caves as dark
4 My spirit therefore is o'erwhelm'd,
   My mournful heart grows desolate,

thy wonted audience lend;
a gracious answer send.
thy servant to be try'd;
can e'er be justify'd.
whose comforts all are fled;
as mansions of the dead.
and sinks within my breast;
with heavy woes oppress.
I call to mind the days of old,
My former dangers and escape.
To thee my hands in humble pray'r
My soul for thy refreshment thirsts.
Hear me with speed; my spirit fails;
Left I become forlorn, like them.
Thy kindness early let me hear,
Teach me the way where I should go.
Do thou, O Lord, from all my foes
A safe retreat against their rage.
Thou art my God, thy righteous will Let thy good spirit lead and keep.
O for the fake of thy great name
For thy truth's fake to me diffret'sd.
In pity to my fuff'ring, Lord,
Slay them that persecute a soul and wonders thou hast wrought:
employ my muting thought.
I fervently stretch out;
like land oppref'sd with drought.
thy face no longer hide,
that in the grave reside.
whose trull on thee depends;
my soul to thee ascends.
preferve and let me free;
my soul implores from thee.
instruct me to obey;
my soul in thy right way.
reduce my foes to fame;
devoted to thy name.

FOR ever blest be God the Lord,
At once both strength and skill afford.
His goodness is my fort and tow'r,
In him I trust, whose matchless pow'r
Lord, what in man that thou shou'dft love
What in his offpring could thee move
The life of man does quickly fade,
His days are like a flying shade.
In solemn state, O God, descend,
The smoking hills asunder rend.
Discharge thy dreadful lightningsround,
Them with thy pointed arrows wound.
Do thou, O Lord, from heav'n engage
And snatch me from the stormy rage
Fight thou against my foreign foes
Who, tho' in solemn leagues they close.
So I to thee, O King of kings!
And instruments of various strings!
"God does to kings his aid afford,
"'Tis he that from the murl'ring word
Fight thou against my foreign foes,
Who, tho' in solemn leagues they close.
Then our young sons like trees shall [grow,
Our daughters shall like pillars show,
Our garners, fill'd with various store,
Our sheep, increasing more and more,
who does his needful aid impart;
who does his needful aid impart;
to wield my arms with warlike art.
to wield my arms with warlike art.
my strong deliv'rance and my shield;
my strong deliv'rance and my shield;
makes to my sway fierce nations yield.
makes to my sway fierce nations yield.
fuch tender care of him to take?
fuch great account of him to make?
his thoughts but empty are and vain;
of whose short flay no signs remain.
of whose short flay no signs remain.
whilst heav'n its lofty head inclines;
of thy approach the awful signs.
of thy approach the awful signs.
and make my scatter'd foes retreat;
and make my scatter'd foes retreat;
and their destruction soon complete.
and their destruction soon complete.
thy boundless pow'r: my foes to quell;
thy boundless pow'r: my foes to quell;
of threat'ning waves that proudly swell.
of threat'ning waves that proudly swell.
who utter speeches falfe and vain;
who utter speeches falfe and vain;
their sworn engagements ne'er maintain.
their sworn engagements ne'er maintain.
in new-made hymns my voice shall raise.
in new-made hymns my voice shall raise.
shall help me thus to sing thy praise.
shall help me thus to sing thy praise.
to them his sure salvation lends;
to them his sure salvation lends;
his servant David still defends.
his servant David still defends.
who utter speeches falfe and vain;
who utter speeches falfe and vain;
their sworn engagements ne'er maintain.
their sworn engagements ne'er maintain.
well planted in a fruitful place;
well planted in a fruitful place;
design'd some royal court to grace.
design'd some royal court to grace.
shall us and ours with plenty feed;
shall us and ours with plenty feed;
shall thousands and ten thousands breed.
shall thousands and ten thousands breed.
PSALM CXLV. CXLVI. 103

14 Strong shall our lab'ring oxen grow, nor in their constant labour faint;
Whilst we no war nor slav'ry know, and in our streets hear no complaint.
15 Thrice happy is that people's case, whole various blessings thus abound;
Who God's true worship still embrace, and are with his protection crown'd.

PSALM CXLV.

1, 2 THEE I'll extol, my God and King,
This tribute daily I will bring,
Thou, Lord, beyond compare,
thy endless praise proclaim;
Thy majesty, with boundless height,
and ever blest thy name.
4 Renown'd for mighty acts, thy fame
From age to age thy glorious name shall be the constant theme.
7 The praise that to thy love belongs,
Thy truth of all their grateful songs shall to all thy works express'd;
10 They, with the glorious prospect fir'd,
And thy great pow'r, by all admir'd,
shall thus to all be known;
13 His fixed fast throne, from changes free,
His boundless sway no end shall see,
and makes the prostrate rise;
16 Whate'er their various wants require,
And so fulfils the just desire
and their troubles soon compose,
17, 18 How holy is the Lord! how just!
For his kind aid all creatures call,
How nigh to him, who, with firm truist,
who timely food supplies.
19 He grants the full desires of those,
And will their troubles soon compose,
of ev'ry thing that lives.
20 The Lord preserves all those with care,
But sinners, who his vengeance dare,
whom grateful love employs;
21 My time to come, in praises spent,
And all mankind, with one consent,
when they his aid implore.
and makes the prostrate rise;
14, 15 The Lord does them support that fall,
For his kind aid all creatures call,
and their troubles soon compose,
who timely food supplies.
16 Whate'er their various wants require,
And so fulfils the just desire
and makes the prostrate rise;
17, 18 How holy is the Lord! how just!
For his kind aid all creatures call,
How nigh to him, who, with firm truist,
who timely food supplies.
19 He grants the full desires of those,
And will their troubles soon compose,
of ev'ry thing that lives.
20 The Lord preserves all those with care,
But sinners, who his vengeance dare,
whom grateful love employs;
21 My time to come, in praises spent,
And all mankind, with one consent,
when they his aid implore.

PART II,

14, 15 The Lord does them support that fall,
For his kind aid all creatures call,
and makes the prostrate rise;
16 Whate'er their various wants require,
And so fulfils the just desire
and their troubles soon compose,
17, 18 How holy is the Lord! how just!
For his kind aid all creatures call,
How nigh to him, who, with firm truist,
who timely food supplies.
19 He grants the full desires of those,
And will their troubles soon compose,
of ev'ry thing that lives.
20 The Lord preserves all those with care,
But sinners, who his vengeance dare,
whom grateful love employs;
21 My time to come, in praises spent,
And all mankind, with one consent,
when they his aid implore.

PSALM CXLVI.

1, 2 O PRAISE the Lord, and thou, my soul,
His wondrous love, while life shall last,
1 On kings, the greatest sons of men, for ever bless his name:
They cannot save in dang'rous times, my constant praise shall claim.

20 The Lord preserves all those with care,
But sinners, who his vengeance dare,
whom grateful love employs;
21 My time to come, in praises spent,
And all mankind, with one consent,
when they his aid implore.

1, 2 O PRAISE the Lord, and thou, my soull
His wondrous love, while life shall last,
On kings, the greatest sons of men, for ever bless his name:
They cannot save in dang'rous times, my constant praise shall claim.

Depriv’d of breath, to dust they turn,
And all their thoughts and vain designs
Then happy he, who Jacob's God
Who still, with well-plac’d hope, the Lord
The Lord, who made both heav’n and earth,
Will never quit his stedfast truth,
The poor, opprest, from all their wrongs
He gives the hungry needful food,
By him the blind receive their fight,
With kind regard and tender love
The strangers he preserves from harm,
Defends the widow, and the wiles
The God that does in Sion dwell
From age to age his reign endures:

and there neglected lie,
together with them die.
for his protector takes;
his constant refuge makes.
and all that they contain,
nor make his promise vain.
are eas’d by his decree;
and lets the prisoners free.
the weak and fall’n he rears:
he for the righteous cares.
the orphan kindly treats,
of wicked men defeats.
is our eternal King:
let all his praises sing.

PSALM CXLVII.

O PRAISE the Lord with hymns of joy,
For pleasant, good, and comely tis
His holy God will build,
Bring back his people, tho’ dispers’d
He kindly heals the broken hearts,
He tells the number of the stars,
Great is the Lord, and great his pow’r,
The meek he raiseth, and throws down
To God, the Lord, a hymn of praise
To songs of triumph tune the harp,
He covers heav’n with clouds, and thence Thro’ him, on mountain-tops, the grafs
He savage beasts, that loosely range,
He feeds the raven’s tender brood,
He values not the warlike steed,
The nimble foot that swiftly runs
But he to him that fears his name
To him that on his boundless grace
Let Sion and Jerusalem
Who fenc’d their gates with massy bars,
Thro’ all their borders he gives peace,
He speaks the word, and what he wills
Large flakes of snow, like fleecy wool,
And hoary frost, like ashes spread,
When, join’d to these, he does his hail
Who can against his piercing cold
He sends his word, which melts the ice;
And soon the flames, congeal’d before,
By him his statutes and decrees
And still to Israel’s chosen feed
No other nations this can boast;
To heathen lands his oracles,
and celebrate his fame!
to praise his holy name.
Tho’ levell’d with the ground;
Thro’ all the nations round.
and all their wounds does close;
their several names he knows.
his wisdom has no bound;
the wicked to the ground.
with grateful voices sing;
and strike each warbling string.
refreshing rain bestows:
with wondrous plenty grows.
with timely food supplies;
and stops their hungry cries.
but does his strength disdain;
no prize from him can gain.
his tender love extends;
with stedfast hope depends.
to God their praise address;
and does their children blest.
with finest wheat they’re fed;
is done as soon as said.
defend at his command;
is scatter’d o’er the land.
in little morfels break, secure defences make?
he makes his winds to blow;
in plenteous currents flow.
to Jacob’s sons were shown;
his righteous laws are known.
nor did he e’er afford
and knowledge of his word.
Hallelujah.
PSALM CXLVIII.

1, 2 Ye boundless realms of joy,
Exalt your Maker's fame;
His praise your song employ
Above the starry frame:
Your voices raise,
Ye Cherubim
And Seraphim,
To sing his praise.

3, 4 Thou moon that rulest the night,
And sun that guid'st the day,
Ye glinting stars of light,
To him your homage pay.
His praise declare,
Ye heavens above,
And clouds that move
In liquid air.

5, 6 Let them adore the Lord,
And praise his holy name,
By whose almighty word
They all from nothing came:
And all shall last,
From changes free:
His firm decree
Stands ever fast.

7, 8 Let earth her tribute pay;
Praise him, ye dreadful whales,
And fish that thro' the sea
Glide swift with glittering scales:
Fire, hail, and snow,
And milky air,
And winds that, where
He bids them, blow.

9, 10 By hills and mountains (all
In grateful concert join'd,
By cedars flately tall,
And trees for fruit design'd;
By ev'ry beast,
And creeping thing,
And fowls of wing,
His name be blest.

11, 12 Let all of royal birth,
With those of humbler frame,
And judges of the earth,
His matchless praise proclaim.
In this design
Let youths with maids,
And hoary heads
With children join.

13 United zeal be shown,
His wondrous name to raise,
Whose glorious name alone
Deserves our endless praise.
Earth's utmost ends
His pow'r obey:
His glorious sway
The sky transcends.

14 His chosen saints to grace,
He sets them up on high,
And favours Israel's race,
Who still to him are nigh.
O therefore raise
Your grateful voice,
And still rejoice
The Lord to praise.

PSALM CXLIX.

1, 2 O Praise ye the Lord,
Prepare your glad voice,
His praise in the great assembly to sing.
In our great Creator
let Israel rejoice;
And children of Sion
be glad in their King.

3, 4 Let them his great name extol in the dance;
With timbrel and harp
his praises express,
Who always takes pleasure
his saints to advance,
And with his salvation
the humble to bless.

5, 6 With glory adorn'd his people shall sing
To God, who their beds
with safety does shield;
Their mouths fill'd with praises
of him their great King; Whilst a two-edg'd sword
their right-hand shall wield, 7, 8 Just vengeance to take
for injuries past;
To punish those lands
for ruin design'd;
With chains, as their captives,
to tie their kings fast,
With fetters of iron their nobles to bind.

9 Thus shall they make good,
when them they destroy,
The dreadful decree
which God does proclaim:
Such honour and triumph
his faints shall enjoy;
O therefore for ever exalt his great name.

PSALM CL.

1 O PRAISE the Lord in that blest place
Praise him in heav'n, where he his face
2 Praise him for all the mighty acts,
His kindnefs this return exacts,
3 Let the shrill trumpet's warlike voice
Praise him with harp's melodious noife,
4 Let virgin troops soft timbrels bring,
Let instruments of various string,
5 Let them who joyful hymns compose,
Cymbals of common use, and tho'fe
6 Let all that vital breath enjoy,
In just returns of praise employ:

from whence his goodness largely flows:
unveil'd in perfect glory shows:
which he in our behalf has done;
with which our praise should equal run.
makerocks and hills his praise rebound;
and gentle psalty's silver sound.
and some with graceful motion dance;
with organs join'd, his praise advance.
to cymbals set their songs of praise!
that loudly found on solemn days.
the breath he does to them afford,
let ev'ry creature praise the Lord.

GLORIA PATRI.

1 TO Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore;
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

As Psalm 25.

2 To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be;
As 'twas, and is, and shall be so
To all eternity.

As the 100 Psalm.

3 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom earth and heav'n adore,
Be glory, as it was of old,
Is now, and shall be evermore.

As Psalm 37, and last part of Psalm 113.

4 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heav'n's triumphant host,
And suffering saints on earth adore,
Be glory, as in ages past,

As now it is, and so shall last
When time itself must be no more.

As Psalm 148.

5 To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit, ever blest,
Eternal Three in One,
All worship be address'd,
As heretofore.
It was, is now,
And shall be so
For evermore.

As Psalm 149.

6 By angels in heav'n
Of ev'ry degree,
And saints upon earth,
All praise be address'd
To God in three persons,
One God ever blest,
As it has been, now is,
And always shall be.
